THE CITY AND THE STREET RAILWAY COMPANY.
A Proposition Made to the Board By Superintendent Patton and a Committee Appointed to Consider It.
A special meeting of the Joint Board of Aldermen and Advisors was held in the Recorder's office at 11:30 today, attended by Mayor Blanton, Advisors Cummings, Bearden, Miller, Williams and Hunt, and Aldermen Starnes, McDowell, Leonard and Baird.
The meeting was called for the purpose of hearing propositions from Capt. T. W. Patton, the new superintendent of the Asheville street railway, looking to a settlement of the differences that have existed between the company and the city for months past. Capt. Patton prefaced his proposition with the remark that war is better than peace, and expressed the hope that the city and the company might come to some agreement whereby the paving of the city's streets might be pushed. He referred to the suits now in the courts, especially the one in which the city asks permission from the Supreme Court to institute suit against the company for a forfeiture of its charter. If the city is successful in this motion, Capt. Patton said, it means another long and tedious fight in the courts. It was his desire, as well as the desire of Receiver Maddux, to stop as nearly as possible all the suits now pending.
Capt. Patton proposed that both parties stop all suits; that the costs so far in the suits be paid by the parties instituting the suits, and that the city proceed with the paving between the tracks, doing the work itself and charging the company therefor; the amounts to be paid by the company in such installments as the Board might fix upon. Capt. Patton said Receiver Maddux realized the company's liability for the paving between the rails, but according to justice and equity he did not think the company should be made to pay eighteen inches on either side of the track. So far as he (Capt. Patton) was concerned, he would be willing to make up a case agreed on the 18 inch question, to be submitted to the Supreme court, but Mr. Maddux desired to operate the lines without hiring a lawyer, if it were possible to do so.
Mr. Cummings asked Capt. Patton if the Board might not be held responsible by the people if it should waive the 18-inch clause of the Act.
Capt. Patton replied that had faith in the people of Asheville and did not believe the Board would be held responsible in this case. Speaking of the Patton avenue extension Capt. Patton said he did not know Mr. Maddux's plans, but so far as he was individually concerned, he would rather not see the track put back on the avenue. He referred to a suggestion made in THE CITIZEN a few days ago, as to the running of the line over West College and in rear of the government building and thence to Patton avenue, as a possible way of obviating the necessity of replacing the Patton avenue track, provided that amicable arrangements could be made with President Carrier, of the West Asheville and Sulphur Springs company.
When Captain Patton had stated his case, Mr. Cummings moved the appointment of a committee of four, to consult with Messrs. Maddux, Patton and Carrier, to endeavor to agree upon some basis of settlement of the question. This motion carried, by unanimous vote, and Mayor Blanton appointed Messrs. Cummings, Williams, Leonard and Starnes on the committee.
This committee held a consultation with the gentlemen named this afternoon and will make a report to a special meeting of the Joint Board tomorrow at 10 a. m., which meeting every member is urged to attend.
The case in the United States court has been postponed to await the action of the Board, and if the company's proposition is accepted the suit will be quashed.

SCANDALOUS LIES.
A Talented Swindler Threatens to Blackmail Two Ladies.
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The talented young swindler known as "Lord Charles Somerset Berresford" and also as "Walter S. Berresford," "Sidney L. Ascelles," "Walter Eaton" and "Wm. Bond," who is now serving a term of six years in the Georgia State prison has been detected, it is said, in a plot to blackmail two prominent New York society women.
Although Berresford is behind the bars, he threatens to publish in some newspapers in New York, Chicago and other places scandalous stories reflecting upon these ladies unless they pay him $2,500 as hush money. He first made this attempt last September and was met by a lawyer of this city, who, with the assistance of some central office detectives, captured Berresford at Albany. He was afterwards sent back to Georgia, where he was wanted for swindling operations in Rome, Ga. He is sentenced to six years imprisonment, but this has not prevented him from seeking to injure the New York women mentioned, whom he now threatens with exposure. It is said by the attorney who represents these victims of Berresford that the stories which he is trying to sell to the newspapers are scandalous lies.
Swallowed Cholera Bacilli.
MUNICH, Nov. 13.—Prof. Pettenkofer and Prof. Emmerich, who have been conducting a series of experiments with cholera bacilli, say that, as far as they have been able to learn, local and not individual conditions, engender the epidemic. Both men have swallowed large numbers of cholera bacilli, and yet, but for slight diarrhoea, neither of them suffered any inconvenience. The result of the experiments was a surprise to Prof. Pettenkofer, whose theory formerly was that the taking of any large number of comma bacilli into the system would be followed by cholera.—N. Y. Sun.
He Struck His Officer.
PARIS, Nov. 15.—While a company of infantry was waiting at Compiegne station yesterday one of the privates insulted and struck an officer, feeling him to the ground, and crying, "Long live anarchy! Down with the army and its officers!" The man was at once arrested. The penalty for striking an officer is usually death.

A Busy set of clerks may be seen at Blanton, Wright & Co.'s Shoe Store on Patton Avenue. Their stock is being largely replenished. The large stock of gents' hats are neat, clean and stylish, but for want of room for increased shoe stock they mean to close out every hat at a sacrifice. They make a speciality also of umbrellas, traveling bags and trunks.

A FATAL DROP.
Neil, Murderer of Several Women, Hanged.
LONDON, Nov. 15.—Thomas Neil, otherwise Cream, the murderer of Matilda Clover and several other girls, paid the penalty of his crimes at nine o'clock this morning.
Shortly before nine o'clock authority to hang Neil was handed over by the High Sheriff of the county of London to Hangman Billington in accordance with the legal form. At three minutes to nine, Billington, accompanied by an assistant who carried the pinning material, entered the cell of the condemned man, where he found the prison chaplain ministering to Neil. Without a moment's delay the hangman, while courteously asking permission of the condemned man, deftly and rapidly pinned him, passing a broad belt around his waist and securing his wrists with two straps tightly drawn back and fastened to a belt behind. Straps were placed around the wrists and connected with the body belt in front. This rendered Neil absolutely incapable of moving his arms or hands. The condemned man did not utter a word during the process which lasted barely a minute.
The prisoner then walked firmly across the prison yard. When the scaffold, with all its horrid paraphernalia suddenly burst on Neil's view he shut his eyes for a few steps, but opening them again walked firmly to his place of death without a tremor. The chaplain read the service of the Church of England and continued so doing until the last moment. Neil was conducted by the hangman under the beam of the scaffold over which the noose hung. Stooping deftly the hangman pinioned the culprit's legs with leather straps and then placed the white cap over his face and the noose around his neck. Stepping aside the hangman drew a bolt, the flooring underneath Neil gave way and with a jerk he fell. There was a slight quivering of the body, one or two spasmodic jerks and the most colossal prisoner of modern times had paid the penalty for his brutal crimes.
The inquest was subsequently held in conformity with the law when the usual verdict was given.
Mr. Walters, solicitor for the prisoner at his trial, was unable to obtain his legal expenses and accordingly driven to the expedient of selling the man's effects.
Just prior to the cap being drawn over his face Neil thanked the prison officials for their courtesy and kindness.

MRS. MAIBRICK
Her Cause Seems to Have Been Hurt by Gail Hamilton
WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The petition asking for the pardon of Mrs. Maybrick and signed by Mrs. Harrison, the wives of the members of the Cabinet, including Mrs. Blaine, and many prominent ladies all over the country, was forwarded to England, and ultimately found its way to the office of the Home Secretary. The petition received a semi-official character by being forwarded through the State Department and the United States Legation in London, and the response to it was communicated direct to this government by the British officials. This reply, which has not been made public, is reported to be exceedingly enthusiastic in its terms, so much so in fact, as to cause Gail Hamilton, in her last letter on the subject, to refer to it as "senseless, vulgar, and brutal insolence toward a friendly Republican nation pleading for its own citizens." The response is said to characterize the petition as the most impudent paper that has ever found its way to the office of the Home Secretary and wholly unprecedented.
Importunities are still made at the State Department to intercede itself in Mrs. Maybrick's behalf, but it is probable that further efforts in this direction will be confined to individuals and be of an unofficial character.
MANY CONVENTIONS.
The Women are Very Prominent in One.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 15.—The annual convention of the National Farmer's Alliance and Industrial union will be held in Memphis, beginning Tuesday, Nov. 15th. There will also be in session at the same time, the annual convention of the Reformed Press Association and the Farmer's Mutual Aid society. All the leading workers of the Farmer's Alliance, including J. B. Weaver, General Fields, Terry Simpson, Senator Peffer, and President Louck, will be in attendance. Delegates to the number of 2,000 there.
The annual convention of the Interstate road Congress will also be held in Memphis, November 16th and 20th and delegates from several States are expected. The annual convention of the Association for the advancement of women will be held here beginning tomorrow. Among the prominent women expected to attend are Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Mrs. May Wright Sewell, Miss Sarah B. Elliott, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. Mary N. Adams, Miss Lillie Fairchild, Mrs. Sarah Wood Moore, Louise Benson, Martha D. Strickland, Alice Stone Blackwell, Adele S. Hutchinson, Jane and Bancroft Robinson.

TRAIN WRECKED.
Just What the Loss of Life May Be is Not Known.
CUMBERLAND, Md., Nov. 15.—The Chicago express, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, with engine, express, baggage, smoking cars, day coach and two Pullman sleeping cars passed through this city on time this morning. Newburgh, W. Va., was also passed on time, but there the train was entirely lost sight of. At noon it is positively known that the train is wrecked. It is feared that many lives are lost. Telegraphic communication is cut off.
Why is Their Money Held Back?
GUTHRIE, Okla., Nov. 15.—There is danger of an outbreak of Arapahoe and Cheyenne Indians who, with the winter coming on, are on the verge of starvation. This is said to be the fault of the government to a great extent. The rations issued to the Indians have been reduced and their money has been held. If something is not done to relieve them they will kill stock belonging to white settlers, then a war will break out that the whites hope will be one of extermination of the Red men.

NO EXTRA SESSION LIKELY
PRESIDENT CLEVELAND NOT TO CALL ONE.
He Thinks it Would be Profitless, And Wants Time to Look Over The Ground Before Having Congress on His Hands.
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Sun this morning says: "The Sun is permitted to announce authoritatively this morning that it is the present determination of ex-President Cleveland not to call an extraordinary session of Congress after his inauguration, March 4th next."
"It is further announced that in the estimation, at present, of Mr. Cleveland and his closest friends, an extraordinary session would turn out to be a profitless proceeding. His friends say Mr. Cleveland must have time after his inauguration to look over the ground."
NO PROHIBITION.
The New Governor of Kansas is Not Going to Enforce the Law.
TOPEKA, Nov. 13.—Excitement prevails in prohibition circles throughout the State over the statement that Governor-elect Lewelling will do all he can to render the Prohibition law a dead letter on his entry into office. He promised the Democrats during the campaign that he would wipe out the Police Commission system which was inaugurated several years ago for the purpose of taking the government out of the hands of mayors in cities where people rebelled against the prohibitory law and permit the police affairs to revert back into the hands of the mayors. The Governor-elect said today that either the "joints" had to be closed in Wichita, Leavenworth, and other cities or they should be allowed to run in Topeka, and as public sentiment was against their closing in those cities, the same freedom should be granted here.
Already men are preparing to open saloons in Topeka. They say they can do so and be unmolested. The mayor is a Democrat and the new judge and county attorney are resubmission Republicans, and would probably not be radical in the punishment of violators. Two saloons were opened in Fort Scott yesterday, and the police commissioners of that city have agreed to resign their places and to desert in the further execution of the prohibitory law. Many leading Republicans of this city declared today that they were through with prohibition. Said one: "Iowa was swamped by it, and now Kansas goes down under the hypocritical banner. From this time on the Republicans of Kansas will let it severely alone."—N. Y. Sun.

ELECTION FRUITS.
Both Parties in Kansas City Want to Ferret Them Out.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 15.—The wholesale disfranchisement of voters in this city last Tuesday by the recorder of votes, has resulted in a combination of both parties toward ferreting out palpable election frauds. The Republican committee and citizens composed of both parties met last night and adopted a plan calling on District Attorney Seal to present the matter to the Federal grand jury now in session. More than 400 affidavits have been secured by the congressional committee in addition to larger numbers taken by the county committee. All these will be presented to the citizens' committee, while the United States Attorney General will be asked to take cognizance of a number of cases in which evidence is now ready to be presented.
One of the documents which is ready to be filed with the federal grand jury is a list of 36 deputies appointed by Recorder Owsley to poll precincts and upon whose evidence the board of revision struck off names. It is proposed to begin with disfranchised voters and trace each name to that point where it was dropped from the precinct poll books. Fluctuate to ascertain whether the recorder, clerk or deputy is responsible and in this way to definitely determine where the blame shall rest.

SOUTHERN LINES.
A Meeting to Maintain Freight Rates on Rail and Water.
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The meeting of the presidents of the railway and steamship lines in the Southern Railways and Steamships association began yesterday. President H. B. Plank, of the Charleston and Savannah, was chairman. After informal discussion a committee was appointed to consider what had best be done to insure the maintenance of freights, embody their suggestion in a report to be made to an adjourned meeting today. This meeting will probably last until Wednesday when the traffic managers of the lines in the association will hear the result of the deliberations of their superiors and take whatever action is necessary.
