GONE WEST.

Haywood and Clay Hear From Collector Elias.

Collector Elias today appointed D. K. Moore of Clay county, distillery surveyor, the compensation of which position is $250 a day and $2 a day for expenses.

Maj. W. W. Stringfield of Haywood county, was also appointed today, the place given him being a $1,000 clerkship in the Asheville office.

All of Collector Elias' appointments so far have been of men of prominence in their sections, and have been made with the idea of carrying out the intentions expressed by Collector Elias to THE CITIZEN—that is, to elevate the revenue service in every possible way.

The Collector has sent out an order to stamp deputies to the effect that they are to receive nothing but currency or postoffice money orders in payment of United States taxes.

The last Marion Free Lance says that Collector Elias has formed a new division out of McDowell, Yancey and Burke counties. This has not yet been done, but probably will be soon.

The Charlotte News says "Mr. S. Price Elias of Charlotte is a first cousin to Hon. Kope Elias. Price is averse to meddling in politics, but he has been prevailed upon to write several letters, to Colonel Kope, in behalf of his friends.
