On motion of Alderman H. Lamar Gudger the banks sloped, that the curbing on Woodfin and Charlotte streets be set as soon as practicable, and that regulation and sidewalks be put down as early as possible on streets where curbing has been set, provided property owners do not want a costlier walk. The committee wished agreeing to serve until an election is provided property owners do not want a costlier walk. The committee wished further time for report as to the contract for the paving of Collegestreet by Webb, Oates, Eskridge & Co., and as to dam-ages to property of Miss Raven Lewis on Bailey street. On motion of Advisor Gwyn, the grading of West College, and the setting of curb on Woodfin street was ordered done. Mr. Gwyn also moved that the curbing contract for Charlotte street be given to Corn & Troy, but Alderman Starnes informed him that this firm already has a contract for curbing this street.

A request for a retaining wall at Mrs.
E. Sluder's property on North Main street was referred to the street committee. Given Authority.

ATTRACTIVE SPORT AT CAR RIER'S TRACK First Racing Under The Auspices

John S. Pleasants Winner in The Blescie Run. The Swannanoa Hunt club inaugunated the summer racing season yester- 40 pills for 15 cents. Grant's. day at Carrier's track with a card of a half dozen lively events and managed the affair to the satisfaction of the patrons and with credit to the organization. After 2 o'clock all cars to the depot from town were jammed with racegoers mand for it has constantly increased ever and at the track the crowd filled the since we placed it on the market. As it is grand stand and a good number took in pleasant to take, children do not object to the sport from carriages in the field. The it and it always gives relief. Try it; 25 ladies became greatly interested as the animals briskly cantered the course and and in the close running were quite as enthusiastic as their escorts. The Great Western band occupied a portion of the grand stand, with Fred in any way. For sale only at Grant's Phar-Hull waving the baton, and between macy. the acts played good music-so good indeed that the query was raised Where did you get that band?"

The condition of the track has been greatly improved since last year, and with a little more attention of the same sort, future meetings will undoubtedly lower vesterday's time

The promptitude of the judges kept the aids in a hustle and the program was sive preparations when a home product is run without annoying delays and completed in time for everybody to get home by dark.

At half past three the boys with the bikes were callled to draw for positions and rode to the line with Fulenwider inside, Sawyer 2, Henderson 3, Rich 4 and Pleasant got the fence. The betting was on Pleasant and Sawyer, and when the start was made the favorites took the lead with Pleasant in front. Half way around the leader bent down to win and Gene Sawyer's broad shoulders came to a level with a like end in but "Long John" was never headed and will wear the first trophy of Asheville's Cycling club, won in a half mile spin in the good time, considering the track, of 1.15. The line came in: Sawye Pulenwider, Rich and Henderson. Pleas ant's machine was a model 32 Columbia 40 pound, gear 62; Sawyer rode a Columbia, 54, geared 67; Fulenwider 32 Columbia, 30, geared 62; Rich a Cleveland 32, geared 56, and Henderson a Columbia, 40, 62. Moody was an en-try, but met with a mishap on the road down that broke his Cleveland and kept him out of the race.

The first racing of the horses began in the club hurdle of a mile, with the starters, McClosky's "Maud," Ceph Blanton's "Smoky Mountain," and Battle's "Celie." The jumpers took the pines in splendid style and Bridgers with "Celie" made two of the starters. "Celie" made two of the leaps with dangling stirrups, but the mare rattled the top of the hurdle on the curve and before the recovery was made Bridgers heels were in the air and the plucky rider lit in the dust. First money went to Ceph and "Maud" got second. Time,

The Richmond and Danville observation car with a catafalque erected in the center arrived yesterday, and the remains will be removed from the tombton Memorial hall at 5 glock this after the saddle rays colors in jockey garb, was cheered as he danced the track. "Simpson's "Bob" had the odds and little Phifer's known skill in of a request for damages to Mrs. A. L. Wiley's property by the grading of Park avenue, and a request from A. Rankin of honor until 3 o'clock tomorrow after a good line and the first shouts went up as "Minnehaha" bolted the track at the upper turn. It was a see-saw race to the inal quarter, when Hollingsworth lifted Charlie Stikeleather's "Fannie" out of the string and sprung the surpris of the string and spring the surprise of the day by winning with ease in 2:21. "Bob" was second, "Backsheesh" third, E. T. Wright's "Peacock" fourth and W. V. Reynolds' "Minnehaha" last. Phifer claimed a foul by Miller and in less time than it takes to tell it the judges had their bands followed to the product of the pr their hands full, but the decision disallowed the claim.

The pony race was the best of the day.
The event had in it Miss Woolsey's

Before the judges announced the result the track filled up with earnest talkers and everybody picked the winner. The judges said "Tibbits" first and "Beeswax" two, and the fire broke out in a flame. Colone Woolsey claimed the race for "Cherokee, but the judges ruled for another "go, and the Colonel withdrew "Backsheesh The leading feature of the morning and the black pony from further racing session was a bitter attack by Rev. A. Nelson Hollifield of Newark, N. J., on the Episcopal church. Mr. Hollifieid said the Episcopal church was nothing more than a "back door to Rome." Rev. Charles M. Boothof New York expressed deep regret that the attack was applicable.

and the black pony from further racing. While the ponies rested and their admirers cooled off the whistle blew for the final jumping, and "Celie" and "Smoky Mountain" left the post for a beautiful exhibition of clean and speedy leaps. The glossy mare led the way and wou, in spite of her jockey's pull from the track, in 2:31.
