MAY IMPLICATE CARNOT

PANAMA SCANDAL GETTING NEAR TO HIM.

If De Lesseps Would Tell All He Knew The President of The French Republic Might Have to Resign—Some Daring Details.

PARIS, Jan. 12.—Today grave rumors are afloat in regard to President Carnot. Several of the deputies who have been most earnest in pushing the Panama investigation make no secret of declaring that they will not rest until Carnot is forced to resign. The strength of the case against the President depends upon the credibility of Baihaut, ex-Minister of Public Works, and Carnot's friends claim that no force whatever should be attached to Baihaut's disclosure; that he is malignant against Carnot for not having protected him from prosecution, and that he wishes to drag the President down with him.

On the other hand, it is pointed out by the enemies of M. Carnot that Baihaut's charges agree with the facts as known and that Charles De Lesseps would probably corroborate Baihaut if he were permitted to reveal all he could tell. What De Lesseps has already told is summarized in a report presented to the Chamber, and the enormous payments made by the company to syndicates which assisted in floating the loans. M. de Lesseps answered all the questions as they were put, and then made this statement:

"Much as I regretted it, had necessity compelled us to resort to such means to insure the success of our plans. The millions given to M. Obendoerfer (the banker who received 2,000,000 francs for giving the company the idea of a lottery, loan and putting the idea in practice) were in payment for his suggestion of a simple plan relative to the bonds and constitution of the Societe Civile. It behooved us to humor such a great banker and to find great difficulties in limiting the sum so narrow as I did. We always distributed money when fresh issues were made so that we might avoid creating enemies on the Bourse.

In response to questions as to the relations between Baron de Reinach and the Panama Canal company, M. de Lesseps said: "Like all great bankers Baron de Reinach was keen after profit. He was exceptional, however, in his willingness to risk his capital for the purpose of realizing the plan of the canal. He was the man who formed the Societe Civile with his own capital, assisted by the name of M. Bonaparte Wyse. When I gave Baron de Reinach the money, I told him to take out of it whatever remuneration he chose."

This admission evoked loud murmurs of surprise and disapproval from the crowd in the court room. The presiding Judge repeated in a loud tone, "You gave Baron de Reinach the money, and told him to take out of it whatever remuneration he chose?"

"I did. I handed him millions with permission to put as much as he wished in his own pocket?"

"Exactly. He first demanded 15,000,000 francs. I refused to grant these excessive demands. I persisted in my refusal despite his repeated threats."

"Did you know to what uses Baron de Reinach expected to put that part of the money which he did not retain as remuneration?"

"I knew only that the money was spent for the benefit of the canal."

"When the lottery bill had been laid on the table, M. Bant and for 1,000,000 francs, to be paid to him in installments between the introduction and the adoption of the bill. Of this sum 275,000 francs were paid to M. Baihaut. Then the bill was withdrawn and nothing more was paid to him."

M. de Lesseps paused a moment after giving this damning evidence against the ex-minister of public works. Nobody spoke or stirred, and he looked fixedly at the judges and added:

"Only when the knife was put to my throat did I pay this money. I was like a man giving up his watch to a highwayman."

AWAY BEHIND.

Few Exhibits Being Sent to Chicago.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—If any one is under the impression that exhibits are arriving at the World's Fair grounds "by the train load every day," as Director-General Davis recently declared, a glance at the books of the railroad and customs departments will rid him of the delusion. There are no train loads, and, what is worse, there is very little prospect of any at present. The department chiefs blame a great deal of the delay on intending exhibitors.

The Chicagoans are sending out circulars urging the exhibitors to commence installation at once, but the latter are now displaying a little of the obduracy that has hitherto characterized the World's Fair management. Exhibitors declare that their goods are too perishable to be forwarded at once, and that nickel and plated machines will tarnish, that silk goods will fade and that cereals will lose their freshness. As April 1 is the last day on which exhibits will be received, the seriousness of the situation can be realized.

McComas' Nomination.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The Senate Judiciary committee did not order a favorable report upon the McComas nomination today as was expected. The nomination will probably be deferred another week while McComas' connection with the National Investment company is investigated.

In a Prohibition State.
ROCKLAND, Me., Jan. 11.—Police raided the Central House tonight and seized $2,000 worth of liquor. L. E. Marah, the proprietor, is one of the best known men in the State, and the building is said to be owned by the judge of the municipal court.

HANGED FOUR.

The Charleston Murderers go to Their Death.

CHESTERTOWN, Md., Jan. 13.—Contrary to what was generally expected, Chestertown, outside the jail precincts, passed a quiet night. The streets of the town were almost entirely deserted except by the posse summoned by the sheriff. These guards, in twos and threes, and armed with guns and pistols, lined the streets all night and until the execution took place. Business during the morning was almost entirely suspended, but the streets were crowded with sleighs filled with merry couples who did not seem to have a thought for the four miserable wretches confined in the damp basement cells of the jail.

The scene at the county court house, however, was quite different from that on the streets. The room in which the eight men were tried, condemned and sentenced was crowded with young and old men armed with all kinds of weapons. Four of the murderers of Dr. Hill defended the jail should an attempt be made to lynch the four prisoners. But no such attempt was made and the posse contented itself with telling what it would do if a mob should appear.

Shortly after eleven o'clock the members of the posse inside the jail, a few reporters and the twenty witnesses allowed by the law crowded into the corridor where they were told by the sheriff to get ready.

The short march to the scaffold began with Brooks first and Coureys next, followed by William and Mose Brown. On each side of the scaffold the men were placed in position, the nooses were arranged about their necks, the black caps pulled over their faces, the legs bound and tied, and at 12:30 the men controlling the triggers slipped easily along the greased surface. There was a crash as the trap doors fell to the ground, and the four negroes shot through the holes. Four of the murderers of Dr. Hill had avenged their crime on the gallows.

DID HYAMS WRITE THIS?

It Reads Like Some of His Best Work.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 13.—A Canton correspondent sends this account of a terrible disaster in a country town about fifty miles from Canton, which occurred early last month and resulted in the loss of nearly 2,000 lives.

A band of robbers made a raid on the village of Kamli, in the Shin-Bing district. They first levied a tribute on the priest of the temple. The latter had just received large offerings from the people who were having a dramatic entertainment under a shed temporarily erected in front of the temple. The robbers applied torches to this shed and the people in a panic rushed into the temple for refuge. The main entrance of the temple, which was of wood, caught fire from the burning shed, and over 1,400 men, women and children were either burned, smothered or trampled to death. Most of the fatalities resulted from suffocation, as a strong wind drove the smoke into the temple.

WILL RENOMINATE QUAY.

Republican Strongly Denounces The Unseating of a Democrat.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 10.—A joint caucus of the Republican members of the Pennsylvania Legislature will be held January 17, and M. S. Quay will, without doubt, be renominated for United States Senator. There are not more than a dozen Republican members in the Legislature who have the independence to oppose him, and his lieutenants will run things to suit themselves.

Major George B. Wandy, of Huntingdon, a prominent Republican and an anti-Quayite, was here today and denounced the action of the Republican House in admitting Quay's lieutenant, William H. Andrews, to a seat in that body when his Democrat opponent had been elected.

"The Republican party," said he, "should beware. Tweed had his Carlezo and Tweed is still here, and this Quays seems to have his Henderson." Henderson is the Crawford county judge who ruled in Andrew's favor.—N. W. World.

HE IS A DEMOCRAT.

The Montana Senatorial Situation Simplified.

HELENA, Jan. 13.—Three days ago ex-Governor Hanser, one of the Democratic senatorial aspirants, said he would not allow his personal ambition to stand in the way of Democratic success in the senatorial contest. Last night he proved his loyalty by having his followers go into caucus with the Clarke men, making twenty-seven all told. The first ballot gave Clarke a majority, and then Hanser's lieutenant, acting under his instructions, withdrew his name. Clarke was made the unanimous choice of the caucus. There were thirteen Democrats and two anti-Quayites, and Hanser, the lieutenant of Marcus Daley. Just what Daley and his men will do now it is too soon to know. Daley left Helena yesterday for Anaconda.

Democrats Hold the Key.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 13.—C. W. Griggs, of Tacoma, received the Democratic caucus appointment for United States Senator last night. The Democrats say they will dictate the election of a senator, as the situation at present is virtually controlled by them. The Allen and Turner forces are still firm and in the event of their refusal to go into caucus there will be a deadlock unless the Democrats take part. The ballot occurs Tuesday.

May Get the Worst of It.

BISMARCK, N. D., Jan. 13.—The decision of the Republican members of the Legislature to hold no caucus is said to insure the defeat of Senator Casey. The Democrats held a caucus last night without agreeing on a candidate. The contest will now be a free-for-all in the Legislature. The outlook seems favorable to Senator Worst.

Well Known Physician Dead.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 13.—Dr. Saml Logan, one of the oldest and most prominent physicians of the South, died suddenly yesterday of apoplexy. Mrs. Logan died three days ago and the blow prostrated her husband. Mr. Logan was born in Charleston, S. C.

DULUTH HOTEL ON FIRE

SOME OF THE GUESTS MAY HAVE BEEN SMOTHERED.

The fire was still burning at last accounts, the firemen being greatly hampered by the extreme cold—another hotel threatened.

DULUTH Minn., Jan. 13.—The St. Louis, the oldest hotel in the city, caught fire early this morning. The flames spread with great rapidity and in a very short time the entire building was completely filled with smoke. Many guests were removed in their night clothing in a half smothered condition and it is thought a number were smothered in their rooms.

The mercury is considerably below zero and the firemen are working at great disadvantage. The newly opened hotel Brighton is in the same block, and it is feared that, unless the fire is quickly gotten under control, it may also be destroyed.

A. E. STEVENSON.

Brilliant Reception at Nashville Last Night.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 13.—Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson and Ewing, his law partner, reached Nashville from St. Louis yesterday morning. They were met at the depot by Col. D. B. Cooper and were taken to his home, where they spent the day meeting a number of prominent citizens.

Last night Mr. Stevenson and Mr. Ewing were the guests of the Ladies' Hermitage Association and guests of honor at the annual Jackson ball and reception given under the patronage of this association commemorating the battle of New Orleans. The Nicholson, a new hotel where the reception was held, thronged with leaders of society, bench bar, the governor, the Supreme court, the Legislature, city officials and many visitors from the surrounding towns were in attendance. The grand march along the brilliantly lighted and decorated corridors was led by Gen. Stevenson and Mrs. Harry L. Baxter, regent of the association.

NEGROES BUY MASKS.

Trouble Expected In Tennessee Town.

JACKSON, Tenn., Jan. 13.—At Greenfield Tenn., a few nights ago two negroes went to the farm house of Mrs. Jones, a widow, and attempted to outrage her. The woman recognized one of the negroes and told the neighbors. The next night a body of masked men went to the house of the negro, who greeted them with shots from a revolver. The mob then riddled the house with bullets. The negro was shot in the throat, but escaped, but in the morning he was caught and whipped almost to death. Today the negroes have been buying guns and ammunition and nearly every negro in the neighborhood has quit work. An outbreak is expected at any time.

IN LOVE AND PLUCKY.

Through The Snow and Into Zero to Marry.

BRISTOL, Jan. 12.—The most earnest and affectionate runaway couple that ever came to Bristol, perhaps, reached here yesterday from Bland county to be united by the Rev. A. H. Burroughs. Their names are D. L. Burn, of Bland county, and Miss M. M. M. of Bland county. Bland county, from which they started on horseback, about thirty miles from the city of Wytheville, where they boarded the train for Bristol. Between Bland and Wytheville there are two or three ranges of mountains to cross and at this time the snow is said to be about twelve or fifteen inches deep, and yesterday was the coldest day of the winter, the thermometer registering a few degrees below zero. The couple were married and returned to Wytheville last night where their horses were ready to take them back across the mountains to their homes.

$245,000 FIRE.

Several Kansas City Retail Merchants Burned Out.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 14.—Fire in the heart of the retail district of the city last night caused a loss of upward of $245,000, destroying a four story stone front building, Nos. 102 and 104 Walnut street. The Jaccard Watch and Jewelry company lost $150,000, fully insured; Foster Wagon company, $85,000, uninsured and unknown; Kansas City Art company, $50,000; loss on building $40,000, insured for $35,000.

Buying Nova Scotia's Coal Fields.

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 12.—It is stated on good authority that the coal magnates of Pennsylvania, acting with the Canadian Pacific railway, have about concluded a deal, by which almost the entire coal fields of Nova Scotia are to pass under their control. The combine, it is said, has over $17,000,000 to invest in the project. The Nova Scotia Legislature has been called to meet next week to ratify the bargain.

North Carolina's in Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 12.—Mr. Glenn, of Winston-Salem, one of the electors-at-large from North Carolina, arrived here today with the electoral votes of that State, but as the Senate had adjourned in respect to the memory of Senator Kenna, Mr. Glenn was unable to deliver it to Vice-President Morton.

Johnson City, You Mean.

From the Washington Post.
Truth crushed to earth may be able to rise again, but it will never select the Bakersville town plat for resurrection purposes.

A Big State, Too.

From the Washington Post.
It has been demonstrated that Texas can not produce a sufficient number of Magnums to supply the dime museum demand.
Intending visitors to the World's Fair ought to secure special rates at once. Apply to W. Turner, 37 Church street, agent for "Hotel Epworth." j13-1w.
