Asheville Daily Citizen.

VOLUME VIII.-NO. 254.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., FRIDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 24, 1893.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

1 1 1 1 1

Real Estate. oans Securely Placed at 8 Per Cent. Notary Public, Commissioner of Deeds. FIRE INSURANCE. SOUTHBAST COURT SQUARE.		518	come out and give to the press, with out permission, any conversation or tran- taction there in progress that in no way concerns him. The facts were these: I had received from prominent citizens all over the county a number of names to	and the cypress, oaks, cedar, juniper, tc., in Bladen county. Nearly 100 negatives were obtained in the eastern section of the State.	Succeed the Earl of Jersey. LONDON, Feb. 24.—Robert William	No longer your dread upon retiring. Sleep will come p'ea metly without using op'ates.
oans Securely Placed at 8 Per Cent. Notary Public, Commissioner of Deeds. MRE INSURANCE.		ST8	and received from prominent citizens all to be the county a number of names to s	rection of the State.	LONDON, Feb. 24.—Robert William Duff, liberal M. P., for Bauffshire, Scot-
Per Cent. Notary Public, Commissioner of Deeds. MRE INSURANCE.		SL8	had received from prominent citizens all to over the county a number of names to	section of the State.	Duff, liberal M. P., for Bauffshire, Scot-	One teaspoonful
Per Cent. Notary Public, Commissioner of Deeds. MRE INSURANCE.		1 1 1	over the county a number of names to		land, has been appointed governor of
Notary Public, Commissioner of Deeds.			be submitted to the members of the Gen-	SHITE BE A STREET OF BEERS OF BET AT A TEST		BRADYCROTINE
TRE INSURANCE.	DEFWITCH & MOONNELL		eral Assembly for appointment as jus-		New South Wales as successor to the	The Southern Woman's Headache Remedy.
			tices of the peace. Messrs. Loughran and Featherston came to my office and	Another Democrat In, This Obe	Earl of Jersey, resigned. Duff was com- mander in the navy from which he re-	No unpleasant results in the morning.
	BREWTON & M'CONNELL,	日 ※ 3 E 2 1	I read these names over to them as I	From wyoming.	tired on succeeding to his uncle's estate	Should your tooth trouble you One teaspoonful
SOUTHBAST COURT SQUARE.	munitum Dealans & Undentakana		would have done for any other two Dem- ocrats in this county. That these two	in the West indicate that the Democrats	and to the family seat in parliament in 1861, when he also exchanged his own
	urniture Dealers & Undertakers	O Por	gentlemen and myself were revising and	will have enough members in the Senate	name of Abrercombe for that of Duff.	BRADYCROTINE
ORTLAND BROS.,	ENBALMING A SPECIALTY.	STORE DWOOD & CO., BOODS, CLOTHI BS, HATS AND C.	making up a list of magistrates is wholly	to re-organize that body without outside	He is 57 years of age, was junior lord of the treasury in 1882-85 and civil lord of	COSTING FIVE CINTS, WILL STOP IT. FOR SALE AT teal Estate Brokers		1 10 1 10 1 10 1	suggestion. To these gentlemen, as Dem-	aid. Still, if that aid should become nec-	the admiralty in Gladstone administra-	Pelham's Pharmacy.
	All calls in this line attended to day or	" 22	ocrats, I accorded the right to see the list of magistrates, and I could and	essary it is pretty well settled that the Populist Senators will vote with the		The second ght Also all kinds of job work done to	CE CE	would have done no less for any Demo-	Democrats. Mr. Peffer gave an utter-	The N. Y. and N. E. Railway. NEW YORK, Feb. 24At a special	EVERY LADY
	der. Upholstering. carpet laving, pack-	U n	"The list of justices as appointed by	DENVER, Col., Feb. 24.—A special from	NEW YORK, Feb. 24At a special meeting of the New York and New Eng-	HER OWN DRESSMAKER
	g, setting up furnitu e, refinishing, e'c.		the General Assembly will show that	Chevenne says: A.C. Beckwith, Dem-1	land Railroad directors yesterday morn-
(cb941 y	33 NORTH MAIN STREET.	PRI ICB V SPRING	good and true men were appointed; that they were not selected by any particular	wealthiest man in Wyoming will be	ing President Parsons resigned, and the resignation was accepted, to take effect	The English Merchant Tailor System of Dress-cutting is the Only Perfect system. It
JOHN CHILD,	Telephone 142	LI DIO RAN	they were not selected by any particular cabal, by any particular man or set of men. For my acts in this behalf I hold		March 14. Charles Pars in, jr., S. Day,	is so simple a child can learn it. Mothers
TH PETATE AND LOAN DOOVED	ITZPATRICK BROS.,		myself in readiness to answer to the	announced by Governor Osbore last	Wm I ummin and A D Flower honded	and daughters after learning it can do the dress-making for their own family, thereby
EAL ESTATE AND LOAN BROKER.	ILLEATAINIUN DAUD.	N ADD ADD	Democratic party of Buncoube county	evening.	March 14.	saving many times the price paid for this
Furnished and Unfurnished Houses.		ONE BBR OF CH JUST RECE	and not to His Majesty the Mayor.	THE ATLANTA STEAL	Malignant Diptheria	system. Test linings cut free to those wish- ing to investigate. Also suits, basques and
OFFICE BOOMS.	Contractors and Dealers in	OBER	THE BENEFIT.	The Gate City's National's Seusa-	PANA, Ill., Feb. 24 The public schools	skirts cut and basted and trimmings de-pans securely placed at Bight per cent.		TING	Not a Very Large Crowd Out	tion.	of Oconce have clostd; also revival ser-	signed. Rooms, Sondley building. jan23d1m
X	ixed Paints and Painters' Supplies,	A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A	Last Evening.	ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 24 The disap-	vices at the M. E. church on account of the prevalence of a malignant type of	LAINFOAL MALATED I
THUR J. WILLS. ALBERT B. WILLS.			The stereopticon exhibition and prize drill at the Grand opera house last even-	pearance and defalcation of Assistant	diptheria. Six deaths have occurred	MINEKAL WALER!
WILLS BROS.,	WALL PAPER.		ing did not attract a very large crowd.	Cashier Redwine, of the Gate City Na- tional bank, of this city, is the biggest	Provide the second seco	MULTUNE WAIFILL
			Some of the pictures exhibited were	financial sensation Atlanta has known	Confesses He's a Thie!	Why suffer with INDIGESTION and all kinds of LIVER, KIDNEY AND BLOOD TROUBLES
RCHITECTS	STNORTH MAIN STREET, ASMEVILLE, N. C.		tairly good, such as the pictures of Gen.	in years. The defalcation is about $65,-	WILMINGTON, Del., Feb. 24Peter T. E. Smith, paying teller of the First Na-	when nature has provided at YOUR DOOR a
the second second second second second			Jackson, Gen. Lee, Gen. Grant, Geu.	affair is Redwine's disappearance. Up	tional bank of this city, is a self-con-	INFORMATION THE MINEDAL WATER
NO. 32 PATTON AVE.	TELEPHONE NO. 142.		Hancock, Gen. Johnson and others, but the battle scenes were too small to be	to this time absolucely no trace has been	fessed embezzler to the amount of $55,- 000, and he is now in charge of a United	fresh from Mr. D. D. Suttle's REMARKABLE terter to the second se	very effective.	that he has gone West. Redwine has	States marshal.	SPRING, now being daily delivered at any residence in Asheville, is working wonderful
J.H.LAW	NO. 37	Landani and and and and	The prize drill of the Asheville Light Infantry was good. The company was	and the base lines have and his moone	TAR HEEL TRACKS.	cures, as can be testified by inquiries of Judge
J. II. LIA VV	9 PATTON AVE.		under command of Licutchant Lewis.			J E. Reed, Judge J. H. Merrimon, Rev. J. L.
				AND DESIGNATION AND A STREET OF THE	the second se
		UPINITCU & DUACAN	The boys all drilled well, but the con- test finally settled down between R. S.	TO SUCCEED JACKSON.	-Shelby Aurora: They have at Hen-	iey, Neison, D. I. Millard, Mr. Barnes of
The following special prices will prevail	I till the end of the month. We name	HEINITSH & REAGAN,	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally,	An Able Michigan Lawser Nomi-	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for	fey. Nelson, D T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and
The following special prices will prevail	I till the end of the month. We name	HEINITSH & REAGAN,	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Røberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down	An Able Michigan Lawser Nomi-	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city.
The following special prices will prevail few. All are Bargains indeed.	I till the end of the month. We name	HEINITSH & REAGAN, DRUGGITSS.	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts, Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner.	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B.	fey, Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Weicht & Co. is shown or D. D.
		HEINITSH & REAGAN, druggitss,	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas.	An Able Michigan Lawser Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan to be United States Circuit	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners	fey, Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Patton ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy-
		HEINITSH & REAGAN, DRUGGITSS, Church St. and Patton Ave.	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach.	An Able Michigan Lawser Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan to be United States Circuit	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners	fey, Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Patton ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy-
ew. All are Bargains indeed.		Church St. and Patton Ave.	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas.	An Able Michigan Lawser Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lungs i Sasinaw Mich and has long	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag-	fey. Nelson, D T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a galion, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Patton ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE,
w. All are Bargains indeed.	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Mcri-	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a fresh supply of	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUEI.TY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Fig-	An Able Michigan Lawser Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at-	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Patton ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf
ew. All are Bargains indeed. obe Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12,		Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a fresh supply of	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The supreme Court on Live Pig- con Shooting.	An Able Michigan Lawser Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at-	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday.	fey. Nelson, D T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Patton ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf
ew. All are Bargains indeed. obe Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12, 	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Mcri-	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a fresh supply of	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Fig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down	An Able Michigan Lawser Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. Killed Himself.	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Patton are- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf FOR REN'T.
w. All are Bargains indeed.	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Mcri- den, at	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a fresh supply of	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Pig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of	An Able Michigan Lawser Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. Killed Himself. ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Patton are- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf FOR REN'T.
ew. All are Bargains indeed. obe Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12, 	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Mcri-	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a fresh supply of	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUEI.TY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Fig- eon Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. Killed Himself . ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South,	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Patton are- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf FOR REN'T.
ew. All are Bargains indeed. obe Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12, $8.90 and 10 Piece Decorated Toilet Sets, orth $3.50 to $4.50, at	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Mcri- den, at	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a fresh supply of	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Pig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State.	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. Killed Himself . ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, hurled with terrific force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live.	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Patton ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf FOR RENT. The beautiful residence of Jesse R. Starnes, 211 Patton avernee, is now for rent. The house contains 14 large sunsy rooms, with bot and cold water and all modern improve- ments; stable and carriage house; large and
ew. All are Bargains indeed. obe Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12, 	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Meri- den, at	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a freak supply of Acceptory	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Fig- eon Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State. It is the case of State vs. I. A. Porter.	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. Killed Himself . ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this city, and grandson of Gen. Henry P.	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, hurled with terrific force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live. —The had news has been received o	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Pattos ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf The beautiful residence of Jesse B. Starnes, 211 Patton avenue, is now for rent. The hot and cold water and all modern improve- ments: stable and carriage house; large and beautiful grounds. Por further information apply to JHSSB R. STARNES, 27 North Main street, or on premises.
few. All are Bargains indeed.	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Mcri- den, at $1.65 Per Set. We are running an entire new line of Glassware and are closing out all the old patterns at about half price. There	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a freak supply of Acceptory	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Fig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State. It is the case of State vs. J. A. Porter, and went up on appeal of the defendant. The offense charged was crueity to	An Able Michigan Lawyer Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. Killed Himself . ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this city, and grandson of Gen. Henry P. Jackson, of Savannah, committed suicide last night. No cause is assigned.	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, hurled with terrific force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live. —The had news has been received o the death of Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon at Oxford. He died of lockjaw. He had	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Patton ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf FOR RENT. The beautiful residence of Jense B. Starnes, 211 Patton avernue, is now for rent. The house contains 14 large sunny rooms, with house contains 14 large house; large and beautiful grounds. Por further information apply to IBSSE B. STARNES, 27 North Main street, or on premises. febduff
w. All are Bargains indeed. obe Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12, 	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Meri- den, at	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a freak supply of Acceptents DELICIOUS BON BONS,	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Pig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State. It is the case of State vs. J. A. Porter, and went up on appeal of the defendant. The offense charged was cruelty to animals, in shooting live pigeons from	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and hns long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. Killed Himself . ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this city, and grandson of Gen. Henry P. Jackson, of Savannah, committed suicide last night. No cause is assigned. CONDENSED TELEGRAMS .	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, hurled with terrific force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live. —The had news has been received o the death of Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon an Oxford. He died of lockjaw. He had	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Pattos ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf The beautiful residence of Jesse E. Starnes, 211 Patton avenue, is now for rent. The hot and cold water and all modern improve- ments; stable and carriage house; large and beautiful grounds. Por further information apply to JESSE E. STARNES, 27 North Main street, or on premises. feb4dtf A SAFE CONCLUSION!
few. All are Bargains indeed. Hobe Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12, 	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Meri- den, at	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a freak supply of Accepters	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Pig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State. It is the case of State vs. J. A. Porter, and went up on appeal of the defendant. The offense charged was cruelty to animals, in shooting live pigeons from traps, and the case was prosecuted by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty	An Able Michigan Lawser Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. Killed Himself . ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this city, and grandson of Gen. Henry P. Jackson, of Savannah, committed suicide last night. No cause is assigned. CONDENSED TELEGRAMS .	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, burled with terrific force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live. —The had news has been received o the death of Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon an Oxford. He died of lockjaw. He had been pastor for four years of Edentor Street Mark Methodist church. He way	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Pattos ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf The beautiful residence of Jesse E. Starnes, 211 Patton avenue, is now for rent. The hot and cold water and all modern improve- ments; stable and carriage house; large and beautiful grounds. Por further information apply to JESSE E. STARNES, 27 North Main street, or on premises. feb4dtf A SAFE CONCLUSION!
tew. All are Bargains indeed.	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Mcri- den, at $1.65 Per Set. We are running an entire new line of Glassware and are closing out all the old patterns at about half price. There	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a freah supply of Acceptents DELICIOUS BON BONS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS,	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Fig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State. It is the case of State vs. J. A. Porter, and went up on appeal of the defendant. The offense charged was cruelty to animals, in shooting live pigeons from traps, and the case was prosecuted by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. Killed Himself . ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this city, and grandson of Gen. Henry P. Jackson, ol Savannah, committed suicide last night. No cause is assigned. CONDENSED TELEGRAMS . Beaupre, Keegh & Davis, of St. Paul the oldest wholesale grocery house in	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, hurled with terrific force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live. —The had news has been received o the death of Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon an Oxford. He died of lockjaw. He had been pastor for four years of Edentor Street Mark Methodist church. He was an Odd Fellow of high rank and also a Knight of Pythias.	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Pattos ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf The beautiful residence of Jesse E. Starnes, 211 Patton avenue, is now for rent. The hot and cold water and all modern improve- ments; stable and carriage house; large and beautiful grounds. Por further information apply to JESSE E. STARNES, 27 North Main street, or on premises. feb4dtf A SAFE CONCLUSION!
w. All are Bargains indeed. be Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12, 	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Meri- den, at	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a freah supply of Ministry DELICIOUS BON BONS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS, CHOCOLATE PARLINS,	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Fig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State. It is the case of State vs. J. A. Porter, and went up on appeal of the defendant. The offense charged was cruelty to animals, in shooting live pigeons from traps, and the case was prosecuted by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Judge Carter decided that the shooting of live pigeons was cruelty to animals.	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. Killed Himself . ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this city, and grandson of Gen. Henry P. Jackson, of Savannah, committed suicide last night. No cause is assigned. CONDENSED TELEGRAMS . Beaupre, Keegh & Davis, of St. Paul the oldest wholesale grocery house in the northwest, failed vesterday. Liabil	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, hurled with terrific force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live. —The had news has been received o the death of Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon an Oxford. He died of lockjaw. He had been pastor for four years of Edentor Street Mark Methodist church. He was an Odd Fellow of high rank and also a Knight of Pythias.	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Pattos ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf The beautiful residence of Jesse E. Starnes, 211 Patton avenue, is now for rent. The hot and cold water and all modern improve- ments; stable and carriage house; large and beautiful grounds. Por further information apply to JESSE E. STARNES, 27 North Main street, or on premises. feb4dtf A SAFE CONCLUSION!
w. All are Bargains indeed. be Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12, $8.90 and 10 Picce Decorated Toilet Sets, orth $3.50 to $4.50, at	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Meri- den, at	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a freah supply of Ministry DELICIOUS BON BONS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS, CHOCOLATE PARLINS,	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. "TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Pig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State. It is the case of State vs. J. A. Porter, and went up on appeal of the defendant. The offense charged was cruelty to animals, in shooting live pigeons from traps, and the case was prosecuted by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Judge Carter decided that the shooting	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. Killed Himself . ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this city, and grandson of Gen. Henry P. Jackson, of Savannah, committed suicide last night. No cause is assigned. CONDENSED TELEGRAMS . Beaupre, Keegh & Davis, of St. Paul the oldest wholesale grocery house in the northwest, failed vesterday. Liabil	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, hurled with terrific force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live. —The had news has been received of the death of Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon at Oxford. He died of lockjaw. He had been pastor for four years of Edentor Street Mark Methodist church. He was an Odd Fellow of high rank and also a Knight of Pythias. —A crate containing 100 partridge passed through Henderson recently	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Pattos ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf The beautiful residence of Jesse R. Starnes, 211 Patton avenue, is now for rent. The house contains 14 large sunsy rooms, with house contains 14 large sunsy rooms, with apply to JESSE R. STARNES. 27 North Main street, or on premises. feb4dtf ASAFE CONCLUSION! That anything needed by a smoker can be obtained at Ray's. He car- ries an assortment of cigars, tobaccos and pipes that would do credit to a large city. Drop in and look at his stock; you will be pleased with it. If snything suits you, so much the bet- better.
ew. All are Bargains indeed. obe Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12, 	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Meri- den, at	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a freah supply of Ministry Market DELICIOUS BON BONS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS, CHOCOLATE PARLINS, CREAM PEPPERMINTS,	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. "TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Pig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State. It is the case of State vs. J. A. Porter, and went up on appeal of the defendant. The offense charged was cruelty to animals, in shooting live pigeons from traps, and the case was prosecuted by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Judge Carter decided that the shooting of live pigeons was cruelty to animals and fined Mr. Porter $5 and all costs. Why He Left Asheyille.	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and hns long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. KINECHIMSEN ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this city, aad grandson of Gen. Henry P. Jackson, of Savannah, committed suicide last night. No cause is assigned. CONDENSED TELEGRAMS . Beaupre, Keegh & Davis, of St. Paul the oldest wholenale grocery house in the northwest, failed vesterday. Liabil ities, $400,000; assests but little over $200.000. The funeral of General Beauregard yes	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, hurled with terrific force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live. —The had news has been received of the death of Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon and Oxford. He died of lockjaw. He had been pastor for four years of Edentor Street Mark Methodist church. He was an Odd Fellow of high rank and also a Knight of Pythias. —A crate containing 100 partridge passed through Henderson recently consigned to James B. Briar, Stovnil Granville county. The birds were shipp	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Patton ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf FOR RENT. The beautiful residence of Jesse R. Starnes, 211 Patton avenue, is now for rent. The house contains 14 large sunny rooms, with house contains 14 large sunny rooms, with house contains 14 large sunny rooms, with apply to JESSE R. STARNES. 27 North Main street, or on premises. feb4dtf ASAFE CONCLUSION! That anything needed by a smoker can be obtained at Ray's. He car- ries an assortment of cigars, tobaccos and pipes that woold do credit to a large city. Drop in and look at his stock; you will be pleased with it. If anything suits you, so much the bet- better. RAY'S CIGAR STORE AND TICKET OFFICE.
w. All are Bargains indeed. the Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12, $8.90 and 10 Piece Decorated Toilet Sets, orth $3.50 to $4.50, at	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Mcri- den, at	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a fresh supply of Ministry DELICIOUS BON BONS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS,	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. "TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Pig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State. It is the case of State vs. J. A. Porter, and went up on appeal of the defendant. The offense charged was cruelty to animals, in shooting live pigeons from traps, and the case was prosecuted by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Judge Carter decided that the shooting of live pigeons was cruelty to animals and fined Mr. Porter $5 and all costs. Why He Left Asheville. The New York Herald of Wednesday	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and hns long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. KINECHIMSENT ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this city, and grandson of Gen. Henry P. Jackson, of Savannah, committed suicide last night. No cause is assigned. CONDENSED TELEGRAMS . Beaupre, Keegh & Davis, of St. Paul the oldest wholesale grocery house in the northwest, failed vesterday. Liabil ities, $400,000; assests but little over $200.000. The funeral of General Beauregard yes terday at New Orleans was one of the lower internet on the south of the source of the lower is and must immosing asymptotic source in the lower is an one of the	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, hurled with terrific force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live. —The had news has been received o the death of Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon an Oxford. He died of lockjaw. He have been pastor for four years of Edentor Street Mark Methodist church. He was an Odd Fellow of high rank and also a Knight of Pythias. —A crate containing 100 partridge passed through Henderson recently consigned to James B. Briar, Storn Granville county. The birds were shipp ed from New York to be turned lose i	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Pattos ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dtf The beautiful residence of Jesse R. Starnes, 11 Patton avenue, is now for rent. The house contains 14 large sumsy rooms, with house contains 14 large sumsy rooms, with beautiful grounds. Por further information apply to
ew. All are Bargains indeed. obe Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12, 	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Mcri- den, at	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a freah supply of Managements DELICIOUS BON BONS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS, CHOCOLATE PARLINS, CREAM PEPPERMINTS, CRYSTALIZED FRUIT, ETC.	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. "TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Pig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State. It is the case of State vs. J. A. Porter, and went up on appeal of the defendant. The offense charged was cruelty to animals, in shooting live pigeons from traps, and the case was prosecuted by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Judge Carter decided that the shooting of live pigeons was cruelty to animals and fined Mir. Porter $5 and all costs. Why He Left Asheyille. The New York Herald of Wednesday says the reason of Richard Cröker's	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. EtHed Himself . ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this city, aad grandson of Gen. Henry P. Jackson, of Savannah, committed suicide last night. No cause is assigned. CONDENSED TELEGRAMS . Beaupre, Keegh & Davis, of St. Paul the oldest wholesale grocery house in the northwest, failed vesterday. Liabil ities, $400,000; assests but little over $200.000. The funeral of General Beauregard yes terday at New Orleans was one of the largest and most imposing ever with nessed in that city.	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, hurled with terrifue force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live. —The had news has been received o the death of Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon an Oxford. He died of lockjaw. He had been pastor for four years of Edentor Street Mark Methodist church. He was an Odd Fellow of high rank and also a Knight of Pythias. —A crate containing 100 partridge passed through Henderson recently consigned to James B. Briar, Stovnil Granville county. The birds were shipp ed from New York to be turned loose i that section to raise from, and were bealthy looking lot.	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city, orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Pattos ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- is given on application. D. D. SUTTLE , 35 College Street. Feb21dt FORR RENT . The beautiful residence of Jesse R. Starnes, bot and cold water and all modern improve- ments; stable and carriage house; large and beautiful grounds. Por further information sply to Jiess R. STARNES. 27 North Main street, or on premines. That anything needed by a smoker rise and sobilized at Ray's. He car- ries an assortment of cigase, tobaccos and pipes that would do credit to a stock; you will be pleased with it. If synthing suits you, so much the bet- better. RAYS CIGAR STORE AND TICKET OFFICE , 28 Bouth Main St. Always Open.
ew. All are Bargains indeed. obe Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12, 	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Mcri- den, at	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a freah supply of Managements Managements DELICIOUS BON BONS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS, CHOCOLATE PARLINS, CREAM PEPPERMINTS, CREAM PEPPERMINTS, CRYSTALIZED FRUIT, ETC.	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Fig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State. It is the case of State vs. J. A. Porter, and went up on appeal of the defendant. The offense charged was cruelty to animals, in shooting live pigeons from traps, and the case was prosecuted by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Judge Carter decided that the shooting of live pigeons was cruelty to animals and fined Mr. Porter $5 and all costs. Why He Left Asheyille. The New York Herald of Wednesday says the reason of Richard Croker's hasty return was given out at the Tam	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. RtHed Himself . ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this city, and grandson of Gen. Henry P. Jackson, ol Savannah, committed suicide last night. No cause is assigned. CONDENSED TELEGRAMS . Beaupre, Keegh & Davis, of St. Paul the oldest wholesale grocery house in the northwest, failed yesterday. Liabil ities, $400,000; assests but little over $200.000. The funeral of General Beauregard yes terday at New Orleans was one of the largest and most imposing ever with nessed in that city.	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, hurled with terrifue force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live. —The had news has been received of the death of Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon an Oxford. He died of lockjaw. He has been pastor for four years of Edentor Street Mark Methodist church. He was an Odd Fellow of high rank and also of Knight of Pythias. —A crate containing 100 partridge passed through Henderson recently consigned to James B. Briar, Stovnil Granville county. The birds were shipp ed from New York to be turned loose that section to raise from, and were bealthy looking lot.	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Pattos ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- sis given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dt The beautiful residence of Jesse R. Starnes, 11 Patton avenue, is now for rent. The house contains 14 large summy rooms, with house contains 14 large summy rooms, with house contains 14 large summy rooms, with apply to
ew. All are Bargains indeed. obe Heater Oil Stoves, worth $12, 	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Mcri- den, at	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a freah supply of Managements DELICIOUS BON BONS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS, CHOCOLATE PARLINS, CREAM PEPPERMINTS, CRYSTALIZED FRUIT, ETC.	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a bard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. "TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Pig- con Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State. It is the case of State vs. J. A. Porter, and went up on appeal of the defendant. The offense charged was cruelty to animals, in shooting live pigeons from traps, and the case was prosecuted by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Judge Carter decided that the shooting of live pigeons was cruelty to animals and fined Mr. Porter $5 and all costs. Why He Left Asheville. The New York Herald of Wednesday says the reason of Richard Croker's hasty return was given out at the Tam- many Hall executive committee meeting to be on account of the death of Senatoo	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. RtHed Himself . ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this city, and grandson of Gen. Henry P. Jackson, of Savannah, committed suicide last night. No cause is assigned. CONDENSED TELEGRAMS . Beaupre, Keegh & Davis, of St. Paul the oldest wholesale grocery house in the northwest, failed yesterday. Liabil ities, $400,000; assests but little over $200.000. The funeral of General Beauregard yes terday at New Orleans was one of the largest and most imposing ever with nessed in that city. Another lot of forged paper, aggregating ing $200,000, on a national bank has	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, hurled with terrific force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live. —The had news has been received of the death of Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon an Oxford. He died of lockjaw. He had been pastor for four years of Edentor Street Mark Methodist church. He was an Odd Fellow of high rank and also a Knight of Pythias. —A crate containing 100 partridge passed through Henderson recently consigned to James B. Briar, Stovni Granville county. The birds were shipp ed from New York to be turned loose in that section to raise from, and were bealthy looking lot. —Senator Vance says his Greene mon ment bill is where it can be reached in an hour when bills on the calendar an	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city. Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Patton ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analys is given on application. D. D. SUTTLE , Stourthese Street. feb21dff FORR REENT . The beautiful residence of Jesse R. Starnes, house contains 14 harge sunny rooms, with house contains sund house the car- ries an assortment of cigars, tobaccos and pipes that would do credit to a hore, you will be pleased with it. If surthing suits you, so much the bet- better. MODEL STEAM LAUNDRY
tew. All are Bargains indeed.	Triple Plated Knives, Rogers or Mcri- den, at	Church St. and Patton Ave. We Receive daily a freah supply of Market St. And Constraints DELICIOUS BON BONS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS, CHOCOLATE CARAMELS, CHOCOLATE PARLINS, CREAM PEPPERMINTS, CREAM PEPPERMINTS, CRYSTALIZED FRUIT, ETC.	test finally settled down between R. S. Stewart and G. O. Roberts. Finally, after a hard fight, Stewart went down on order arms by numbers, and Roberts was declared the winner. The prize, a silver inkstand, was pre- sented to the successful soldier by Chas. A. Webb in a neat speach. 'TIS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. The Supreme Court on Live Fig- eon Shooting. The Supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the Criminal court of Buncombe county in a case that is of considerable interest to members of gun clubs in this State. It is the case of State vs. J. A. Porter, and went up on appeal of the defendant. The offense charged was cruelty to animals, in shooting live pigeons from traps, and the case was prosecuted by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Judge Carter decided that the shooting of live pigeons was cruelty to animals and fined Mr. Porter $5 and all costs. Why He Left Asheyille. The New York Herald of Wednesday says the reason of Richard Croker's hasty return was given out at the Tam- many Hall executive committee meeting	An Able Michigan Laws er Nomi- nated. WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The President has nominated Benton Hanchett, of Michigan, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit, to succeed Judge Jackson. Mr. Hanchett lives in Saginaw, Mich., and has long been recognized as one of the leading at- torneys of the State. Etiled Himself . ATLANTA, Feb. 24.—Thomas Cobb Jackson, a young lawyer and one of the most prominent young men of the South, a son of Capt. Henry Jackson, of this city, and grandson of Gen. Henry P. Jackson, of Savannah, committed suicide last night. No cause is assigned. CONDENSED TELEGRAMS . Beaupre, Keegh & Davis, of St. Paul the oldest wholesale grocery house in the northwest, failed vesterday. Liabil ities, $400,000; assests but little over $200,000. The funeral of General Beauregard yes terday at New Orleans was one of the largest and most imposing ever with nessed in that city. Another lot of forged paper, aggregating ing $200,000, on a national bank has been brought to light in Lincoln, Neb.	rietta no graded school supported by taxation, but have something better for the cotton mill operatives, for the free school runs ten months in the year, and is under the able supervision of Mr. B. H. Bridges and daughter. The owners of the mill, aided by the school tax of $1 per pupil give free tuition to all the children—this shows liberality and mag- nanimous spirit in the management. —A mill stone at Stewart & Morrison's mill, New Stirling, burst on Monday, while the mill was running at a high speed, and one of the pieces, weighing about 40 pounds, burled with terrifu force, struck Mr. Elliott on the head fracturing his skull. He is not expected to live. —The had news has been received o the death of Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon at Oxford. He died of lockjaw. He had been pastor for four years of Edentor Street Mark Methodist church. He was an Odd Fellow of high rank and also a Knight of Pythias. —A crate containing 100 partridge passed through Henderson recently consigned to James B. Briar, Storn Granville county. The birds were shipp ed from New York to be turned loose in that section to raise from, and were bealthy looking lot. —Senator Vance says his Greene mon ment bill is where it can be reached in	fey. Nelson, D. T. Millard, Mr. Barnes of Ohio, now on Spring street, Asheyille, and hundreds of others. Price, only 10 cents a gallon, delivered daily anywhere in the city, Orders through mail, or left at Bisnton, Wright & Co.'s shoe store, 39 Pattos ave- nue, will receive prompt attention. Analy- is given on application. D. D. SUTTLE, 95 College Street. feb21dt FORR REENT . The beautiful residence of Jesse E. Starnes, house contains 14 large sumsy rooms, with house and cold water and all moders, the supple to