When the Aldermen came to order the Mayor read a communication from Cobb & Merrimon in which that firm declined to appear as counsel for the city in the damage suit in which the city is defendant and Mrs. Jordan plaintiff. Mai. Chas. M. Stedman, one of the city's counsel in this case, had something to say privately to the Board in connec-tion with the suit, and Alderman Jones left the room. He is one of the counsel for Mrs. Jordan. The Board then went into another room and consulted Maj. Stedman, came in again, Alderman Jones returned and business went on.

The action of the board on the report of committee on a compromise with Dr. J. A. Burroughs was reconsidered, and the matter re-referred to the commit-

Mr. Jones then asked that the members be allowed to retire and consult. The request was granted and the consulters filed out. Fifteen minutes passed and the consulters filed in again, upon which Mr. Westall stated that but for the petition he would be opposed to any change.
