A DEVASTATING STORM

LOSS OF LIFE AND DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY.

Mobile Visited By The Worst

Storm In Her History—The City

Under Water—Roofs Blown Off

And The Streets Filled With

Debris.

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 3.—A southeast gale broke here yesterday morning about 4 o'clock. The storm reached its height about 1 o'clock p. m., when the wind gained a velocity of seventy-five miles an hour. Rain fell in torrents the entire day, and last night the city was in darkness.

The bay steamer, Crescent City, dragged her anchor seven miles and went ashore on the beach between Arlington and Monroe Park, about three miles below the city on the western shore of the bay.

The Magnolia and Cooley's warehouses were blown down and two unknown negroes were drowned in the cotton yard.

Magnificent oaks all over the city are laid low and the earth is covered with the green leaves, whipped from the trees by fierce winds. There is not a wire in the Western Union office affording intercourse with the outside world, and this was written to be sent several miles out of town where communication was established.

All the wholesale and a great portion of the retail district is some four feet under water and thousands of dollars worth of goods have been damaged. It is reported here that some fifty miles of the Louisville & Nashville railroad along the coast is under water and that the Biloxi bridge has been swept away by the gale.

In this city houses were unroofed, trees blown down and one cotton warehouse succumbed to the fury of the gale.

All the smokestacks of all the manufacturing industries have been blown down.

Street car traffic has been totally sussended.

The busiest thoroughfares of the city are being navigated in boats and parties are wading up to their armpits in an effort to reach their homes.

The southern part of the city presents a scene of wreckage as if it had been bombarded. The towers on the court house and Christ church are tottering.

Today's Latest Report.

New Orleans, Oct. 3.—[Special.]—The death list by the cyclone reaches 30.

The total loss to crops is fully $1,000,- 000.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 3.—[Special.]

The storm is central here today and moving North. At Mobile 30 houses were unroofed, two men were drowned and several factories totally destroyed.

MUST STATE YOUR BUSINESS.

To Protect President Cleveland

From Interruption.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Several important changes looking to protecting the President from needless interruptions have recently been initiated at the White House. The latest of these, which has just been announced, will make it necessary for Senators and Representatives in future to confer with the President retire to the White House, when called

WAYNESVILLE REUNION.

Some Information for Those Who

Wish To Attend

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—In reply to numerous inquiries about what is expected of those who may attend the reunion, I can only repeat the order of Gen. McElroy: "Each veteran will take three days' rations and one blanket."

This will make every one safe. The Haywood people are now as liberal as her-sons were brave, and I am sure no one will starve or freeze over there, but the crowd is likely to number up into the thousands, and those able to go should be prepared for emergencies. The camp and shanties will be well supplied with straw and firewood, in case of bad weather. There are numerous empty buildings in the town, half mile away. A large crowd of well-dressed and elegant and roomy academy will furnish nice speaking halls.

Parties wishing or requiring house room in the town would do well to write to W. B. Ferguson, chairman of committee of arrangements, a few days in ad-advance, and such will be furnished at moderate rates. But my advice is for all of the soldiers to stay in camps, where around the camp fires they can recite and hear thousands of thrilling personal and heroic accidents that never can or will be put in print.

We are making efforts to get very low rates, and convenient railroad schedules.

We certainly expect Gens. Longstreet and Ransom, and then we have a host of good speakers of our own, who need no invitation, they are already ordered to
