IT WAS A SIGHT SURELY

WAYNESVILLE WELCOMES W. T. CRAWFORD.

Neither Rain, Radicals Nor Red Mud Deter the Democracy of Old Haywood—Pritchard's Trifling Following.

Waynesville, N. C., Oct. 25.—A greater ovation was never given a son of North Carolina than that which greeted Crawford here today.

The first thing I heard this morning was the patter of the rain on the shingles; and I thought the Democratic enthusiasm had been checked, and that the crowd would be smaller today than it was at Pigeon yesterday. But the next thing I heard was the triumphant voice of an irrepressible Democrat shouting "Hurrah for Crawford!" and I concluded it would take more than rain to dampen the order of the Haywood boys. And I was right.

Democrats! Radicals! Red Mud! These three were rampant in Waynesville today, and the Democrats were on top every time.

The Democrats poured in from Jonathan's Creek, Fines Creek, Cataloochee, Pigeon River, Clyde, Crab Tree, Iron Duff, Forks of Pigeon, Ivy Hill and Waynesville townships, and began to gather on the road leading from Pigeon River, where Crawford stayed last night, for the purpose of escorting him to Waynesville. The road was literally lined for miles, and when the procession reached town it was greeted with rousing huzzas from hundreds of sound Democratic throats, while fair women from almost every balcony and window waved a happy greeting to the plowboy congressman.

The universality of Crawford's hold on the affections of the people of Haywood is marvelous. The little boys and little girls, the young ladies and the young men, the matrons and the grandfathers were all here to welcome the man who has raised himself from the plow to the halls of the most august representative body the world ever saw, by the force of his own manhood. His carriage was thrown full of beautiful flowers as he drove along, and a crowned Caesar never received such homage from so genuine and loyal lovers.

I wrote a letter through the Waynesville Courier last week, in which I called upon the people of Haywood to give Crawford a generous welcome, but I had no thought of seeing anything like the spectacle presented today. There are few people who can estimate a crowd, and fewer still who can approximate the number in company of mounted men. By actual count there were 479 mounted Democrats in line today, not including those in carriages.

How about Pritchard's crowd? There were 43 counting. Pritchard himself, and all in carriages or any kind of kind of a vehicle, including boys and negroes. There were at least 1,500 people in town, and there were not less than five Democrats for every Republican.

It is not necessary for me to say that Haywood has her fighting clothes on. It is no exaggeration to say that the county is in a blaze of enthusiasm. Every man seems to be determined to increase the magnificent majority of 693 given Crawford two years ago.

Crawford's speech today was a fine one. Notwithstanding the fact that he was in the midst of one of the most enthusiastic crowds of friends that ever surrounded a candidate, he in no sense departed from the lightened, manly, and preeminently fair mode of discussion that has characterized him since he first opened his mouth in the Senate. Crawford is too honest to misrepresent, too chivalrous to resort to personalities, and too fair to distort facts in order to play upon the prejudices of any man.

What a contrast there is in Pritchard! Without argument, without facts, he deals only in the arts of the born demagogue, thinking that the people are too ignorant to see that his whole fight is a dodge and his only hope lies in their believing that meaningless personalities make the statesman, and wholesale misrepresentation constitutes the model politician.

It was impossible for one-half of the people to get into the court house today at any one time (and the court room here is the largest in the district) and the result was there were several fights in the crowd that thronged the streets. Only one was any ways serious. In this it is charged that a white man was knocked in the head by some negroes, and was found insensible in a small house on Main street. When an attempt was made to arrest the negro who struck the blow, he ran, and was shot at and slightly wounded in the leg. He is now in jail.

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

So Miss Smith Declares, and She Demands the Right to Vote.

ANSONIA, Conn., Oct. 25.—Miss Sara Winthrop Smith, a noted woman's rights agitator and president of the Woman's Club of Seymour, has put the registrars of voters of that town in a quandary by demanding, in writing, that she be registered and put on the list to be made electors by the Selectmen of the town. Miss Smith quotes from the Constitution where it says that representatives shall be elected by the people, and claims that she is one of the people. She also professes to have an opinion from one of the judges of the Supreme court of Connecticut sustaining her position. The registrars are taking legal advice on the demand. If she is admitted to the electors' oath twenty-five other women members of the club will make a similar demand though the last day of registration has passed.—N. Y. Sun.

Mrs. Harrison's Funeral.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Harrison were conducted at the White House at 10 o'clock this morning in the East room in the presence of the family, immediate friends and many notable persons. Rev. Drs. Hamlin and Bartlett officiated and the service lasted about three-quarters of an hour. The remains were taken to the Pennsylvania railroad station and were conveyed to Indianapolis on a special train which left here at 11:40 o'clock.

HILL AT LYNCHBURG.

He Will Make no More Speeches Outside of New York.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Oct. 27.—The announced appearance of Senator Hill as orator of the day at the fair of the Industrial society and as speaker of the evening at the political rally made it a red letter day for the Piedmont region, and business here and in many places in the neighborhood was practically abandoned. The anxiety which politicians have found such a marked feature of this political contest, was entirely absent and Senator Hill received an ovation.

The town's people were early astir, preparing to march in procession to the fair grounds in honor of the distinguished visitor, and trains, wagons and

A SPEECH BY CLEVELAND

THE TRUE DOCTRINE OF THE DEMOCRATS.

The Party Insists That a Government by the People Should Be for the People Also—The Present Contest.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The reception given at the Imperial hotel last night to ex-President Cleveland by the Buffalonsians' Cleveland club, was attended by about two hundred persons, consisting of members of the club and a few invited guests.

Mr. Cleveland spoke fifteen or twenty minutes, devoting himself principally to horses brought in from country and neighboring towns a large crowd of enthusiastic people. Old time fox hunters rode in horseback with powder horns slung across their shoulders. Main street was decorated with bunting along the entire length and the front of many buildings was hidden with the national colors.

The procession formed about 10 o'clock and escorted Senator Hill, Senator Daniel and other members of the party, through the main streets to the fair grounds about two miles outside of town where Senator Hill was to make an agricultural speech. It is said more people were in line than ever before paraded in Lynchburg. Clubs from Roanoke, Salem, Charlottesville and many smaller places were in procession. His speech in this city tonight will be the only one the senator will make outside of his own State. He came here at the request of his personal friend and political ally, Senator Daniel. He will not go to Richmond, but will leave at a late hour tonight for New York. Reports that he will speak in West Virginia and other States are incorrect.

TOTAL ANNIHILATION.

A Town Full of Families Wiped Out—Soldiers Killed.

EL PASO, Oct. 27.—News has reached here of the total destruction of a whole town and its people in Western Chihuahua, Mexico, and of the killing of about 300 federal troops.

The despatches have told a story of religious fanaticism which prevailed in the town of Tomoconie situated in the mountains about 300 miles west of the city of Chihuahua. The federal troops have been sent out there twice to compel submission to the authorities, but each time the troops have been worsted. The third time a full regiment was sent out under a supposedly competent officer accompanied by two gattling guns.

The result of the battle which was fought last Saturday, was the total annihilation of the rebels in the killing of more than 300 hundred federal soldiers sent to uphold the authorities.

A GRAIN BLOCKADE.

10,000 Loaded Grain Cars In Chicago.

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Oct. 27.—The grain blockade and car famine which the railroads of Iowa, the Dakotas and Nebraska have been taking every precaution to prevent has set in. On ninety miles of the track of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul in South Dakota 327 cars were standing on Saturday night and cannot be moved for want of motive power.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—There are 10,000 loaded grain cars in Chicago and there is absolutely no place to unload them. Every elevator is crammed to the top, few of the shippers are inclined to pay rail rate, and the majority do not care to take it at any price. The reason for the lack of the lake transportation is that every elevator from Toledo to Buffalo seems as full as those in Chicago.

Mrs. Masbrick's Case.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—In the Old Bailey yesterday, Alex Robertson applied to Justice Hawkins for a writ of habeas corpus, demanding that Sir Charles Russell, the attorney-general, show cause for the detention of Mrs. Florence Masbrick. Justice Hawkins in reply to the application said: "Go to Mr. Asquith, the home secretary."

Eight Lives For One.

CHESTER, Md., Oct. 27.—Joshua Brainard, Louis Benson, Henry Burt, Moses Brown, Frisby Comeyes, Charles Brooks, Fletcher Williams and Charles Emory, all colored, were found guilty of murder in first degree, having killed Dr. J. H. Hill Saturday, April 23. John Potts, the ninth person on trial, was found not guilty.

Confident of Victory.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 27.—President Cleveland writes in a letter to Major Dennis of this city: "Those who are well informed have no apprehension as to the outcome in New York. I know of no Democrats who are not enthusiastic and confident."

Colorado Not For Harrison.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 27.—At a meeting of the Democratic State Central committee which lasted until 1 o'clock this morning, it was decided to withdraw Cleveland electors, substituting three for the Weaver men.

ARMY OF VIRGINIA.

Richmond Addresses a Great Meeting.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 27.—The annual meeting of the Society of the Army of Northern Virginia was held last night in the hall of the House of Delegates, and the building was crowded to overflowing with ladies and gentlemen. Vice-President Gen. Thomas L. Rosser introduced Gen. W. C. P. Breckinridge of Kentucky, who delivered the annual address on "What ex-Confederates Have Done in Peace."

Among other things he said: "The idea of the foundation of a separate government within certain geographical boundaries is a thing of the past. It would not now receive the support of those who fought for it."

A Great Mass Meeting.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The Democracy of Brooklyn turned out in force last night and held a great mass meeting in the Academy of Music, where Gen. Adlai E. Stevenson, Vice-Presidential candidate, and Congressman Rayner, of Maryland, spoke on the issues of the campaign. Over 4,000 people, many of whom were ladies, were crowded in the spacious amphitheatre.

Blocks of Five in West Virginia.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Oct. 27.—The "blocks of five" method of carrying elections is being put into operation all over the State of West Virginia by the Republicans. The plan was arranged through the energy of the tariff beneficiaries and Elkins, and it was kept dark until last Saturday, when it came out in a way most embarrassing to the Republicans.
