DEMOCRATIC HOUSE FILIBUSTERING TODAY.

Kilgore Opposed to the Bankruptcy Bill, and Will Not Let it be Considered on Its Merits—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—In the House filibustering began early today, Kilgore demanding the reading of the journal in full.

His object was to prevent consideration of the bankruptcy bill. The clerk as usual omitted the reading of the reports, bills, and petitions which come in under the rule permitting them to be filed with the clerk; but Kilgore called attention to this omission and demanded that their titles be read.

O'Neil contended that the petitions, of which many were in favor of opening the World's Fair on Sunday, were not a part of the journal; but the speaker ruled otherwise and the clerk proceeded with their titles being read.

The journal having been read Kilgore objected to its approval, whereupon Otis moved that it be approved, and on that motion demanded the previous question. The previous question was ordered—yeas 214; nays 3, and then the journal was approved by a mere quorum, 168 votes in the affirmative and none in the negative.

TO ADMIT UTAH.

Bill in the Senate For That Purpose—New Boston.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—In the Senate today Mr. Hale reported from the committee on naval affairs an amendment bill authorizing a contract for the construction of one battle ship of about 9,000 tons displacement, two armed coast defence vessels, ten gun boats of 800 to 1,000 tons displacement and eight minesweepers.

The amendment was referred to the committee on appropriations.

Mr. Faulkner introduced a bill for the admission of Utah as a State; referred to the committee on Territories.

CRIMINAL COURT

A Con vey Witness Gets Ten Days For Contempt.

The criminal court yesterday afternoon the case of State vs. J. D. Redmond, for an assault, was taken up. The jury was impaneled and the examination of Geo. Kimber, the chief witness, the man upon whom the assault was alleged to have been committed, was begun. Kimber proved a constabulary witness, however. J. S. Adams, the prosecuting attorney, would ask Kimber a question, and the witness would ask Mr. Adams a question, without attempting to answer the attorney's interrogations. Kimber was warned by Judge Carter that he must answer, and the witness with great assurance informed the judge that the questions were impertinent.

Kimber kept up his tactics until forbearance ceased to be a virtue, and Judge Carter ordered his commitment to jail for ten days for contempt, and the case was continued until next term.

State vs. Alex. Morgan; larceny of pistol from Penniman Bros. store; not guilty, on a technicality.

State vs. Arthur Baxter and Henry Miller, larceny of a pocketbook from A. Lytle; Baxter guilty, Miller not guilty.

State vs. Chas. Miller, assault; submitted, and judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. Wm. Vest, assault; submitted, and fined $25 and costs.

State vs. Thos. Lane, Thos. Sumner and Geo. Greenlee, assault; submitted, and judgment suspended on payment of costs.

Geo. Reynolds, who was convicted of an assault, was today fined $50 and costs.

State vs. Jesse Adams, shooting into train near Biltmore; jury failed to agree.

GYMNASTIC NOTES.

Basket Ball to Be Introduced in Asheville.

All authorities on health are agreed that physical exercise should be taken in the winter, in a well regulated gymnasium. Why? To get in good condition, to keep in good condition and to prepare for the debilitating influences of spring. All this, and much more, will the Asheville Y. M. C. A. gymnasium do. Classes are held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings at 8:15 o'clock and on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 6 p. m.

The instructor will be at the association rooms each day from 12 to 1:15 o'clock to meet and talk with anyone relative to basket ball. If anyone is unable to call, he may write and get full particulars.

There is now on foot a movement to introduce the game of basket ball, which is pronounced by all who have seen it the greatest indoor sport yet devised. To play it requires agility, gives exercise and keeps the mind constantly active. This CRUIZER will make an announcement of the first game.

THE HOMESTEAD BILL.

One to be Reported Favorably by The House.

RALEIGH, Jan. 24.—After careful consideration of a number of bills in regard to the homestead, the House committee decided to favorably report a bill whose principal features are that there shall be no exemption against injuries to person, property, or character, no exemption against work and labor done, and none against materials furnished. The bill provides that the husband may waive the homestead by note in certain cases without the wife's consent, and in other cases with her consent, and also provides that the changes shall not apply to existing debts or renewals thereof.

The bill to create degrees of murder will probably pass the House.

The bill to enlarge the jurisdiction of justices of the peace was tabled.

The bill to pay solicitors an annual salary was tabled in the Senate Monday.

Mr. Vance's bill to forbid the shooting of pigeons from traps came up in the House Monday with an unfavorable report.

In the House Monday the Buncombe county road act was taken up. It is based on the Mecklenburg act, and passed its readings.

The joint legislative committee on justices of the peace has made Gen. E. R. Hampton its clerk. The list of magistrates, 1,400 of whom are to be appointed, are rapidly coming in.

The bill to allow the people of Buncombe to vote for judge and solicitor of the criminal court was taken up by the House Monday. Mr. Vance said Asheville people are opposed to the bill, but the majority of the people in the county favor it. Mr. Watson spoke against the bill and it was tabled.

MR. CLEVELAND'S SUNDAY.

Counselor Whitney is Expected at Lakewood During the Week.

LAKESWOOD, N. J., Jan. 22.—A week ago Mrs. Cleveland took a sleigh ride after attending church. A lot of people in various parts of the county pretended to be shocked at this, and demanded that the Biblical injunction in regard to the Sabbath day be carried out to the letter. They did not explain, however, how anybody is going to get to church in the deep snow which prevailed without using a sleigh, and apparently forgot the fact that the Cleveland horses had only just arrived at Lakewood and needed exercise. People in Lakewood, knowing the impossibility of getting about here last week without a sleigh, have been much amused at some of these idle criticisms, and the minister of one of the local churches has said that if sleighs could not be used he would have no Sunday congregation.

At any rate neither Mrs. Cleveland nor the President elect used the sleigh when it was driven to the cottage about 11 o'clock and the nurse took little Miss Cleveland out for a ride. Miss Ruth, who is looking the picture of health, was clad in a white silk astrakhan coat, with a hood of the same color, and after a ride of two hours in the crisp air returned to the cottage with glowing cheeks.

It is expected that William C. Whitney will be down here about the middle of the week, and the arrival of other Democratic leaders is looked for about the same time.—N. Y. World.

OUT AT BRYSON CITY.

Cold Weather News From the Little Mountain Town.

J. W. L. Arthur of Bryson City, spent Monday night at the Grand Central. Talking about cold weather, Mr. Arthur told THE CITIZEN that on the 16th inst. an exposed thermometer in his town registered 34° below zero. The Tuckasee river has been frozen over, and ice twelve inches thick has been taken off it, so that Bryson City will not suffer from an ice famine next summer. Last week the snow was thirty inches deep, and when Mr. Arthur left home there were still twelve inches on the ground. It has been three weeks since the inhabitants of the town had a sight of the bare earth, and Mr. Arthur says if the snow does not melt faster than it has there will be snow there till March.

Mr. Arthur says this is no Hyams talk, because he knows whereof he speaks. He laughingly added that Asheville must have used a Hyams-potent-winter-resort thermometer, as the mercury did not get lower here than 9° below.

The Western Collectorship.

The Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Observer writing his paper under date of the 22nd of January says: "About the western collectorship only this additional fact is attainable: Mr. Craig has some strong endorsements and is regarded here as not by any means a weak man in a struggle where there are many good men competing with each other."

J. S. Bell, the Alliance lecturer, who did good work for the Democratic party in the last campaign, is reported from Raleigh as being a candidate for the western collectorship. I have heard nothing here of the fact.

WONDERFUL YOUNG MAN

PRODIGY CREDITED TO BUNCOMBE COUNTY.

Natural Improviser of Song, and Can Recite Verses for Hours at a Time—Can Neither Read Nor Write, and is Devoid of Memory.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat prints a story of a Buncombe county prodigy. The story was given that paper by a gentleman stopping at the Lindell hotel in that city and is as follows:

"Living in the mountains of Western North Carolina near the city of Asheville, and within a mile of where the walls of George Vanderbilt's ten million-dollar castle are growing skyward, lives a man who, if he had the opportunity, would become a poet laureate. He is ignorant, unsophisticated and, must I say it, very profane; but for all that he has an ardent eye for the beautiful in nature and is a natural poet of nature's own making. This man, or boy rather, for he is not more than twenty years, is a natural improviser of song, and, in the rude, unchoicé language of the mountaineer, he will sometimes repeat verses by the hour, rolling them out as fluently and as charmingly as a Whittier or a Burns. He can neither read nor write, and seems to be devoid of memory, as he can never repeat his verses a second time.

"He will take a mossy stone, a leafy tree and a bird and weave out of them a story, or a song sometimes, exquisitely beautiful. It seems to be as natural for this child of nature to be poetical as it is for the mocking bird to sing, or a brook to bubble. He has a perfect conception of metrical harmony, and rarely does the measure of his verses change when improvising, but sometimes the listener will be shocked to hear a profane word woven into a verse otherwise perfect in measure and harmony. His talent is not at all appreciated by his father, who pronounces him a worthless scamp who would rather be off singing than hoeing in the tobacco patch, and it is admitted by his most ardent admirers that he is just too lazy to live."

This second Burns is named Alvin Jackson, and his father says disgustedly that 'Alvin is the only dumb fool that was ever in the family.'

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

Directors of the R. E. Investment Company of Wilmington.

The annual meeting of stockholders of the Real Estate Investment company of Wilmington, N. C., was held yesterday in the office of Maj. Chas. M. Stedman in Asheville. T. G. Carson was made chairman of the meeting and Geo. S. Powell secretary.

The report of President Stedman showed the condition of the company to be very satisfactory. Directors for the coming year were elected as follows: J. P. Sawyer, J. B. Bostic, Jno. M. Campbell, R. U. Garrett, C. T. Rawls, Jas. M. Campbell, Jas. Sprunt, Thos. W. Strange, James S. Carr, Benjamin Cameron and Chas. M. Stedman. A meeting of the newly elected directors will be held at an early day for the purpose of electing officers.

This company owns, among its property, 80,000 acres in Hyde county, N. C., which is probably the best game preserve east of the Rockies. It is much sought after by Northerners who come South for hunting and fishing.

LOU BROWN.

His New Clothing Establishment Opens This Morning.

Lou Brown, the new clothier and gent's furnisher, opened his doors to the public this morning, as advertised in THE CITIZEN since Monday, and the stock he displayed showed that he knows what the people want, and the prices attached indicated that he means to sell.

The splendid new room in the Hilliard block has been refitted throughout, showing taste and sound judgment, and the establishment is packed full of fresh and fashionable goods of all kinds used by gentlemen.

Lou Brown is in Asheville to do business, and as he knows how to use printers' ink, there is no doubt of his success. When you want anything in the way of gent's clothing or furnishings, drop in on Lou Brown and see what he can do for you.

The New Paper.

The Marion Record says: There is a movement on foot to start another daily newspaper in Asheville. It is to be published every morning. Fred R. Tiffany, esq., of Marion, is to be editor. THE CITIZEN says Mayor Chas. D. Blanton is heading the matter. Mr. Tiffany wields a facile pen, and we predict, will make the paper a gem that will quickly win public favor; being backed by such thoroughgoing business men as Mayor Blanton assures success for the new enterprise.—H. M. Coffee, who has been with Dr. M. F. Morphey for several years has gone to Asheville to live. His able demeanor won for him friends here, and will win them at Asheville.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 24.—A railroad official, who claims to have the best authority for his story, says that seven persons, including passengers and train crew, were burned to death on the Big Four road at Wann Station Saturday morning in the wreck there.
