FOUR HUNDRED YEARS AGO

A GREAT DAY FOR COLUMBUS AND NEW YORK.

The Anniversary Day Proper is Celebrated With All Pomp and Ceremony and in a Highly Successful Way.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Today was Columbus anniversary day proper. It is a Columbus legal holiday, and one that will long be remembered. With the rising of the sun, there were guns firing at the Battery and other points of the city. Flags were hoisted at the Battery and at Old Fort, in Central park. Church bells were rung, and it was more like an old fashioned Fourth of July, than anything ever seen in New York.

The military parade started soon after 10 o'clock, under command of Gen. Martin McMahon. The line of march was from the Battery up Broadway to Fourth street, around Washington Square to Fifth Avenue, thence to Fourteenth street, to Fourth Avenue, to Seventeenth street, to Fifth Avenue, and at Fifty-ninth street the signal was given to disband. It is estimated over 35,000 men were in line, and it was the greatest military parade ever witnessed in America. Soldiers of all sorts participated. Over 6,000 militia men from neighboring States were in line. There was a regiment of cavalry and Indian soldiers, and the G. A. R. sent thousands of men.

The Atlanta Gate City Guards were as bright a body of soldiers as one would wish to see. They have been having a splendid time and made themselves prime favorites as gentlemen.

There was not standing room anywhere on the line of march, and fabulous prices were paid for window and balcony seats. The militia came in by thousands from the adjacent states and five companies were in uniform. A pretty sight was the landing of 300 men from the warships, who participated in the parade together with two thousand regular soldiers, West Point cadets, United States artillery, New York Naval Brigade, and the State guard.

The weather was fine, the decorations handsome and beautiful and everything tended to make the Columbus military parade a grand success.

MARCH, Oct. 12.—Columbus festivities began this morning. The city is beautifully decorated, American flags are conspicuous. Early mass in honor of Columbus, in all the churches was attended by immense throngs. A most impressive procession of professors and students of the Spanish University attired in gay, medieval costumes, and carrying ancient standards, marched through the principal streets.

ON TO POLK.

Crawford Has Rattled the Democratic in Rutherford.

Avr. Rutherford Co., Oct. 10.—If you want to know what genuine hospitality is, just stop with Frank Reynolds, as we are tonight, and you will know the full meaning of the word. If there are two people in North Carolina who have larger hearts than Mr. Reynolds and his good wife, I have never found them.

At Otter Creek today a splendid crowd met us, numbering between three and four hundred. No such congregation of citizens has assembled there for ten years. And Crawford gave the people the facts of the campaign red hot. Pritchard is really getting ashamed of the beggarly way in which he is forced to conduct his canvass. He was pressed so hard today that he declared there was at the present time one hundred and twenty-nine millions of dollars surplus in the United States treasury. Whether he made the statement because of his own ignorance, or because he thought Crawford was ignorant, I am not certain, but I know that he looked sick when Crawford showed the crowd how he was endeavoring to deceive them. Pritchard had to count the gold reserve for the redemption of the outstanding greenbacks, that he ought to know no honest administration would touch, before he made his surplus visible, but he was bound to say something to try and break the force of Crawford's showing as to the Republican management of the government's finances.

There are no more third party people to talk to now, and Crawford devotes his attention to Pritchard, and leaves Brother Brown to saw the air as he pleases. This is what caused Pritchard to dump the reserve into the treasury and make a surplus.

The campaign in Rutherford is now wound up. Tomorrow we move into Polk.

There is no doubt about this county being in line shape. Crawford has engaged the Democrats at every point, and they are thoroughly aroused and at work.

The county fair meets at Rutherfordton on Wednesday, and there will be a large crowd in attendance from every portion of the county. On Thursday Senator Ransom will speak at the fair grounds, and his magnificent presentation of the issues is about all that could be added to what has already been done in Rutherford.

You can rely upon good news from Rutherford on the 8th.

First frost fell here this morning, and the leaves look as sick as radishes when Crawford is talking.

STAMFORD, Conn., Oct. 12.—The Stamford Record has removed the Republican ticket from the head of its editorial columns, and announces that in the future the paper will be independent Democratic in politics, and will support the candidates of the Democratic party.

GEN. DE PEYSTER'S ORDER

HARRISON'S PICTURE NAILED TO HIS CHURCH.

Cleveland's Picture Nailed Over It, Which Was Pulled Down, But Nailed Up Again After a Fierce Struggle.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 10.—Residents of Madalin, in Dutchess county, have learned to expect almost anything from Gen. Watts De Peyster. On Saturday night when the carpenters quit work on the new De Peyster Memorial church, the General appeared upon the scene with a large engraving of President Harrison, which he ordered one of the men to place at the top of the steeple, which has just been completed. A carpenter obeyed the command.

On Sunday morning a crowd gathered around the church. The Democrats in the crowd determined to cover Harrison's picture with that of Cleveland. Despite the protests of many, a man ascended the perilous height, and soon placed the picture of the Democratic candidate over that of Harrison.

After much loud talking the excitement increased by a Republican attempting to climb up the scaffolding leading to the spire. He was pulled back, and a fierce struggle began, in which many prominent citizens joined. Suddenly the man broke away from the crowd and fore he could be pulled back, he ascended and took down the Cleveland picture he was greeted with wild cheering from one faction and stones from the other.

When another attempt was made by a Cleveland admirer to get up the steeple another fight ensued. This was continued half way in the steeple, and the crowd below stood speechless, expecting to see someone fall. When at length the Cleveland picture bearer succeeded in getting to the top the air below was deafening. Gen. De Peyster came out when the last picture had been put in place. He was almost beside himself with wrath, but in the howling mob his words were wasted.

The Democrats remained around the church all day, and though several of the boys were under the picture down it remained there the rest of the day. In the evening the elegy of the town decorated and the dignified affair from the pulpit.

Gen. De Peyster's action and the struggle on Sunday will be the chief topic of conversation in Madalin for a long time. Edward Farago, the well known Democrat, was one of the most interested spectators.—N. Y. Sun.

THE WICKED PURSUE

A Republican Candidate Not Satisfied With the Bible Even

GASTONIA, Oct. 10.—S. M. Hutton, Republican candidate for elector, was met here by J. R. Lewellyn, Democratic candidate. Each spoke an hour and a quarter. When Hutton arose to make his rejoinder several persons started to leave. Lewellyn asked his friends to stay and they returned. At this point Hutton said: "Yes, stay please; if you leave now, just as I start in, it will have to be said of you, 'The wicked pursue when no man fleeth.'"

This wholly unintentional and extremely ludicrous but apt transportation created one of the greatest storms of laughter ever heard in Gastonia.—Charlotte Observer.

GOES OVER TO THE DEMOCRATS

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., 10.—M. C. C. Church, heretofore one of the most prominent men in the Republican party of this State, the advisor and counsellor of the leaders, the man who has dictated the policy of that party more frequently than any other in this State, has announced himself as opposed to Harrison and Reid. His action has created consternation with the party in this State.

REPUBLICAN ORO CHIEF.

Manifestations of a Disposition to Climb Out of the Ice Wagon

COLUMBUS, Oct. 10.—S. M. Taylor, who heads the Republican State ticket as candidate for Secretary of State, is reported to be in great alarm over prospects of defeat.

William M. Hahn, Ohio's member of the Republican national committee, was formerly editor of the morning star in New York at the head of the committee's bureau of speakers for consultation on the threatening situation.

He held a private conference tonight in this city with such party leaders as Col. U. L. Foorman, Secretary John S. Malloy, of the Ohio Republican committee, S. M. Taylor and ex-Secretary of State Daniel J. Ryan.

Candidate Taylor is said to have warned the gathering that Ohio is lost unless something is done to change the trend of political sentiment.—N. Y. World.

KANSAS STAYS ALIGHT.

Who Will Be a Democratic State Ticket?

TOPEKA, Kas., Oct. 12.—Chas. K. Hobday, secretary of the Kansas Democratic Editorial association has received the following letter from Grover Cleveland in reply to a message from the association:

"I assure you that the guarantee you give that Kansas will not support by her electoral vote the impudently McKinley tariff bill is most gratifying. Nothing could be more encouraging than to see Kansas break away from the partisan bonds that have long and firmly held her and turn to the support of a principle which promises prosperity and contentment to all our people and a fair chance to those who have long been under the rule of unjust taxation for the benefit of hard taskmasters."

FOUR DEMOCRATIC ELECTORS WITHDRAWN.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 10.—The Democratic State central committee this afternoon withdrew the names of four of the Democratic Presidential electors and endorsed four of the People's party electors. By this action the Democrats hope to elect their four remaining electors and thus at least divide the State with the Republicans. The managers of the Populist campaign say it was purely a voluntary action on the part of the Democrats, and say that they had no hand in the deal.—N. Y. Sun.
