TWAS A GREAT CAKE WALK

SWELL SOCIETY HAS LOTS OF FUN OVER IT.

"De Mos' Fashionable" Contest Ever indulged in by the Colored Folk at the Battery Park—Pink Griffin's Little Poem.

There was a great cake walk and a grand jubilee at the Battery Park hotel last night, and the splendid ball room of the famous house touched high water mark in its successful career as a rendezvous of well society when well society is in the mood for jollity and fun.

At half-past nine the judges, Messrs. Robert Bohlen, R. L. Beckman, John A. White and E. P. McKissick took position with the cake in the center of the room. Pink Griffin's orchestra struck up a lively march, the pace was set and eighteen entries in colors mostly pink, with an occasional black and blue, briskly swung into the course. The leaders cut out figures that would turn the average gamblers green with envy; the walkers followed, single file, two by two, by fours, in and out, "hold your volt," "break away and hit the grit," in rapid time, while the gazillionaires criticised the string for favorites of fill and grace, picked winners and laughed till it hurt. The judges got down to business and before the crowd was onto them the lightning struck Amos Greer, the knock-kneed but popular barber, and Amos and his pardners were fired.

As the view dissolved a vision of green with willow stride and a dream in white with swallow tail attachment sailed in and bowled to the judges, but a poem in pink and white splashes who tried the line became bewildered; before the stray got right another move from the center of the ring, and the judges regret changed into tumultuous applause as the dude returned to the fray leading a new girl with elbow gloves, a demure air, and a look of defiance.

The judges' nods piled up victims fast from this time and the watchers had to choose between the leaders in pink and wheelers in green, for at the start, when a nod from the magnates almost took the crowd's breath away, as the couple were prime favorites, but it was out of warning and the breath came easier. The next gun was loaded, however, and the bullet hit a dumpy pair—the maiden en- decollete and the slipper. Signals of regret changed into tumultuous applause as the dude returned to the fray leading a new girl with elbow gloves, a demure air, and a look of defiance.

When the audience called for "more" a sketch was given of the four men named was the result of the trouble Justice Israel bound each one of the quartette to the next term of the Criminal court in the sum of $100.

The City's Visitors.

Hotels and Boarding Houses Are Filling Up.

It is doubtful if there were ever more visitors in Asheville at this season of the year than there are now. The hotels and boarding houses are filling up rapidly, in fact, many of them are comfortably full, and the coming of the health and pleasure seeker continues daily.

The weather here now is such as to fill the visitors' hearts with delight. The days are bright with sunshine, and even coats may be discarded. The drives about the city are in good condition, and, barring the need of some street sprinkling, there is little to be desired.

Edwards Caught.

A. R. Edwards, white, who, it is charged, has been selling whiskey in city and country for a year and a half without license, has been caught by Deputy Sheriff Morgan. Along with Edwards were seized 21 bottles of whiskey. Edwards had been connected with John Llewellyn in violations of the internal revenue laws, and sold several bottles of whiskey in Asheville Sunday. Edwards was brought before Justice Israel, waived examination and was sent up in default of bond.

HE HAS A LITTLE LIST

THE PRESIDENT SENDS IN MORE NOMINATIONS.

The South is Again Not Forgotten by the President—Some Important Offices Filled by First Rate Men.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The President today sent the following nominations to the Senate:

John S. Seymour of Connecticut, Commissioner of Patents.
Silas W. Lamare of Wisconsin, Commissioner of the General Land Office.
Wm. H. Sims of Mississippi, First Assistant Secretary of the Interior.
Edward A. Bowers of Washington, D. C., Assistant Commissioner of the General Land Office.
Henry C. Bell, Second Deputy Commissioner of Patents.
Horace H. Lurton of Tennessee, United States circuit judge for the Sixth Judicial circuit.
Max Iwad of Missouri, Consul General to Vienna.

V. M. C. A. NOTES.

Prof. Ford Last Evening—Dr. A. C. M. Ford.

The second entertainment by Prof. S. F. Ford under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. was given last evening to a good sized audience. The professor kept the audience on the qui vive most of the time and also gave selections that were sufficiently pathetic to bring tears to the eyes of many.

As the association has secured about 100 books of various kinds, in most cases of excellent quality. Some of the books are valuable as works of reference, and will be consulted by the young men with considerable interest and profit. The association would be glad to receive any further contributions of books, which will be sent gladly if word is sent to the association. The results have been so satisfactory that probably the association will attempt another book reception in the future.

The lecture on Friday evening in the regular course of the Y. M. C. A. on "Myths and Folk-Lore" will possess additional interest because the lecturer, Dr. Eben E. Alexander, has been suggested as a candidate for minister to Greece. The lecture will be given on Friday evening this week, instead of the same evening of next week as at first arranged.

NO ROW.

Anti-Cleveland Men Disappointed in This.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The confirmation of the nomination of Mr. Maxwell as fourth assistant postmaster general by the Senate Monday by unanimous consent, created all the theories that have been advanced about a row between the President and the Senate. As a matter of fact there has been some dissatisfaction expressed by several senators in regard to some of Mr. Cleveland's acts about appointments, but such is always the case under similar circumstances. There are not even any indications of a row. Both Senators Hill and Murphy who have been credited with antagonism to the President deny the stories and declare they are satisfied and will support Mr. Cleveland—Atlanta Constitution.

COTTON SPINNER'S STRIKE.

Believed It Is About To Be Settled at Last.

LONDON, March 22.—It is asserted on very good authority that the great cotton strike that has now been under way for about five months is approaching its end, and this too, despite the refusal of the federation of master cotton spinners to accept the offer of all the operatives to return to work at 2 1/2 per cent. reduction in wages. It is said today that a settlement of the disputed wages question will be announced tomorrow, and that all preliminaries for reopening the mill have been arranged. Some minor details of the questions at issue still have to be considered, but it is believed there will be no delay in a final settlement of the long continued fight.

Tammany's List Made Out.

NEW YORK, March 20.—The World says: Tammany tigers were in a joyous mood last night. Word had come to them that Secretary of War Lamont and the Big Chief in croker had had an interview, and that when the Secretary left for Washington in the evening, he bore with him a list of names of Tammany men whom the wigmasters had recommended for positions under the federal government.

Nihilists Active Again.

MOSCOW, March 22.—The mayor of this city was shot yesterday at a meeting of the city council, and died from the effects of his injuries this morning. Adrianoff, the murderer, refuses to make a statement as to the reason for shooting the mayor, but the police are firm in the conviction that it is believed there will be no delay in a final settlement of the long continued fight.

For Admiralty Investigation.

LONDON, March 22.—A dispatch from Alexandria, Egypt, states that the British war ship Undunted was grounded there, but was got afloat with two of her compartments full of water. The Undunted is commanded by Lord Charles Beersford.

Religious Riot in China.

SHANGHAI, March 20.—A religious riot has broken out in Amoy. Many native Christians have been tortured and a few have been killed. An English missionary was attacked by a mob of fanatics and barely saved his life by flight.

Her Poverty Saved Him.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 20.—The Rev. Tamar Petty, the minister who was arrested here for bigamy, has been released. His first wife, who lives in Ohio, is too poor to come here to persecute him.

Ex-Senator Sausbury Dead.

WILMINGTON, Del., March 22.—Ex-United States Senator Eli Sausbury died this afternoon.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET

SENATORIAL CAUCUS AGREES AT LAST.

Gen. W. R. Cox of North Carolina Named For Secretary—The Republicans May Oppose Reorganization at the Present Time, but It Will Be Pressed.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The Democratic senatorial caucus has nominated this ticket:
William R. Cox, of North Carolina, for Secretary of the Senate; Richard J. Bright, of Indiana, ex-Sergeant-at-arms, for Sergeant-at-arms; Rev. W. H. Milburn present Chaplain of the House of Representatives, for Chaplain of the Senate.

This result was not reached without protracted debate for there was a considerable element opposed to the idea of doing anything that would be in violation of the precedents of the Senate, and give cause to opposition on the part of the Republicans.

No time was fixed for the presentation of the necessary resolutions in the Senate, and they may be deferred or they may come up early for action. The leading members of the committee stated that the chief reason why the caucus took this course was to get rid of the importunities of the candidates, and to enable the Senate to go about its regular work. The nominations made were adopted with practical unanimity.

The patronage of the Senate under the officers selected today was considered for some time and a list agreed upon of employes of Republican faith who will be retained.

The Republicans have been permitted to have certain employes of the Republicans will, of course, be given the same privilege.

The Republicans appear to be determined in their effort to prevent the reorganization at this session it may be that the Democrats will desist and let it go over.

In the Senate today Mauderson tendered his resignation as president pro tem and on motion of Sherman it was accepted. Cockerell offered resolutions declaring Mr. Harris president pro tem. This was agreed to and Harris, escorted by Mauderson, took and signed the oath of office.

A GERMAN SENSATION.

Charles That Bismarck Was Not Above Suspicion.

BERLIN, March 23.—The large attendance at the opening of the Reichstag today was due to the expectation that Rector Allwardt would produce documents which he has claimed to have in his possession showing that during Bismarck's occupancy of the chancellory fraudulent contracts were made repeatedly with Hebrew financiers and vast sums of money belonging to the state had been transferred dishonestly to Hebrew speculators.

When the Reichstag opened and after the President took his seat Allwardt, upon whom all eyes were fixed, arose. He stated that he wished to lay a few documents on the table, in number, which he was yesterday directed to furnish in response he said that after Easter he would supplement the documents he now furnished with other papers bearing out his statements. Renewed demands were made that he produce at once all his alleged documentary proof of dishonesty on the part of officials and ex-officials. A committee was appointed to examine the papers submitted.

That's the Staff.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The daily issue of pension certificates has fallen very little, if any, during the present month. It is stated to be Secretary Smith's firm purpose to faithfully administer the pension laws as they exist, and no one who furnishes evidence proving his right to a pension under the law will be denied full justice. It is also stated, however, that questionable cases will be thoroughly investigated to the end that fraudulent and improper claims may be reduced to a minimum.

Caught at Their Wickedness.

LONDON, March 22.—James William Hobbs, of the firm of J. W. Hobbs & Co., and Henry Granville Wright, solicitor, were convicted today of forging and uttering bills of exchange and stealing money belonging to the Liberator society.

Makes Up The Crop Report.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Henry A. Robinson of Detroit has been appointed statistician of the Department of Agriculture to succeed J. R. Dodge, statistician, who has been issuing government crop reports for many years.

Tough on Schaefer.

CHICAGO, March 22.—Jacob Schaefer, the billiard expert, slipped on an ice pavement yesterday and broke the small bones of his right wrist. The surgeons express the belief that his career as a billiard player is ended.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Representative McAleny testified before the Kansas legislative investigating committee that he had been offered $5,000 for his vote in the recent senatorial contest. The deal fell through because the parties were unable to agree upon a stakeholder.

The meagre reports that have been received at Chicago concerning the condition of winter wheat indicate that the crop is not in an encouraging condition. The Sheridan-Mendota silver mines at Telluride, one of the largest in Colorado, has closed because of the low price of silver.
