THE SECOND HARD BATTLE AND THE VISITING BLUE BOYS GET IT.

Therefore Asheville Gets It Where the Grass Got the Extension, and Statesville is Happy Over 15 to 14—"Ain't It So?"

Just when everybody wanted to go out to the baseball game yesterday the trolley broke on the uptown line of the W. A. & S. S. road near the depot.

The game itself closely resembled at times a slugging match. Frank, the pitcher who is said to be a professional, was in the box for the visitors.

Frank opened the third for the blue boys by striking out Williams' error. McGinnis struck out Graham went out on a high fly to "Dixie" Weaver.

McGinnis in the eighth for Statesville, Graham, Faucette and Harbin being the boys to retire the side.

The seventh saw a wild crowd in the grandstand and against the ropes, as it seemed that Statesville had won with hands down.

Curious about that score, isn't it? When Frank laughs then the batter wants to let out a sweat that it was 14 to 14.

Over the Plate. Curious about that score, isn't it? When Frank laughs then the batter wants to let out a sweat that it was 14 to 14.

NEW INDUSTRIES. There is Life in the Old South Yet.

CHATTANOOGA, June 28.—The Tradesman has compiled a report of the new industries established in the Southern States during the three months ending June 20 which shows a total of 659.

The Tradesman, in reviewing the returns says that farmers as a class own less and are in better condition than for years.

During the three months the following different branches of industry have been established: Agricultural implement works, 3, against 4 during the same period in 1892.

Only two blast furnace companies were organized during the quarter, each in Alabama and Georgia, against 16 and 8 in the corresponding periods of 1892 and 1891.

CHICAGO, June 30.—"I have been here for three days," said Col. J. C. Allison, of Alabama, "arranging for accommodation of 300 people from Montgomery and Mobile who are coming to Chicago with the confederate excursion in July."

FAIRVIEW, N. C., June 29.—The railroad interest is daily increasing. Wheat will have a poor yield.

THE NEW YORK CENTRAL AGREES TO PAY $1,500,000 DAMAGES. New York, June 28.—Fifty thousand dollars, the largest sum ever paid by an American railway company for injuries to a single person, will be paid by the New York Central to Mrs. Homer Ball.
