It is simply that intended World's Fair visitors from North Carolina are not generally children and there fore do not need to be personally con ducted anywhere. The way to go to the Fair is to pack one small trunk and go alone or with a few friends. To put one's self under the wing of a man who knows no more than you do is to sacrifice that much of independence, freedom to go and come as you will, a freedom no possible amount of money saved on a ticket or board bill can take the place of,

BOME RESOLUTIONS.

The members of the Marion bar dega bar) have adopted some resolutions of a sickly nature that they should be ashamed of. These resolutions say:

"Resolved, That His Honor, E. T. Boykin, is an able, impartial, pure and upright Judge, and that his rulings have been fair and equitable as well as able and learned.

"Resolved further, That the citizens of McDowell county are greatly indebted to His Honor for the amount of work done on the criminal and civil dockets. due to his uniform patience and desire to

We do not doubt that Judge Boykin has been all that these resolutions say be has, but what of it? To be "impartial, pure and upright" is simply to perform his duty as thousands of judges doubl over the country. Special commendation of these ordinary and expected qualities seems to convey the inference that they are, in some way, unusual in Mariou or that they were such as Judge Boykin was believed, until this sitting of court. Wirs ft Ingriced He William He

The citizens of McDowell county are not "greatly indebted to his Honor for fact as to call for especial remark from any one, least of all from the Mario lawyers who, we are fearful, would have not had the courage to pass resolu tions of censure on Judge Boykin had his conduct been other than judicial.

We hope Judge Boykin has the clear sight to recognize at once that such res olutions have no place "spread upon the minutes of the Superior court of McDowell county," as the Marion lawyers suggest. They should be dropped into the judicial waste-basket and forgotten.

Our section of country is now having a series of big meetings. The Sprin Creek Union Sunday school convention met at Lurk's Chapel on August 25, and with Brother Insper Ebbs as chairman, had a good time as any one can have with the good people of Spring Creek. There have been many new and elegant churches and school houses erected in the eighth and thirteenth townships recently, among them the Spring Creek seminary wherein now M. B. and Bently Reeves is teaching school. The Methodists have built a good church on Meadow Fork. It is called Baldings Chapel. It was dedicated last Subbath by Brother Sconce, who preached one of the best sermons ever preached on Meadow Fork.

The Christian people of Upper Meadow Fork had a fine time on August 24-26 at their annual meeting. So if the good people of this section hold out faithful there will be none left ignorant and not will be a singer lost.

Some cures are known as gold cures, but the Houston Cure is known as the sure cure for the Liquor, Opium and Morphine habits, and is curing men daily. Dr. Spence has treated 146 for above habits and failed only in one case. No known remedy for any discase can abow such a record. Cures guaranteed at 55 College Street, Asheville, N. C.
