THE DEMOCRATS DIVIDED

SOME VOTE WITH FREE SILVER REPUBLICANS

Unable To Agree On a Policy—President's Message Said To Be In Opposition To The Democratic Platform—At Sea.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Almost every Democratic senator was present at the party caucus held this morning. The meeting convened at 10:30 o'clock, and when the hour of noon arrived nothing definite had been accomplished and adjournment was taken until immediately after the adjournment of the Senate.

The resolution of Mr. Hale, Republican, yesterday, which so suddenly and unexpectedly brought the question of a speedy repeal of the Sherman law before the Senate, it was thought by some Democrats placed them in a position where a conference became necessary in order that the policy of the party might be discussed and unanimity of action agreed upon. As might be expected, with the Democrats divided upon this subject, as are the Republicans, there was a diversity of opinion as to what course of action was to be followed. The question of nothing being determined upon when the hour came around.

The discussion was decidedly animated and at times there was a tinge of sarcasm in the tone of those who were inclined to look upon the attitude of the President, as defined in his message, as being in opposition to the platform of the Democratic party. No definite proposition was advanced, and when the caucus adjourned it was just as much at sea as when it was called to order.

Immediately after the caucus numerous conferences were had between the free silver Democrats and the Republicans of the same persuasion, the result of which was apparent when, as soon as the journal was read, a motion was made to adjourn and it was noticeable that the silver Republicans voted with the Democrats to carry out that proposition. This was taken as an evidence of a desire for time, and the caucus immediately reassembled. The Democrats will endeavor to reach some conclusion this afternoon. If this question is disposed of, the subject of patronage of the Senate will also be taken up and a trial of offices is agreed upon—provided there be no division upon that matter.

RESPONSIBILITY.

The Republicans Not Ready To Assume Any Of It.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The Republican Senators held a caucus yesterday morning in the rooms of Senator Sherman and discussed the situation from various points of view. The senators from the West mingled freely with the gold men from the East and talked over financial affairs in an unimpassioned manner.

There was one thing upon which the senators agreed, however they might differ on other matters, and that was that the Sherman law was not alone responsible for the lack of confidence now existing in the minds of the people. One Senator made a speech in which he took the ground that fear of interference by the Democrats with the tariff had done more than anything else to sow the seeds of distrust throughout the land. This sentiment was voiced by others present.

It was agreed that the Democrats must assume responsibility for all that was done, but that at the same time the Republicans would be guided by patriotic impulses and do what they thought was proper to help the country in removing evils that were believed to exist. A Democratic President had called Congress together and whatever was done must be proposed by that side of the chamber and upon that party the consequences would fall.

Matters of patronage were discussed and the caucus committee of last year, consisting of Senators McMillan, Proctor, Jones, Wolcott, Jones, Aldrich, Higgins and Davis were authorized to wait upon the Democratic caucus committee and see what the party intended to give the minority, and report at the next conference.

DRAWING FOR SEATS

Some Better and Some Worse Off Than Before.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Senator Hutton was present at the reassembling of the Senate today. Senator Ransom also was on hand. Senator Vance has not yet appeared at the Capitol.

All of the North Carolina members were in attendance upon the organization of the House.

In drawing for seats today the North Carolina members as a rule came out well. The first North Carolinian called was Mr. Branch. He chose the desk he had in the last Congress—a most eligible location in an aisle to the Speaker's right. The next North Carolinian reached was Mr. Settle, the lone Republican member from the Old North State. He got a splendid location on the Speaker's left.

Mr. Henderson took his former desk on the front row to the Speaker's right. Mr. Alexander, was lucky enough to draw, so he got the same good seat he had in the last Congress, but his friend, Mr. Grady, had to go over on the Republican side, for all the seats on the Democratic side were taken when his name was reached.

Messrs. Bunn, Bower and Woodward did very well, but Mr. Crawford was not as fortunate as he was before.—Richmond Dispatch.

FREE SILVER.

His Friends Have a Caucus in the House.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The hall of the House was closed shortly before noon and the friends of free silver began their caucus. The attendance was small and up to 12:30 not more than 50 members had made their appearance. The door keepers were instructed to notify each member who appeared for admission that the meeting was confined to free coinage only.

Making Haste Slowly.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The Senate met and, without transacting any business, adjourned till tomorrow on a motion made by Gorman and the yeas and nays demanded by Platt; yeas 41, nays, 21.

AT HOT SPRINGS.

How the Message Was Received at That Resort.

HOT SPRINGS, N. C., Aug. 9.—Thanks to the prompt delivery of THE CITIZEN, the President's message to Congress so eagerly looked for, came to hand yesterday evening and was read by the many interested guests of the Mountain Park hotel with much gratification.

Col. McGhee, one of the receivers of the E. T. Va. & Ga. railroad, expressed himself as much pleased and it was a plain, straightforward, concise document and to the point, and should not fail to receive the endorsement of the country at large and prompt action by Congress.

Major Alexander of Mississippi fully endorsed the views as expressed by the President. Colonel Matheson of Augusta, Ga., terms the message, like everything coming from President Cleveland, as sensible and eminently practicable, and believes Congress will act in accordance with the recommendations as to the prompt repeal of the Sherman law. Colonel F. VanKentbush of Columbia, S. C., considers the document as admirable and should receive the immediate and favorable action of Congress.

Col. Gillum of Louisiana, a profound thinker and scholar with eminently practical but conservative views, after most carefully reading and pondering over the message, is of the opinion that the President's points are well taken and logical and ought to find a response.

Dr. W. W. Prentiss of Washington, D. C., said: "The President's message is just what it ought to be." Further than that the Doctor suggests the following: "Repeal Sherman act, make silver money on basis of gold value, make all government obligations redeemable in gold or silver certificates, but as promises to pay, based on the credit of the United States, and abolish national bank system and let the government issue the money."

FOR BIGAMY.

Chas. Hamilton, Colored, Arrested and Jailed Yesterday.

Chas. Hamilton alias Alex. Hamilton, colored, came up to Asheville from Spartanburg on the excursion and got into trouble by so doing. Hamilton formerly lived in Asheville and when he went away left a wife here. It was afterwards found out that he had another wife in Spartanburg. Deputy Sheriff J. M. Morgan, armed with a warrant, got on the trail of the sabbie bigamist late yesterday afternoon, and arrested him on South Main street as he was getting ready to return to his Spartanburg spouse. Hamilton resisted desperately, but was taken before Justice Chas. W. Malone and was ordered to give a $200 bond for his appearance in court. This Hamilton could not do and he was sent up. The doubly-wedded darkey made an emphatic protest against going to the bastille, but had to take his medicine nevertheless.

BENEFIT GAME.

Baseball at Carrier's Track Tomorrow Afternoon.

The benefit baseball game in aid of the Flower mission will be played at Carrier's track tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, by picked teams from the Asheville Baseball club. The players are in good practice and are going to play pretty ball. Gus Churchberg's arm is well once more and he is to play with one of the nines. The game of itself will be attractive but should be more so because of its being played for the benefit of a worthy charity. Go out and see the game.

Tickets for the game may be purchased at any of the drug stores.

WALL STREET SURPRISED.

National Banks Increased the Rates on Call Loans.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Wall street received a big surprise this morning in the shape of an announcement from the national banks of this city that they had unanimously decided to increase the rates of call loans of recent date to 12 per cent. per annum and on those of long standing to 10 per cent. Their reason for this, they say, is that so many persons have "laid down" on them, that they are compelled to do this in self protection.

Predicting Riots.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—In an address of welcome to the annual convention of the military surgeons of the national guard of the United States, Mayor Harrison said: "There are 200,000 people in Chicago today unemployed and almost destitute of money. If Congress does not give us money, we will have riots that will shake the country."

Quit For a Time.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 9.—The Linden Steel company, one of the largest manufacturing concerns in Pittsburgh, has suspended operations on account of the stringency of the money, the difficulty in procuring discounts and inability to make collections. All the employees, 800, were discharged.

Will Make Up and Kiss.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Mgr. Satoli has accepted an invitation to become the guest of Archbishop Corrigan in New York next week. This indicates the approach of complete accord where it has been intimated that antagonism and almost suspension of personal relations existed.

Virginia Populists

Only One.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Aug. 9.—The statement telegraphed from Richmond about the failure of the Abingdon banks was so constructed as to make it appear that two banks in this city had failed, which is not true.

Not Resigned.

Assets Enough.

TWO SILVER BILLS ARE IN

SENATOR STEWART SPEAKS IN FAVOR OF SILVER

The Repeal of The Sherman Act Would Destroy All Hope of Free Coinage—Terms of The Stewart Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—In the Senate yesterday two bills were introduced by Stewart of Nevada. Their titles were "to restore the right of coinage" and "to supply the deficiency in the currency."

The latter bill was read in full. It directs the secretary of the treasury to issue silver certificates equal in amount to the silver bullion in the treasury, purchased under the act of July 14, 1890, in excess of the amount necessary, at its coining value, to redeem the treasury notes issued under that act, and to use the same to provide for any deficiency in the revenues of the government, the surplus of such certificates to be used the purchase of four per cent bonds at their market price, not exceeding twelve per cent premium.

Stewart delivered a prepared speech upon the bill. In the speech he declared himself against the repeal of the Sherman act, as such repeal would, he said, destroy silver coinage forever.

TOO MUCH J. T. & K. W.

A Great Pennsylvania Millionaire a Millionaire No Longer.

LEBANON, Penn., Aug. 9.—Robt. H. Coleman, the iron millionaire, has made an assignment. His liabilities will approximate $3,500,000 and it is asserted that they exceed the assets. Coleman's interest in the Jacksonville, Tampa, & Key West railway has brought him to the verge of financial ruin. Several suits instituted on account of alleged hypothecation of $400,000 worth of road by Coleman, as well as continued losses and inability to pay the interest compelled him, January 21, 1891, to borrow $500,000 from the Pennsylvania Trust company, which was followed February 21, 1891, by another forced loan of $1,250,000 and a mortgage on June 30, 1892, for $62,500 the former interest remaining due and paid.

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 9.—The Commercial bank of this city closed its doors this morning.

WANT DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR.

Bank Depositors Want Compromise for 90 Cents.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A crowd of small depositors gathered before the doors of the closed Madison Square bank this morning and anxiously inquired as to the safety of their money. About 11 o'clock Harry Goldstein, son of Isaac Goldstein, the millionaire dealer in Hudson street, stated to a depositor that his father authorized him to say he would bond himself in $300,000 to pay all depositors. He did this because he was a friend of President Blount and was confident the affairs of the bank were all right. Ten minutes later the janitor appeared and stated that one of the directors was on hand with $40,000, prepared to settle with depositors on the spot at 90 cents on the dollar, or if willing to wait, every cent would be paid. No one took up the offer and the crowd dwindled away.

HAD CHOLERA.

At Least One Passenger On The Karamania.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Surgeon General Wyman of the marine hospital service has returned from New York. He says that an examination of Lorenzo Morcaeo on the Karamania, shows he has cholera, but is recovering. Another passenger of the Karamania is thought to have the disease.

Earthquake and Flood.

Saturday there was a cloudburst in the vicinity of Gratt, the capital of Styria, and the waters swept down in the valleys doing great damage. A large number of persons were drowned.

Harry Skinner Was There.

SHELBY, N. C., Aug. 9.—[Special.]—The Populists of Cleveland and Rutherford counties held a rally and encampment at Boiling Springs yesterday. About 3000 were present. Harry Skinner was the orator and spoke both on Monday and Tuesday. The Populists are much elated over the large crowd in attendance.

Uneasy South America.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The Herald's Valparaiso special says: In Santa Catharina, Brazil, the federal soldiers have deposed the state authorities. The Herald correspondent in Rivera telegraphs that the revolutionists have defeated Baron Turnpy. Salagardo with 1,000 men is marching on Santa Anna.

Tobacco Ruined.

LANCASTER, Pa., Aug. 7.—The damage to tobacco from hail yesterday in Lancaster and York counties is much worse than first reports indicated. Hundreds of acres of tobacco were completely ruined and in many instances will be plowed under as a fertilizer.
