Reunion at Waynesville

SENATOR RANSOM WILL NOT ATTEND.

A Fair Crowd Present and Accessions Making With Every Train—Story-Telling Begun—Few G. A. R. Men Present Yet.

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., Oct. 11.—The westbound train on the Murphy branch left Asheville last evening with a jolly crowd of old veterans and their friends, bound for Waynesville and the annual reunion and encampment of the Western North Carolina Confederate Veterans' association. Among those who made the trip from Asheville were:

Col. Jas. M. Ray, J. R. Patterson, Collector Elias, County Treasurer J. H. Courtney, State Senator Jno. M. Campbell, Prof. H. L. King, J. Y. Barber, "Rebel Drummer" Owen, Maj. John Erwin, J. L. L. Slagle, B. P. Patton, Geo. W. Worley, Thos. P. Wilson, Wm. Sluder, F. P. Reeves, J. H. Carter, Z. T. Clarke, D. S. Crites, B. H. West, F. Sluder, T. P. Brookshire, J. M. McIntire, W. M. Gudgeon, J. A. McKimsey, B. S. Hensley, J. H. Hensley, J. M. Brown, M. M. Slagle, A. W. Bryson, J. P. Sharpe, E. D. Thompson, James Allen, A. McAlister, J. H. Garrison, J. R. Myers and wife, J. H. Whiteside, U. B. Murray, T. W. Tweed, P. N. Carrington, James Reese, J. E. Young, E. H. Merrimon, W. Hensley, A. Pressley, C. L. McPeters, J. P. Robinson, A. G. Foster, A. C. Monday, W. L. Shope, and The Citizens.

This crowd was increased by numbers of "vets" who got aboard at intermediate stations. The old "sojers" bestowed themselves about the cars and swapped short war reminiscences with an old time twinkle of the eye, so that the trip seemed very short.

At Waynesville.

When the train pulled into Waynesville the first thing heard was the playing of the Waynesville band, and "Dixie" once again made the blood beat quicker in the veins of those who in days gone by had been moved to greater deeds of valor by the strains of this selfsame old, but inspiring tune. It awoke a genuine old cheer that told the Waynesville folks that the encampment was all but begun.

The comers were met at the depot by Commander S. McElroy and Maj. W. W. Stringfield and a committee appointed for the purpose. After the crippled ones among the visitors had been placed in carriages the line was formed in a grand order, the familiar "Forward, March!" the veterans began tramp, tramping toward the camping ground, following two banners—the Stars and Stripes and the Stars and Bars.

The grounds selected for the encampment are about a mile from the depot in a beautiful spot, and when the column halted there the glare from great campfires made bright as day the grounds and gave a pretty picture of the many tents grouped near by.

Camp Life.

Commander McElroy made a very brief talk to the men, enjoining the strictest order and other things which would make the reunion a success. He then gave the men into the hands of Major W. W. Stringfield, the officer of the day, who assigned them to their quarters. Supper was the next thing to be had, with its preparation true camp life began. Col. Ray, Prof. King, Senator Campbell and The Citizens "messed" together, and the supper was as good as ever satisfied an appetite. Snapper over the "boys" gathered around the blazing hear and began "lighting their battles" or again. The first story was told by one of Company L's men, and was a good one for a start. It was to the effect that during an engagement an officer asked of some one near him "Can you tell me which is the rear of this company?" This set the ball moving and for a while the echoes were awakened by the laughter as the comrades spun yarns of the happenings during the times that tried men's souls.

Maj. Erwin brought with him an old gun captured by him at the first battle at Manassas.

Messrs. Barber and Owens compose the drum corps from Asheville.

One of the visitors is T. B. Stringfield, a local citizen of Shelton, Iowa. He is a relative of Maj. Stringfield and is accompanied by his wife and daughter.

Ransom and Longstreet can't be here.

The First Day.

A brighter sun never shone than came over the hill this morning, ushering in the first day of the reunion. Despite the fact that the night was almost wholly taken up in telling war anecdotes, the veterans were up early. Capt. B. P. Patton and a detail went to the train from the west and met a good delegation from Jackson, Swain and other western counties, and the crowd has been swelled by arrivals in wagons coming through the country.

After a hearty breakfast the veterans went into town and forming at the Battle House marched back to camp, following Commander McElroy and aides and the Waynesville band. Before breaking ranks the veterans were addressed by Col. McElroy who announced that Haywood county had made all preparations for their entertainment and welcomed all. He added that at 2 o'clock the veterans would be called to the speaking grounds and "when the drum beats I want every old soldier to be there. In the old times no North Carolinian ever failed to respond to a call to ranks and I know you won't fail now." This called for lusty cheers. Ranks were broken and the crowd began dinner, at the conclusion of which the addresses began.

Only a few Grand army men are here and these are from Haywood. A number from Buncombe were expected and provided for, and the men in camp hope they may yet come.

During the reunion the organization of the Veterans' Association will be more fully perfected and arrangements made to perpetuate in history the part North Carolina played in the late war. Hon. R. D. Gilmer is historian of the association.

A PERSONAL CONTEST.

Present Appearance of The Vance-Ransom-Elias Mess.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—[Special.]—The comments in some of the North Carolina papers recently, reflecting on Vance because of the allegation, not proven, that in his opposition to the confirmation of Elias as Collector for the Western district he has relied upon Republican support, and that thereby he has rendered himself liable to party strictures, is laughed at here. In the first place, the Elias fight is a purely local one and has nothing to do with politics, either state or national, and will be decided upon the respective personal strength of the North Carolina Senators in the Senate chamber. The allegation has been broadly made that Vance has been leaguing with Tom Settle and the Republican Senators to beat Elias, and that if he succeeds it will be owing to aid given by Republicans, and his success will be party disaster. It doesn't seem to have occurred to these people that all the North Carolina Representatives in Congress, Senator Ransom and Tom Settle stand alone together on the only national party issue now under consideration, and that Vance and all the Democratic members of the House are opposing them! The admission of Republicans are counted upon to carry the silver repeal bill through the Senate. If this is permitted in a Democratic administration when a great national party measure is under consideration, and permitted without adverse criticism, why should the rule not work the other way in the case of a non-partisan opposition to what Vance considers an improper and impolitic appointment of objectionable local government officials?

A RIVER BLOWN DRY.

The Maunee Emptied of Its Water by a Still Breeze.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 11.—One of the most peculiar phenomena ever seen in this part of the country was witnessed by people in the Maunee Valley Sunday.

A terrific gale blew thitherward. From the rapids at Waterville, 22 miles above the city, to the Lake Shore bridge, just above the harbor, people walked across on dry land.

It is not uncommon for the water to drop four to eight feet when the wind blows toward the lake, but never before has it blown so hard that the river bottom became visible. There was over 20 feet of water in the harbor before the blow. Many large vessels were caught high and dry, and so remained for hours.

LITTLE WIND.

Yacht Race Today Will Probably Be a Fizzle.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—[Special.]—The wind is blowing only six miles per hour. The yachts are almost becalmed and the race has been postponed till the wind freshens. All are in readiness for the start however.

The wind was almost calm at 12:30 and no start had been made up to that hour. The prospects are that the race will not take place for an hour yet.

Later—The start will be made at 1:45 p. m.

$151,000

The Storage of Treasurer McCurtin of the Clatsop Nation.

CLATSOP, I. T., Oct. 11.—Treasurer McCurtin, of the Clatsop Nation, has reported his report to the Council.

The report shows that he is $129,000 short in his accounts. He also had in his keeping $22,000, which could not be used for any other purpose unless paid out per capita. After rendering his report and turning the office over to Treasurer Wilson, he got into a carriage in waiting, drove to the station and took the north-bound train.

BRUNSWICK'S DISTRESS.

What Is Buncombe Doing to Help Her?

BRUNSWICK, Oct. 11.—[Special.]—The suffering is so great here that the people are on the verge of starvation. Unless help comes at once the weak must succumb. Fresh appeals were sent everywhere this morning.

THE REPEAL BILL.

It Will Be Voted on Today if Possible.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—[Special.]—The Senate began its session promptly at noon today and the repeal bill was taken up. Senator Cockrell made a talk against the arrangements made for a continuous session and said few now think unconditional repeal possible.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Thousands of persons in the section of Louisiana swept by the storm of last Sunday have been deprived of the means of earning a living, and men, women and children are without food and clothing. Some have become desperate and threaten to attack the stores and steal food.

The indications are that the House committee on appropriations will report a bill making a substantial reduction compared with the total appropriated by the last Congress.

Sarah Gilson, colored, died in Red Hook, N. Y., aged 106 years. She was an inveterate smoker and enjoyed the best of health until two weeks ago.

Alexander Salvati, the young tragedian, was married to one of the members of his company, Miss Maud Dixon, in Cleveland Saturday.

The Vanderbilts have contracted for the purchase of four city blocks in New York for $3,000,000, to be used for railroad purposes.

Thos. C. Houston, for many years the manager of the Associated Press in the United States, is dead.

The presidential family has removed to Woodley, the President's suburban residence.

The attendance at the Fair yesterday was 385,204. On Chicago day it was 713,646.

In a municipal election yesterday Indianapolis, Ind., went Republican by 1,500.

Poor stricken Brunswick makes a pitiful appeal to the outside world for help.

FEDERAL ELECTION LAWS

THE HOUSE VOTES TO REPEAL THEM ALL.

The Vote Was Strictly on Party Lines as Might Have Been Expected—A Mistake The Senate Can Rectify.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The Tucker bill repealing all federal election laws, passed in the House yesterday by a strict party vote of yeas, 290; nays, 101. The Populists voted with the Democrats in the affirmative.

Senator Hill of New York, who is the author of a similar bill in the Senate, was on the floor while the vote was being taken.

A jubilant demonstration was made by the Democrats when the result was announced. The Republicans finding that the Democrats had their own quorum present were stopped from filibustering by the ironclad order under which the House was operating, beyond demanding an aye and nay vote on the Burrrows and Lacey amendments.

The Democrats admitted that the bill was defective in that it failed to repeal statute 5,628 which incidentally permits troops at the polls, but the modification could not be made under the order and the correction will have to be made in the Senate.

Some of the Republicans claimed that in debating the Lacey amendment the Democrats repealed all laws to prevent bribery and ballot box stuffing at elections for delegates in the territories, but the Democrats claimed that the legislatures of territories had all enacted laws for the punishment of offenders against the purity of the ballot in the territories and Mr. Tucker called attention to the fact that Section 1848 of revised statutes provided that in terms of the first election in a territory should make laws to govern its election. Delegate Smith also called attention to the fact that some of the territories like Arizona operated "like most of the progressive States" under the Australian ballot law.

FAITH IN CLEVELAND.

Charlotte Chamber of Commerce Has That.

CHARLOTTE, Oct. 11.—At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of this city last night resolutions were adopted commending the President for ascribing Congress, commending the House for its prompt action and urging upon the Senate that some action be taken without further delay on the measure pending before it. The resolutions say: "We have faith in President Cleveland's knowledge and understanding of this subject and confidence in his ability to execute plans which will restore prosperity to the country if proper legislation is enacted to afford him the opportunity."

[Similar resolutions were adopted yesterday by business organizations in Charleston, Montgomery, Ala., and Norfolk, Va.]

Passed a Forged Draft.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 11.—A stranger who arrived in this city yesterday morning purchased a watch from a jeweler here, giving in payment a forged draft for $67 on the Atlantic National bank of Wilmington, payable to S. G. Lewis and signed The Butlers Lumber Co., Hub, N. C. He has not yet been arrested.

Millionaire's Yacht in Collision.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—[Special.]—John Jacob Astor's yacht, the Normahul, with a crowd of society people aboard, ran into a Pennsylvania ferry boat this morning. There was a collision on both boats which, while badly damaged, were in no danger of sinking.

Newspaper Man Made Mayor.

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 11.—George W. Ochs, manager of the Tradesman, was yesterday elected mayor of Chattanooga on the Democratic ticket. The Democrats elected three out of eight aldermen.

Thousands at the Fair.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—[Special.]—The attendance at the Fair today promises to reach the quarter million mark.

NEWS IN OUR OWN STATE.

—Lenoir Topic: On last Tuesday evening a young man, Walter Beard, cured a warrant for the arrest of John Hunnicutt on the charge of passing counterfeit money on him. The counterfeit was found in the home of Mr. Thomas Barlow, three miles east of Lenoir. He was arrested and brought to Lenoir and placed in jail and on Wednesday he was tried before U. S. Commissioner Conley and was bound over to the next term of Federal court at Statesville. He gave his name as John Hunnicutt and said that he was from Stanley county, but had been working for some time in the Wood County silver mine, near Carey's Flat, in this county.

—The floor in the Methodist church at Newton gave way one night last week while Rev. J. W. Lee was preaching, and the German Reformed church was secured in which to hold services. There came very near being a panic. Large crowds have been attending the meeting to hear the evangelist.

—Morganton correspondence Charlotte Observer: Senator Vance has no warmer friends in the State than are to be found in Burke, and yet they all regret that he has seen fit to make war on Elias and Simmons. Our people here warmly endorsed Koepke and hope he will be confirmed.

—The Franklin Times says that Mr. Wm. Ross, of Cypress Creek, that county, was hauling skids and while unloading a heavy piece of timber fell against him knocking him down, and as he fell the timber fell upon him, crushing his skull and killing him instantly.

—Lenoir Topic: The track laying on the railroad has been completed up to Mulberry, and nothing more will be done until a bridge is completed. Grading and preparing for the side tracks and depot at Collettsville is going ahead.

—Representative Woodard has secured the appointment of Miss Mary Dorch of Goldsboro, and Senator Irbly of Miss Davega of Chester, to a place in the Agricultural Department.

—Speaking of the promotion of Mr. Joseph Daniels, the Morganton Herald says that it keeps on being reported Hoke will have to get out of the way.
