Washington, D. C.: I will attend to my business; let the President attend to his Sylvester Pennoyer.

Governor.

Governor Pennoyer, speaking to a reporter, said:

"It comes with poor grace for the President to ask me to enforce the State law while he, without warrant, suspends the exclusion law."

Washington, May 4.—Secretary Carlisle today instructed collectors of internal revenue and customs officials to refrain from making arrests of Chinese who have not registered until further or-ders from the department.

Waters' War Over Whiskers.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.- A committee of waiters of this city called upon Lawrence McCormick and George C. Boldts. hotel managers, and presented their demand for the right to wear moustaches and for an increase in wages. McCormick was willing to accede to the demand for an advance in wages, but refused to accede to the demand for whishers. The result was a stable of the control of kers. The result was a strike, but the hotel men soon filled their places with whiskerless waiters.

by persons prejudiced against Glenn.
I hear today tha John W. Graham is securing endorsements for the purpose of entering the race for district attacks. of entering the race for district attorney and that it has been suggested in North Carolina, in connection with this fact, that Mr. Glenn might become a candidate for the collectorship.

This seems to be the only bottom to the rumor and as Vance denounces it as false everybody should rest assured that Mr. Glenn is not and will not be a can-didate for collectorship and that he continues in the race for district attor-

It is said that the commissioners of internal revenue contemplate a pretty clean sweep before long and will recommend to the President the fixing of a four rears term for employes of the bureau.

A LARGE PURCHASE. Dr. S. Westray Battle Buys Pink

Dr. S. Westray Battle of Asheville has closed negotiations for the purchase of the Pink Beds property and the tract is now being surveyed. This land lies in Henderson and Transylvania counties and was purchased by by Dr. Battle from the Falls of Neuse Manufacturing company. There are about 20,000 acres in the tract, and it is one of finest properties in Western North Carolina. A portion of the land is in the form of the bed of a lake, where grass will grow to an extra being the The will grow to an extra height. CRIMINAL COURT.

Progress of the Trial of "Bud" Whittemore for Murder.

The Criminal court room was nearly filled by spectators when the trial of "Bud" Whittemore, charged with the murder of "Doc" Roberts, was begun yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Whittemore sat near his counsel and listened interestedly to the testimony of the witnesses for the State. Three witnesses were examined in the afternoon, Joseph Hyder, Clingman Hensley and Coroner McBrayer, which examination was continued till about 6:30. Recess was then taken to 9:30 this morning.

The interest in the trial was unabated today, as evidenced by the crowd in the court room at this morning's session. Several witnesses for the Stare were examined, among them Perry McMahan, Robert Greenwood, and Dr. Reagan. The State will probably rest this after-

WALL STREET EXCITED GRANT'S PHARMAC FAILURES COME NEAR TO CAUSING A PANIC.

An Enormous Shrinkage in Some

WALL STREET, NEW YORK, May 4 .-11 a. m .- Shortly after the opening the market was thrown into a condition of panic by the announcement of the failure of Henry Allen & Co. and B. L. Smythe & Co. Liquidations were enormous, especially in such stocks as the firms were supposed to be in, and great excitement prevailed as block after block came on the market. After an enormous shrinkage in some stocks, sufficient buying orders appeared to rally prices. At 11 a. m. the market was still feverish.
