> His Death Probably Hastened by Exposure During Attendance Upon the Funeral of His Broth- Asheville er, Gen. Abner Doubleday.

Geo. F. Scott of this city received late Saturday afternoon a telegram from

Gen. Doubleday had, but a few days before his death, returned from Bergen Point, N. J., whither he had gone to attend the funeral of his brother, Gen. Abner Doubleday. The trip was a trying one to Gen. Doubleday's constitution, and he returned home and took his bed, threatened with pneumonia. Although his condition was known to be serious, it was not considered dangerous. Mr. Scott received a letter from Harold Doubleday, written Saturday morning, giving details of his father's illness. The giving details of his father's illness. The General's death was sudden, resulting from strangulation.

Gen. Doubleday leaves two sons, Harold and Stewart, the latter of whom is taking a course in medicine at the University of Virginia, and one daughter, Mrs. C. W. Cutting of Bergen Point, N. J. News of the death of Mr. Cutting was received by the General on the morning of the day on which he died.

Gen. Doubleday was a native of New York State, and was 69 years old in November last. In his earlier days he was a prominent business man in New was a prominent business man in New York city, having been connected at dif-ferent times with banking institutions in that city. When the civil war opened he enlisted in the Union army and served till the close, having been advanced to the position of brigadier general on Gen. U. S. Grant's staff. About twelve years ago he removed to Asheville, and for six years was a partner of Geo. F. Scott in the lumber business. Three years ago he removed to Tryon and on a splendid property began the cultivation of fine fruits, living there until his death.

Soon after his arrival in Asheville Gen. Doubleday purchased a large tract of vacant land in the northern portion of Asheville. This he parceled into small residence lots and sold them to poor people on very easy terms, with the result that scores of men too poor to purchase expensive property at eash prices were able to erect homes and pay for them in a few years' time. This is now one of the most thickly settled portions of the city and today bears his name, and, no doubt will do so always. And the esteem in which this portion of Asheville holds Gen. Doubleday is monument enough for

But the admiration for the General was not confined to this portion of the he news of his death.

YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE.

A Well Attended Meeting Held There Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock a meeting to organize the "Young Men's Institute" was held in the new building, tary of the beneficient enterprise, acted as secretary pro tem. Rev. W. J. Erdman and Mr. Charles dressed the men who had turned out to the number of seventy, notwithstanding he bad weather. Another meeting will be held Tuesday vening, when the names or the officers and standing committees for the ensuing year will be announced.

Work in the building is not quite completed. The electric lights are yet to be put in, and here and there finishing touches are to be made. The concrete payement around the building will be aid as soon as the weather permits The building is one of the handsomest in Asheville.

CHECKERS.

Interesting Match in the Checker

The twice-postponed game of checkers, between Asheville and Biltmore and Oakland Heights players came off in the haudsome new rooms of the Buncombe Checker club Saturday night, and was witnessed by a number of interested spectators. The honors of the evening were carried off by T. C. Collins of Asheville. The score in detail:

C. D. Blanton, chairman. Give the Library a Map.

The Asheville library greatly needs a good map of North Carolina, frequent applications being made, especially by visitors, for just such information as a good map would furnish. It any friend of the association who has such a map will either lend or donate it to the library, the favor will be greatly appre-ciated, by the information seekers as well as by the association.

EVANGELIST PEARSON.

Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard's Estimate of the Man.

Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard, writing in the religious department of the Charlotte Observer, expresses the following opinions about Evangelist R. G. Pearson of

"I have heard many eminent evangelists-Earle, Hudson, Harrison, Wharton, Needham, Moody and others-but the Saturday afternoon a telegram from Harold Doubleday, at Tryon, N. C., conveying the sad intelligence of the death of his father, Gen. U. Doubleday, which occurred at his home at Tryon Saturday afternoon.

Gen. Doubleday had, but a few days.

Storrs, John Hall, Lorimer, Ellis, Hawks, Storrs, Stor Storrs, John Hall, Lorimer, Ellis, Hawks, Henson, Bishop Atkinson, Hawthorne, Poindexter, Miller of Charlotte—a very great man—but I am not sure but the little hard-featured Mississippian is the best preacher of them all. Certainly no man ever got hold of my conscience and shook me up like he did. I do not say that he is so great a man as many of these. Take him altogether, Mr. Spurgeon was immeasurably his superior, and I presume Mr. Moody is, in general ability, a greater man than Pearson, but he is nothing like so good a preacher—and I say this after having heard both many times. I say it delibheard both many times. I say it delib-erately: The most wonderful man I have seen in a pulpit is R. G. Pearson, and the beauty of the man is, his character is as good as his preaching.'

STRANGE DISAPPEARANCE.

Hirschel Ingram Leaves Home and Bride Without a Word.

Joel Ingram, a prominent citizen of very's Creek, this county, is in Asheville today in search of news of the whereabouts of his son, Hirschel Ingram. The son left for Asheville last Tuesday, with Wm. Burnett, bringing a load of oats. He spent Tuesday night here, and on Wednesday morning received pay for his onts, from Thos. Shelton, who is in business in the Buttrick block, to whom he said he was going home. He has not been home since, and Mr. Ingram cannot trace him any later than Wednesday evening, when he took supper at Inman's North Main street restaurant. Mr. Bur-uett has not seen him since Tuesday.

The missing man is about 23 years ald, smooth shaven, of fair complexion, with light hair and weighs 165 pounds. Only two weeks ago he was married to Miss Edith Johnston, of this county. Ingram, senior, says there has either been foul play or his son has become dissatisfied and gone West, where he once lived, although he seemed perfectly satisfied be-fore Icaving home.

AT THE GRAND.

"Jim, the Westerner," comes to the Grand on a second visit tomorrow evening. The play and players will be pleasantly remembered by all who witnessed the performance on the occasion of "Jim's" first visit. The Cincinnati En-

Tuirer says:
"Although Jim is represented as being a hard working honest miner, from Ne-vada, the scene is laid in New York City, and deals from the baseball and race track to the great and wonderful excitement that often prevails on the Stock exchange of Wall street, intermingled with the softer throbs of the human heart where woman plays the conspicuous and tender part. Joseph S. Gibbs, who takes the part of Jim, is well at home on the stage, and completely won the favor of his audience. Miss Pauline Willard, in her simple beauty and grace of manner portrayed so artistically the real nature of the gentler sex that one could almost feel himself in the presence of love's tenderest wooings. The support was fine from beginning to end." Seats are now on sale at Sawver

DEMOCRATS OPPOSE HIM

BUT HOWELL WILL BE FA VORABLY REPORTED.

The Democratic Ground For Opposition to Mr. Harrison's Last Nomination is Not Stated But It May be to Delay The Naming of His Successor.

Washington, Feb. 13.-The Senate udiciary committee this morning in a very brief session decided to report favorably on the nomination of Judge Howell E. Jackson to be associate justice syrup ever sold in Asheville. We have sold of the Supreme court of the United States.

When the nomination came up a week ago today the Democrats entered a formal protest to its consideration and under the rules the matter went over until the next meeting of the committee, which was today. The Republican members in the meantime decided that they would brook no further delay as there were no charges of any kind against Howell, and the determination was reached that the nomination should be acted upon at once. This morning when the committee met the Democratic mem-bers stated they would no longer oppose the report to the Senate, but intimated that they reserved the right to take such steps as they saw fit when the question of confirmation came before the Senate

The committee will make a favorable report on the nomination at the next executive session of the Senate, possibly this afternoon, and if there be any serious Democratic opposition, it will then have the opportunity to make itself manifest. It is understood that the Republicans will vote as a unit for confirmation. When the chaplain began his prayer not a single Senator was present. Before the conclusion of the prayer Mr. Faulk ner strayed into the chamber and when the chaplain retired, called attention to the absence of the Senators. Heexplained that he did not desire that legislation proceed while not a Republican Senator was in the chamber. Finally a quorum drifted in and Saturday's journal was read. Mr. Carey then moved to consider the House bill to enable the people of New Mexico to form a constitution and tirely. It is a harmless but sure remedy, State government. Platt called for the yeas and nays, and the motion was rejected. Yeas, 14, navs. 30. Following is the vote in detail: Yeas, Blackburn, Butler, Carey, Felton, Gordon, Harris, McPherson, Mitchell, Palmer, Peffer, Pugh, Quay, Sawyer and Teller; nays, Berry, Blodgett, Coke, Cullom, Daves, Dolph, Faulkner, Frye, Gorman, Hawley, Hill, Hoar, Hunton, Jones of Arkansas, McMillan, Manderson, Mills, Morrill, Pasco, Platt, Sherman, Stockhridge McMillan, Manderson, Mills, Morrill, Pasco, Platt, Sherman, Stockbridge, Voorhees, Washburn, White and Wolcott.

HAWAII ANNEXATION

A Draft of the New Treaty Now Under Consideration.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 13.-There will be no conference today between the Hawaii cammissioners and Secretary of skin eruption that may be troubling you, State Foster. The latter will be engaged St Elizabet's salve is for sale only at all the afternoon with delegates from the Grant's etary conference who are in the city for the purpose of completing their report to the President. This postponement however, will work no delay in the pro gress of negotiations for the annexation of Hawaii. Each side has received from the other a draft of the basis for a proposed treaty of annexation and the har-monizing of details upon which there is difference of opinion can proceed with out a personal conference.
