CLINTON, TEXAS.

Grant Massey, wanted in Haywood county for an alleged murder, has been apprehended in Texas. The murder was committed in the summer of 1892 and detectives have been after Massey ever since. Through the efforts of W. H. Deaver of this city he was located at Clinton, Texas, a few days ago and today Mr. Deaver received a telegram from Sheriff Scheriff of Haywood county, telling him to send for his man. Special Agent Spears will leave for Clinton tomorrow.

Maynard was Nominated.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Oct. 7.—The following ticket was nominated by acclamation by the Democratic convention: Secretary of State, Cord Meyer of Queens county; comptroller, Frank Campbell of Steuben county; (renominated) the auditor, Hugh Cuffy of Cortland county; attorney general, Simon W. Rosendale of Albany (renominated); state surveyor, Martin Scheriff of Cassius county; Isaac H. Maynard, renominated associate justice of the court of appeals.

Elias and Withdrawal.

The Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says: "Mr. Elias' friends indignantly deny that there is any truth in the report, circulated for two or three days, that his name is to be withdrawn. It seems that John B. Hussey is the author of the report, or at any rate its disseminator."

Judge Gary Nominated.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Judge Gary, who presided at the trial of the Haymarket anarchists, was yesterday placed at the head of the Republican judicial ticket by the county convention for re-election.

NORTH CAROLINA FOLKS.

Shelby Aurora: Mr. Bynum Bailey informs us that his mother, Mrs. Lucy Bailey, although 75 years of age, picked 150 pounds of cotton in one day last week.—Sheriff Crawford, of York, was severely hurt Friday by a fall down the rear steps of the jail. His right leg was fractured at the ankle.

Wadesboro Messenger: Our Baptist friends are delighted with the new pastor, Rev. J. Q. Adams. Mr. Adams preached two splendid sermons—his first here—last Sunday.

Mr. Charles C. Daniels, a brother of Mr. Josephus Daniels, gets a $1,200 place as county attorney in Oklahoma. He also gets the fees of the office.

HEALTH CERTIFICATE FEE

NONE IS CHARGED BY THE CITY OFFICIALS.

Some Doctors Charge For Them

If Put To The Trouble of Making a Visit—What the Mayor Has Done.

The Savannah News prints the following, which has been taken up and commented upon by other Southern papers, to the apparent discredit of Asheville: "The attention of the Morning News has been called to the fact that the authorities of Asheville are requiring a fee of $1 for each health certificate issued. People returning from Asheville report that they were required to pay this fee in order to obtain certificates.

"There are still many Savannah people at Asheville and at other points in the same county who will have to pay this fee in order to obtain certificates, with which to return home. Asheville is the only city of any importance so far heard from in the whole country that requires the fee for issuing health certificates. In fact no city of even the least importance has been heard of which makes such a charge. It looks strange that Asheville should be so largely patronized by summer visitors from this section, should charge returning visitors for certificates enabling them to reach their homes again. It looks like an effort to extract the last dollar from the visitor's pocket before allowing him to depart for the season.

"Savannah's health officer has issued nearly 5,000 certificates within the last two months and not a single cent has been charged for them."

A number of the physicians of the city were seen today by THE CITIZEN regarding the above statement and their replies were as follows:

Dr. E. C. Hilliard: "I have never heard of such a thing being done by any physician in Asheville. The doctors and the Board of Health issue them without any charge whatever."

Dr. H. B. Weaver: "I have given certificates and have charged for them just as I would for prescriptions. The health board has no seal and there is no one here to give an official certificate. I signed myself as a member of the Health Board, but not as the exclusive member whose duty it was to give a certificate."

Mayor Patton said that both he and City Clerk Miller had issued certificates and had put the city seal thereon, but that neither of the officials had made any charge therefor. The Mayor said: "I have had applications from Arden and all parts of the county, and in every instance, so far as known they have gone through. If anybody wants a certificate I will be glad to issue it without any charge."

Dr. M. H. Fletcher said: "I have issued a number of certificates and have not charged for any of them."

Dr. M. C. Millender said that he had not charged for certificates, and added: "It depends on the nature of the certificate whether the charge is a valid one or not. If an examination has to be made, I think that it should be charged for, but if only that the person named is free from contagious disease, then there should be no charge."

Dr. A. M. Ballard: "I don't know that anyone has done it. I have not heard of such a thing. I've not done it."

Dr. A. Crawford: "I have not charged anyone, and wouldn't think of such a thing."

Dr. W. D. Hilliard: "I have not charged for them, but I think they ought to be charged for."

Dr. J. A. Watson: "I was called to Oakland Heights to give certificates, and I charged for them as I would for any other visit."

Dr. J. Burroughs: "I have given a number of certificates, but have not charged for them."

CAUGHT IN TEXAS

An Alleged Murderer Tracked Down by Detectives.

Grant Massey, wanted in Haywood county for an alleged murder, has been apprehended in Texas. The murder was committed in the summer of 1892 and detectives have been after Massey ever since. Through the efforts of W. H. Deaver of this city he was located at Clinton, Texas, a few days ago and today Mr. Deaver received a telegram from Sheriff Scheriff of Haywood county, telling him to send for his man. SLIGHT IMPROVEMENT.

The Business Situation Little, If Any Better.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Bradstreet's review of the week says: "Slightly more cheerful reports from leading Southern trade centres largely due to a freer movement on cotton and the advance in price of that staple, coupled with more numerous advices of improved trade distribution at western and northwestern centers, constitute the principal points of interest in telegrams to Bradstreet's this week."

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: "It is difficult to detect any signs of improvement."

AWFUL DEATH LIST.

Survivors of the Cyclone Feeding on Animals Killed by the Storm.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 7.—[Special.]—The wires are now working better. The total death list is placed at 2,278. Survivors are feeding on dead animals killed by the storm.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Judge Shepard, of Fowie county Tex., has decided that the signing of marriage licenses in blank by the county clerk, which has been customary for the past ten years, is irregular. The licenses were furnished to justices of the peace, who supplied them on application and filled in the names. A thousand marriages are rendered illegal by the decision.

A reception and ball was tendered to the officers of the United States ship Boston the night before the vessel's departure from Honolulu. The affair occurred in the ex-Lucien's palace and she is highly indignant.

At the meeting of the London Coal Exchange a further advance of one shilling per ton was made in the price of coal. The coal is now being sold in New York at upwards of forty shillings per ton.

The wounds received by United States Senator F. B. Stockbridge, who was knocked down by a cable car in Chicago Tuesday night, are not serious.

B. H. Brown, of Clarksburg, Va., has sold to Pennsylvania capitalists 3,170 acres of coal land in Harrison county, W. Va., for $72,000.

A dispatch to the London Times from Calcutta says that the large imports of silver to India are causing great difficulty.

Twenty-six new cases and one death from yellow fever were reported at Brunswick yesterday.

Between July 1 and September 1 there was a decrease of 1,604 pensiners.

HOKE MORRIS DEAD.

A Young Man Beloved By All Who Knew Him.

Thomas Hoke Morris died at 11 o'clock this morning at the Western hotel. The news of his death will be a great shock to the people of the city, many of whom knew the young man personally.

Mr. Morris had been living here since May last, and was especially active during the summer in connection with his position as pitcher of the Asheville Baseball club. He was universally liked for his quiet, gentlemanly manners, and his social nature made him most companionable.

In the latter part of July Mr. Morris was stricken with typhoid fever, and he made a stubborn fight for his life. The disease was beaten though severe hemorrhages in its later stages left the patient dreadfully weakened, and when symptoms of other complications set in, his friends were entertained of his recovery. However, Dr. L. B. McBrayer, the physician, became more hopeful later and until yesterday it was thought Mr. Morris would get well. Late in the afternoon, however, a change for the worse became apparent to his watchers, and when his father arrived, there was no sign of recognition. His delirium till the end came this morning. The immediate cause of death was inflammation of the bladder.

The remains were taken to Mills River this afternoon, and the funeral will be tomorrow.

The services will be held in the Mills River chapel at 11:30 o'clock. A number of Asheville friends will attend.

PAWNEE BILL.

The Wild West Show Coming to Asheville on the 16th.

Pawnee Bill's Historic Wild West show will exhibit his wonders on Cumberland avenue on the 16th. The aggregation has press notices from the principal cities where it has appeared and they agree in saying that it is worth seeing. Among the incidents of the performance are the exciting chase of the overland mail coach by road agents, attack and rescue by the cow boys, the splendid rifle shooting of Pawnee Bill and Miss May Little, and the horsemanship of the cowboys. The Mountain Meadow Massacre, in which a desperate fight occurs between Indians and whites, is described as a scene which cannot fail to impress the spectators of the hardships endured by prairie men and the constant danger menacing them from the savages. This is also shown in the attack on the wagon train, crossing the plains, where the sleeping travelers are attacked by the reds, but fortunately a band of cowboys appear on the scene and disperse the Indians without loss of life. The above mentioned scenes, together with the burning of old Trapper Tom's cabin, the Pawnee dance, hanging of the horse thief, riding of bucking bronchos, etc., make a combination which deserves patronage, and we predict large attendance at the park during their stay here.

A $40,000 BONUS.

An Aged Gallant Who Must Pay For His Courting.

BOSTON, Oct. 6.—The breach of promise case of Mrs. Anna D. Van Houten vs. Asa F. Morse resulted in a verdict of $40,000 for the plaintiff.

Mr. Morse, the defendant, is 75 years of age. He is president of the Cambridgeport National bank and is reported to be worth between $200,000 and $300,000. He is a widower, with two daughters living.

Mrs. Anna D. Van Houten is 33 years of age. She was married in 1889 from a school in the State of Washington. Her husband got a divorce at the same time.

Big Stable Burned.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 7.—[Special.]—The large livery stable of the Everson Company was destroyed by fire at 1:25 o'clock this morning, and 45 horses were burned.

Some of the animals were very valuable. The front part of the building, which was four stories high, was divided into flats and many persons were aroused just in time to escape from the flames.

Over 23 Miles Per Hour.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—[Special.]—The Lucania arrived at her wharf at 9 this morning, breaking the world's western record as well as the world's day's record. She made 500 miles on October 6.

Mrs. Stewart Dead.

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 7.—[Special.]—Mrs. Lispenard Stewart, one of New York's most famous and richest society women, died this morning.

NEWS IN OUR OWN STATE.

The great storm of August 28th blew the salt spray many miles from Beaufort. The leaves have died as a result of this, but there followed this a crop of new leaves, as green as those of May, and peach and pear trees are in full bloom. Only once before, after the great storm of August, 1879, were these phenomena observed of fresh leaves and blossoms.

Morganton Herald: Mr. R. A. Yarbrough, for the past three years a faithful employee of the R. & D. R. Co., as depot agent and telegraph operator at Bridgewater, Burke county, N. C., died at that place early this morning of the 20th ultimo, after a lingering illness.

Charlotte News: Speaking of antiquated furniture, Col. Chas. W. Bradshaw of Charlotte has a mirror worth handing down to his children. It is over 150 years old and is still in its original mahogany veneered frame, which is well preserved.

There are now 120 children at the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville, and the institution is having a hard struggle to keep them. A thousand applications for the admission of many children which cannot be entertained.

Reidsville Review: The protective society organized by the county physicians some time ago has been abandoned. It savored too much of the Trust methods and proved unpopular.

The hypodermic syringe was invented by Dr. Jas. A. Washington who was born in Kingston, N. C., January 31, 1803, and invented and used the syringe in 1839.

The Wadesboro Messenger says the Populists of Anson county met in that place recently and resolved to organize the county at once for the campaign next year.

The Greensboro Normal and Industrial school for young women has opened with about 350 students, and the number will probably reach 400.

A Davidson county man has a pair of breeches which he has worn every Sunday for the past 48 years.—Charlotte Observer. Trousers, you mean.

The Dispatch says that owing to the general stringency of the times Mr. W. E. Holt will not start up his new Lexington cotton mill this fall.

THE VIGILANT IS AHEAD

SHE HAS A FINE LEAD ON THE VALKYRIE.

If Nothing Happens Later the English Boat is Beaten in the First Race for the Cup—A Good Breeze On.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—[Special.]—The day opened an ideal one for the yacht race. The start was made at 11:30, the course being along the Long Island coast. The wind at the start was 17 miles per hour.

Both boats moved into position at 10 o'clock, and a hundred thousand sight-seers viewed the run. The Valkyrie was a length ahead at the start.

At 11:40 the Valkyrie had increased her lead. At noon the wind lowered to 13 miles an hour, but the Valkyrie was 1/2 of a mile, or somewhat more, ahead. The course was southeast. At 12:19 the Vigilant was ahead.

1 p. m.—The Vigilant is now a mile ahead, and increasing her lead. It is difficult to measure the
