A HARVEST OF WEDDINGS

MARRIAGES IN BUNCOMBE
WITHOUT NUMBER.

Judge George A. Shuford has Declared His Intention of Becoming a Benedict—Others Who Think the Example a Good One.

It is learned that Judge Geo. A. Shuford of the superior court will quit bachelorhood next week, taking unto himself a bride from among the hills of North Georgia. The Judge will leave Asheville Sunday afternoon for Coosa County, Ga., where he will be united in marriage on the Tuesday following to Miss Julia E. Dean, a daughter of H. W. Dean, one of the prominent men of that section. After the wedding the bride couple will go to Florida to spend their honeymoon. Their home will be in this city of course. Miss Dean is known to many in Asheville and is greatly liked here. She is a step-daughter of Mrs. Thomas D. Johnston of this city, her father having married a sister of Mrs. Johnston.

Fairview was the scene of a double wedding yesterday afternoon, both brides being daughters of Rev. A. I. Justice of the Baptist church here. The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. A. Speight, editor of the Asheville Baptist. Miss Lilie Justice, the elder of the two sisters, was led by the altar by E. S. Miller, and Miss Julia Justice by Leroy D. Brookshire. Both brides prettily costumed and the double wedding attracted much attention in Fairview. Mr. Brookshire and Mr. Miller are both Buncombe men, the former being a son of Thos. P. Brookshire and a cousin of Sheriff Brookshire. The brides are granddaughters of R. B. Justice, the veteran surveyor and one of the best known men in Western N. C.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Jas. H. Hampton on Bailey street, at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, at which the contracting parties were George Atkins and Minnie Arnold, both of this city. Rev. E. L. Stamey, pastor of the South E. church, officiated. The groom is a brother of Rev. Jas. Atkins, Jr., formerly of this city, but now president of Emory & Henry College Va., and of Prof. B. E. Atkins, president of the Asheville Female College. The couple will live at Mrs. Ottinger's, 28 Penland street.

At Dillsboro this morning occurred the wedding of William V. Tennent, formerly of this city, and Miss Nannie McCoy, daughter of W. A. McCoy of Dillsboro. The bride couple came to Asheville on the Murphy train this afternoon accompanied by Mrs. M. G. Tennent, mother of the groom and Miss Laura Tennent, his sister. They will spend the holidays with Mrs. Tennent at 111 Montford avenue and will return to Dillsboro to live. At the residence of B. I. Alexander on Bailey street tonight, will occur the marriage of John G. Tennent, and Miss Sallie Alexander, both of Asheville. Mr. Baird is floor manager at the Farmer's warehouse.

Adolphus L. Abernethy of Hickory, and Miss Gertrude Kester of Hendersonville, were married in the Methodist church at the latter place last evening by Rev. Ira Erwin. They spent last night in Asheville with Mrs. J. A. Hartsell and went to Hickory this afternoon.

Wedding Postponed.
J. A. Melton, living near Alexander's, was to be married to Miss Cordelia Revis, a neighbor's daughter this morning at the same time that his bride's brother, William E. Revis was to be united to Miss Augusta Warren. The double wedding was to take place at the Melton house. When it came to securing a license however, young Melton found that his affianced was not old enough to be married without the written consent of her guardian and the wedding had to be postponed. The other marriage occurred this morning and Melton came to town this afternoon with the consent of Miss Revis' guardian and the knot will be tied tonight.

SHOT AT HER HUSBAND.

And then Left Her Sewing Machine as Bond for Appearance.
Mrs. March McCordle and her husband, Calvin McCordle, appear to have had a difficulty several days ago. The pair are colored and witnesses say that at the time of the trouble the wife came running up Bailey street carrying a pistol and chasing her husband. It is said that she had already fired one shot at him. Policeman Noland arrested the woman last night. She was before Recorder Miller this morning and was fined $30. Mrs. McCordle declared it was an outrage for Mr. Miller to try to make so much money for nothing and said she'd appeal to the criminal court. Her bond was fixed at $100 and while she was gone to look up a bondsman she left a good sewing machine in the Recorder's custody for her appearance. Policeman Noland and Triplett, both newly married men, assured the Recorder they would pay him $30 for the machine if it was forfeited to the city.

Says Glover Will Surely Return.

Albert G. Glover, charged, by Dr. R. H. Reeves and A. J. Lyman, with obtaining money under false pretenses, has gone to Boston to spend Christmas with his wife and family. It has been alleged that Glover has left Asheville with the intention of not returning to stand trial, but W. W. Jones one of his attorneys denies this. "Mr. Glover has simply acted on the advice of his lawyers in going to his family," said Mr. Jones to THE CITIZEN this morning, "and he will be back here promptly on time. He has too good a case to think of leaving at this stage of the game."

Alliance Meeting.

In some sections the Farmer's Alliance has been badly disturbed on account of many of its members going off after the Third party, but in Buncombe county the conservative element has followed the original principles of the order and kept it out of partisan politics. At many of the sub-alliances new members are being added. A full and important county meeting will be held in Asheville Thursday, January 12, 1893.

STEVENSON IS NOT COMING

HE RETURNS TO ILLINOIS TO-MORROW.

He Has Decided That he Cannot Visit Asheville This Trip—An Announcement That Will Be Regretted On All Sides.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 22. [Special.] Vice-president-elect Stevenson has decided not to go to Asheville. He returns to Illinois tomorrow evening.

ATLANTA, Dec. 22.—Mr. Stevenson refuses to discuss politics, but in talking with one of the gentlemen in the party concerning the South and the administration he said:

"As to what the incoming administration will do, I refer to the distinguished gentleman who has his country home at Buzzard's Bay. He has more reliable information on that subject than I have. There is not a shadow of doubt on my mind," he continued, "but the South will be more prosperous under the coming administration than it ever was before. The South and North will know each other better and the season of distrust will be wiped away."

This announcement will be received with regret by citizens of all classes in Asheville. A reception had been arranged in honor of Gen. Stevenson and everything possible would have been done to insure him a Merry Christmas here.

NO QUORUM.

The House Therefore Adjourns—
The Senate Work.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—In the House, immediately after the reading and approval of the journal, Mr. McWilliam moved an adjournment. Defeated, 42 to 48. Committees were called on for reports, but without important results, and as there was evidently no quorum present the house, at 12:15, adjourned until Jan. 4, 1893.

In the Senate there was also no quorum present when the day's proceedings began. Many had left the city for the holidays, and among those was Vice-President Morton, in whose absence the chair was occupied by Mr. Manderson, president-protem of the Senate.

Among the papers presented and referred were the joint resolutions of the Vermont legislature requesting Congress to enact laws establishing a uniform policy of immigration from foreign nations and of immigration from State to State.

NICARAGUA CANAL.

Memorials Presented in the Senate in Its Favor.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—In the Senate today Mr. Morgan presented a joint memorial from the Alabama legislature urging that such measures shall be adopted by Congress as will best secure the speedy construction of the Nicaragua canal and its control by the United States government. He also, in the same connection, presented a memorial of Geo. S. Converse of Ohio and others, a committee appointed by the convention recently held in New Orleans, asking Congress to aid in the construction of the Nicaragua canal. Both were ordered printed as a Senate document.

In the same connection Mr. Sherman reported from the committee on foreign relations a bill to amend the corporation of the Nicaragua canal (which was placed on the calendar), and he gave notice that he would, at as early a day as possible, attempt to secure action upon it.

BLAINE NO WORSE.

Patent Medicine Men Advising His Physician Now.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Dr. W. W. Johnston, J. G. Blaine's physician, says his table is flooded each day with letters from people in different sections of the country, advising him how to treat Mr. Blaine's disease. Some of them intimate that the Doctor has not diagnosed the case properly, while the patent medicine people are filling up a good sized store-room with their goods, which they are sending daily to the Doctor by express, and urging him to test them on his patient.

"There is really nothing new to say about Mr. Blaine's case this morning," said Dr. Johnston. "Mr. Blaine is as comfortable a night. He is as well as he was yesterday evening, and is quite bright and cheerful this morning."

Two Real Estate Deals.

As announced in yesterday's CITIZEN Gwyn & West have negotiated the sale of 8½ acres of land on the Beaverdam road for Mrs. J. H. Osborne, to Ernest Allis of New York. The price was $8,500. The property is just opposite the residence of Judge C. E. Fenner and is about two miles from the court house. Mr. Allis will build a handsome residence on the property, and will improve the grounds so as to make a delightful home. He will move here with his family. Mr. Allis is spending the winter in Judge Fenner's house.

J. M. Campbell has sold to George Powell, two houses and lots in Cliveden Park for $3,800.

A Railroad Christmas.

An order was issued from Train Master Foster's office yesterday that gave joy to many employees of the Western North Carolina railroad. It was to the effect that all freight train traffic is to be suspended from tomorrow at 10:30 p. m. till Tuesday after Christmas at 4:30 a. m. This is to let the railroad boys spend Christmas at home. A similar arrangement has been made for New Years, trains being annulled from Friday, December 30, till Tuesday, January 2. No perishable freight will be received for shipment at depots and warehouses after 6 o'clock this evening until 8 a. m. Monday, January 2.

We have some special novelties for gentlemen and their sons, and invite the public to examine them before Xmas at the Whitlock Clothing House.

BONAPARTISTS ALL READY

ANXIOUS FOR THE DEATH OF THE REPUBLIC.

Jealous of The Monarchists, However, and One Party Will Probably Kill Off The Influence of the Other—A Farce of a Duel.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—Today it is the Bonapartists that are stepping to the front to take advantage of the difficulties of the Republic. The activity of the Royalists aroused the jealousy of the Imperialist leaders and at a secret conclave they drafted a manifesto addressed "to the people of France," urging them to recall the house of Bonaparte to the throne. This manifesto has not yet been issued, but awaits the approval of Prince Victor, the present recognized head of the Imperial family. Prince Victor is now in Brussels and the Bonapartist leaders in Paris have sent agents to that city to induce him to sign the manifesto and authorize its publication.

Prince Victor has been living in comparative retirement recently, but has kept careful watch upon the course of events and, has been found fully equal, Bonapartists say, to any crisis that may arise, and while prudent as to taking decisive steps he will be positive and courageous in action when once the step is taken. Imperialists have been canvassing earnestly for supporters among the Deputies, but not with much success. As the chance of revolution against the republic government seem to increase the division between the Monarchists and Bonapartists widens. Members of both parties, which heretofore have met on the common ground of opposition to the Republic, are now showing considerable jealousy as to which party will profit by the differences of the Republic. Already this jealousy is showing itself in the strained relations between prominent members of the Right. The course of the Bonapartists awaits the pleasure of Prince Victor, who has yet to be heard from officially.

THE FRENCH DUEL.

It Was Never Known to Do Any Harm to the Principals.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—A duel between M. Clemenceau and M. Deroulade took place as arranged yesterday. Neither was injured. Gen. Felix G. Sausier, military governor of Paris, had refused to act as an arbitrator. The idea of arbitration was ridiculed as an evidence of cowardice on the part of Deroulade who suggested it. Destades was appealed to and he at once proceeded to bring things to a climax. He decided that Deroulade and Clemenceau should have an opportunity to take six shots at each other and that the combatants should be placed twenty-five paces apart with the privilege of advancing three steps during the firing.

TILL MARCH FOURTH.

Appointments by the President Mainly to Foreign Countries.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The President today nominated Frederick J. Grant, of Washington, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Bolivia; Archibald C. Coolidge, of Massachusetts secretary of the legation at Vienna; Geo. Creighton Ceeble, of New York, secretary of the legation at St. Petersburg; Joseph R. Herod, of Indiana, second secretary of the legation to Japan; to be consuls: Nicholas Smith, of New York, at Liege; Ferdinand C. Gottschalk, of California at Stuttgart; Charles W. Deere, of Massachusetts at Zanzibar; Thomas Herran, a citizen of Columbia, at Medellin; Colonel John H. Hawkins, assistant commissary general, to be commissary general of subsistence with rank of Brigadier general.

POISONED CONVICTS.

Some One Put Arsenic in Their Food, It Is Evident.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 22.—It has developed that the sudden deaths and sickness among the convicts at work in Helena is due to arsenical poisoning. How the poison was administered, or by whom, is still a mystery. A chemist examined the stomach of Robert Lyman and found large quantities of arsenic in it. About 2 o'clock this morning ten of the convicts were taken suddenly ill. One more man died last night and another this morning, making six in all.

CLEVELAND THREATENED

Superintendent Byrnes His Body Guard Down to His Office.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—When Mr. Cleveland appeared at his office yesterday morning he was accompanied by Superintendent Byrnes. Both Mr. Cleveland and Inspector Byrnes refused to give any explanation of the matter. It is rumored, however, that Mr. Cleveland has either been attacked or threatened by some crank.

Chief of Police Assaulted.

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., Dec. 19.—Chief Policeman W. T. Shetton was severely cut in three places Saturday night, while arresting Baxter, Doc and Wiley Turpin, three brothers, and Tom Smith. The crowd was led by Baxter. Turpin, the Turpins were lodged in jail to await the result of Shetton's wound. Smith escaped. The Turpins were released last Sunday evening on a $500 bail each. Shetton is resting well and it is now believed the wounds will not be fatal.—Raleigh Chronicle.
