NOW WHO WILL BE CHOSEN? CITY OFFICERS SOON TO BE ELECTED. It is Common Talk That H. S. Harkins Will Be The Next Chief of Police—The Candidates So Far as Known. The city hall is the Mecca towards which are turned the eyes of many office seekers just at this time, and many are the pilgrims that will go there between this and the second day of June, the day on which the city officers—tax collector, water superintendent, etc.—will be elected by the Board of Aldermen.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY. Fraternal Greetings to the Mason Assembly. WASHINGTON, May 24.—The Presbyterian General Assembly was called to order at 9:30 by Moderator Craig, and opened with prayer by Prof. Roy of Chicago. The galleries were filled with visitors who had evidently come to remain through the day, to hear the proceedings in Dr. Briggs' case.

A LYNCHING IN MICHIGAN A HORRIBLY BRUTAL HANGING FOR MURDER. The Mob String Up Their Victim and Hack at Him With Knives—Dead, They Haul the Corpse Through The Streets at The Rope's End. CORUNNA, Mich., May 24.—Wm. Sullivan, a farm hand who brutally murdered his employer, Layton Lee, and murderously assaulted the latter's wife, paid the penalty of his crime last night. FIRE AT WINSTON. About Time to Organize a Special Fire Committee of Safety. WINSTON, N. C., May 23.—[Special.]—P. P. Haynes & Co.'s large brick tobacco factory was destroyed by fire this afternoon. The fire caught in the old Hannah Tobacco warehouse and it was also destroyed, with a brick building near by. Loss, $200,000. May Avoid a Receivership. NEW YORK, May 24.—Bank Examiner Wm. H. Kimball, who took charge of the National bank deposits yesterday, said this morning that there was a fair chance of the appointing of a receiver being avoided. Depositors, stockholders and directors will meet this afternoon to adopt a plan for winding up the affairs of the bank. If they can agree and fix upon a committee to take charge of affairs, the receivership can be avoided.

THE ROARING WATER. VICKSBURG, Miss., May 24.—The frightful velocity of the current through the Whitley crevasse is such that Assistant Engineer Brown, now in charge there, wires Capt. Townsend that the sole chance of holding the ends of the levee is to float down trees against them, thereby making breakwaters. Parties who left the crevasse last evening were from Lake Providence. The crevasse was then five hundred feet wide, and the roaring of the current through it could be heard for miles.

THE GREAT COMMONER. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ga., May 23.—To day is the greatest occasion in the history of Crawfordsville. Admirers from all over Georgia have congregated to do honor to the memory of Alexander H. Stephens, the "great commoner." At the unveiling this afternoon of the beautiful monument dedicated to his memory by the people of Georgia the address of the occasion was delivered by ex-Senator Thomas M. Norwood of Savannah.

IT WAS MESSRS. STARNES AND VANCE? J. M. Campbell says that he wishes to correct the impression that he was a party to any agreement to not introduce in the Legislature any bill referring to Asheville that had not been endorsed by a mass meeting of citizens. Furthermore, Mr. Campbell says he has no apologies to make for any action he took in the Legislature.

WARM WORDS PASSED. PARIS, May 24.—Sir Charles Russell continued his argument in behalf of the British case today before the Behring sea tribunal of arbitration. Carter again objected to the version of his argument used by Sir Charles for the purpose of quotation and a warm passage of words ensued between them.

A BOY'S SUICIDE. ATLANTA, May 24.—Louis Abbott, a seventeen-year-old school boy, has been desperately in love with Viola Tupper, aged fifteen, daughter of the rector of St. Philip's Episcopal church. Last evening they quarreled. A few minutes after Abbott blew out his brains.
