Chief Justice Merrimon

HE DIES AT RALEIGH THIS MORNING.

The Dead Man Was a Native of Buncombe, Sixty-Two Years of Age, and a Very Prominent North Carolinian.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 14.—Chief Justice

A. S. Merrimon, of the Supreme court of North Carolina, died this morning of diabetes. He was 62 years old.

Augustus S. Merrimon was born in Transylvania, then a part of Buncombe county in September, 1830. His father was a minister of the gospel. Augustus worked during his boyhood on the farm and at a saw mill, attending the district

"old field school" at intervals. But possessed of a disposition to learn and ambitious to excel, he studied an occasional permitted, without a teacher, qualified himself for the study of law, and when 21 years old was admitted to practice and at once located in Asheville.

Brought into contact with the strong members of the legal profession of the period, young Merrimon soon won the public confidence and soon reaped the reward of his care and diligence. He was repeatedly elected county solicitor, and made rapid strides towards the front rank of the profession.

In 1860, when public questions were greatly agitating the people Mr. Merrimon was, as a Union Whig, chosen Buncombe's representative in the Legislature.

His speaking out of the war he was tendered a staff appointment as major by the Governor, but being about the same time elected solicitor for the mountain district, he accepted the latter office, which he held during the war period.

During this time oftentimes neighborhood and even households were divided, and under these circumstances, when the duty of enforcing the law became most delicate and responsible, he acted with firmness, zeal, courage and a high patriotism.

In 1866, during Governor Worth's administration, Mr. Merrimon was elected a Superior court judge and became very

IT HAS BEEN POSTPONED

NO RATIFICATION HERE TO-MORROW.

The Exercises Postponed Out of Respect to the Late Chief Justice Merrimon and on Account of Illness of Treasurer Bain.

On account of the death of Chief Justice Augustus S. Merrimon, a native of Buncombe county, and the very critical illness of State Treasurer Donald W.

Bain, at Raleigh, the committee of arrangements having in charge the ratification exercises proposed for tomorrow, have decided to indefinitely postpone the parade and speaking.

NO FUSS AND FEATHERS

GROVER CLEVELAND STILL A

PRIVATE CITIZEN.

Consequently He Denies Himself

To The Press and Sees Only a Few of His Intimate Friends—

Answering Letters.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The most inconspicuous citizen just now is the gentleman who only six days ago was summoned to the highest place of honor in the nation.

Since the election Mr. Cleveland has vanished from public view. With the exception of a few words addressed to the throng in front of his house in the small hours of Wednesday morning, no utterance of public import has been met from the President-elect. He has remained in the privacy of his home occupied with his secretary and absorbed in the gigantic task of attending to the mass of correspondence which reaches him daily.

To representatives of the press Mr.

Cleveland has denied himself absolutely, and all such inquiries have been met at the door with the stereotyped statement, "Mr. Cleveland has nothing to say."

To a few intimate personal and political friends he has been accessible. Among these are ex-Secretary Whitney, Senator

Gorman, Congressman Little and Richard Watson Gilder.

It was at first rumored that Mr.

Cleveland was engaged in the preparation of a statement which he would make public, but today it was denied by Secretary O'Brien, who said, "I don't think

Mr. Cleveland will be heard from till March."

On Saturday afternoon Mr. Cleveland stirred abroad for the first time and took a short drive through Central Park, returning in time for dinner, after which he retreated to his study.

CHOLERA WILL REAPPEAR.

Consequently It Will Be Necessary to Restrict Immigration.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Secretary

Charles Foster said this morning that there is no foundation for the impression apparently prevailing that the administration has modified its policy restricting immigration as a precaution against the introduction of cholera. He said that sanitary experts declare that cholera will undoubtedly reappear in the spring and that it will be dangerous for the federal authorities to relax their vigilance in keeping out of the country all poison or merchandise likely to carry the germ of dread contagion. The president's order of September 1st establishing twenty day quarantine against immigrants sailing from foreign ports to the United States after that date except in special cases is still in full force and

A LARGE FIRE AT WINSTON

LOSS OVER THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

The Insurance Falls Short—The Finest Block Burned—The Fire

Started in a Drug Store—Two In-ediarly Fires Also.

WINSTON, N. C., Nov. 14.—Late last night fire destroyed the principal business block of the place. Loss $350,000; insurance $250,000.

The fire burned twelve hours and consumed the Haines building, the Vaughan building, and the building of the First National bank, the finest block in the city. The firms burned out include Caldwell & Rupp, Vaughan and Pepper, Rosenbacher Bros., and a number of offices.

The fire started in Brown's drug store.

Aid was asked from Salem and Greensboro and promptly responded to.

During the progress of the conflagration, an incendiary fire broke out near the Richmond and Danville passenger depot, which consumed Abbott & Jones' tobacco warehouses and Shephard's leaf tobacco factory. Eleven horses were also burned.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Gov. Holt Agrees With President

Harrison as to Date.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 14.—Gov. Holt has issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

From the establishment of this government to the present time there has been no period in the history of our Commonwealth in which the Supreme Ruler of the Universe has more richly bestowed upon us blessings or indicated more clearly His purpose to preserve for us our civil and religious liberties. To the Author of All Good we owe whatever of
