

ASHEVILLE DAILY CITIZEN

The Daily Citizen, Democratic, is published every afternoon (except Sundays) at the following rates—strictly cash: One Year, $6.00; Six Months, $3.00; Three Months, $1.50; One Month, $0.50; One Week, $0.15.

IT IS A NEWSPAPER HAVE YOU THOUGHT OF IT? It For a Year, and if You Live in Asheville It Will Be Delivered at Your Door Every Evening.

MONDAY, APRIL 24, 1893.

THE CITIZEN'S CHOICE

The fight for the control of the city government is now on. Two tickets are in the field, whether there will be a third does not yet appear, but Democrats, at all events, will choose between the two already before them.

Readers of THE CITIZEN know that it is greatly to our regret that there could not have been a compromise by which there would have been no division of the Democrats of Asheville on so plain an issue as reform in our municipal affairs.

For whom shall they make room? for the ticket nominated at the citizens' meeting, or for that nominated in the primary Saturday?

THEY ARE MAKING A RECORD Democrats will do well to weigh these words from the Charlotte Observer on the political situation here:

Many of the best citizens and best Democrats of the town are in the movement, as candidates and supporters, of the ticket opening before the party organization. There is no room to doubt that the independent movement means well by the city and the Democrats in it do not seem to realize, as we read THE CITIZEN, that they are committing a party discipline.

THE SOUTH SIDE OF PATTON AVENUE Between the Federal building and Bailey street is strewn with earth, bricks and sand. It has not been cleaned since the brick pavement was laid.

THE ABOVE HAS APPEARED DAILY IN THE ASHEVILLE CITIZEN for more than a week past. It indicates that the Asheville municipal authorities are hard of hearing and blind of seeing.

THE CITIZEN, however, acts on the principle that "keeping everlastingly at it brings success."—Franklin Press.

THE CITIZEN has from time to time printed for several days has failed of its mission. The publication of a complaint once hardly attracts the necessary attention, especially where the thing complained of is of time honored standing, having become a feature of the landscape possibly.

LITERARY NOTE: The next number of Harper's weekly, published April 26, will well maintain its usual standard of excellence and timeliness, containing, besides a variety of other interesting matter, the following attraction: Illustrations of the Naval Rendezvous at Hampton Roads, with descriptive articles by Lieutenant J. D. Kelley, U. S. N.; a portrait and sketch of Hon. James C. Carter, apropos of his services in connection with the Behring Sea Court of Arbitration; an illustration and sketch of the new Corcoran Art Gallery in Washington; an article by W. H. Bishop on Bradley's "Columbus"; illustrated; a portrait and sketch of the Duke of Veragua; and a graphic description of the city of Lisbon, by Armand Dayot, profusely illustrated.

THE TATTLER THAT primary seems to be about in the condition of the man who fell through his collar button hole and dislocated his neck.

I NEVER SAW anything to equal Saturday's primary. There was comparatively no interest taken in it—in fact, most of the people on the street acted as if they had never bothered their head about a primary.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE would no doubt be surprised to learn that many of the gentlemen in particular who did not go into the primary, and whose name I could give.

IT WAS LUCKY for Alderman Waddell that the street overseer stopped the Merrimon avenue paving just for the south corner of his lot. In this way the Board gets the credit of the paving without having to pay anything therefor.

IF THE CANDIDATES for mayor don't soon come to the rescue in this poetry contest, I'm going to throw up the sponge. I am doing all I can to keep the crowd from thinking the candidates can't write poetry, but good nature can't be imposed on always.

A WORD that is used as often as "municipal" is now ought to be pronounced properly. It was mispronounced a number of times at the "Reformers' meeting, and I was deeply pained to detect Alder Waddell, the scholar of the Joint Board, as one of those who mispronounced it.

IT WAS LUCKY for Alderman Waddell that the street overseer stopped the Merrimon avenue paving just for the south corner of his lot. In this way the Board gets the credit of the paving without having to pay anything therefor.

IF THE CANDIDATES for mayor don't soon come to the rescue in this poetry contest, I'm going to throw up the sponge. I am doing all I can to keep the crowd from thinking the candidates can't write poetry, but good nature can't be imposed on always.

THE CITIZEN has from time to time printed for several days has failed of its mission. The publication of a complaint once hardly attracts the necessary attention, especially where the thing complained of is of time honored standing, having become a feature of the landscape possibly.

LITERARY NOTE: The next number of Harper's weekly, published April 26, will well maintain its usual standard of excellence and timeliness, containing, besides a variety of other interesting matter, the following attraction: Illustrations of the Naval Rendezvous at Hampton Roads, with descriptive articles by Lieutenant J. D. Kelley, U. S. N.; a portrait and sketch of Hon. James C. Carter, apropos of his services in connection with the Behring Sea Court of Arbitration; an illustration and sketch of the new Corcoran Art Gallery in Washington; an article by W. H. Bishop on Bradley's "Columbus"; illustrated; a portrait and sketch of the Duke of Veragua; and a graphic description of the city of Lisbon, by Armand Dayot, profusely illustrated.

WM. PRICE, Louisville, Mo., writes: "I was afflicted with sciatica, and had lost the use of one arm and one leg for nine years. I went to Hot Springs and also tried different doctors, but found no cure until I tried Botane Balm. It made me sound and well. I am well known in this vicinity."

NEWS IN OUR OWN STATE.

—Rev. Dr. John A. Preston of Florence, Ala., is to be pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Charlotte.

—Leakesville Herald: Mormon elders have been dispensing their doctrine in this neighborhood of late.

—It now seems to be definitely settled that Raleigh will be given the glory in the reception of the remains of Jefferson Davis.

—A veritable curiosity of a tree is on the land of Mr. George Daily, sr., in New Hope township. It stands near the banks of Neuse river and measures 27 feet in circumference.

—Rutherford Banner: Last Tuesday morning Capt. James B. Morris, died at his home on Broad river in Polk county.

—Reports from thirty counties in this State in which forest fires recently prevailed show the aggregate loss of property to have been $1,000,000 or over.

—The Hon. H. A. Gudger is elected an Alderman there will be a little more trouble for the newspapers, for when the aldermanic meetings are reported and the name of Alderman Gudger is printed the initials will have to be used too, because there will be two Gudgers on the Board.

THE CITIZEN, that they are committing a party discipline. Nevertheless, however good their present intentions are they will find that they will never be able to outlive the record they are now making.

THE CITIZEN, however, acts on the principle that "keeping everlastingly at it brings success."—Franklin Press.

THE CITIZEN has from time to time printed for several days has failed of its mission. The publication of a complaint once hardly attracts the necessary attention, especially where the thing complained of is of time honored standing, having become a feature of the landscape possibly.

LITERARY NOTE: The next number of Harper's weekly, published April 26, will well maintain its usual standard of excellence and timeliness, containing, besides a variety of other interesting matter, the following attraction: Illustrations of the Naval Rendezvous at Hampton Roads, with descriptive articles by Lieutenant J. D. Kelley, U. S. N.; a portrait and sketch of Hon. James C. Carter, apropos of his services in connection with the Behring Sea Court of Arbitration; an illustration and sketch of the new Corcoran Art Gallery in Washington; an article by W. H. Bishop on Bradley's "Columbus"; illustrated; a portrait and sketch of the Duke of Veragua; and a graphic description of the city of Lisbon, by Armand Dayot, profusely illustrated.

WM. PRICE, Louisville, Mo., writes: "I was afflicted with sciatica, and had lost the use of one arm and one leg for nine years. I went to Hot Springs and also tried different doctors, but found no cure until I tried Botane Balm. It made me sound and well. I am well known in this vicinity."

THE CITIZEN has from time to time printed for several days has failed of its mission. The publication of a complaint once hardly attracts the necessary attention, especially where the thing complained of is of time honored standing, having become a feature of the landscape possibly.

LITERARY NOTE: The next number of Harper's weekly, published April 26, will well maintain its usual standard of excellence and timeliness, containing, besides a variety of other interesting matter, the following attraction: Illustrations of the Naval Rendezvous at Hampton Roads, with descriptive articles by Lieutenant J. D. Kelley, U. S. N.; a portrait and sketch of Hon. James C. Carter, apropos of his services in connection with the Behring Sea Court of Arbitration; an illustration and sketch of the new Corcoran Art Gallery in Washington; an article by W. H. Bishop on Bradley's "Columbus"; illustrated; a portrait and sketch of the Duke of Veragua; and a graphic description of the city of Lisbon, by Armand Dayot, profusely illustrated.

WM. PRICE, Louisville, Mo., writes: "I was afflicted with sciatica, and had lost the use of one arm and one leg for nine years. I went to Hot Springs and also tried different doctors, but found no cure until I tried Botane Balm. It made me sound and well. I am well known in this vicinity."

THE CITIZEN has from time to time printed for several days has failed of its mission. The publication of a complaint once hardly attracts the necessary attention, especially where the thing complained of is of time honored standing, having become a feature of the landscape possibly.

LITERARY NOTE: The next number of Harper's weekly, published April 26, will well maintain its usual standard of excellence and timeliness, containing, besides a variety of other interesting matter, the following attraction: Illustrations of the Naval Rendezvous at Hampton Roads, with descriptive articles by Lieutenant J. D. Kelley, U. S. N.; a portrait and sketch of Hon. James C. Carter, apropos of his services in connection with the Behring Sea Court of Arbitration; an illustration and sketch of the new Corcoran Art Gallery in Washington; an article by W. H. Bishop on Bradley's "Columbus"; illustrated; a portrait and sketch of the Duke of Veragua; and a graphic description of the city of Lisbon, by Armand Dayot, profusely illustrated.

WM. PRICE, Louisville, Mo., writes: "I was afflicted with sciatica, and had lost the use of one arm and one leg for nine years. I went to Hot Springs and also tried different doctors, but found no cure until I tried Botane Balm. It made me sound and well. I am well known in this vicinity."

BLANTON, WRIGHT & CO. No. 39 Patton Avenue.

JARVIS, RICHARDS & LEE, Sole agency for the Celebrated L. & M. PURE PAINTS. Sales Exceed 62,000,000 Pounds. Actual cost about $1.10 per gallon.

JARVIS, RICHARDS & LEE, No. 18 N. Court Square. TELEPHONE NO. 67.

Patronize Home Industry THE BEST FLOUR IN THE MARKET IS ROLLER-KING Manufactured by the Asheville Milling Co., and kept in stock by the following grocers:

Piano Tuning * * SEED POTATOES. C. E. M'GEE, FROM BOSTON. All Work Guaranteed by Him and C. FALK, MANAGER.

TO LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN EVERY 15 MINUTES FOR 5 CENTS. BALTIMORE CLOTHING AND DRY GOODS CO. 10-12 PATTON AVENUE.

BALTIMORE CLOTHING AND DRY GOODS CO., 10-12 Patton Ave., Asheville, N. C.

THE CITIZENS' REFORM TICKET. FOR MAYOR: THOS. W. PATTON. FOR ALDERMEN: First Ward—W. W. Jones. Second Ward—J. M. Westall. Third Ward—H. Lamar Gudger. Fourth Ward—B. H. Cosby. City-at-Large—J. A. Conant.

WESTERN CAROLINA BANK. State, County And City Depository. Organized May, 1888. DEPOSIT BOXES IN FIRE PROOF VAULTS RENTED AT REASONABLE RATES.

BUILDERS! French Broad Lumber Co. Having accumulated a large stock of Framing, Sheathing, &c., will sell FRAMING AT $7.50 PER 1,000 FEET. SHEETING $5.50 " " "

HARRIS' LITHIA WATER. HARRIS' LITHIA SPRINGS, S. C. After a long and varied experience in the use of Mineral Waters from many sources, both foreign and domestic, I am fully persuaded that the Harris' Lithia Water possesses efficacy in the treatment of affections of the Kidney and bladder unequalled by any other Water of which I have made trial.

PELHAM PHARMACY, Sole Agent, Asheville, N. C.

ACME WINE & LIQUOR HOUSE AND White Man's Bar. Claims the largest stock of first class goods of any house in the State. Makes a specialty of Cooking Brannies and Jelly Wines. Sole agents for the Acme Old Coru.

"BONANZA" WINE AND LIQUOR CO., Nos. 41 and 43 S. Main St., Asheville. BEER: VAULTS: AND: BOTTLING: DEPARTMENT: IN: BASEMENT. P. A. MARQUARDT, Manager.