A VERY SERIOUS MATTER

POWERS OF U. S. MARSHALS AT THE POLLS!

The U. S. Acting Attorney General Says Marshals Have Duties at All Voting Places—Arkansas State Officials Deny This.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Acting Attorney General Aldrich has made an important statement with reference to the authority of the United States deputy marshals to supervise elections. In this statement he announces that all persons who attempt to interfere with these officers bring themselves within scope of the criminal statutes of the United States regardless of whether or not they act under any state or municipal statutes. He says that in view of these statutes it is not thought that any person or combination of persons will seek in any way to interfere with marshals in the discharge of their duties, but that any such interference will be vigorously prosecuted.

The statement begins by saying that the attention of the department of justice has been called to certain alleged instructions to police and state officers in Alabama, Arkansas and New York with reference to their conduct towards deputy United States marshals at the polls. Mr. Aldrich's statement declares that marshals are there as peace officers, that they have the right to summon the sheriff's posse to assist them, and also to call upon all organized military bodies for the same purpose; that the alleged instructions issued in New York, Arkansas, and Alabama, bring the state officers issuing them under the provisions of the United States laws so to conspiracy to obstruct, and that the United States marshals' instructions are not to allow discrimination for or against any party, but to secure "an honest ballot and a fair count." It denies the doctrine of the supremacy of the states over the United States in the matter of elections and says that the impression that the federal government "is a foreign power" should be obliterated. Mr. Aldrich says that the statement that section 2021 is the only section authorizing the appointment of deputy marshals, and therefore that such appointments can be made only in cities of 20,000 inhabitants or upward, is not the view entertained by the Attorney General or himself, nor has such view been held by any preceding attorney general.

With reference to the question whether deputy marshals have the right to be within the guard rail of polling places, it is said, this has been answered in the Attorney General's circular of October 31 last and the statutes are so clear and explicit that no room is seen for discussion. The statement concludes: "The laws must be enforced. Marshals are warned, and penalties of the law, against any interference with the rights of citizens and at the same time they will guard and protect such rights at whatever cost."

Instructions in accordance with these views will be sent to United States marshals in all parts of the country.

IN ARKANSAS,

United States Marshals Will Not Be Allowed to Interfere.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 4.—The Democratic state committee has issued to the Arkansas election officers a circular defining the rights of the United States supervisors and deputy marshals at the elections which, after outlining those rights and duties, continues: "It is said that United States deputy marshals will be appointed at various precincts in this state and take charge of elections. There is no authority in the Federal statutes which authorizes this except in cities of 20,000 or more inhabitants. Hence the only place in Arkansas where deputy marshals can be appointed is in the city of Little Rock. Therefore, if any deputy United States marshals should be appointed anywhere except in Little Rock it would be without authority of law and it will be the duty of peace officers of the country to uphold and maintain the state law in keeping the peace at voting precincts, and deputy marshals can exercise no more authority at election precincts or voting places than any other citizens. If they should undertake to take charge of voting precincts or booths, or attempt officiously to do anything in controlling or influencing the election or violate in any manner the state statutes they should be arrested by the sheriff whose duty it is to preserve the peace at election precincts, and see that a fair expression of the will of the people is had."

WAS SHE INSANE.

Her Will Was Admitted to Probate Anyway.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Surrogate Ransom has decided admit to probate the will of Mrs. Elizabeth U. Coles who died bequeathing an estate valued at $3,000,000. The greater part of the estate was bequeathed to charitable and religious organizations, a portion to some of her relatives and $50,000 to the children of her brother Edward Cole, while he was ignored. Edward Coles contested the will on the grounds that his sister was not of sound mind at the time she made her will. In support of this claim there were produced a number of household servants who had been in the employ of Mrs. Coles and they testified with great unanimity that she was exceedingly miserly and manifested numerous eccentricities.

Rain Maker's Foolishness.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—An army officer who observed the rain making experiments Wednesday night, because he could not sleep, asserts that the first two shocks brought down hard showers which settled in a steady rain, but this was suddenly stopped by the last two explosions. So he is puzzled to decide whether or not the aerial bombardment is a success.

$2,500 Worth of Blauder.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The jury in the Leader-Smythe case has returned a verdict awarding $2,500 damages to Mrs. Leader. The case has attracted universal attention in Great Britain. The women were formerly great friends, Mrs. Smythe said Mrs. Leader had stolen a diamond brooch from her, and Mrs. Leader began a suit charging slander.

ASHEVILLE CLIMATE.

Papers to be Read Before Medical Societies North.

Dr. Karl von Ruck, who has recently spent some time in New York, Boston and Philadelphia on a business and advertising trip, is preparing to leave Asheville next week for another trip, embracing such cities as Cincinnati, Chicago, Columbus, Detroit, Toledo and St. Louis.

While in these Northern cities named Dr. von Ruck talked Asheville to medical men generally, and no doubt with good results. He made arrangements for the reading of a paper on Asheville climate before a medical society in each city, by some prominent physician. A paper of this kind was read on Monday last before the Academy of Medical Science in New York. In Boston the paper will be read tomorrow before the Boston Medical Library association, and in Philadelphia before the Medical society, some time this month.

The object of Dr. von Ruck's next week's trip is to make arrangements in the cities named for the presentation of papers on Asheville. The effect of these will be much better when read by some member of the local society, who is entirely disinterested.

Dr. von Ruck says he found among the eminent consulting physicians North, a prejudice towards Asheville on account of its sanitary condition. They say this city has not proper sanitation and that on that account they do not care to send their patients here. Dr. von Ruck made it his special task to remove this prejudice as far as possible. He told the medical men that Asheville now has a Board of Health, and although its jurisdiction is limited, it is doing a good work and will as its powers are expanded do much towards making Asheville what it should be, a model health resort in every respect.

Dr. von Ruck is very sanguine over the outlook for this winter. He believes there will be an increased number of winter visitors, having received assurances from the physicians with whom he consulted to warrant him in the belief.

CHANGE TO CLEVELAND.

An Irish-American Society Issues an Appeal.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—At a recent meeting of the Irish-American anti-Cleveland protective league, a change of political front was determined upon, involving the dissolution of the league under its present designation. A committee was appointed to formulate the why and wherefore of its radical change, and the result is an address to Irish-American voters signed by John Devoy, James Clancy, Michael Breslin, James Flynn, L. F. Fullam, C. McCabe and James Pallas. The document says that "Irish politicians here who solicit Irish votes for Harrison, have all a personal and financial interest in the success of the republican party." The address closes with an appeal to Irish-Americans, to cast their votes for Cleveland and Stevenson.

LINCOLN, NEB., NOV. 4.—

Patrick Egan has issued a frantic appeal to Irish-Americans to vote for Harrison. In the course of his letter Egan says: "Mr. Wayne McVeagh, business partner of Grover Cleveland, was put forward a few days ago at a great Democratic meeting in Cooper Union in this city, and as reported by the Democratic press, amid loud cheers of his audience, he dared to assume my good name, to repeat Piggott slanders about Irish land league funds, and to stigmatize me as a fugitive from criminal justice."

[Mr. Egan purposely misrepresents Mr. MacVeagh who did not assault Mr. Egan on his own responsibility, but simply repeated charges brought by the N. Y. Tribune, owned and edited by White-law Reid, the Republican candidate for the vice-presidency. Since Mr. MacVeagh spoke, the charges have been reiterated by prominent Irishmen.—ED. CITIZEN.]

A COLORED MAN'S VIEW.

DURHAM, N. C., Nov. 2.—Rev. Andrew H. Chambers, pastor of the Methodist church here, a prominent colored man, has written an open letter to the President in which, after showing that the force bill would take the control of the elections from the people and turn it over to the beneficiaries of the party in power, he tells the President that his utterances on the Force bill leave a painful uncertainty as to his meaning. He writes the President that a "non-partisan commission" is impossible and says the Force bill would be a calamity to the colored people, and would tend to reduce the white man to the level of the negro instead of elevating the negro to the level of the white man.

Chambers also tells the President that his policy is one of narrow sectionalism and partisan prejudice that would upset business and neighborly relations between people and lead to disorder and bloodshed, and concludes: "I must regard your candidacy, Mr. President, as a misfortune, and your election would be irretrievable disaster."

The Way of the Transgressor.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—A despatch from Sydney, N. S. W., says that Francis Abigail, ex-minister of mines, and director of the Australian banking company, and the manager of the company, MacNamara, have been respectively sentenced to five and seven years penal servitude for attempting to defraud the shareholders of the company by issuing false balance sheets.

A Murder Trial.

BURNSVILLE, N. C., Nov. 2.—The trial of Wilson, for the killing of Hunnicutt several years ago, will begin in the Superior court tomorrow morning. This case has already been tried in both Madison and Haywood counties, resulting in a mistrial both times.

Judge Amstred is presiding, and is highly esteemed both as judge and man.

Went to the Bar Too Often.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—H. M. S. Howe is ashore on a reef inside the bar at Ferrol, Bay of Biscayas, on the west coast of Spain. The Howe has a displacement of 10,300 tons.

This morning's private despatches from Corunna says the ship has not been floated and assert that a total loss is inevitable.

J. I. DAVENPORT'S PLANS

WILL TRY TO ARREST 60,000 DEMOCRATS TUESDAY.

The Democratic National Committee Will Head Him Off, However, if it is Possible to do so, and it Probably Is.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—At a Democratic headquarters today a statement was given out based on an investigation of John I. Davenport's methods, closing as follows: "The important fact is disclosed that Davenport has his plans all laid to arrest some 60,000 men at the polls on election day. His work is being conducted with all possible secrecy and he is leaving no stone unturned to help the Republican party in its desperate attempt to carry New York State. No apprehension is felt by the Democratic national committee, however, that Davenport's tactics can accomplish much. The Democratic organization of the City of New York is fully alive to the situation. It has met Davenport before and rendered his schemes abortive and the National Committee has full confidence it will do so again this year."

MRS. LEASE WOULD SPEAK.

KANSAS HAS NO FURY LIKE A WOMAN SCORNED.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 4.—The Democratic Plumbian club while marching in the Weaver procession last night was egged. J. S. Earnest, president of the club, was spattered with eggs, and James F. Fitzgibbon, a contractor, was hit in the back of the head and badly injured. A half dozen others were more or less bruised. The club marched the entire length of the march, notwithstanding a volley of eggs which were thrown at it all along the way.

Chairman Jones of the Democratic State central committee left the Weaver meeting because of a misunderstanding with Mrs. M. A. Lease who demanded permission to speak. During the altercation between the two pandemonium reigned.

After General Weaver had concluded his speech of two hours he introduced J. H. Atwood of Atchison. The crowd was waiting to hear Mrs. Lease and began calling for her. Chairman Jones announced that Mrs. Lease had left to catch a train, but no sooner had he done so than the indignant Populists appeared from behind the flies of the opera house and shouted in a loud melodramatic voice: "Mrs. Lease is here and demands permission to speak to the people of Kansas."

Senator Peller and Gen. Weaver tried in vain to pacify her, and she began her speech to the crowd amid wild enthusiasm. She denounced the politicians who were running the fusion campaign and declared that the people must assert themselves. After the meeting Mrs. Lease hunted up Chairman Jones and declared that she would cancel all her Kansas dates.

A FOOLISH PEOPLE

They Become Angry and For Lack of a King.

MADRID, Nov. 4.—The populace of Granada were greatly disappointed at Queen Regent Christina's refusal to visit the city with King Alfonso, after the great preparations made to receive them. The feeling of disappointment today changed to anger, and a large mob went about the city and destroyed the handsome triumph arches that had been erected. They set fire to the Octavi offices, and then proceeded to a stand that had been erected for the use of the Royal party during the unveiling of the statue of Columbus, and completely demolished it. The crowd then went to the houses of leaders of the conservative party, and assailed them with stones, smashing windows.

While attacking the house, the civic guard charged upon the mob, slashing right and left with swords. A number of rioters were severely injured and thirty were locked up.

The absence of the Queen Regent was due to her desire to spare King Alfonso fatigue after his recent illness.

MAY LOSE SOUTH CAROLINA.

An Error in Printing the Democratic Tickets Discovered.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 4.—It was discovered today that a serious error had been made in printing the Democratic electoral ticket in this State which would have resulted in the entire Democratic electoral vote being thrown out on account of illegal tickets.

As it is, tickets have been in the hands of commissioners of election for some days and have been partly distributed, and therein lies the danger. It is hard to tell what proportion of the tickets that have been sent out from the State Committee headquarters are illegal.

A Fight Brewing.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Jack McAuliffe has announced that he has signed with the Crescent City Athletic club to fight Burge, the English light weight champion, at 135 pounds for a purse of $15,000. Burge is expected to arrive here in a few weeks. It is said he is also signed to fight in New Orleans.

Seth Low Will Vote For Cleveland.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The Times this morning says: "Mr. Seth Low, president of Columbia College, said to a reporter of the Times that he had decided to vote for Cleveland. Mr. Low has been one of the best known Republicans in the state. He was twice elected mayor of Brooklyn as a Republican candidate."

Salvationists Expelled.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A despatch from Geneva says that Catherine Booth and Mrs. Clibborn, daughters of General Booth of the Salvation army, have been arrested there and will be expelled from the canton.

The Grip Again.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The grip has made its first appearance in this city since last fall. On the health board bulletins are chronicled two deaths. Dr. Nagle says there is no danger of an epidemic.
