SPECIAL MENTION!
C. C. Greenwood was recalled and said that Roberts had once said to him: "Big Jim and Bud Whittmore are the only men I aim to kill, and if they ever cross my path I will kill them." Witness said he was glad that Roberts had been killed.

In reply to State's attorney he said he had been on trial for murder in Colorado but that an affidavit had been received from the man supposed to have been killed saying that he was alive and that witness should not be harmed.

No further evidence was offered.

Judge Merrimon then remarked that before proceeding with the propositions which he would offer in the case, he had something to say for the benefit of the people generally.

He regarded the occurrence as one of the most remarkable in the history of the county. Human lives had been sacrificed that could have been saved by the interposition of men who were cognizant of the impending danger. Of the two men killed, Whittmore, who had been wild and reckless in his younger days, had thoroughly changed his course and had become a consistent member of the church; Roberts, of a high strung, excitable nature, and dangerous when in anger, had in latter years gained control of himself to a degree that secured for him a commission as a justice of the peace, and both men were useful citizens. Rumors of serious trouble were current in the community and all the parties in the store when the men entered knew that an outbreak was imminent. In the face of it all no one attempted to maintain the peace or to prevent the friendly efforts to separate the men and end the quarrel amicably the bystanders got out of the house as quickly as possible and left the enraged men to settle their trouble with violence and death. The affair was a most unfortunate one for the people of the county, deplorable in its results and exceedingly creditable to the persons present who knew the former character of the men and who might have averted the catastrophe.

A great hush was upon the crowd in the court room when Judge Merrimon was speaking and the prisoner gave himself up to a spell of weeping.

The hearing then adjourned to 10 o'clock this morning, when Judge Merrimon concluded his argument, which was followed by Messrs. Ransom and Craig, for the State, arguing against the release of Whittmore on bail.

Judge Carter decided in favor of the prisoner, fixing the bond at $6,000.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN SAVED
THE LIVES OF WHITTEMORE AND ROBERTS.
Judge Merrimon's Strong Words in the Habeas Corpus Case— "Bad" Whittmore's Bond is Fixed at $6,000.
After recess yesterday afternoon J. J. Greenwood testified in the Whittmore habeas corpus proceedings, that Doc Roberts told him he was going to die; that he shot at Big Jim twice and at Bud three times, and if Big Jim had not bothered him he would have done better shooting.

ISAAC P. GRAY GETS THE MEXICAN MISSION
Why Whittmore Left Out?—Pat Collins Secures One of the Best Paving Consultants—One Nominations Out of the South.
WASHINGTON, March 9.—President Cleveland today sent the following nominations to the Senate:
Josiah Quincy of Massachusetts, to be Assistant Secretary of State.
Robert A. Maxwell of New York to be Fourth Assistant Postmaster General.
Isaac P. Gray of Indiana, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to Mexico.
Patrick A. Collins of Massachusetts to be Consul General of the United States at London.
Edward Mansfield Shipp of Virginia, Assistant Surgeon in the Navy.

WILL GRESHAM DOMINATE THE CABINET?
WASHINGTON, March 9.—The place which Gresham holds in Mr. Cleveland's confidence is shown by a circumstance which has not attracted much attention. It is known that Gresham was lately summoned by Cleveland to come to Lakewood in the shortest time. The Judge was working night and day to get ready to leave Chicago to enter on his duties as Secretary of State at Washington, it even then being certain that he could not be present at the inauguration. Dropping everything and adjourning the court for a few days, the Judge obeyed the summons. What the President wanted of Gresham was his opinion whether or not, should there be an occasion, the Secretary of the Treasury could, under the law, do a certain thing regarding bonds. In three minutes Gresham off-hand enlightened the President-elect, and on the first train started back to Chicago. This incident derives its significance from the fact that, although the prospective Secretary of the Treasury, Carlisle, is one of the ablest lawyers in the country and has paid much attention to this very question, he was at Cleveland's elbow, although Cleveland at the moment had selected, if he had not announced, his Attorney-General, whom he would naturally consult on matters of this kind, it was Gresham's opinion that would suffice, and he was sent for, even though it was on a question outside of the line of duties to which his future position in the administration related.—N. Y. Sun.

A Bad State of Morals Revealed in Idaho.
BOISE CITY, Idaho, March 9.—Gov. McKinney on yesterday addressed a letter to the district attorney in this city in which he says that during the recent session of the Idaho Legislature the members of all three political parties were frequently bribed and that the members of all parties were otherwise influenced in a corrupt manner. He says prosecutions should be commenced, and declares that the State board will furnish information which will enable the district attorney to begin prosecuting some of the guilty legislators.

ORDERED TO LEAVE BROTHERHOOD.
OSWASSOO, Mich., March 9.—Toledo and Ann Arbor and North Michigan railroad officials have taken the initiative in the trouble with the engineers. Yesterday Superintendent Connors issued a bulletin which stated that all engineers who would leave the brotherhood could take their trains, but if they refuse new men will be substituted. Several men took trains out.

ONCE A CONFEDERATE.
CHICAGO, March 9.—Maj. B. W. Woodruff died last night. He was a native of Tennessee and was known as a "racing official." He was sergeant-major of artillery in the Confederate army and fought through the war on the Southern side. He was 50 years old and died of pneumonia.

A BATCH OF NOMINATIONS
NO BOND I SUE AS YET
SECRETARY CARLISLE MAKES AN ANNOUNCEMENT.
WASHINGTON, March 9.—Secretary Carlisle this morning authorized the statement that he would exercise all the power and discretion vested in him as secretary to uphold the credit of the government and to maintain the parity of gold and silver.
This statement was made to brush away an endless string of rumors that have gained circulation about what he contemplated doing as to maintaining the gold reserve intact, as to issuing bonds or as to paying United States notes and United States treasury notes in silver when free gold was exhausted, etc. The example of Denver, Col., in offering $1,000,000 in gold yesterday for treasury notes, has been followed by Chicago bankers who today offered $500,000 in gold for United States notes at the treasury department. It is thought bankers in other cities will do likewise. There is a feeling of relief as to the gold balance at the treasury, and unless the exports of gold Saturday are unusually heavy—of which no information is yet received—the treasury department will have ample gold to supply the demand.

THE AFRICAN GOES DOWN BEFORE THE WHITE MAN AS USUAL.
BERLIN, March 9.—Advice from east Africa state that the German troops have won an important victory over the hostile natives at Uniangioira. The German forces were composed of white soldiers and native levies. The hostile natives made stubborn resistance, but were defeated after a severe conflict with heavy loss. The German loss included a German sergeant named Fittel. The general of the native soldiers was killed and Lieutenant Holthner was wounded. The defeat has caused general consternation among the natives, and it is believed will go far towards suppressing resistance to German authority.

SIXTY-ONE NAVAL OFFICERS TO BE RETIRED
ANNAPOLIS, March 6.—Sixty-one naval officers will be retired on account of the age limit during the administration of President Cleveland. Sixty of these will be retired in 1893, 16 each in 1894 and 1895, 21 in 1896, and two in 1897. Admiral Gherardi, the senior admiral in the navy, will retire from active duty on Nov. 10, 1894, and four other admirals will leave the navy the same year. Commander Gillis goes out on May 1, 1893. Chief Engineer H. W. Fitch, stationed at the Naval Academy, will be retired on April 11, 1895.

Lynchers Acquitted.
JACKSON, Miss., March 9.—In Simpson county a negro who was suspected, and against whom there was strong circumstantial evidence of having entered the bedroom of a Miss Tullis, was shot to death by his brothers. Justice of the Peace Slaughter tried the young men, giving them the benefit of a jury, which, of course, acquitted them promptly, as is the custom here in such cases. The peculiar part of the proceeding is that the justice had no jurisdiction whatever.
