HE WILL NOT RUN AGAIN

THE MAYOR WONT SEEK A THIRD TERM.

A Talk on The Situation in Local Politics—The Men Now in The Field for City Offices After The First Monday in May.

It was just four weeks exactly from yesterday until the time for the municipal election.

At that time a Mayor, four Aldermen and six members of the Advisory committee are to be elected by the voters of Asheville.

Not in many years has there been as little general talk over this important event as there is this year. But they do say that the leaven that is to affect the whole lump has already put in and is now working.

The number of candidates is not unreasonably large, and from them can be selected a ticket that will not give its kinsmen office, nor hold snap meetings.

The biggest piece of political news THE CITIZEN has to give its readers today is the fact that Mayor Charles D. Blanton intends to put an "ex" in front of his title—he will not seek a nomination for a third term. This is a fact, Mayor Blanton telling THE CITIZEN that his determination on this point was positive, absolute. Under no consideration, he said, would he allow his name to go before a convention or primary.

That is emphatic enough, isn't it? But this determination to give up from feeling a lively interest in the aldermanic ticket, would it?

A local politician, who knows the working of politics in Asheville like a book, said to THE CITIZEN today that this election would be more factional in the field than has ever been seen here, and all on account of some of the offices that will be at the disposal of the Board of Aldermen.

The candidates known so far are Chas. T. Rawls, Alderman T. Charles Starnes and Alderman J. Hamp. McDowell Mr. McDowell's candidacy will be news to many, but the politician referred to tells THE CITIZEN that Mr. McDowell is developing strength wonderfully. J. E. Rankin and W. W. Patton have also been mentioned for the mayoralty.

For the city tax collectorship there will of course be several candidates. One will be the present incumbent, N. A. Reynolds. The friends of the present treasurer, J. E. Rankin, will desire his reappointment, while the friends of J. E. Rankin will do the same for their favorite. There will be several candidates for the attorneyship, and this will add to the interest in the election. These three offices will be filled by the Board of Aldermen.

For aldermanic honors there will be many entries. In the First ward W. T. Cannon, D. D. Suttle, H. A. Gudger and possibly others, have been mentioned. For the Second ward there is Alderman E. Baird, who says he does not particularly desire the office, but would take it if offered, of which he says he has been notified by a number of citizens of his ward. Beside Dr. Baird, J. H. Taylor, J. E. Rankin and Dr. G. W. Parfroy have been spoken of. Capt. Jas. P. Sawyer, W. H. Penland and perhaps more have been suggested for the Third ward, while F. Sticklebar and W. B. Gwyn are among those who have been mentioned as Fourth ward representatives.

So far there have been no suggestions as to the six members of the Advisory committee who are to be elected to succeed the present members holding those positions. Mr. Cummings and the council room yesterday that he was not seeking a re-nomination. "But," he added, "if they elect me—they'll just have to elect me."

The members of the police force, who depend upon the Board for their jobs, will also take a hand and the contest, once it gets a start, will be a lively one. The ball will start rolling when the city Democratic executive committee holds its first meeting, which will be some time this week.

THE FLOWER MISSION.

Annual Election of Officers Yesterday Afternoon.

The April meeting of the Associated charity is always one of unusual importance, as the annual election of officers is in order, and the secretary and the treasurer give their reports for the year. The meeting was held yesterday.

The following are some of the items of the work from April, 1892, to April, 1893:

Visits made by superintendents city missionary, and Sec. of central office. 1,625

Orders for drugs. 283

Orders for groceries, wood, and coal. 118

Things sent to the poor. 118

This does not include the orders given during the "emergency," but marks the regular work of the associated charity. Eleven persons were sent to the hospital, 12 children to the home, and six persons sent to the almshouse.

The evening of the reports was followed by the election of officers. Miss Chester tendered her resignation of the presidency on the ground that she is not to be in Asheville during the summer, and that she thinks the position should be held by an influential, permanent resident of the place. She urged upon the members of the association, intelligent, broad-minded women in the work, and suggested that a trained nurse employed by the Flower mission and an avocet established in the factory district would be important additions to the association. Her resignation was not accepted.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick was elected vice-president; Mrs. Burroughs, secretary, and Mrs. Barnard, treasurer.

The business meeting then adjourned, and was followed by exercises in memory of Miss Jennie Casaday, the founder of the Flower mission work, who died in Louisville on the eighth of February.

LET'S ALL GO, and go to Norfolk on the 17th.

NORFOLK, Va., April 4.—Preparations for the amusement and entertainment of naval officers and the many thousand people expected during the grand rendezvous of war ships continue on the grandest scale ever seen in the South. Accommodations are being provided for 50,000 visitors each day. The naval ball on the 21st instant to be attended by over 200 officers, native and foreign, also present, has attracted attention in all parts of the country and applications for tickets are coming in by every mail. The races to be held on the 18th between crews from each of the naval vessels will be witnessed by every man in the service who can possibly get here. The Marine band of Washington, D. C., Old Point and bands from foreign ships will participate in the band contests for prizes amounting to $1,000.

NO BOARD MEETING.

Two Aldermen Needed, but They Didn't Appear.

Alderman Baird was early in his seat in the council room yesterday afternoon ready for the monthly meeting of the Joint Board. Mayor Blanton, Alderman McDowell and Advisors Miller, Green, Bearden and Cummings were also present, and Master Henry Westall occupied a chair next to that of the Mayor with gavel in hand, ready to call the Board to order. But a quorum did not make itself visible. Mayor Blanton said the members were out electioneering and at 3:30 the members who were present were dismissed until next Friday at 3 o'clock.

Flower Seeds for the Mission.

Through the kindness of Hon. W. T. Crawford, the Ninth district's representative, a generous supply of flower seeds, from the United States Department of Agriculture, has been sent to the president of the Asheville Flower mission. Packages will be left at the central office, where any superintendent wishing to distribute them in her ward is asked to call for her share.

Democrats Surprised.

Dubuque, Iowa, April 4.—The election yesterday proved a surprise for the Democrats, they electing one attorney, James E. Knight. The Independents elected the mayor, recorder, treasurer and three out of the five Aldermen.

EASTER EGG HUNT.

Unique Entertainment for Southside Young People.

On Easter Monday the teachers and scholars of the Southside Presbyterian Sabbath school met at the residence of the pastor, Rev. L. H. Baldwin, to engage in an "egg hunt." Over 200 colored eggs had previously been hidden in the most unexpected and inaccessible places in the bushes, rocks and trees on the side of the mountain back of the residence. At a given signal the children went to work seeking that they might find. After the eggs were gathered, all returned to the lawn at the house, where some time was spent in games and sports, after which supper was served. The supply was so bountiful that if the tables did not groan, some of the children did before they cried enough. It was a decided success and was as much enjoyed by the number of grown people who were there as by the children present.

Local Elections in Several Michigan Cities.

DETROIT, Mich., April 4.—With the exception of Detroiters the mass of the citizens of Michigan voted for city officials yesterday. The Republicans elected their candidates for mayor in the following places, in some cases dividing up the other offices with the Democrats: Lansing, Charlotte, Manistee, Lapeer, Howell, Iron Mountain, Coldwater, St. Ignace, Midland, Hillsdale, St. Clair, Eaton Rapids and Clare. In Owosso, Monroe, Cheboygan, Mt. Clemens, Jackson, Ludington, Greenville, Ypsilanti, and Pontiac Democratic mayors were elected. Marquette elected a non-partisan ticket. In Saginaw the Republicans won nomination, the Republican convention having been controlled by an anti-Catholic society which has secured a hold on all of the cities in this vicinity.

The First Quarantine.

AUSTIN, Texas, April 4.—Governor Hogg yesterday issued a proclamation establishing a quarantine on the Texas Gulf coast and the Rio Grande border to take effect May 1. It applies to vessels, persons and things coming from ports and places infected with yellow fever, small pox or cholera. All places south of latitude 25 degrees are to be deemed infected unless proven to the contrary.

Mixed Result.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 4.—Canton, Ohio, elects a Republican mayor for the first time since 1880. The Democrats get the council. At Youngstown the Democrats won a sweeping victory. At Findlay there was a Republican victory. At Massillon the Democrats elected every officer but marshal, their candidate for mayor having 11 plurality.

Killed in a Collision.

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill., April 4.—By collision of a passenger accommodation train on the Jacksonville Southeastern railroad, with a local freight going south about three miles south of here, four persons were killed and a number of others severely injured.

Big Bank Falls.

LONDON, April 4.—The Commercial bank of Australia has failed. It had a capital of $15,000,000 of which $5,000,000 are paid up.
