DISTURBING THE COURT

AN UNFORTUNATE COLLECTION OF NOISES.

First it is a Kettle Drum, Then a Bass Drum, Then a Fife, and Then The Jail and Fines—History of Interesting Cases.

Testimony in the case of E. B. Mann & Co. vs. Crapo, Gonzales and Penland was being heard in the Superior court yesterday before Judge Armfield when the notes of a band in the street were heard, and a number of persons reached for their hats and left the room, while others went to the open windows on the north side of the house and leaned out to hear the music. Amid the confusion the judge directed the sheriff to keep order and to have the windows closed, and the parties therein to take seats. Quiet was restored and several of those who had gone out returned; the witness resumed, when the beating of a kettle drum was again heard, the sound increasing until it was apparent that it was in the street along side the building. Another coming of the crowd occurred and the same rush to the windows. Judge Armfield at once notified a deputy sheriff to arrest the man beating the drum. In a couple of minutes Deputy Hampton appeared with the drummer. About the same instant the noise of a vigorous pounding of the bass drum was heard, and the judge, obviously much annoyed, ordered the arrest of the beater. The deputy vanished, but soon made return that he had been unable to find the offender. Then the music much annoyed, ordered the arrest of the beater. The deputy vanished, but soon made return that he had been unable to find the offender. Then the music much annoyed, ordered the arrest of the beater. The deputy vanished, but soon made return that he had been unable to find the offender.

Deputy Hampton started to the judge that he had obeyed the order of the court in notifying the band to stop playing and that all had done so except the drummer, who kept right on beating after he went up to him and told him to stop. The drummer gave his name as Jesse Bailey and said that he was not the leader of the band and that he did not stop drumming because the leader had not told him to do so. This in answer to questioning by the judge. Judge Armfield then directed the clerk to enter on the docket that the drummer be confined in jail until 6 o'clock in the evening and pay the costs and to remain in custody until the costs were paid. At this juncture Manager Dolson of the Barlow Minstrel company appeared before the court and stated that his band had not understood the direction of the deputy and that they did not know the court was in session, but the judge said he would make them understand the matter, and as a deputy called out for the house to take seats and be quiet Dolson retired and Bailey was taken to jail and locked in a cell where T. W. Cray saw him half an hour later. He said that he did not know the building where he was arrested was the court house, that there was an immense crowd on the streets, and that he was near a pair of restive mules hitched to a wagon when a man touched his shoulder and said he should stop drumming. He supposed the request was because of the frightened animals, and barely kept the drumssticks tapping so as to give the men the step when the same man said "Well, I'll arrest you" and here I am.

A few moments later M. J. Robertson of Buncombe was before the court for disturbing the session by blowing a life and he too was sent to jail and a capias issued for officer F. R. Yeatman of the police force; the latter was subsequently brought in and Robertson brought up from the jail, when he identified Yeatman as the man who he said had told him to go over by the court house and play his fife. Robertson, it appeared, went to the officer and said he had bought the fife to play Dixie with the band, and Yeatman said, jokingly or thoughtlessly: "Well, you had better go out there by that wagon, where the band was." Chief Harkins, who was the patrolman to find the city engineer, and he turned off to obey the direction. Shortly after he saw the flute player, but did not move that he had been playing, and as he started towards him the deputy took him away.

Robertson's testimony was corroborated by witnesses, and the officer made statement in which he disclosed any intention of disturbing the court. Harkins appeared for the officer and W. W. Jones, Esq., and Hon. H. A. Guder appeared to the judge that the ruling might be postponed until to-morrow when they would have affidavits ready that would give a better understanding of the case. Mr. Jones also asked that he be given time to present a disclaimer. Judge Armfield in denying the application made said that he had been greatly disturbed by noises from the street for the past two days, and that there had not been the respect paid the court that was necessary; that an idea seemed to prevail that there was a circus going on, and further that he was determined to put a stop to such things. He then imposed a fine of fifty dollars upon Officer Yeatman and said that he must remain in custody until it was paid. Mr. Yeatman asked the judge how much time would be given him to procure the amount of this fine, and was told that he must either get security or pay the fine. Judge Armfield adding to Yeatman, who was leaning on the judge's desk, "Get away from here, get away from here." A little later Mr. Yeatman gave security for the payment of the fine by next court.

Lawyers P. A. Cummings and Henry B. Stevens appeared before Judge Armfield in behalf of Drummer Bailey after he had been committed to jail, but were informed that their client would have to remain where he was until 6 o'clock. At the latter hour Bailey was released upon payment of $2.95 costs.

One Dollar and Costs.

Yesterday afternoon Pete Cavanaugh, the general agent for "Monte Carlo," which comes to the Grand Thursday evening, was arrested by Special Police-man W. H. Deaver for violating the ordinance against posting bills on telephones poles about the city. Mr. Cavanaugh was before Mayor Patton this morning and stated that he had been told by one of Fire Alarm Superintendent Waddell's employees that he could post bills on poles except painted red. Mayor Patton fined Mr. Cavanaugh $1 and costs, $2 in all.

Death of Col. A. J. Boyd.

REIDSVILLE, N. C., Aug. 19.—Col. A. J. Boyd, president of the bank of Reidsville and Hermitage cotton mills, died yesterday.

GIVE IT IN ASHEVILLE.

A Notable Evening at the Hot Springs Resort.

HOT SPRINGS, N. C., Aug. 18.—The arrivals at the Mountain Park hotel continue increasing very liberally daily, and pleasure parties are the order of the day. Last night an intellectual entertainment, conceived by Mesdames Parker and Rogers, was most successfully carried out. The program consisted of an overture by orchestra, a war story of the Yazoo Valley, as it really happened, by Maj. Poindexter of Mississippi, a guitar and harmonica simultaneous performance by W. E. E. Aycock of South Carolina, an entertaining reading by Justice McGowan of South Carolina, followed by a most instructive discourse on practical and theoretical results affected on human hair by the use of certain compounds, etc., by the famous professor, Dr. Prentiss of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Kelley gave a charming recital on the piano, and the animal Professor Mass of Washington, D. C., kept the large audience roaring with his matchless burlesques. Professor Dietrich showed his great skill on the mandolin, assisted by Miss Marie Mainard. A beautiful recitation followed by modest, sweet Miss Anna Aldrich of Aiken, S. C., and a few very pretty songs by Mr. Carpenter of Pennsylvania. This was followed by a humorous, pointed and beautifully conceived reading, her own witty composition, by Mrs. Jas. Parker of Raleigh, N. C., and a very pretty recitation by that little prodigy, Missie Pannie Rogers. The whole impromptu affair gotten up on the spur of the moment gave the many guests of the Mountain Park hotel an evening of much real genuine pleasure and instruction, to be often repeated it is to be hoped by the many who attended.

SPOKE FOR THE SOUTH.

A New Member Makes a Reputation.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The demands upon Speaker Crisp for recognition in the pending silver debate have grown to such an extent that, in order to accommodate even a large proportion, not to say all, who desire to speak on the silver question, night sessions will be a necessity, and they will, it is said, be held, beginning at 8 o'clock tonight. Mr. McCreary, Democrat, of Kentucky opened the silver debate in the House today, speaking in favor of the repeal of the silver purchase law. He would not hold that act as a hostage for free coinage. Let free coinage stand on its own merits. But this was not the time for the United States to adopt free coinage. The only which could lead to the free coinage of silver was an international agreement, and the only way to reach that agreement was the repeal of the purchasing clause. Mr. Catelings, Mississippi, followed McCreary and declared himself squarely in support of the unconditional repeal of the Sherman act. He would vote against any proposition, directly or indirectly, looking to the free coinage of silver at any ratio that could be suggested. In the House yesterday Mr. Sibley, a new member from Pennsylvania, said that in his opinion the salvation of the country depended upon the people who were living west of the Alleghenies and south of the Mason and Dixon line. Sibley spoke for more than two hours and not for a moment did he lack the attention of his colleagues, and in his maiden speech he took front rank with the orators and humorists of the House.

JAPAN AND HAWAII.

Boast By the Former that They Have Delayed Annexation.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 16.—The Canadian Pacific Railway company's steamship Empress of Japan, which arrived at this port yesterday brings the news that Maimichi Shim-bun has been writing in Japan on the Hawaiian question. He remarks that Hawaii ought to be grateful to the Japanese residents for it was the latter that have thus far prevented, and will in the future no doubt prevent Hawaii from being annexed to the United States. Had they not been the Japanese laborers on the sugar plantations, the Maimichi thins that Spreckels and other influential sugar men would not have so strongly opposed annexation. He goes on to exhort the Japanese in Hawaii to save money and to cultivate their minds so that they may be able to obtain commanding positions in that country, to which they are entitled by their numerical strength, it is not by anything else.—N. Y. Sun.

A JAIL STILL.

The Most Ingenious Prisoner On Record.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 18.—An illicit still in full operation was found in the cell of Charles Wellborn, at the county jail yesterday. The still was hidden under a table and was improvised of a piece of iron pipe, a piece of curled glass pipe as a worm, three tin boxes as fermenters and a spittoon as a furnace. Molasses, apples and the like furnished the prisoner as food, were used as the materials for making the rum.

The Gold Still Rolls In.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Gold to the amount of $200,000 was withdrawn today from the Bank of England for shipment to the United States. The steamer Campanian, from Liverpool for New York, today will take $4,325,000 worth of gold, and the steamer New York, sailing from Southampton, will take $150,000 worth.

New York, Aug. 19.—Steamship

LaTouaine which arrived from Havre this morning brought $1,148,200 worth of gold.

Want Mr. Carlisle Impeached.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 16.—The Topeka Advocate, official State paper, in an editorial today demands the impeachment of Secretary Carlisle for having failed to purchase 4,500,000 ounces of silver under the Sherman law during the month of July. Resolutions embodying this editorial will be introduced in the populist bimetallic mass meeting to be held in Topeka on the 21st of the present month and August 21.—N. Y. Herald.

Stevenson and Neal.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 19.—The Democratic State committee decided to formally open the Democratic campaign at Newark September 14. Lawrence T. Neal, gubernatorial candidate, and Vice-President Stevenson will speak.

RIPPLE IN THE CLOUDS

SOME SILVER, OR GOLD, LINING SHOWING.

The Business Situation a Little Improved, Says a Good Authority in The Premises.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: There is a ripple in the clouds. Faint and yet definite signs of improvement are all the better because they come not from possibly delusive hopes or from monetary foreign aid, but from the good sense and the wonderful recuperative power of the people themselves. Business is trying to go ahead without waiting for Washington. Imported gold ($9,000,000 or more during the week) does not go to the right spot, but the people are creating a home-made currency for themselves, by using certified checks in paying hands, selling local accounts and purchasing grain and cotton. The bank circuit has increased $2,000,000, but the decrease of deposits of national banks alone, May 4 to July 1, was $193,169,588, and during the past month withdrawals have also been heavy. Little money comes as yet from timid hoards, and the paralysis of exchange is nearly as complete as ever, but that very fact pushes each section and city into relying more on itself and less on the government and on Wall street.

No such shrinkage resulted at any time in the five weary years after the panic of 1873, as has already appeared in the great industries. Pig iron does not rally but sells at $14 and $13 at Pittsburgh for No. 1, though the weekly output has been reduced 46 per cent, since May 1st. The more hopeful signs which appear should be interpreted with full understanding that a genuine revival of business will not come until a larger demand for goods and better conditions otherwise enable a greater proportion of the shops and mills to employ and remunerate labor as usual. As yet the works closing exceed in number those resuming, and the failures continue each week to restrict the number of hands able to spare in the employment of business and the transaction of business.

The failures this week number 445 in the United States against 192 for the same week last year.

THEY HAD THE ASSETS.

But They Could Not Realize On Them.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 19.—The Greely-Burnham Grocery company made a voluntary assignment this morning to C. B. Burnham, junior member of the firm. The assets approximate $300,000 to $400,000; liabilities between $200,000 and $300,000. The cause of the assignment is inability to realize on assets as a result of the present financial stringency. According to the statement of officers of the company the assignment is really a liquidation in court instead of out of it. The company is one of the oldest and largest of the kind in the West. May 15th last they decided to go out of business. But owing to the tightness of money it has been found impossible to liquidate the outstanding indebtedness.

PENSIONS.

A Large Number of Suspensions Will Test the Question.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 19.—Col. Charles D. Lincoln, late deputy commissioner of pensions and a prominent candidate for commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., is authority for the statement that an effort is soon to be made to prove through the courts that the suspensions of pensions granted under the Act of June 27, 1890, are illegal.

MARION, Ind., Aug. 18.—Twenty-two pensioners at the soldiers' home were notified yesterday that their pensions had been suspended. Over 100 at this institution have been dropped from the pension rolls under the new administration.

Silver In Bolivia.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—A correspondent in La Paz writes that there is a serious crisis in Bolivia on account of the fall in the price of silver. Mine owners are threatening to stop operations. In order to prevent this the government will ask congress to authorize the collection of import duties in gold hereafter and to remove the existing export duties on silver.

Shot To Death.

PADUCAH, Ky., Aug. 19.—Last Tuesday a negro tramp went to the farm of Albert Horn and asked for food. Mrs. Horn was alone and the tramp assaulted her. Her screams brought her husband from the field and the negro fled. Two posses started in pursuit and after a short chase shot him to death. The news was suppressed until today.

Bakery Burned Out.

TEXARKANA, Ark., Aug. 19.—Fire started in Lecter's bakery on Broad street last night and before the flames were gotten under control the entire block, occupied by about a dozen small firms, was entirely destroyed. The total loss will reach $40,000; insurance about half.

Over 700 Deaths By Cholera.

VIENNA, Aug. 19.—In the last 48 hours there have been 23 fresh cases of cholera and 12 deaths in Galicia.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 19.—The number of fresh cholera cases reported in Russia during the last week is 2,113; deaths 768.

No Tick Here.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 19.—The Keystone Watch case manufacturing company has shut down until September 14, throwing 1,750 employees out of work.

A Mexican Row.

HOUSTON, Tex., Aug. 19.—Serious fights are reported to have taken place in Saltillo, Mexico, many people on either side were killed.

Lynched at a Fair.

MORGANFIELD, Ky., Aug. 19.—Charley Walton, who murdered Sam Smith, was lynched by the people at the fair grounds today.

Death of a Newspaper Man.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 19.—Major William M. Robinson, city editor of the Picayune, died yesterday, age 53.
