TIME TO STOP VOTING

THE DEMOCRATS HAVE GOT ENOUGH.

We Have Ohio and California Today and if We Do Not Watch Out Maine and Pennsylvania Will Be Crowding In.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The World this morning says that "Benjamin Harrison and Whitelaw Reid are worse beaten in the electoral college than any men who have run for president and vice-president since Horace Greeley's campaign. They will receive barely more votes than Greeley would have had had he lived until the college met. Cleveland and Stevenson will receive more votes in the electoral college than any candidates have ever before had. The transfer of Ohio to the Democratic column raises Cleveland's vote to over 300, and reduces Harrison's to a little more than 100. Latest reports indicate next United States Senate to be divided as follows: Democrat, 42; Republicans, 40; People's party, 6.

Late returns from Kansas are not so encouraging to the fusionists as they were at first, but it has apparently voted for the Weaver electors. The returns are such, however, as to inspire the Republicans to claim the State. California at first put down for Harrison is practically conceded to the Democrats. A claim is made to Nebraska by the Republicans on the strength of a Republican gain in the First district, but the State has undoubtedly chosen Weaver electors. Indiana gives Cleveland from 5,000 to 10,000 majority. The states still in doubt are North Dakota, which is probably Republican, and South Dakota, which is probably carried by the fusionists.

ILLINOIS.
CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 10.—The following will in all probability be the complexion of the Illinois delegation to the 53rd Congress: 1st, J. Frank Aldrich, Rep.; 2nd, L. E. McGann, Dem.; 3rd, A. C. Durbin, Jr., Dem.; 4th, Julius Goldstein, Dem.; 5th, J. H. Hopkins, Rep.; 6th, R. R. Hitt, Rep.; 7th, T. J. Henderson, Rep.; 8th, Lewis Stewart, Dem.; 9th, H. K. Wheeler, Rep.; 10th, H. S. Post, Rep.; 11th, F. Marsh, Rep.; 12th, J. J. McDannold, Dem.; 13th, Wm. M. Springer, Dem.; 14th, Owen Scott, Dem.; 15th, J. G. Cannon, Rep.; 16th, G. W. Fithian, Dem.; 17th, Edward Lane, Dem.; 18th, W. S. Forman, Dem.; 19th, J. R. Williams, Dem.; 20th, G. W. Smith, Rep.

CALIFORNIA.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—The latest returns from California on the presidential election include about three-fifths of all the precincts in the State outside of San Francisco and practically all of this city. These returns give Cleveland 98,738; Harrison, 97,868; Weaver, 17,808. The Democrats have elected Congressmen in the First, Second, Fourth and Sixth districts, and the Republicans probably in the Third and Fifth districts.

MONTANA.
BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 10.—Returns from this State indicate the election of the Republican electors, Governor and Congressmen. The legislature will probably be Republican, insuring a Republican United States senator. The people's party cast a big vote, drawing largely from the Democrats.

NEBRASKA.
OMAHA, Nov. 10.—Nebraska Congressmen are: Wm. S. Bryan, Democrat, 1st; David R. Mercer, Republican, 2d; C. R. Keifer, Democrat, 3d; Judge Stainer, Republican, 4th. In the 5th and 6th the result is uncertain. Harrison carries the State, and the Republican State ticket is elected.

WISCONSIN.
MILWAUKEE, Nov. 10.—The Democratic plurality in Wisconsin and the State ticket is from 10,000 to 15,000. The Democrats elect 6 out of the 10 Congressmen and control both the Senate and Assembly, having more than thirty on a joint ballot.

MICHIGAN.
BAY CITY, Mich., Nov. 10.—The election of Weadock, dem., for Congress is conceded by 550 plurality. The Democratic elector in the district will get a majority of 750 to 1,000.

MASSACHUSETTS.
BOSTON, Nov. 10.—From the most careful estimate it appears as though Russell, Democrat, for Governor, has 2,800 plurality over Halle, Republican.

KENTUCKY.
LOUISVILLE, Nov. 10.—Late returns indicate that the plurality for the Democratic national ticket in this State will reach 36,500.

IN MCKINLEY'S DISTRICT

A DEMOCRAT ELECTED BY 1,000 MAJORITY.

One of the Biggest Surprises of an Election Full of Surprises—This is a Democratic Gain of 3,500.

ALLIANCE, O., Nov. 10.—Probably one of the biggest surprises of Tuesday's balloting was the election of Dr. Geo. P. P. Kirk, (Dem.) in this, McKinley's district. The complete returns wipe out the usual republican majority of 2,500 and elect Kirk to Congress over Thos. R. Morgan, sr., of this city, Republican candidate, by a majority of 1,000.

HARTER RE-ELECTED.

One of the Best of Our Democratic Representatives.

MANFIELD, O., Nov. 10.—Harter, Democrat, has been re-elected to Congress by 2,515 plurality. The result is a great surprise, as Johnson's election was conceded on all sides until last night.

Fritchard 388 in Henderson.

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., Nov. 10.—[Special.]—Fritchard's majority in Henderson county is 328. The State and National tickets have about 325 majority.

AT WASHINGTON.

The President Calm—Department Employees Shaking.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The President gave up the election when he heard from Illinois Tuesday night, remarking: "If Illinois has gone Democratic that settles it;" and he requested that no further returns be sent to him. Mr. Tibbott, his stenographer, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning was still figuring upon some possible combination which might snatch victory from defeat, but with very indifferent success even in his own mind.

The President rose at the usual hour, glanced over some returns which had been prepared for him, and then calmly devoted himself to executive business, saying nothing.

Attorney General Miller and Secretary J. W. Foster are the only two members of the cabinet in the city, though Secretary Charles Foster, of the Treasury, will probably be at the department today. He predicted that Harrison would carry every Northern State except Nevada.

Attorney General Miller was somewhat prepared for the defeat by the forecast of doubt which he brought back with him from his hasty visit to Indiana. Ex-Secretary Blaine declines to be interviewed on the result and has had the telephone removed from his residence to avoid the annoyance of perpetual calls.

The feeling of depression and unrest which prevades all the departments cannot be exaggerated. Those clerks who refrained from going home to vote congratulate themselves on their forbearance, while the friends of those who actively participated in the election hope that this feeling may not be charged against them.

A goodly number of department clerks, sheltered under the civil service rule, survived four years of Democratic administration under Cleveland four years ago and trust by attention to business to merit the continued favor of present appointing authorities.

The greatest alarm is felt by the unclassified employees of the bureau of engraving and printing and the government printing office, many thousands in number, who are paid by the day and hold on only from month to month. They feel that nine-tenths of their number are probably destined to be displaced by new employees as soon as the new government printer and chief of the bureau of engraving and printing are appointed, and especially as both the present officers, General Palmer, chief printer, and Mr. Meredith, the chief of the bureau of engraving and printing, were appointed from the great State of Illinois, which has gone over to the Democrats. Their lot is not a happy one.

THAT'S ALL RIGHT.

The Presidents Sorrow Should be Respected by All.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—It has been customary in Washington to celebrate the result of the Presidential election by firing a cannon from the White House lot. Bearing in mind however, the recent domestic bereavement sustained by the President, General Schofield, Acting Secretary of War, even before the result was foreshadowed, addressed the following communication to the chief of police:

"It is the desire of the acting secretary of war that what ever may be the result of the approaching election no firing of guns or other demonstration of rejoicing be made in the vicinity of the Executive mansion. It is suggested that Capitol Hill, will under the circumstances, be an appropriate place for the victorious party to celebrate. Garfield Park, on Capitol Hill, is the most available ground for the battery."

Secretary Tracy was at the navy department today. He declined to discuss the turn of the tide in political affairs. He left for New York this afternoon to attend the launch of the cruiser Cincinnati which takes place at the New York navy yard today.

WILL NOT CHANGE.

It Will Always be the Same Republican Party.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—The Tribune says: "The Republicans have been defeated in the National contest, but they have made the best fight they knew how. They have done nothing which they are ashamed of. They have left nothing undone which could be done honorably. Were they to fight the battle over they would adopt neither new policies nor new methods. The Republicans suffered, as they have done for the last sixteen years, by the suppression of the votes of half a million southern members of the party and the loss of the electoral votes of four states to which their candidates are entitled. They suffered from the malignity of the drys (prohibitionists) and by unprincipled fusion agreements made west of the Mississippi, which lent both to the dishonesty and the utter lack of principle of the Democrats and the besotted ignorance of the Republican Populists, the last named of whom could not see that a vote for Weaver was one for Cleveland."

"THIS IS AWFUL."

Quay Gets Bad News From His Point of View.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 10.—Senator Quay arrived here yesterday from Pittsburgh. He remained only a few minutes at the hotel and then visited a number of places on personal business, bringing up at the Republican State committee headquarters. Collector Cooper and an associated press representative found him there. Mr. Quay silently shook hands with his callers and, sinking into a chair, said, "this is awful." Turning to Collector Cooper, he asked: "What have you heard, what should we save?" Collector Cooper said that there were still hopes of Indiana. Quay made no reply but listened quietly as Collector Cooper told him the situation of affairs.

John S. Wise.

Hon. John S. Wise of New York, general counsel of the Thompson-Houston system, is here, it is said on business looking to the appointment of a receiver for the Asheville Street Railway company.

AND NOW IT IS OHIO!

DEMOCRATS BELIEVED TO HAVE CARRIED IT.

A Republican Newspaper Virtually Concedes That the State is Lost to Its Party—The Democratic Claim.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 10.—The Commercial Gazette (Republican) on the basis of complete returns from 54 counties, and estimates on the remaining thirty-four counties in the State estimates that Cleveland electors are chosen by 333 plurality. The Democrats claim the State for Cleveland electors by a plurality ranges from 1,000 to 1,500.

BLOODY POLITICAL ROW.

Mitchell County Has a Small War on Tuesday.

Mitchell Bird of Big Rock Creek township, Mitchell county, who is here attending the United States court, tells THE CITIZEN of a bloody and fatal battle that occurred at the voting place of his township on election day.

The trouble started when a man named Brown, Republican, and Wise, a Democrat, got into a fight over politics. The friends of both men paired off and a pitched battle followed. Rocks, clubs, knives and pistols figured as weapons, and men went down before them like chaff before the wind. The battle continued several minutes. The principal combatants were Lewis and Monroe Garland, Brownlow and Elisha Stanley, Chigman Hurrell and two sons and a man named Hill.

Sheriff Robert Bradshaw was present when the riot was precipitated and fought manfully to suppress to trouble, but without effect. When he came out of the fight he was bloody from head to foot.

When the smoke of battle cleared away it was found that there were fifteen men lying on the ground wounded, six of them being so seriously hurt as to make their death almost inevitable. Brownlow Stanley had stabbed Monroe Garland in the abdomen, and had himself been fatally wounded. Monroe Garland was dying when Mr. Bird left. Just after Mr. Bird's departure, and while he was yet in hearing, there was a great firing of pistols, and he believes the trouble broke out afresh, but did not go back to learn the results.

CRAWFORD SPEAKS

Given a Grand Ovation at the Court House Yesterday.

A crowd of several hundred enthusiastic Democrats called on Congressman William T. Crawford at the Swananoa hotel soon after his arrival yesterday afternoon. After receiving congratulations from everybody Mr. Crawford was brought up town and taken to the court house, where he made an address to one of the largest crowds ever gathered there. Speeches were also made by Hon. H. A. Gudgeon, Presidential Elector Locke Cratz, Gen. E. R. Hampton, J. M. Leach, Thos. R. Ransom, State Auditor R. M. Furman, County Chairman J. D. Murphy, N. P. Chedester and others.

At night the rejoicing crowds had a bonfire on the square.

AN AFTERNOON FIGHT.

Pitt Ballew Bloodies the Head of H. K. McBees.

About 1 o'clock H. K. McBees stood in front of Frank O'Donnell's saloon on North Main, and with loud curses and an open knife, dared Pitt Ballew to come out. Ballew came, but not through the front door, and struck McBees over the head with a stick, knocking him down. McBees got up and made for Ballew, who knocked McBees down again, bloodying his head considerably. A man named Boone was cut on the finger by McBees while trying to separate the combatants. The fighters were arrested by Patrolman Hunter and their trial was set for 4 o'clock.

STRUCK ON THE HEAD.

Frank Johnson Strikes Pitt Williams With a Stick.

During the jollification last night, while a crowd was standing around the bonfire on the square, Frank Johnson struck Pitt V. Williams, an employe of the Asheville Street Railway company, over the head with a stick, making a very painful though not serious wound. Williams says he had no trouble with Johnson and the assault seems to have been unprovoked. There are three knife cuts in Williams' mackintosh, which he says were made by Dick Johnson, a brother of Frank, at the same time the latter made the assault on Williams.

HEAVENS AND EARTH!

Mitchell Shakes Up Dry Bones and Goes Democratic.

Mitchell county deserves a great big medal for her work on Tuesday. The old Republican county gave Bower, Democrat, 235 majority, and defeated George Fritchard, a brother of Jeter C. Fritchard, candidate for the office of Sheriff. Advice sent to Chairman M. E. Carter from Burnsville say that Yancey county gave Crawford 178 majority, 78 more than THE CITIZEN'S estimate of yesterday.

The official vote of McDowell by telegram gives Crawford 314 majority.

ALL SAVE THE FIFTH.

Williams Now Appears to be Defeated.

RALEIGH, Nov. 10.—The Congressional returns are now so far complete as to show positively that the Democrats have elected Congressmen in all the districts save the 5th. There, Williams, Democrat, has 400 majority, with one county to hear from, which usually gives a small Republican majority.

The Rope Did Not Reach Him.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Nov. 10.—William P. Keck, a murderer who was to be executed today, was found dead in his cell. He died of nervous exhaustion. All day yesterday Keck paced his cell, crying, "I swear before God that I never murdered Mrs. Nipsch."
