WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1892.

Now that the campaign is ended we hope THE CITIZEN will be allowed to go in the mails unrestrained to its readers.

The chances are that the Eskimo child that died in the World's Fair grounds yesterday got a drop or two of Chicago river water.

TAMMANY, the foremost political organization on the face of the earth, had $3,000,000 of backing with which to get unlucky Democrats out of the toils of the United States marshals or John I. Davenport's men.

It was said that this was a campaign characterized by apathy. The apathy certainly ended yesterday, then, for perhaps never before was so large a per cent of the registered vote cast; and this was true all over the United States.

A LOAD of two of stone dropped, perhaps unintentionally, on Patton avenue yesterday caused a great sensation. It was feared that some reckless individual was about to begin paving on that street. Fortunately the alarm proved to be a false one.

It was characteristic Republican gall that led Chairman Carter to telegraph from Republican headquarters in New York Monday that "the conceded Republican victory caused a decided advance in the stock and cereal markets during the closing hours of business today."

MORE VOTING PLACES. Yesterday's election has demonstrated the absolute necessity for additional voting places in Asheville.

The vote of East ward is fully large enough for division by two, while West ward is of such size as to almost warrant three voting places.

With the East ward divided by College street, and the West ward by Patton avenue, Haywood street, Spring street, and then Haywood street again to the river, the vote of the city might be cast for several years without the gorge that was so annoying at Carter's warehouse yesterday.

The proper authorities should take steps at once to increase the voting places on the lines indicated, or some other equally feasible way.

POETRY OF THE DAY.

There was a Radical named Lusk, Who swore by the elephant's tusk That old Buncombe county Should be his own bounty— But he talked thro' his hat, did this Lusk.

There was a candidate named Payne, And from running he could not refrain; But his name was made Mud With a sickening thud— Let the voters of Buncombe explain.

The Rads nominated James Ray And supposed they would carry the day, But the Demies stepped in, And said: "Jimmy, we've been On to you for some time, so good day."

Jete Pritchardt had a party Where ish dot hardy now? Ask our de vinds dat far away Vas all he has to cool his brow.

Hirsch Harkins, a 210-pounder, Said of Buncombe, "I'll put my arms 'round her."

But the voters with a vim Put their votes against him, And that's what made Hirsch Harkins founder.

Rollins had a little lamb, Its name? 'Twas Harrison Brown. And everywhere that Rollins went The little lamb went frisking along just as though in all its life it never had been to town.

It went with him to vote one day— 'Twas not against the rule; It made the lamblet laugh and play But it got too fresh and frisky and hung so officiously about the polls, that they suppressed the —!

GENUINE ALE. Aids digestion, prevents dyspepsia, is palatable and invigorating. Campbell's "QUEEN BRAND" is equal to the Imported at one-third the cost. Factory 217 Haywood street, Asheville, N. C.

FROM THE EARLY REPORT FORESHADOWING THE BIG VOTE CAST.

The Weather Was Generally Fair and Everybody Turned Out— Unexampled Energy Shows to Bring Out the Full Vote.

From Yesterday's Evening Citizen.

NEW YORK. Nov. 8.—Election day dawned cloudy, but about 8 o'clock the sun was shining bright and the air mild and balmy. The voters got out bright and early. It is doubtful if in years there have been so many officials about the polls. During the early hours, all indications pointed to a quiet election.

The new ballot law is not yet clear to all citizens, and late, and time again clerks had to instruct voters. Countless ballots were destroyed and new sets furnished to confused voters. There were more ballot boxes than usual on account of the three constitutional amendments that were voted on and the countup will take longer than usual. There was no doubt by 11 o'clock that a big vote was being polled—far beyond the expectations of the leaders.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 8.—Weather dark and cold. Rain or snow expected. Heavy vote polled. Roads in the country are in bad condition; advices from towns, however, indicate that a full vote will be polled.

ALBANY, Nov. 8.—Day perfect. Crowds waiting at all polling places to cast their votes and an enormous vote already polled. Senator Hill cast his vote in the ninth ward. Quiet prevails.

NORTH CAROLINA.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 8.—The Democrats are working with more energy and system than at any previous election. At 11.30 they had polled three-fourths of their vote. Republicans indifferent. All indications point to heavy Democratic gain over 1888, when Harrison had 986 majority.

WINSTON, N. C., Nov. 8.—Reported chances of Bower, democrat, to succeed Cowles in this (Eighth Congressional) district which were doubtful are now bright for his success by a safe majority.

CHARLOTTE, Nov. 8.—Heavy vote with indications that Cleveland will carry the State by increased vote over 1888. Mecklenburg will give him 2,000.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 8.—Negroes not supporting the party nominees solidly as expected. In this city they are voting extensively for Bunn, democrat, for Congress. Some voting for Cleveland.

ILLINOIS.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 8.—Illinois today voted on Governor and a full state ticket, two Congressmen at large and twenty Congressmen by districts, the Legislature and twenty-four Presidential electors. The Republican candidate for governor is Jos. W. Filer, the incumbent, and the Democratic candidate is John L. Altgeld. The members of the State Senate elected today choose a United States senator two years hence to succeed Cullom.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Election day opened crisp and clear. In one voting place, over 100 votes were cast by 7 a. m., out of total registration of 140. Very little difficulty experienced in voting big blanket ballot.

MISSOURI.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 8.—Trouble between the State and federal officers today seems unavoidable. United States Marshal Tracey has 200 deputies on hand to enforce the federal laws, even to passing behind the guard rail. The State has an equal number of officers at the polls to prevent any one, United States officers included, from passing behind the rail, contrary to the State law. If both sets of officers obey their instructions trouble is sure to follow.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 8.—Notwithstanding the fact that the Australian ballot system hampered the average voter the tickets were deposited in each booth at the rate of three per minute.

KANSAS.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 8.—Ten presidential electors, eight congressmen (one at large and seven by districts), a full state ticket and a new legislature is voted for in Kansas today. The new legislature will elect a successor to Senator Perkins.

TOPEKA, Nov. 8.—Weather in Kansas perfect. Expected 345,000 votes will be polled, an increase of 50,000 over vote of 1890. Electoral vote considered in doubt.

VIRGINIA.

WOODSTOCK, Va., Nov. 8.—Weather fine. Voting far above the average. Democrats claim county by 300.

PETERSBURG, Va., Nov. 8.—Weather springlike, with threatening clouds, heavy vote being polled.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 8.—Democrats are active while Republicans will hardly poll their usual strength.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—This State today votes on seven congressmen, nine presidential electors and the State legislature, which will elect a United States senator to succeed Fulton, Republican. Comparisons should be made with 1888 when Harrison carried the State by 7,000 plurality.

ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 8.—Rain falling steadily. Voting light and slow, and the indications are that many voters will not be able to reach the polls today. Reports from the State are that the bad weather is general, and that the result will be a falling off in the fusion vote. No trouble reported.

IOWA.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 8.—Iowa does not elect a governor today, but all the other state officers are to be chosen. Eleven congressmen and thirteen presidential electors are to be chosen. Registration this year was unusually large.

OHIO.

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 8.—Day opened bright and cold. Heaviest vote ever given in Toledo will be polled today.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 8.—Clear and bright. Early vote tremendous.

CONNECTICUT.

MERIDEN, Conn., Nov. 8.—At 10:50 this morning 2,300 votes were polled. The indications are that the Democratic plurality will be largely reduced. The Democratic ticket generally is suffering from the work of the independent voters.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 8.—Weather all over Pennsylvania clear, crisp and cool. This means a heavy vote will be cast. Reports from all parts of the State indicate that surprisingly heavy vote is being polled.

DELAWARE.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 8.—The gang of Republicans sent from Baltimore to fraudulently vote in this city were met by detectives and returned.

GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 8.—Block Democrat, is running ahead of Watson, Third party. Indications give Block the district.

MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—Delightful weather all over Maryland. Up to noon everything quiet. United States marshals and police are on best of terms.

MINNESOTA.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—Everything quiet and very heavy vote being polled.

SOME FACTS ABOUT CAMPHORLINE! 100 BOTTLES SOLD IN 1891. 700 BOTTLES SOLD IN 1892. We commenced making this elegant toilet preparation about three years ago, first sold in a local way without advertising. It gained such a hold here and in several points in this state that increased our sales as above stated. It is recommended and prescribed by several of our leading physicians in various skin troubles. It is without doubt the very best remedy we have ever sold for rough skins, sore lips, chapped hands, etc. Its cool and healing effects make it indispensable after shaving. It is delightfully perfumed, and a pleasure to use. It is as soft as velvet, and sells for 25 cents a bottle.

A WORD TO THE WISE. CERTAIN ADVERTISEMENTS FROM TRADE RIVALS, who tear the phenomenal success of VanHouten's Cocoa. In America, contain impurities against it, and appeal to the authority of Dr. SYDNEY EVANS, Professor of Hygiene at University College, London. This eminent physician ATTESTS as follows:—"From the careful analysis of Professor ATREVS and others, I am satisfied that Messrs. VanHouten's Cocoa is as pure and healthy, and that it is decidedly more nutritious than other Cocos—it is certainly 'Pure' and highly digestible. The quotations in certain advertisements from my book on Therapeutics are quite misleading and cannot possibly apply to VanHouten's Cocoa." The false reflection on VanHouten's Cocoa is thereby effectively repelled and the very authority cited to injure it, has thereby been prompted to give it a very handsome testimonial.
