Money and Other Valuables Stolen From W. O. Wolfe's Residence.

The residence of W. O. Wolfe, No. 92 Woodfin street, was entered last night by a burglar, who effected his entrance through a parlor window. From a desk, which the burglar unlocked, he took a pocketbook containing about $40 in greenbacks, some silver, and from a satchel took several gold rings belonging to Mrs. Wolfe, valuable papers, etc.

Deputy Sheriff J. M. Morgan went to the residence this morning, with the result that James and Charles Hart, colored, were arrested by him this afternoon. They were given a hearing this afternoon before Justice Israel. None of the stolen property was found.

Right You Are, Mr. Dana.

From the New York Sun.

At Fremont on Friday, during the funeral, Mr. Cleveland was reported as saying to a bystander: "When the news of Gen. Hayes' death reached me I was almost overcome. I said to my wife that if Gen. Hayes were in my place and I at his, he would certainly come to me, and I told my wife that I should take the trip." He was a man for whom I had the highest regard.

These words seem to bear out the idea of an attachment between the two men independent of political or official circumstances. The sentiments of personal grief attributed to Mr. Cleveland are too strongly expressed to be explained satisfactorily on other grounds. Such a motive for his recent journey is not properly a subject for criticism or discussion.

The Sherman Silver Law.

DULUTH, Minn., Jan. 25.—The clearing house and real-estate exchange yesterday adopted resolutions in opposition to the Sherman silver bill and formulated a memorial asking its repeal.

FROZEN FACTS.

—Watauga Democrat: Could the readers of the Democrat know the trouble this issue has been they evidently would appreciate it. The first pages were printed almost without correcting, from the fact that as quickly as the type was set it froze into a solid block.

The Greenview Reflector says that Griffiths a place of 1,000 inhabitants, is situated in two counties, Pitt and Lehigh, three townships, two congressional districts, two senatorial districts and two judicial districts.

—A correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger says that on Saturday last a white deer was killed near Weldon—the first seen in that section within the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

—J. G. Hall, esq., of Hickory, has concluded to be an applicant for the collection of internal revenue in the Western district.

A few fine art calendars left over are being closed out at one-third off the price at Laws.

IN THE HOUSE AND SENATE

Madison People Want to get Back Into Buncombe.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 23.—[Special.]—Since the excitement of the inaugural ceremonies of Gov. Carr, and the Road Congress the Assembly has gotten down to work in earnest. About 500 bills have been introduced in the two branches of the Legislature, but at least one half of them have already found their way to the tables.

Bills have been introduced in both branches to fix the legal rate of interest at 6 per cent., but they met with considerable opposition. A bill has been introduced in the house to allow Buncombe county to elect by the popular vote the county tax collector same as other other county officers. This seems to meet with more general approval.

A bill was introduced in the house today to change the Buncombe county line to include in this county that portion of Madison county known as Little Sandy Mush section, and which originally belonged to Buncombe. The people residing in that section are anxious to get put back to the county of their first love. There seems to be no objection to this move, since it does not materially affect the political complexion of either county, and to affect the financial interest of the State.

In the Senate Wednesday a bill was introduced to establish a State reformatory and one to incorporate the Durham and Charlotte railway.

A resolution was introduced by a Third party man, instructing Senators and Representatives to secure, if possible, the repeal of the Sherman silver act.

The Senate devoted many hours to hearing the evidence in the contested election case from the Eighteenth District, with a majority report in favor of Leach (Democrat), the minority favoring Henderson, and Leach was seated by a vote of 29 to 19.

The House passed the bill to make two degrees in murder.

The act giving magistrates jurisdiction in cases involving concealed weapons was tabled in the House.

The House will pass a bill restoring to the railways the right to issue passes.

The bill to amend the act relative to fees of registers of deeds failed to pass the House.

"LIGE?"

Lige is ALLO. K. With the Senators and Will Pass.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—There does not appear to be any substantial opposition to the confirmation yesterday of Elijah W. Halford, to be paymaster in the army with the rank of major. While there is a sentiment entertained by some Senators adverse to the appointment of civilians to places in the army, it appears the objection would not apply with full force in this case, for the reason that Major Halford has already had considerable experience in the army, and moreover, in the line of the duties he is about to assume. The fact is not generally known that during the late war he was twice rejected for army service because of physical disability. Nevertheless he finally entered the service as paymaster's clerk to Major William C. Lupton, and in that capacity served some years in New Orleans and at various posts along the Mississippi and on the Gulf coast.

At Least That is The Report—One of Two Other Names Mentioned—Mr. Cleveland in New York—A Conference.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., Jan. 26.—Quiet at the Cleveland cottage, Little White House, today, the absence of the President-elect being easily noticed. A second delegation from Tennessee called at the cottage today expecting to find Mr. Cleveland. When they learned he had gone to New York City, they took the 10:50 o'clock train for that city. Mr. Cleveland expected to return here tonight. It is said he will return to New York Saturday and finish what business he cannot attend to today.
