Washington, June 25—Forecast till 8 p. m. Thursday: Partly cloudy and probably showers; easterly winds, becoming variable.

Don't forget the gala day at Carrier's track on the Fourth.

Internal revenue collections for the Fifth North Carolina district yesterday amounted to $2,709.32.

The Raleigh excursion came in yesterday at 6:20 p. m., with 215 passengers aboard from Raleigh and intermediate points.

The Woodmen will meet this evening at 8:20 in Jr. O. U. A. M. hall, North Main, to complete the organization, introduce new members and install officers.

A granite block is missing from the paving between the rails of the car track on North Main street near Merrimon avenue. Several blocks on this line need "tamping."

In Mayor Patton's court this morning James Lundy was tried for keeping a disorderly house and was fined $50 and sentenced to 30 days in jail. Two other cases brought in $15.

There is to be a moonlight excursion on the Asheville line tonight. Excursionists can take the car at the square at 8:30 and 9 o'clock. Returning the last car will leave the mountain terminus at 10:30.

The members of Calvary Presbyterian church, colored, on Eagle street, will dedicate their new church on Sunday next, July 2 at 3:30 p. m. Rev. D. J. Sanders, D. D., president of Biddle university, Charlotte, will preach the sermon.

The monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. at Y. M. C. A. hall Thursday at 5 o'clock p. m. will be important, as delegates are to be elected to the State convention at Waynesville and other matters in relation to that interesting meeting considered.

The attendance upon the social at Bethel M. E. church, South, last evening crowded the lecture room. A program of recitations, music, etc., was rendered and refreshments served, after which an hour was spent in social converse by those present. The entire affair was very much enjoyed.

About 25 of Buncombe's educators are expected to leave tomorrow for Waynesville, to attend the annual convention of the Western North Carolina Teachers' association, which opens Thursday and Friday. Among those who will go are County Superintendent C. B. Way, Hon. John W. Starnes, and Prof. H. L. King.

A pleasant time is promised to the college boys at the Y. M. C. A. Friday evening. College songs will be sung, and some of the college yells will be given. There will also be other musical and literary exercises. The colors of the colleges will be worn by their respective representatives. Refreshments will be served.

The Statesville baseball team, which played the Asheville team this afternoon, came in yesterday afternoon. The team is composed of Dr. C. C. Sapp, manager; J. C. Gray, p. m.; captain; C. L. Gray, c.; A. Frank, 1b.; E. B. Graham, 2b.; A. C. Magnum, s. s.; J. Horton, r. f.; J. Fayette, c. t.; W. R. Robertson, l. f.; R. L. Flanagan, 3b.

It has not yet been decided whether a game will be played tomorrow between the Asheville and Statesville teams. If a game is played it will occur in the morning, as the Statesville team will leave on the excursion tomorrow afternoon. If a game is decided on, announcements will be made by handbills, and on the bulletin board at THE CITIZEN office.

Water was pumped into the new standpipe for the first time yesterday afternoon. In one hour and 53 minutes five feet and seven inches of water was pumped into the standpipe. The record with the old standpipe and pump was two feet in an hour. The big cylinder held the water well. Mr. Conroy, the contractor, expects to complete the standpipe early next week.

A. C. Tron, one of the Waldenses colony that settled in Burke county, will deliver a lecture in the First Presbyterian church this evening on the history of the Waldenses. The lecture will be one of especial interest at this time, as the Waldenses have recently come into this section and everyone who is interested in the subject will be greatly interested by what Mr. Tron will have to say. The lecture will be free, and an invitation is extended to the public generally.

This is taken from Edward Bok's Sunday letter in the New York Recorder, and is a part of a chapter on the floral tastes of great writers: "Bill Nye cherishes the wild flower, which blooms in profusion at his place in South Carolina, although, as he says, 'we have a dozen varieties of crysanthemums, fresh from Japan, which our neighbors pronounce plumb.' With the exception of the statement that the Bard of Buck Shoals lives in South Carolina the assertion may be correct. Mr. Nye is now a Tarheel and will likely remain such for a long time.

The Chair of Matrimony. And now cometh J. R. Patterson, for a long time register of deeds for Buncombe county, State of North Carolina, who, being duly sworn this the 28th day of June, A. D. 1893, deposes and saith that the "chair of matrimony" in Register Mackey's office, about which there has been a deal of talk, was purchased and established by him (the said J. R. Patterson) while register for said county aforesaid. Further than this, he deposes and saith that, except that the said chair is a good one and is just what it is "cracked up to be."

Revival Still in Progress. The meeting at the First M. E. church is moving on with good results. Last night a feeling of deep solemnity and interest prevailed the large audience. The sermon of Rev. Mr. Avis from Prov. 1:24 was a powerful appeal to sinners to heed the cry of God to salvation. Four persons were at the altar for prayer and two were converted. This makes 23 conversions since the meeting began. Meetings from this time on every day at 10 a. m. and 8:30 p. m.

They Can't Be Lost. A gentleman and his wife now stopping in Asheville on their way to the World's Fair, have procured aluminum checks stamped with their Chicago hotel address, to be suspended around the necks of their children, while visiting the exhibition.

THE CHRISTIAN IDEAL.

Hon. John M. Langston's Lecture Last Evening.

The splendid building of the Young Men's institute on Eagle terrace was brilliantly lighted last evening, to welcome one of the most distinguished men of the colored race—Hon. John M. Langston of Virginia—who opened the Y. M. I. lecture course with his lecture on "The Christian Ideal of Manhood and Womanhood."

The opening of the lecture was delayed until after 9 o'clock. Mr. Langston in starting out said he had been told before leaving home that he would find a fine building here dedicated to the betterment of the negro, but he was hardly prepared for what he really saw in this magnificent building. He declared that no Southern State had treated the colored man with as much consideration as had North Carolina, and that the finest colored men of the South came from North Carolina.

THE EMPORIUM

Is crowded day and night—every department rushing, from West College street to Patton avenue, from basement to third floor; a perfect jam; business 50 per cent in advance of any season we ever had in Asheville. The public has discovered the superlative quality of our goods, our improved methods of business, our every effort to please, our talented assistants, our immense stock and our low prices; they have discovered also that anything comes from Mimnaugh's has the stamp of style about it. Off styles are as much avoided as bad debts in this establishment.

Our Dressmaking Department is already a success. Worth, the renowned dressmaker of today, would be jealous were he to see some of the lovely gowns turned out by our modiste, Miss Haupt.

Our Millinery are styles exclusively our own. We have shapes and colorings, you cannot find anywhere South. No more complete department to be found anywhere. Miss Driver is not only a trimmer of talent but a designer. Nearly everybody prefers her hats to the French patterns. Our prices range for nice goods from $5 to $40.

Our Dry Goods and Notions are the largest and finest collection in North Carolina. No bombast; we can prove every word of it 'Tis known in business circles in New York we buy the finest goods South except Atlanta and New Orleans. More fine stuff here than this town can show collectively.

Our Kid Gloves, new Parasols and Sunshades, new Dress Goods and Trimmings, Silk and Laundered Shirt Waists and new Eaton Suits will command a great deal of attraction this week.

Our Special Sale of Silks will surprise everybody Monday; 33 inches wide, beautiful designs; our price will be 80 cents as long as they last. Respectfully,

F. P. MIMNAUGH.

Our Ladies' Hair Dressing parlor is doing a flourishing business, Miss Smith is quite an artist in her line.
