NOT THE WATER WORKS

A GRAVE ERROR AGAIN CORRECTED.

Mr. Maxwell Does Not Want the Water Works—An Interesting Conversation With R. Whitson Had With Mayor Patton.

As given in THE CITIZEN Saturday the report of the Board of Aldermen's knitting mill committee stated, among other things:

The committee asked Mr. Maxwell to prepare more fully his meaning, and he replied that he meant that the city should bear the expense of the proposed changes, and then donate the water works, exclusive of the pumps, to his company. This being distinctly his proposition your committee unanimously recommended that it be declined.

The italicized words in the committee's report have been taken in some quarters, apparently, to mean that the proposition of the United Industrial contemplates taking from the city its water system—pumps, mains, pipe, etc., a view that has been corrected in THE CITIZEN repeatedly. W. K. Whitson, esq., the Company's attorney here, was asked as to his understanding of the matter. He said:

"Mr. Maxwell said nothing to me about donating water works." Mr. Whitson added that he had talked with the members of the committee who made the report and felt sure they did not understand what their report meant, to some people, to say, "Mr. Maxwell talked to me at great length of the matter and never hinted at a donation of the water system. All the company has ever asked for is the old dam and the privilege of pumping the city water at the rate it now costs the city."

Moreover, the suggestion that the United Industrial company turn the city's water came from Mayor T. W. Patton himself. About two or three weeks before Maxwell came here with the proposition Mayor Patton stated to me that he would be glad to listen to a proposition to supply the city with water. On this hint I wrote Mr. Maxwell, suggesting that I thought there was a possibility of a deal if he could take the present water station off the city's hand and supply the city with water. Mr. Maxwell's present proposition was therefore an outgrowth of the Mayor's suggestion, and I make this statement in explanation of Mr. Maxwell's conduct, and in justice to him.

FORMALLY INSTALLED.

Rev. R. F. Campbell at First Presbyterian Church.

The services at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning were unusually interesting and impressive. Rev. R. F. Campbell, the pastor-elect, being duly installed according to the constitution of the Presbyterian church.

The installation sermon by Rev. W. J. Erdman, D. D., gave evidence of deep learning and research in the Scriptures. Dr. Erdman's text was—

"For after that in the wisdom of God the world knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe."—1 Cor. 1:21

Dr. Erdman explained first, that the "foolishness of preaching" did not refer to the act of preaching but to the thing preached, the gospel of a crucified Christ, which the world in its wisdom deemed foolishness. He laid stress on the two great facts that the world had once been in trial to find God, and that which it had thoroughly failed with all its professed wisdom, God came on the scene with His "wisdom unto salvation," even Christ. The Jew had failed to attain righteousness, the Greek had failed to attain true wisdom, the Roman had failed to attain true power and freedom. And these three representative nations had experimentally found that all nations and all religions past, present and to come.

These three conclusions were drawn, that no nation was now on trial to find God; that it was to be found, not for, no new religion, for the Holy Spirit was pledged to enlighten and convict and save only through Christ and Him crucified, and that therefore the gospel must now and here be preached to the apostolic age if the results were to be sinners saved and saints sanctified and the hope of glory assured. Especially where it is evident that there is no other way of salvation in that God Himself, all-wise, all-mighty, all-loving, now, when the case was closed for all nations and times, now commandeth all men everywhere to repent and believe in this crucified and risen Christ. Yet more, that God actually was beseeching men to be reconciled to Him.

The charge to the pastor was delivered by Rev. H. M. Parker, and the charge to the congregation by Rev. L. H. Baldwin, both of which charges were most appropriate. Rev. Mr. Campbell then enters upon his work formally as pastor of the congregation by the reading of favorable auspices. The attachment and devotion of the entire congregation to their new pastor is most marked, and the increased spirituality and activity in Christian work on the part of the members, since Mr. Campbell began his labors among them, is an index of his own special qualifications as an "under-shepherd." It is a matter of congratulation that Mr. Campbell's health, which had become seriously impaired by the rigors of the climate further north, has been much benefited by Asheville's invigorating mountain air and that the citizens unite with his congregation and the community in the hope that complete restoration may be speedily realized.

To Spend the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hearne of Cincinnati, who spent last winter in Asheville, have returned to this city and will remain through the winter at least, and perhaps become permanent residents. They have rented Rev. W. S. P. Bryan's house on Cumberland avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Hearne first came to Asheville for the benefit of the latter's health, after they had visited many places without securing the desired effect. The stay here was so beneficial that they decided to come back. Mr. Hearne is a prominent business man of Cincinnati.

Famous Detective Dead.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 23.—[Special.]—John P. Brooks, one of the principal men in the secret service of the treasury department, died suddenly of apoplexy this morning. One of the most famous of federal detectives he was first appointed assistant to Drummond by Grant.

THE STATE BANK TAX

ANOTHER CASE OF RIGHT TO SEVEN.

The Committee on Banking and Currency Have the Matter in Charge—Some Democrats Are Against the Platform.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Practically the banking and currency committee consists of ten Democrats and six Republicans. On the question of the repeal of the State bank tax, the Republicans, Messrs. Walker, Brodus, Russell, and Johnson of Indiana, are all counted against the proposition. Counted with them are Springer and Sperry. The Democrats who are counted in favor of repeal are Messrs. Cox, Cobb, of Missouri, Callahan, Cobb, of Alabama, Warner, Black of Georgia, and Hall of Missouri. This leaves the committee eight and seven with Johnson of Ohio, doubtful.

The men against repeal say that he is surely with them and the repealers say that he will support them if they repeal certain propositions which he desires.

MISS SARA GARRISON DEAD

Founder of the Asheville Kindergarten Work.

From a copy of the Buffalo, N. Y. Commercial received yesterday by THE CITIZEN it is learned that Miss Sara Garrison, daughter of D. L. Garrison, deceased, and Mary R. Garrison, died in Buffalo on the 16th of October. The interment was at Cincinnati, O.

To many residents of Asheville this news will be sad intelligence. Miss Garrison was very well known in this city, where she had lived at intervals for the past four or five years. She came here for the benefit of her health, and soon after coming here interested herself actively in kindergarten work. It was through Miss Garrison's energy that the first kindergarten work ever known here was established in a building near the old depot. And in doing this work, which has since been followed by such good results, Miss Garrison became the pioneer in kindergarten work in this city. Because of this fact and because Miss Garrison was a close friend of the family of Geo. W. Pack, the new Kindergarten building in North Asheville, erected by Mr. Pack and presented to the Asheville Free Kindergarten association, was given Miss Garrison's name.

Miss Garrison's last stay in Asheville was during last winter and spring. A friend here received a letter from her a couple of weeks ago in which she said her health was very good. The news of her death, therefore, was a surprise to those who had last heard from her.

The large circle of Asheville friends of Miss Garrison will learn with the sincerest regrets of the cutting short of such a noble life—one that had done so much for the children of this city in the way of kindergarten training.

Miss Garrison was 27 years of age.

WHY WIN IT?

Florist Brown Offers a Reward for the Best Name.

E. E. Brown, the florist, whose new greenhouse on Oak street are nearing completion, is on the hunt for an appropriate name for his house, and in order to get as many suggestions as possible he has decided to offer a prize to the person sending him the name which will select as the one most suitable. The prize will be one dozen of his finest chrysanthemums and one dozen chrysanthemum plants of the winner's selection. With this prize as an incentive it is probable that Mr. Brown will have a long list of names to select from. Mr. Brown has secured a window in T. C. Smith & Co.'s drug store and will keep out all others there for sale.

Back From the Fair.

Advisor J. P. Sawyer and party came home from the World's Fair Saturday afternoon. In the party were Miss Daisy Sawyer and Mrs. L. E. Dickerson of Asheville, Mrs. Avey of Richmond, and Miss Kate Peersall of Morganton. Capt. Sawyer says the Fair is a great show, but the pleasant sight to him was the train bound for Asheville as he was starting home.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Chas. Fair, the eccentric son of the California millionaire, arrived in Chicago with his bride Saturday. He lugged around a big revolver which was strapped to his waist the entire day.

Anthony J. Drexel, Jr., has retired from active business and withdrawn from the firms of Drexel & Co., Philadelphia; Drexel, Morgan & Co., New York, and Drexel, Harjes & Co., Paris.

Mitchell and Corbett still continue their training for their fight in December, despite all talk of opposition to the battle taking place.

The great Chinese cotton mill in Shanghai has been destroyed by fire. The loss amounts to $500,000. There was no insurance.

The report of the social democratic party in Germany shows that heavy gains have been made during the past year.

Saturday's returns from Brunswick breaks all previous records. There were four deaths and 43 new cases.

The National Sporting Club of London has as yet taken no steps to secure the Mitchell-Corbett fight.

The striking employes of the L. & N. at Louisville have made a complete surrender.

WILL BE A COMPROMISE

BUT AS YET IT COMES VERY SLOWLY.

The Revised Bill May Come Up Before the Senate Today—Its Terms—No New Issue of Bonds Proposed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The terms of the silver compromise provide that the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman act shall take effect October 1, 1894, and that the bond question shall be eliminated entirely. All silver bullion now in the Treasury and all that may be purchased up to the time the repeal goes into effect, together with the seigniorage, is to be coined, save the amount necessary to redeem the outstanding silver certificates. All greenbacks and Treasury notes under $10 in value shall be retired and silver certificates or coined silver dollars shall take their place.

By the coining of bullion and the substitution of silver certificates for Treasury notes and greenbacks below denominations of $10, it is estimated the volume of silver in circulation will be increased by $100,000,000.

The amount of United States notes that will be retired if the proposed compromise goes into effect, is as follows: One dollar, $3,655,135; two dollar, $2,348,892; five dollar, $23,325,814; Treasury notes of 1890, one dollar, $38,202,285. Silver certificates of five dollars in circulation, aggregate about $200,000,000, and under and including five dollars, about $130,000,000.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning the Senate took up the repeal bill and Stewart gave notice of an amendment calling for the non-American silver convention to establish uniform silver coinage. Jones then resumed the debate.

Even though the compromise bill be brought in tomorrow, there is little prospect of concluding the consideration of the question before the latter part of the week.

Mr. J. E. Rankin was asked if he thought the halting mill in a desirable thing for Asheville to have.

"I certainly do," Mr. Rankin replied, emphatically. "In my own opinion it is a thing that would add greatly to the prosperity of the city and County as well as manufacturing enterprises are calculated to give us more lasting benefit than any thing else."

SLEEPERS WRECKED

A Number Injured, but No One Killed.

FRESDALE, Oct. 23.—[Special.]—The Baltimore and Ohio vestibule train from Chicago ran into an open switch at Colary Junction at 7 o'clock this morning. The engine and four sleepers were derailed. One sleeper went down the embankment. Many passengers jumped through the windows while many were injured. No one reported killed.

Eighteen Bodies Identified.

BALTIMORE, Mich., Oct. 23.—Thirteen of twenty eight dead, as a result of the wreck here on the Grand Trunk railroad, Friday morning, have been identified.

Bank Officials Accused.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—[Special.]—The grand jury is taking up the Madison square bank failure, and it is reported that indictments for forgery will be found against two bank officials.

Well Get a Taste of It.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 23.—[Special.]—A cold wave has struck the northwest.

NEWS IN OUR OWN STATE.

—Shelby Aurora: A. J. Fisher and John P. Sher, two prominent citizens of Polk county, and widely known revenue officers, were arrested at Tryon City, went to Spartanburg last week (Thursday) and were endeavoring to secure bond for the Swindler Chief Barrett. They were arrested by A. J. and John P. Fisher arrested for obtaining goods under false pretense and were charged with complicity in the C. P. Barrett's ring.

—Mr. S. A. Hensley, of the Egypt coal mines in this State, says: "The coal outlook at our mines is better than ever before. We have nearly completed and will have in use within 60 days a hoisting engine with a capacity of 1,000 tons in 10 hours. The quality and quantity of the coal improve as we go down."

—Wilson Advance: Monday evening in one of our large stores, Mr. B. came in and said to Mr. R., "I will swap pants with you." No examination was allowed on either hand. All that Mr. R. said was "shuck," and without more ado they both snatched and put on each other's breeches.

—In the matter of using the State convicts in road-building the Road congress at Raleigh thought it best to take up the subject later on. It is the opinion of the congress that it is best yet awhile to use only county convicts for this purpose. Later the general use of convicts will be considered.

—The Concord Standard says the Forest Hill (near Concord) Sunday school choir has recently been reinforced by the addition of three violins and flute, and that a piccolo will be rung in to do duty soon.

—Shelby Aurora: A former merchant of Marion, N. C., J. H. Hyams, was carried last Friday to the State hospital at Morganton for treatment. Bad health and pecuniary embarrassments had unbalanced his mind.

—The Durham Globe says the Travelers' Life Insurance company of Hartford has taken $40,000 of the Trinity college 20-year 6 per cent. bonds.

—Tuckasee Democrat: Miss Lula Price of Tuckasee found agueina's nest last week on Baxter Hooper's farm containing 164 eggs.

—The Statesville Landmark learns that $11,000 worth of the Oregon horses were sold in Iredell county.

—Mr. John C. George of Baltimore has been appointed receiver of the Raleigh Electric street railroad.
