Further than this, the bill provides that if a man is convicted of violating the dog law and does not pay his fine he may be compelled to work it out on the roads of the county at 75 cents a day. The bill as printed was framed by Hon. Mark L. Reed and Dr. Dur-ham, and was adopted by the Buncombe county Farmers' alliance. It went to Gen. R. B. Vance, one of Bun-combe's representatives in the last House, who introduced it in that branch of the Legislature. It passed that body just as it was, and then went to the Senate.
