ASHEVILLE DAILY CITIZEN

The Dail's Civitas, Democratic, is published every afternos a except Sunday) at the following carry surfectly cash:

MONDAY OCTOBER 3, 1892

North Carolinians, resident in Balti more, have subscribed over twelve han dred dollars and forwarded it to Chair man Summons of the Democratic Execu tive committee "as a fund to be used to maintain white supremacy in North Car olina." In so doing they take the op portunity of hoping that 'the people of our dear State, intuitful of our glor ious record to peace and war, will rail around the banner of Democracy to shield the State and save her from the combination of Radicalism and Weaverism which threatens to destroy not only good government but peace and prosperity within her borders. November should return the right maswer to this generous act.

THE CITE EN hears that the people of the eastern part of the State, who are really Democrats feel greatly encouraged over the size of the Weaver demonstration in Raleigh last week. It had been extensively advertised that every county in the State would be represented by somes and thousands of Third party men, and that the total of the crowd would be any where from fifteen to twenty thousand The most desperate efforts were made to get out every man who would probable vote for Weaver, and the result was that mot to exceed two thousand Third street men heard the villifier of the South spen at the capital. It seems primable that the strength of the Wenverites in this State has been greatly oversestamated.

THEY had an "American top place ban ner" to greet Mckinley at Philadelphia, and every time it was waved the Maior put his hand into the breast of his cont and bowed and looked very virrouss and highly pleased with the tribute to his provered bill. It now appears: however, on the authority of Helicor Mo-Chere of the Uniodephia Times that the busher "was manufactured by Mr. William H. Edwards of the life To-Plate company, near Cardill, Wales, superintendent, Mr. Richard L wis and later bought and repaired a mill of Nonristown, imported his own place from Wales, imported his own stalled works men, and dipped the English plates it English rin be finglish workman?" Worth Talking About. While standing in the lobby of one of Asheville's hotels a few days ago I heard traveling man relate to the clerk an xperience he had had the afternoon beme with one of Ashevil e's very unmerus hackmen who cumber the ground round the passenger depot upon the rrival of every train. This gentleman id be had come in on the late train, and, there being no streetene at that end fithe line just then, he decided to take a arriage. He did this without unquiring he Jehu's rate of charge. He was taken one of the hotels of the city, unloaded deharged, what do you suppose One dollar 1 . . .

The man was a stranger to Asheville, his was his first visit, and being a man I sense be was not favorably impressed by this manner of reception. I suppose e rebelled against be extortionate targe of the linekman. But if he did it charge of the linekman. But if he did it was of little use, because in Asheville bere is no low to keep a hackman from hirging whatever he may see fit. All he same there should be, I don't know whether there is a license tax on carriages. It would be the proper thing for the Alienan to put a sterner tax or Attermen to part a termse tax or with that of Pension Commissioner Raum with that of Pension Commissioner Raum is and besides that passan ordinance is an extraction of the source of the control of the source in the charge more than 25 cents for ming a person up town.
