GOOD NEWS FROM SWAIN

THE DEMOCRACY ON RISING GROUND.

Senator Ransom Makes One of His Telling Speeches and There Was an Old Time Barbecue—Other Speakers Make Talks

BRUNSWICK, Oct. 21.—This has been the greatest day the Democracy of old Swain county has known for twenty years.

A grand barbecue was prepared by the Democrats in honor of Senator Ransom's visit, and the people flocked from every corner of the county.

Crawford and myself drove across Beaverdam mountain last night from Sandy Mush to Pigeon River, a distance of 13 miles, almost the whole way in thick darkness, for the purpose of being present and hearing Senator Ransom today. We reached Pigeon River at 10 o'clock. This morning, as ill luck would have it, the train for Murphy was two hours late in reaching this place, and all we heard of the Senator's magnificent speech was three minutes of his concluding remarks. About all we were able to enjoy was the enthusiasm his splendid effort had aroused. The old soldier element was present, and the Senator's burning words had brought the tears to the eyes of the old men, the shouts to the lips of the young men, while the mothers and sisters sat spellbound with admiration at his powerful oratory. It is the universal verdict that Senator Ransom made the speech of his life.

Without abuse, without bitterness, Senator Ransom pointed out the wrongs that our people are suffering by reason of Republican class legislation, and with the correctness of a true patriot and the accuracy of an active participant in the events of which he spoke, he counseled his countrymen to be true to the people, the Democratic party of our fathers.

The speech occupied over three hours, and when it was concluded the Democratic fire had been kindled, not only in the eyes of many Third party people, but a number of Republicans openly avowed their intention of voting the Democratic ticket from Cleveland to township constable. Ransom's speech was worth fully one hundred votes to the Democracy of Swain county.

At the conclusion of Senator Ransom's speech, every branch of the Democracy spread under the trees, along the beautiful Tuckasegee river, and at least 2,500 people were abundantly fed, and there was enough and to spare.

After dinner the crowd returned to the court house, and Messrs. Smathers of Haywood, and Freeman of Henderson, were foolish enough to undertake to stem the tide by making Republican speeches.
Instead of doing their cause a service, they helped to strengthen the Democratic work done by Senator Ransom, by showing that they did not understand the issues of the campaign.

Smathers and Freeman spoke for an hour and a half, and when they concluded, Crawford arose amid the wildest shouts, and introduced Hon. R. A.
Doughton, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

I have never heard a more rousing speech than Mr. Doughton delivered.
Without going into a regular discussion of the issues, he fairly set into a blaze the enthusiasm that Senator Ransom had started. The audience shouted itself hoarse, and in every possible way manifested its appreciation of the talented young campaigner.

When Doughton took his seat, it was almost night, but the court house was still packed, and the cries for Crawford were so loud and persistent that our gallant congressional standard bearer took the stand. Crawford had caught the enthusiastic spirit so rampant in the crowd, and with every burning word the crowd became hotter and hotter, and when he closed his half hour talk, it looked as if Republicans, Third party people and Democrats had surged into one madly shouting enthusiastic citizens, every man apparently trying to outdo his fellow in larraucing for Cleveland, Crawford and Democracy.

Bob Patterson was present, and his face was a study. Patterson has been counting on making large gains for the Republicans in Swain, but the look of hope that has brightened his face for days began to fade before the eloquence of Ransom, and when the sunset glow fell on him this evening defeat was written on every feature of his face.

There has been an unquenchable Democrats of Swain up to today that has caused our people to fear that Patterson might make good his boasts, but it is all gone tonight, and every Democratic face is beaming, and every radical is downcast and gloomy. Every road leading from Bryson city tonight, is thronged with enthusiastic Democrats, and from now till sundown on November 8 the battle will be fiercely fought.

Old Swain is in great shape! Democracy is on rising ground! The people have determined to win! J. P. K.

A MOB'S OUTRAGE.

Colored Families Made to Leave a Georgia Town.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 24.—Shortly after midnight at least 150 mounted men approached Dalton, Ga., from all directions and threw out a picket line.
The circle closed in, capturing the policemen, and the men rode to the cabins of two colored men. Jack Wilson was killed by a bullet and his wife was badly beaten, and Tom Moe was severely pounded. On promise from the city marshal to warn other colored families to leave the town in ten days, the mob disappeared, firing guns and pistols as they went. The law-abiding people in the town have raised $800 with which to punish the ringleaders. A committee was sent to interview the Governor and ask his aid.

Fixing For a Slugging.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—The statement that a match had been arranged between Zimmerman of New York and Sanger of Milwaukee for $10,000 a side is denied by Zimmerman. He is willing to meet Sanger, however, if the latter's friends will back him.

The Cotton Contract Question.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—New York traders had a conference today in regard to the cotton contract question. The announcement is officially made on the exchange here that no change will be made as requested by some of the Southern exchanges.

struction.

To Return to Asheville.

A letter received by THE CITIZEN from John H. Howell states that Mr. and Mrs. Howell, who are now at Baddeck, Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, will return to Asheville, the first week in November, after an absence of more than four months. The letter says: "Both Mrs.
Howell and myself have gained in strength, but the weather is getting winterish in Canada, and we think best to return to the milder climate of Asheville."

Perry, the Train Robber.

AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 24.—Oliver Curtis Perry, the train robber, on Saturday earried into effect the threat made when he entered Auburn prison, that he would not remain in his sentence, and escaped, just how, is not yet known. He was recaptured today.

MRS. HARRISON SINKING

Hardly Likely That She Will Survive the Day.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Dr. Gardner was summoned to the White House at 7 o'clock this morning, an hour earlier than the time of his usual morning visit.
He found that Mrs. Harrison was slowly but surely nearing the end. At the suggestion of the President, who seemed to find comfort in his presence he remained at the house longer than usual and took breakfast with the family about 8 o'clock. After the meal was over he sent out word to the newspaper men who had called for information that Mrs. Harrison would hardly survive the day.

2 p. m.—The condition of Mrs. Harrison is unchanged. This doctor says she may live until evening or may die at any time.

MR. SANDERLIN SPEAKS

A TELLING TALK IN THE
COURT HOUSE.

All Third Party Men and Republicans Should Have Heard This Speech—The Force Bill and the Tariff Discussed.

Dr. Geo. W. Sanderlin, Auditor of the State, who has been averaging six two-hour speeches a week throughout North Carolina since the twenty-seventh day of last August, and whose speeches are sledgehammer efforts for Democracy, spoke in the court house this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Dr. Sanderlin was introduced by Col.
A. T. Davidson.

The speaker in opening greeted his fellow citizens of Buncombe, and said that as the fight is now waxing hot, they should put their shoulders together and move up to the polls on the 8th and stand firm for good government. He said it depended greatly upon where one stands as to what conclusion he reaches, and wanted it understood that he was arguing as an upright, downright, allright Democrat.
He made his plea for the continued support of the people to the Democratic party because that party had given the people a good government, administered economically. He discussed the matter of taxes, showing how the Republican party in North Carolina had, when in power years ago kept the State tax even above the limit fixed by the State constitution, while the Democrats had, as soon as getting power, began to reduce the State tax lowering it year by year, and even having levied no tax at all in one year.

The tariff was discussed in a particularly forcible manner, by Mr. Sanderlin, sets and figures being presented clearly and in a most comprehensive way. He related a story of a man who, while lying at the point of death, had a porous plaster applied to his back, and turning to the physician inquired: "Can't you let a fellow die without putting a revenue stamp on him?"

Dr. Sanderlin, in alluding to the sugar bounties paid by the government, declared that the farmer has as much right to receive a bounty upon his corn, his wheat, and whatsoever else he raises.

The force bill was declared by the speaker to be a most dangerous one, and it is enacted into a law, goodbye to American Liberty.

The speaker, addressing the farmers and Alliancemen, pleaded with them for the support of Cleveland. There was no need for a new party. "Weaver," he said, "has no hopes of doing anything more than to throw the election into Congress. Then Cleveland and Reid may be chosen. Now, wouldn't you rather elect Cleveland straightout and have Stevenson, with the right of succession, for Vice-President, than Whitelaw Reid, who has nothing whatever in common with the farmer and the laboring man?"

Dr. Sanderlin went back to the time of the organization of the alliance in the State. "It was meant," he said, "to promote the interest of the farmer, but I saw that this great, grand organization has already received its death blow from some envious Casca, from some unskilled Brutus. It was never intended to be a political organization."

The speaker closed his speech with an appeal to every man to stand by the Democratic ticket from beginning to end.
The speech was two hours and a quarter long and was an admirable effort.

This evening at 8 o'clock in the court house Dr. Sanderlin and Senator Ransom will make short addresses, and all are invited.

Be sure and go to the court house this evening and hear Senator Matt W. Ransom and Dr. Geo. W. Sanderlin. Everybody invited.

WHAT'S THE MATTER?

Do Republican Newspapers Ever Miss Their Subscribers?

Some of Uncle Sam's Republican postmasters are evidently not attending to their business this campaign. THE CITI-ZEN receives frequent complaint that its subscribers do not receive the paper.
One subscriber, living at Arden, missed nearly every one of last week's papers—"the copies containing refutation of charges made against Congressman Crawford through the Asheville Banner.
The fault is not in THE CITIZEN'S mailing room. The papers are put into the postoffice here. Where they go after that cannot be definitely stated. But they do not, in frequent instances, go to the subscribers, and that's certain.

body invited.*

Dismissed One of Peck's Cases.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 24.—Labor Commissioner Peck's case came up in police court this morning. As the district attorney did not appear and in view of the fact that a similar case is now pending in the court of sessions, Judge Guttman dismissed the case.

Threatened With Disaster.

LOXDON, Oct. 24.—The steamer Alaska, from New York for Liverpool, arrived at Queenstown today. She reports that she encountered terrific weather which delayed her for a day. On some days the officers considered her in a dangerous position.

THE FARMER TAKING HIS STUFF TO MARKET.

CRASH IN A TUNNEL.

Frightful Collision on a Pennsylvania Railroad.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—The fast express train from Sanokin, of the Reading railroad, due here at 9:35 this morning, ran into a coal train in west Mannyunk tunnel, and a frightful smash up resulted. The cars caught fire and burned in the tunnel.

Up to noon fifteen injured persons had been removed to the hospital and ten bodies had been taken charge of by undertakers. This is said to be the extent of the casualties.

The Sanokin express was the ill-fated train. It usually leaves the upper coal regions Monday morning loaded with workmen and laborers who are employed along the line and who go home Saturday nights to spend Sunday with their families. It was running on the north bound track, the south bound track being in use between Conshohocken and West Falls for other traffic. The train had been ordered clear and the train was rushing southward when it crashed into an engine running northward of the West Mansyunk tunnel.
The engine had been ordered to be at Pencoyd station, a short distance south of the scene and the accident was due to his disobedience of orders.

body invited.*

FLOWER SAYS 50,000

Cleveland Will Carry New York
by That Figure

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—"New York State will give a Democratic majority of not less than 50,000," said Gov. Flower shortly before leaving New York this evening.

"I see Chauncey Depew is quoted as saying that I am a bull on everything, more especially railroad stocks, Democratic prospects, and my own political future.
That's one of Chauncey's jokes, but it does not alter the fact that this is a Democratic year.

"The Democracy of New York city and of New York State are working harmoniously. Nothing has occurred to disturb the serenity of our prospects.
The reported disaffection of Gen. Sikes gave the Republicans a little comfort for a short time, but Gen. Sikes is supporting the entire Democratic ticket."

"We have much the best of the registration in New York and Brooklyn, and in all of the larger cities throughout the State. My prediction of 50,000 majority in New York State is a conservative one.
Dr. Depew to the contrary notwithstanding."
