Democracy. AT THE GRAND.

The only attraction booked for next week at the Grand opera house is "Tit for Tat," played by Wilfred Clarke and his company. This young neter has in the past two or three seasons come rapidly to the front in the profession as a comedian, and is said to be supported by a very capable company. The Atlanta Constitution says:

"Wilfred Clarke, our favorite come dian, came back to us last night and made glad the large and appreciative audience that flocked to see him. 'Tit for Tat' was the piece de resistance and a set Armou 's steaks and chops, with all the more laughable, complicated, and witty little play we have never witnessed. He is certainly a master of mock tragedy, as well as of the most laughable comedy."
