CLOSING UP THE CANVASS

W. T. CRAWFORD ON THE HOME STRETCH.

Some Lively Times During Last Week's Campaigning—A Republican Who Was Looking for a Row Was Accommodated.

JOHNATHAN'S CREEK, N. C., Oct. 26.— The ovation to Crawford in old Haywood continues. Before arriving here this morning, a company of mounted men, fully as large as Pritchard's forces in Waynesville yesterday, met Crawford and ushered him into the place of speaking with a whoop.

There was great crowd present. Speaking began in Shady Grove church.
Crawford opened, and when about half of his time was consumed one of the sills broke, and there came near being a panic. Men women and children piled out of the door and windows, like stampeded sheep. Fortunately no one fell, and all got out safely.

There is no discount on the Democracy of Jonathan's Creek. It gave Crawford about seventy majority two years ago, and it will do it again.

Brother Brown got mad at the crowd today because the people would not listen to him. If Brother Brown could have his eyes opened, and realize that the people do not want him in this fight, he would quit and go home.

Old Haywood's majority for Crawford may go as high as 800. The Radicals will try and swap, but the pitch is too hot. In fact the Democrats all realize that there is not a man on their ticket who needs anything more than the Democratic vote to carry him through, and the Radical who proposes to swap will be left.

It is becoming more and more apparent every day that swapping is the only hope of the Radicals this year. It was by swapping that Tom Johnson was defeated four years ago, and the Radicals think the ticket can be worked again, but the Democrats are too wide awake this year to be caught by such a transparent trap.

The Democrats will vote the straight ticket, and in so doing they will elect every man from Cleveland down.

Crawford Closes at Haywood.

FINES CREEK, N. C., Oct. 27.—Today closed up the canvass in Haywood.
A splendid company of mounted men met Crawford here, and another tremendous crowd was present to hear the discussion. At every speaking place in the county not only have vast crowds assembled to hear the speaking, but the enthusiasm of the people has been specially manifested in a series of the most remarkable horseback parades ever given any public man in North Carolina. I venture the assertion that no politician in the State, past or present, could have so aroused the Democracy as Crawford has done. And the cause for this is apparent. W. T. Crawford is a man whose ability has been tested, but above and beyond this is the unwavering confidence of the people, not only his incorruptible honesty as a man, but as a politician as well. Nothing so thoroughly impresses the public with this, as Craw-ford's speeches, when contrasted with those of his opponents, Pritchard and Brown.

The most ordinary man can see at a glance that Crawford is stating his honest convictions, backed by ample proof from the public records. Any man can see that Crawford is giving an open, manly and straightforward statement of facts, in order that the people may know what their true interests are.

As to Pritchard's speeches, any man can see that his aim is to mystify and delude, and to prevent the people from seeing things as they actually exist. This appears to be Pritchard's whole aim.

The universal opinion as to Brown is that he is trying to earn his wages, that he is paid so much per day to aid Pritchard in trying to defeat Crawford.
Brown's ignorance with reference to his own party and the measures it claims to favor, is profound, and as to the platforms or principles of the other parties he knows still less.

An old gentleman a few days ago, being at a loss to know why Brown was honoring the canvass when it is so manifest that nobody wants to hear him, asked a friend who had heard one of Brown's speeches: "What does this man Brown talk about anyway?" "He talks about one hour and a quarter," was the response, and that is literally all there is in it. He is not formidable enough to excite anybody's fear, but is actually playing the role of a nuisance in this canvass.

The more the canvass progresses the more certain it becomes that Crawford's defeat is impossible. In fact it is an assured fact. The only thing between Pritchard and defeat is the eleven days between now and the election.

Bluch Tweed Knocked Out.

SPRING CREEK, N. C., Oct. 28.—This was the first appointment in Madison county. We crossed the mountain last night in a snow storm, and camped in the land of Jeter Pritchard.

From what I have been hearing from Pritchard himself, and from other Radicals, I have been led to believe that the Democracy of Madison county had grounded their arms, and was going to allow the county to go unanimously for Pritchard this election.

What was my surprise this morning when coming down Spring Creek to find at every turn of the road bunches of shouting Democrats, rearing and charging for Crawford. And, by the time we reached the place of speaking the road was lined for nearly half a mile with lively Democrats as ever yelled for Crawford, even in Haywood.

And Pritchard did not have a horseman or a whoop!
Pritchard's buggy broke down and he did not reach the place of speaking until an hour late. This may or may not account for the utter lack of enthusiasm on the part of his followers. The fact is, there are precious few Pritchard men on Spring Creek, while the woods are full of as red hot Democrats as I have found anywhere in the district.

The ugliest fight of the campaign occurred here today.

Bluch Tweed of Big Pine, a man who seems to be well known in every part of Madison county, came over to give his friends on Spring Creek a lift. He arrived early, and had some whiskey, I guess. He displayed his pistol early in the day, and fired it off just to hear it

THEY WANT TO "REPEAT"

SWEET-SCENTED SCHEME UN-EARTHED.

The Democratic Committee Gets Wind of the Business and Proposes to See That Repeaters Don't Repeat.

The County Democratic Executive committee is in possession of information which warrants the belief that there has been a systematic effort made to have colored voters register in two or more of the precincts of Asheville township, with a view of "repeating" on election day.
The committee calls upon every Democrat in Asheville township to give the committee every possible assistance in thwarting this villainous scheme. Numbers of ex-convicts, it is learned, have also been registered. The committee intend to ferret out and bring to justice every one of those attempted "repeat-ers."

To Close Election Day.

THE CITIZEN is informed that the business men in various towns in the State will close up their stores on election day in order that they and their employes may give this day in saving North Carolina from the shame of being called a Republican State. A number of Asheville business men have already agreed to close. Chairman M. E. Carter of the Congressional committee, and Chairman J. D. Murphy, of the County committee, at the request of the State executive committee, will publish a request that every Democrat in Asheville close up his place of business on the 8th, and give up the day to the service of his State.

GOOD BYE TO THE G. O. P.

HE WILL SUPPORT THE DEMO- CRATIC TICKET.

E. L. Brown, a Well Known and Popular Republican of Asheville, Comes Out for Cleveland and the Whole Ticket.

E. L. Brown, who for years has been a resident of Asheville, who is known by nearly everybody in Asheville, and a man popular with everybody, has renounced his allegiance to the Republican party, and will vote the Democratic ticket from Grover Cleveland down. Mr.
Brown, in the last election, was the only Republican who carried the East ward, running considerably ahead of his ticket.
Mr. Brown has issued a card in which he says:

To Whom It May Concern:

For twenty years I have been a Republican, because I believed in the principles of Abraham Lincoln and the policy of the party under the leadership of such statesmen as James G. Blaine. Seeing that the Republicans of the present day have not only abandoned the principles of the fathers of the party, but are determined upon a policy which I, as a true son of North Carolina, cannot support, I now, after months of mature deliberation, sever my connection with the Republican party and in the future will support the principles of the Democratic party, believing that it is to the best interest of every well wisher of the State that said principles be advocated and maintained.

In leaving the Republican party I do so with charity for all, and malice towards none, and only wish that men who have been my political friends for years could see it to be their duty to do likewise.

In taking this step I do not feel that I am following the lead of such statesmen as Gresham, Cooley, MacVeagh and thousands of other thoughtful men, who have in the past few weeks joined the Democratic party, for "my friends the enemy" well know that I anticipated their move, and have only asked that the door remain open until we all could get in. Very respectfully, E. L. Brown.

Asheville, Oct. 31, 1892.

THE BULLY ACT.

Force Bill Methods On in John- ston County.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 29.—At Democratic headquarters news was received today of an outrageous attempt by Republicans and supervisors of election to get information regarding the list of persons registered in Johnston county. A Republican revenue officer, named H. M.
Carnes, went to the registrar, and asked to be allowed to copy the list of persons registered. He was told that he could not do so. He then demanded that he be given the books. Upon being again refused he left, and later returned with Republican Election Supervisor Elisha Wallace. The latter exhibited his credentials and tried to intimidate the registrar, but the latter was not the kind of man to be bullied and made the men leave. It is thought that Republicans may have elsewhere made the same attempt.—Richmond Dispatch.

TOOK KEELY AND DIED.

A North Carolinian Dies Alone in New York City.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Thomas Hill of Hillsboro, N. C., said to be a cousin of the Confederate general, Ben Hill, died Saturday night in a cheap lodging house in Clinton place.
Hill came North a few months ago to take a course of treatment in the Keeley institute at White Plains. After graduating from the institute he did not reform, but drank more than ever, his friends said. He dictated a letter to his wife at Hillsboro, Saturday, in which he begged her to come quickly if she would see him alive, for he was dying. Soon afterwards Hill's landlady found him dead in his room.

A PIOUS PILGRIMAGE.

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—Emperor William, the Empress and three of their sons started from Potsdam at 8 o'clock this morning for Wittenburg where they will take part in the rededication of the re- stored church, to the door of which Lu- ther nailed his famous thesis against papal indulgences.

TO KILL DR. SANDERLIN

THE DEED WAS TO BE DONE AT BURNSVILLE.

There Was a Narrow Escape, But Determined Democrats Saved
Dr. Sanderlin's Life, Though Blood Had to Flow to do it.

MORGANTON, Oct. 29.—Dr. Geo. W.
Sanderlin was in Morganton today on his return from a campaign through Mitchell and Yancey counties and gives the details of an attempt which was made by Republicans in Burnsville, Yancey county, to assassinate him. A band of Republican toughs had sworn that there should be no more Democratic speaking in Burnsville and when last Wednesday Sanderlin spoke there, they attempted to carry out their threat.
The mob collected at the court house door and detailed Bud Parrott, a noted desperado, to attack Dr. Sanderlin and break up the speaking. Parrott, armed with a big bowie knife, entered the court house, which was full of people, and began to curse and swear, cursing the Democrats and edging his way toward Dr. Sanderlin, armed with the deadly knife. The Democrats seeing his object was to stab the doctor, overpowered him and forced him out of the court house. When they opened the door those in waiting rushed to the rescue with pistols, knives and rocks and a regular battle ensued on the court house steps, in which a number on both sides were shot and cut.

Quiet was at length restored and Dr.
Sanderlin was proceeding with his speech when two more of the Republican mob entered the court room and they were also put out, the fight on the steps being renewed. Parrott was twice shot through the body and is not expected to live. A Democrat named Phillips was terribly stabbed with a bowie knife and fully one dozen men were seriously wounded.

The attack was wholly without provocation, as Dr. Sanderlin is known to be one of the fairest and most courteous speakers in the State. The most intense indignation has been aroused in the mountain counties by this dastardly attempt at assassination.—Charlotte Observer.

RALEIGH, Oct. 31.—Further details of the attempt on Dr. Sanderlin's life state that he says that on leaving the court house the scenes reminded him of his war experience. The dead and wounded were lying everywhere. There was great excitement in town.

A large escort of determined men were made up to take Sanderlin safely to the railway station, which is some distance away. It was discovered later that a number of the Auditor's enemies were in ambush waiting to kill him, but their object was thwarted by the body guard of Democrats. The attack was entirely unprovoked, as Sanderlin is a courteous speaker and the attempt at assassination has aroused unprecedented indignation in all sections of the State.

STEVENSON'S LETTER.

The South and the Force Bill At- tended to.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 31.—Adlai Stevenson, Democratic candidate for the vice-presidency, has sent his letter of acceptance to the president of the National Democratic convention. On the force bill Mr. Stevenson says:

"Since my nomination, I have been in eight of the southern and southwestern States of the Union, and have talked with men of all classes and conditions there. I found a general and growing apprehension of evils which it is believed would result from the passage of a Force bill of similar character to the legislation. I found that industries established by northern capital during Cleveland's administration in a languishing condition, that immigration of labor and investment of capital invited to those States by the then peaceful conditions had in a large measure ceased. The enactment of a force bill into a law, while it would threaten the liberties of the entire people, would undoubtedly retard the material growth of the States at which it is specially aimed, would incite in many communities race troubles, and invite retaliatory legislation, which would disturb property values and disintegrate and destroy security of Northern investments. And its reflex action upon northern States would result in consequent loss of commercial and trade relations with the vast territory now becoming tributary to their wealth and prosperity."

NOT A GREAT QUESTION.

Whether U. S. Vessels Shall Pre- tend to Fire on the Flag.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—At Charleston, S. C., beginning today, there is to be a celebration in commemoration of the escape of the city from total destruction by the earthquake of 1886. At the request of citizens the United States steamers Dolphin and Vesuvius have been sent to that harbor to participate in the celebration. The vessels arrived there yesterday. An announcement is made in the press that a naval bombardment of Fort Sumpter is to form part of the programme. If any such intention had taken shape in the official programme the navy department would have promptly countermanded the orders of the naval vessels, for Commodore Ramsay says he would not tolerate the idea that a vessel of the United States navy should participate in an attack on the National flag.

The officials have concluded that as no official program of the celebration has been brought to the attention of the department there is at present no basis for official action. So it has been decided to leave the question as to the participation of the vessels in the celebration to the discretion of Commander Brownson of the Dolphin, senior officer.

Knocked Out by a Chin Swipe.

PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 31.—Mike Queenan, a stock yard giant of Chicago, and Dick Graham, Brooklyn, fought a finish battle near this city yesterday morning. The fight lasted four rounds, the Brooklyn man being knocked out with a terrible drive under the chin.

English Agricultural Depression.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Central Chamber of agriculture will tomorrow discuss the question of holding a conference of delegates from all parts of the United King- dom to discuss the depression in the agricultural interest.
