32 COUPLES MARRIED.

Crown Prince Ferdinand and Hi

BUCHAREST, Feb. 7.-In accordance weddings of thirty-two peasant couples, representing the thirty-two districts of Roumania, were celebrated today in the presence of Crown Prince Ferdinand and his bride. After the marriage ceremonies the couples drove in thirty-two carriages decorated with flowers to the royal pal-ace, where a wedding dinner was served. king Charles gave a purse filled with gold to every couple, and Crown Prince Ferdinand clicked glasses with every bridegroom before drinking with him. The Crown Prince and his bride were received with enthusiasm by the street crowds when they drove from the church to the palace.-N. Y. Sun.

In the party, too, were Mr. and Mrs. Stetson and Col. and Mrs. Daniel Lamont. The pall bearers were Grover Cleveland, Cornelius Vanderbilt, George Peabody Wetmore, Hamilton McK. Twombley, E. Randolph Robinson, George G. Haven, George H. Bend, Edward Wick, Thomas F. Cushing and Buchanan Winthrop. The body of the church was filled with people bearing the most prominent and familiar names in New York. The services which followed were the usual form of the Episcopal pearances, commencing with a drenching rain on his inauguration day and even following him into each of his private duck hunting expeditions.

The ceremonies attending the counting of the vote were preceded by a joint reso-lution introduced by Senator Hower in lution introduced by Senator Hower in 1888 and which has been made applicable to all succeeding elections and been incorporated in the revised statutes.

Vice-President Morton some days since appointed as tellers on behalf of the Senate for this important erremony Hale of Maine and Blackburn of Kentucky. Speaker Crisp appointed Judge Chipman of Michigan and Henry Cabot Lodge, Senator-elect from Massachusetts, as House tellers.

Four Thousand Persons in Dis tress in Louislana for Want of Food-Floods Prevented Their Raising Their Usual Crops Last

MEMPHIS. Feb. S .- Four thousand eople in Concordia and Cataraoula parishes in the northern portion of Louis ana, are on the verge of starving. Information received from that section yesday shows that the people are in a pitiful condition, and unless relict is given them at once many deaths from starvation will result. The floods of the last ummer destroyed their crops, and the water remained so long that it was not possible to plant corn or anything else possible to plant corn or anything else beyond some quickly maturing vegetables. Hence hundreds moved away. Thousands, however, were unable to leave. Those remaining have subsisted during the winter on wild game, but now they have nothing to keep body and soul together.

THE HOME RULE BILL.

Gladstone Will Bring It Forward on Monday Next, D. V. LONDON, Feb. 8 .- The House of Com-

nons reassembled at noon today. Mr. Gladstone at once announced that be would tomorrow or on Friday, move the suspension rule under which the House rises at midnight. This is evidence of the Prime Minister's intention to bring the debate on the address in reply to the Queen's speech to an end as speedily as possible, so that he may introduce his home rule bill at the time fixed, Monday next. He was greeted with cheers by the supporters of the government.

The debate on the address was the resumed. Jesse Collings, who represents Bordesty division of Birmingham, and who is the strongest Radical who op-poses the home rule bill, moved an mendment urging that legislation for the betterment of the condition of agriculturists have precedence over the home rule bill. In speaking to his motion, Collings taunted the Liberals with promising to help the agriculturists and then forgetting their promise when they came into power.
