Mr. Starnes' Bulldog Ordinance

Passes First Reading.

The Board of Aldermen met after the adjournment of the joint board.

The City Treasurer was instructed to pay the semi-annual interest on the market square bonds without separate notice in each case.

City Tax Collector Reynolds asked instructions from the Board as to the law regarding the sale of fresh meats, with particular reference to the Armour Packing company. Mr. Reynolds said Mr. Murray, the Armour agent, told him he had been selling meats to the Battery Park and Swannona hotels, and that he had permission from Mayor Blanton to do so. Action was deferred until next Friday, when Armour's attorney would be present. Mr. Reynolds also wanted to speak against Tentville, but was cut off by Mayor Blanton, who said the Tentville people's attorney could not be present before next Friday, and it would be best to hear everything at that time. Woody & Kimberly were given permission to erect a corrugated iron addition to their shop on Willow street.

Rev. H. S. McDuffy asked that Mary Ray be exempted from city tax. Referred to finance committee.

The locksters in the market house, in a petition, asked protection, saying that if it was not given they would have to give up their stalls on the first of January. The petitioners were told that the law forcing all green groceries into the market would go into effect January 1. Rev. Mr. Curtis asked permission to preach on the square every day, but the

MEETING OF TWO BOARDS

There was no quorum yesterday. So meetings were held this morning. Mr. Pennington makes members talk. When the time for the meeting of the Joint Board arrived yesterday afternoon exactly one-half of the full force of Aldermen and Advisors was in sight—Mayor Blanton, Aldermen McDowell, Waddell and Baird, Advisors Bearden, Miller and Hunt. With one more Alderman business could have been transacted, but neither of the truant members, Messrs. Starnes, Gudgeon and Leonard, put in an appearance. Mr. Waddell made fun for the crowd while it waited for something to turn up. He said the three missing Aldermen had been beaten in a lawsuit and were afraid of being "guyed" if they came to the meeting. He raised another laugh when he said Advisor Hunt was for a bridge on Atkin street until he had learned that the cost had to be assessed against the abutting property (Mr. Hunt's) after which he didn't care so much about the bridge. There was a good attendance of outsiders. Walter B. Gwyn was there ready to prove attendance; W. T. Pennington was there and begged pardon for having missed two or three meetings, then he went to Mr. Pennington, who came to see about some damages, Jos. E. Dickerson, who came just as an evidence of esteem, and Contractors Corpening, Eskridge, Key and Smith. Presently Mayor Blanton rapped for attention and announced that a meeting would be held Saturday at 10 o'clock, and promised to have a quorum if he had to send the entire police force after the members. The Joint Board Meets. At 10 o'clock this morning Mayor Blanton called the Joint Board to order. There were present Aldermen Starnes, Baird, Leonard, Gudgeon and Waddell; Advisors Bearden, Cummings, Green, Williams, Miller and Hunt. The Asheville Street Railway company was given permission to pave between its rails on Patton avenue with granite blocks under direction of the City Engineer, according to a request made by Receiver Maddux. The question of damages to the Straith building on Patton avenue was discussed, and Messrs. Williams, Leonard and Cummings were appointed a special committee to investigate and report next Friday. Bids for the construction of the roof of the house at the water works were opened. The bids were as follows: A. Tennent, $650; I. P. Griggs, $787.50; Edgar A. Poe, Jr., $542.50; J. C. Joyner, $580; N. P. Cora, $834.61; Joseph Chunn, $999.61. The contract was awarded to Mr. Poe, and the bond for execution of the contract was fixed at $250. He was given until January 16 to complete his work. J. A. Porter, one of the bondsmen for A. M. Smith, contractor for the granite paving on Depot street, asked the Board to declare the contract completed and relieve the bondsmen, because the work called for by the original contract had been completed, only a small amount of work remaining incomplete, and that could not be done until the Board and the street railway company arranged matters so that the work could be done. W. T. Pennington, another bondsman, made a similar request. He incidentally dropped a bombshell by saying that the Board certainly had full confidence in Mr. Smith, as it had given him all the paving on Buxton street without a bond. This raised a buzz, which brought out the fact that Mr. Smith had never signed either contract or bond. Then Mr. Starnes moved that the Mayor and City Clerk be requested to sign the contract and bond, and that Mr. Smith be required to execute a bond in the sum of two-fifths of the total amount of his Buxton street work. This carried. Then the request of Messrs. Porter and Penningman was referred to the Finance committee. Messrs. Baird and Green were appointed to consult with Chairman J. F. Rankin of the County Commissioners, with regard to the construction of a retaining wall at the eastern approach of Smith's bridge. A petition was read from Spring street residents asking a sterilized brick sidewalk. Action deferred. The following bills were ordered paid: J. A. Tennent, doors, etc., $9.15; J. L. Murray, salary, $75; Asheville Loan, C. & Co., sand, $62.20; Jos. E. Dickerson & Co., hardware, $22.29; Jno. Pow-ers, extra work on Merrimon avenue, $20.35; rock crusher pay roll, $95.50; street pay roll, $567.25; P. E. Laverhart, $6.10; Corn & Troy, curbing, $999.72; Carolina Coal Co., $9.30; Gazette, advertising, $2; Penningman Bros., bricks, $1,704.38.

WHAT ALDERMEN AND ADVISORS TALK ABOUT

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

STRANGE TALK FROM GERMAN MINISTER OF WAR.

He says Germany must be prepared for war any moment, and every able-bodied man must be ready to respond.

Berlin, Dec. 10.—The army bill was introduced today in the Reichstag. Gen. Von Kallern-Sinchen, Minister of War, spoke earnestly in its support. He declared Germany must be prepared to enter at any moment into a fatal war which would dwarf all preceding wars in the magnitude of the forces engaged and of the issues to be decided. It is imperative that every man in Germany be able to bear arms and should be ready to respond when called upon.

A FOOL AND HIS MONEY

Old Trick Successfully Worked in Maryland.

HAGERSTOWN, Dec. 10.—Mr. Jacob B. Crowell, a well-known citizen and former grain-drill manufacturer, of Greencastle, Pa., came to Hagerstown in search of two men, who defrauded him out of $5,000. A man came to Mr. Crowell and said he was a son of Alex. Stewart, of Scotland, Pa., and the cashier of a bank firm in Harrisburg. He wanted to buy a farm, and Mr. Crowell took him to see one of his farms. The man seemed pleased with the farm, and said he thought he would buy it. On the way back to Greencastle they met a man, apparently a stranger to both of them, who said he came from Kentucky. He said he had come on to give a sister some money but found that she was dead. He then proposed a game with some cards he had.

Mr. Crowell drew a card, winning $5,000. He was told that he would have to have $5,000 in cash to put up before he could get the money he had won. Mr. Crowell then went to town and got $5,000 out of bank and returned to the place along the road where the game was played. By some manipulation the man got hold of the box containing the $5,000 and gave Mr. Crowell a box which he supposed contained his money and the $5,000 he had won. When Mr. Crowell got home his suspicions were aroused, and he opened his box to find it filled with moss and bark. There is no clue to the man. After the game they went off together in the buggy and left Mr. Crowell to walk home.

IT STILL TALKS FOOLISH.

The Herald of the New York Senatorship.

New York, Dec. 10.—The Herald says this morning: "We find it impossible to agree with our contemporary the Sun in its support of Edward Murphy, Jr., for the Senate."

"We have named Mr. Dana for that position because he is both independent and impartial, will not persistently obstruct nor blindly acquiesce in the President's wishes, is large minded enough to both give and take advice. Murphy, on the other hand, is the tool of Tammany, Hill, Croker & Company."

AN OLD FEUD OPENED

The Green-Jones War Again on in Tennessee.

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn., Dec. 10.—The shooting of Henry Green, who was found in the road with a pistol bullet in his brain, is regarded as the signal for reopening the Green-Jones war in Hancock county. As a consequence of the feud between these families, twenty people have been killed, more are in the penitentiary, while others have left the county.

MURDERER RESPITED.

"Doc" Taylor May Yet be Given a New Trial.

Bristol, Tenn., Dec. 10.—"Doc" Taylor, the condemned murderer of five people, including the moonshiner, Ira M. Sellers, was sentenced to be hanged December 16, but the Court of Appeals has deferred the hanging until after the June term of the court, when it will be decided whether or not he is entitled to a new trial. He was convicted wholly on circumstantial evidence.

Georgia Schools Get $600,000.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 10.—The lower house of the Georgia Legislature has appropriated $600,000 to the public schools of the State. Half of the rental of State road receipts from poll taxes and liquor license also goes to the public school fund.

He Was $20,000 Short.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Lucius Weichenk, a member of the firm of Bryon Weichenk & Hirsch, has fled, leaving a shortage in his accounts of $20,000. He was a prominent member of every Hebrew society here.

After a Pardon for King.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 10.—Mrs. H. Clay King and daughters are here looking toward securing the absolute pardon of Col. King, who received a life term for the murder of David Poston in Memphis.

May Strike Through Sympathy.

DENVER, Col., Dec. 10.—It was rumored here last night that the switchmen on the Denver and Rio Grande and Union Pacific, if necessary, would strike out of sympathy with Rock Island operators.

Burned Out His Eyes.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Dec. 10.—Jesse Ashford, a moulder at Fort Pitt, fell while carrying a load of molten hot liquid. The metal splashing into his face burned out his eyes.

THE METALISM IN ENGLAND.

Mr. Hon. Henry Chaplin Will Introduce a Bill in Parliament.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—Right Hon. Henry Chaplin will introduce a motion in the House of Commons in favor of bi-metalism. He hopes to strengthen the existing bi-metallic party in the House by a large part of the Irish vote. The Times says "The best friends of the British agriculturalist will read the proceedings of yesterday's conference with deep regret."

"Bi-metalism," it adds, "with protection, is an experiment that no amount of fair words will induce the public to try."

Gardner Indicted.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The grand jury found two indictments for extorting money against Gardner, the agent of the Parkhurst society, who is now in the toils under heavy bail.

Mr. Carnegie Will Return Soon.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 10.—It has been authoritatively learned that Andrew Carnegie will return to Pittsburgh in the latter part of January.

Estabrook's line of pocket books, card cases and leather goods of every description is the finest and prices the lowest.

Lovers of pictures will enjoy the holiday opening at Lindsey & Brown's art emporium, on the 14th and 15th instants.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

request was refused, Messrs. Waddell, Leonard and Gudgeon voting no, and Messrs. Starnes and Baird voting yes. A bill for feed for the fire department horses, sent in by Powell & Snider caused discussion. Driver Erwin was called in and said the city was feeding Fire Chief Powell's horse. A note was given for the amount, $157.89. Aldermen Starnes read his bulldog ordinance, which provides that it shall be unlawful for any person to own a bulldog, unless it be muzzled, under penalty of a $5 fine for each day the dog is unmuzzled; further that if the policeman find trouble in impounding such dog they shall kill the dog and have it removed from the city. Adopted on first reading. The following bills were ordered paid: Carolina Coal Co., $5; Jarvis & Richards, $8.85; Joe Carter, $1.55; J. R. Patterson, costs, $34.10; T. C. Smith & Co., $95.68; W. B. Williamson & Co., $70.00; S. S. Lynch, $26; J. L. Cathey, costs, $16.25; L. Swisgood, $29.50; J. H. Boardman, $35.40; A. W. Lindsay, $12.50; J. C. Brown, $11.10; street department, $21.75; water department, $1.60; sanitary department, $33. The West Asheville and Sulphur Springs Railway company was given permission to charge a 25 cent fare on its Battery Park special car. OUT IN THIRD ROUND. Joe Goddard Knocks Peter Maher silly at Coney Island. CONEY ISLAND, Dec. 10.—Never was there a fight in this country that created less a fight than that Thursday night between Joe Goddard and Peter Maher, the so-called Irish champion. It was 9:40 when Goddard appeared and was coldly received in the ring. When Maher came on a great cheer went up. The weights of the men were: Maher 175, Goddard 187. The first round was lightning work from the start and ended in Goddard's favor. Second Round.—Maher got in a couple of benches on Goddard's face, staggering him each time, but the round ended in nobody's favor, though it had been a tremendous round and both men had worked for knockout blow. On coming out from their corners for the third round, Maher looked tired and Goddard surly. Goddard led for the first and was neatly stopped. Maher at last caught Goddard on the ear, and so made him mad. He piled right and left on both sides of Maher's head. Maher's legs wobbled and Goddard struck him in the neck. Maher went down, never to rise again in that battle. Ten seconds were counted, Maher was still prone upon the floor, the final blow having been administered fifty seconds from the beginning of the round. WAS INAUGURATED TWICE. Hayes Took the Oath of Office on Both Sunday and Monday. BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 10.—Ex-President Hayes, who was here as a member of the National prison association, disclosed an interesting fact not generally known. He was asked what would be the legal situation with reference to President Cleveland's inauguration at the 4th of March held on Sunday, instead of Saturday. Would Cleveland be inaugurated on Saturday or would Harrison hold over until Monday? Gen. Hayes said the latter would be the case, and then mentioned the fact that his own public inauguration took place on Monday, the 4th having fallen on Sunday. "Few people, however, know," he added, "that I was inaugurated both on Sunday and the day following. This was simply done as a matter of precaution. I was at the White House on Sunday with President Grant. Chief Justice Waite and Secretary of State Fish. There was talk at that time of Tilden being inaugurated at New York, and as my inauguration ceremonies were fixed for Monday it was thought that a question might arise as to the legality of the inauguration on that day. So Chief Justice Waite administered the oath of office to me at the White House on Sunday."
