THE BATTLE HAS BEGUN

BILL TO REPEAL THE SHERMAN ACT INTRODUCED.

The Democrats Have Got Partly Together and The Fight for Silver and Against It is on in Earnest.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The silver and anti-silver men have reached an agreement by which general debate on the bill for the repeal of the Sherman law is to be limited to 11 days. This will be followed by a debate for three days under the five minutes rule. Then voting will begin on the bill and the various amendments.

The present arrangement is that the repeal bill will be introduced in the House today; that the accompanying resolution shall prescribe the method of procedure, and the general debate shall begin at once. If this plan is carried out the House will vote on the bill and amendments August 28.

The silver men's part of the program is to offer first a substitute looking to free coinage at the present ratio. If this is defeated, then votes will be taken on the amendments fixing the ratio at 17, 18, 19 and 20 in order, and finally, if these fail, then upon the Bland-Allison Act.

The program opened. The House this morning was in a bustle of intense excitement. After the reading of the journal, Mr. Wilson, Democrat, West Virginia, offered for present consideration a bill to repeal a part of the act approved July 14, 1890, the Sherman act.

It provides that so much of the act approved July 14, 1890 as directs the Secretary of Treasury to purchase from time to time silver bullion to the aggregate amount of 4,500,000 ounces or so much thereof as may be offered in each month at the market price thereof; not exceeding $1 for 3.71 1/4 grains of pure silver, and to issue in payment for such purchase treasury notes of the United States be, and the same is hereby repealed, but this repeal shall not impair in any manner effect the legal tender quality of the standard silver dollars heretofore coined, and the faith and credit of the United States are hereby pledged to maintain the parity of gold and silver coin of the United States at the present legal ratio, or such ratio as may be established by law.

Representative Bland offered an agreement made this morning governing the course of debate. It limits debate to 14 days' sessions, continuing from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m., and with nightly sessions for debate only if desired; the vote first to be taken on the bill to be presented as a substitute for the Wilson bill, providing for free coinage at a ratio of 16 to 1. If that fails, then at ratios running from 17 up to 20. If they all fail then on the revival of the Bland-Allison act of 1878.

Debate Begun.

Bland demanded the previous question on his order, but this was antagonized by the Republicans, under the leadership of Cannon who wanted time to debate the question. Under the ruling of the Speaker, in the absence of rules or agreement, ordering the previous question would cut off debate by the operation of voting by tellers. Mr. Cannon secured sufficient support to secure a vote by yeas and nays and at 12:35 the calling of the roll began; it resulted, yeas 227, nays 100. So the previous question was ordered. The roll call was then taken and the Democrats in support of the motion.

The resolution was then adopted, and at five minutes after 1 p. m. Mr. Rainey, Maryland, began the debate in support of the Wilson bill for the unconditional repeal of the silver purchase clause.

Senator Hill's bill introduced in the Senate repealing part of the Sherman act reads:

"Be it enacted, etc., that sections 1, 3 and 4 of the act of July 14, 1890, entitled an act directing the purchase of silver bullion and the issue of treasury notes thereon and for other purposes are hereby repealed."

"Sec. 2. This repealing act, however, is not to be construed as an abandonment of bimetalism, but it is hereby declared that the policy of issuing both gold and silver as the standard money of the country shall be established, and to the accomplishment of this end the efforts of the government should be steadily directed."

McDOWELL MATTERS.

The Reward of Toll—What Will Congress Do?—Hotels Needed.

MAKON, Aug. 10.—Within the past two weeks general rains have fallen over the country and the crop outlook is correspondingly promising. Generally in this section the reward of toll will be bountiful—"food for the cater and seed for the sower."

The man who has a moderately good farm would do well to cling to it, rather than let it go from him because times are hard. By and by they will be better, and the farm will pay more money to the industrious, wise manager. The towns are overcrowded for those seeking employment.

Horne Greeley's advice, too, has been in some quarters too faithfully followed in some of our young men rushing off to the West; and when going from this section they often do not find as good as they left.

There are several cases of typhoid fever in and about Marion, but the type is mild and the patients are recovering. Ours is a healthy region, and while there may be some local causes, yet the disease is an insidious one, starting from we know not what, sometimes.

Our mild southeast side of the "ridge" is fitted in a superior manner by climate for a winter resort. We need more and larger hotels to accommodate the travel and health seekers. Marion is a good location, or Old Fort, for a sanitarium. Let us encourage for such things.

Every one is on the tip toe of expectation as to what Congress will do. Many have different views, in part at least, as to what ought to be done in regard to the financial question. Many have confidence in the intention and ability of Congress to do the best thing at the time. It is hoped and believed it will. The party in power has a great opportunity to strengthen, or to weaken itself. Which will it be? The former we trust, and the country at the same time is benefited.

REDS AND BLUES

Game At Carrier's Track For The Flower Mission.

There were near 100 paid admissions at Carrier's track yesterday afternoon to witness the game between the Reds and the Blues, played for the benefit of the Asheville Flower Mission. Those who went had their hearts in the right spot, but there were not enough of them. Thus it was that enthusiasm was lacking and the players seemed to miss the usual cheers from the grand stand. The Blues went to bat and, after two men had been retired, made two runs on wild throws. The Reds couldn't do a thing except get put out in their half. In the second the Blues added one, two men being put out at second by Clarke's riot throwing. The Reds made one and quit. The third saw the Blues add three to the score, while the Reds notched five on the stick. Clark made a slide to third in this inning that added a toboggan. Arthur Rankin knocked what would have been a home run but for his resting uncertain on first for a few seconds. He got off, but couldn't go farther than third.

In the fourth the Blues ran three men over the plate and the Reds had to get along without any. The fifth, however, advanced the Blues four runs and the Reds three. The latter put out Lindsey and Guy Rankin on a double play between Alexander, John Fletcher and Chambers. The sixth saw the boys get one each, and in the seventh the Blues scored two, while a goose-egg was what the Reds got. In this Weaver made a splendid catch of E. Rhett's right field fly.

In the eighth the Blues boys were held down to one run, while their opponents climbed up three. Weaver was the third man out, his fly being nicely caught by Lindsey, who hadn't a chance up to that time. In this inning Guy Rankin—but that's another story. The ninth inning was played almost in the dark. The Blues scored one, and the Reds went in. They made two outs and then made five runs, tying the score at 18 to 18.

The Blues wouldn't play longer on account of darkness and Umpire Champlain gave the game to the Reds. But it was all for sweet charity's sake and the Blues did not care much.

The players and positions: Blues—Young, 3b.; E. Rhett, 1b.; Morris, p.; Garrison, c.; W. Fletcher, c. f.; Merrimon, s. s.; A. Rhett, 2b.; G. Rankin, l. f.; Lindsey, r. f.

Reds—Chambers, 1b.; J. Fletcher, 2b.; Alexander, s. s.; Clarke, c.; Weaver, r. f.; Waddell, c. f.; Chreitzberg, p.; A. Rankin, l. f.; White, 3b.

The playing of E. Rhett on first was as pretty as could be, although he was suffering from a broken finger.

An invitation has been received by Asheville from Rogersville, Tenn., to play two games there on the return from Knoxville.

The Charlotte trip has been abandoned through failure to secure expected railroad rates.

GOES TO FRANKLIN.

Collector Elias Off Yesterday—A Winstonian's Joke.

Collector Elias left yesterday afternoon for his home in Franklin, where he will remain for several days.

Revenue Agent W. W. Colquitt of Greensboro and Deputy Collector J. G. Tatham of Graham county were in the city today on departmental business.

Winston correspondence. Charlotte Observer: A drummer, whose name is only known to few, came to Winston last night and recorded the name of Kope Elias on the register at Hotel Quincy.

Early this morning the news was spread that the collector was here. Candidates for the Winston stamp office began to "swarm" around the hotel. The hotel clerk caught on to the joke and informed the hungry men that Kope could not be seen before 6 this evening. Those who did not go to the hotel telephoned to their friends or "influence" to call on the collector at once. The candidates did not catch on to the trick until about noon.

EXCURSION TO KNOXVILLE.

A Chance for Everybody to See the Game Monday, Aug. 21.

Every baseball fan in Asheville wants to go to Knoxville and see the Highlanders play baseball with the Knoxville Reds. They will have an opportunity to see the first game, which occurs on Monday, August 21, and see Knoxville at the same time for a small amount of money. Messrs. J. B. Pittman and F. A. Johnston have made arrangements with the Richmond & Danville and will run an excursion to Knoxville on the day of the first game. The excursion train will consist of five coaches and will leave the Asheville depot at 6 o'clock Monday morning. Returning, the train will leave Knoxville about 8 o'clock p. m. This will give everybody a chance to take in all of the game. The fare for the round trip will be only $3, and as the Asheville boys want to go down and tip the players out with a yell or two it is probable that a big crowd will take advantage of the low rate.

University Notes.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Aug. 8.—The University Review School opened on time and promises to do a good work in preparing young men for the University. This school is not yet full, and any who desire a review before entrance examinations will find this a profitable and pleasant manner to spend these three weeks.

Chapel Hill defeated the Law class yesterday in a wildly exciting game of baseball. This is the third game in the series of five, and Chapel Hill has won twice.

THE YELLOW FEVER SCARE

IT MAY BE ONLY A SCARE AFTER ALL.

However Lots of People are Leaving Pensacola and Many Towns Quarantine Against the Distressed Refugees.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Surgeon General Wyman has received a dispatch from Dr. Hargis at Pensacola, stating that there are no cases of yellow fever in the city.

CULLUM, Ala., Aug. 11.—Four passenger coaches nearly filled with refugees from the yellow fever scare at Pensacola, Fla., passed through here yesterday over the Louisville and Nashville railroad, bound north. Cullum's rigid quarantine prevented any stop here.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Aug. 11.—Not a suspicious case of sickness of any kind is reported from this city or county up to this hour, was the official announcement made by the board of health at six o'clock last evening.

The panic is over and the people have begun to think. The result is that nearly every reflective person who has had experience with yellow fever is now convinced that the two deaths Wednesday did not occur from yellow fever.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 11.—A train load of fugitives from Pensacola reached here yesterday. They found every door closed against them until they reached Atlanta; Augusta, Savannah, Birmingham and other towns having quarantined against Florida refugees. New Orleans has decided not to actually quarantine Pensacola but to detain passengers coming from that city.

HAS THE TYPHUS FEVER.

The Doctors Can't See Where He Got The Disease.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—At 10 o'clock this morning Dr. Doty, chief of the bureau of contagious diseases, received a report from North Brother Island stating that Robert Watson, the suspect moved from Bellevue hospital yesterday, had developed typhus fever. What puzzles Dr. Doty is how, when and where the man caught the disease. Watson was employed as a laborer at the Manhattan beach hotel. He went there July 19 from Pennsylvania and was taken sick day before yesterday.

HANGED A MINER.

Rage for Lynching Grows by What It Feeds On.

COAL CREEK, Tenn., Aug. 11.—Briceville was the scene of the greatest excitement yesterday over the lynching of a miner of the name of Richard Drummond. There is no doubt that the lynching was done by the State militia, the cause being that Drummond had had a warrant for the arrest of one of the soldiers.

Earthquake in California.

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Aug. 9.—The severest earthquake felt here since 1868 occurred this morning. Oscillations were apparently southeast to northwest. Considerable damage was done in the way of falling chimneys, broken windows, etc. The courthouse was badly shaken up.

Campania Beats Her Best Time.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The Campania passed Broadway this morning, making her time from Sandy Hook in 5 days, 16 hours and 30 minutes. This breaks the best previous record between Sandy Hook and Queenstown made by the Campania—5 days, 17 hours and 25 minutes.

NEWS IN OUR OWN STATE.

The fourteenth annual convention of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association met in Greensboro. A call of the roll showed a fair attendance. Eleven new members were received into the association. The report of the secretary and of the treasurer were heard, showing a nice sum to the credit of the association. Efforts are being made to establish a chair of pharmacy at the university.

Hendersonville Times: It may seem a little presumptuous, but the Times is going to be rash enough to venture the assertion that within 12 months from this time Hendersonville will have in course of construction another large hotel.

On Sunday morning last the people of Hendersonville, says the Times, were shocked and saddened when they received intelligence of the death of Prof. J. A. Woodburn, which occurred at Brevard Saturday night.
