

AROUND TOWN.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Forecast till 8 p. m. Thursday—Generally fair; north westerly winds; warmer Friday night; northwest gales.

A. R. Posey of Hendersonville is here today.

J. W. Kern of Salisbury is at the Swannanoa.

Dr. T. W. McCloud of Franklin is in the city.

E. M. Goolsby of Greensboro is here on business.

W. W. Stringfield of Waynesville is at the Grand Central.

W. Vance Brown is here from Cranberry, Mitchell county.

The Joint Board and Board of Aldermen will meet tomorrow.

Congressman Crawford went back to Waynesville this morning.

Mrs. W. P. Snider and children left today for a visit to Salisbury.

Drummers Owen and Davis serenaded THE CITIZEN several times today.

Geo. H. Smathers and J. H. Hyatt of Waynesville are at the Swannanoa today.

Vernosa Jarbeau and her company will bring "Starlight" to the Grand Saturday evening.

The first snow of the season fell here today, the few flakes blowing from the mountains near at intervals during the whole day.

Jeter C. Pritchard, the defeated candidate for Congress, came up from Marshall yesterday. He bears his defeat fairly well.

G. H. McCarthy and Miss Mattie, daughter of Francis Stevens, were married at the Central M. E. church parsonage yesterday by Rev. Chas. W. Byrd.

The Republican banner still hangs across Patton avenue. But since the election the wind has tied the banner almost in a hard knot, and its warmest friend can scarcely recognize it.

There will be a rehearsal of the choir of Trinity Episcopal church this evening at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested. A carriage will be sent for the ladies connected with the choir.

The Western Carolina Advocate, a consolidation of the Western North Carolina Methodist, and the Statesville Christian Advocate, appeared yesterday. It is enlarged to eight pages and is greatly improved.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Carrie Smith of Hendersonville, and Mr. J. A. Madrey of the State Bank of Commerce in that place. Miss Smith is a sister of Aug. M. Smith of this city and at one time lived here.

The pictures of Cleveland and Stevenson printed in yesterday's CITIZEN were made by the Southern Engraving company of Richmond, after Democratic success was assured. This was very rapid as well as good work.

Major J. M. Blair, the auctioneer, today sold all the debts due the J. A. Demers Woodworking company prior to March 17, 1892, to S. H. Reed, agent, for $125 cash. At the same time he sold a saw mill on Reems Creek to S. F. Chapman, agent, for $545.

It is told on Defeated Candidate Harkins that when he came up town to get a shave after the election the barber wanted to charge him a quarter, on account of the length of his hair. Mr. Harkins says, however, that he finally got the shave for 10 cents.

The hearing of the suit enjoining the city from interfering with the running of cars by the Asheville Street Railway company, which was to have taken place before Judge Bynum at Morganton today, has been adjourned by consent to Tuesday, October 22, at Marshall.

The United States court convened in the government building today, meeting for the first time in the new building. Judge Dick, Attorney Chas. Price, Clerk J. E. Reed and Deputy C. B. Moore and other court officers are present. There is a large attendance, several Indians being among those here.

LOVED HIS TOE.

Henry Ledbetter Prizes His Great Toe Highly.

Tuesday afternoon as Henry Ledbetter, a colored employe at the Vanderbilt quarry, was on his way home, he stopped to rest and planted a double-barreled gun, which he was carrying, on his foot, with the muzzle downward. The gun was accidentally fired and the contents passed through the man's foot.

Ledbetter went home and Dr. A. S. Whitaker was called in. The Doctor wanted to amputate Ledbetter's great toe, but Ledbetter firmly declined to have the toe taken off, saying, "You may cut my throat, Doctor, but you can't cut my toe off." The toe is still on and Ledbetter is doing very well.

SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS

Taken in the Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium.

The apparatus for taking physical examinations has arrived, and Mr. Stallard is ready to examine the members. This is the same examination that is required by all insurance companies, and no charge is made for it. The practical use of this is that it shows the defects of the body to which attention is to be paid in the gymnastics. Appointments for examinations made from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

I. W. Pickens will conduct the young men's prayer meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Subject: "Reading the Bible, but not understanding."

Bible class at 8:45 p. m., conducted by General Secretary Mays.

Another Little Democrat.

J. Will Jones, esq., of Fairview, is not only greatly rejoiced over the success of Democracy in his township, in Buncombe county, in North Carolina, and the whole country, but is prouder still of the arrival at his house on Tuesday night of a Simon pure Democrat. Though too young to vote as yet, the little fellow is in fine shape, and at last accounts was hurrahing for Cleveland, or words to that effect.

Death of Hugh J. Murphy.

Mr. Hugh J. Murphy, a resident of Orlando county, Florida, died at the home of his father, Mr. John H. Murphy, in this county last evening. The burial will be at Riverside cemetery tomorrow at 10 o'clock. The friends of the family are invited to attend without further notice.
