AN UNCONDITIONAL REPEAL BILL WILL PASS.

The Silver Men Beaten and Now Declare They Will Not Fillbuster Against Taking a Vote-Adjournment In Sight.

Washington, Oct. 25 .- [Special]-Debate on the repeal bill was resumed in the Senate this morning, Pugh of Alabama talking against it. It is not known how many desire to speak, but voting will probably commence tomorrow and adjournment will come at an early date. The immediate events that have led up to this result are these:

The expected conference of silver Democrats on yesterday to decide whether filibustering should be resorted to, canvassed the situation and concluded that it was not wise policy to attempt to make good the promise that they had made to the silver Republicans of making further opposition to the bill by the use of obstructive tactics. After weighing the subject fully they concluded that their constituents would justify them in making as strong a fight for silver as they could make in a legitimate and regular way, the people would not endorse them in resorting to filibustering methods. Furthermore they contended depression would be laid at the doors of Taking all these matters into consideration, as they also did the physical condition of members of the Senate on both sides who have been through the long siege, they concluded to yield immediately.

Senator Harris was chosen to carry the message to the Republicans. Immediately afterwards a halt was called upon an incipient filibuster, and the long fight was practically at an end.

This means that President Cleveland has carried his point and that the Voorhees unconditional repeal bill will pass the Senate at an early day.

There is already talk of future silver legislation. One of the leading advocates of repeal is quoted as saying that he will introduce a free coinage bill upon the assemblage of the regular session. Following is the full text of the Voor-

Senate for the House bill:
"That so much of the act approved July 14, 1890, entitled, 'An act directing the purchase of silver bullion and issue of treasury notes thereon, and for other purposes' as directs the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase from time to time silver bullion to the aggregate amount of 4,500,000 ounces or so much thereof as may be offered in each month at the market price thereof, not exceeding one dollar for 371.25 grains of pure silver and to issue in payment for such purchases treasury notes of the United States, and the same is hereby repealed. And it is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States to continue the use of both gold and silver as a standard money and to coin both gold and silver Five Nebraska Ciris Beaten by into money of equal intrinsic exchangeable value, such equality to be secured through international agreement or by such safeguards of legislation as will insure the maintenance of the parity in value of the coins of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets and in the payments of debts. And it is hereby further declared that the efforts of the government should be steadily directed in the establishment of such a safe system of bi-metalism as will maintain a all times the equal power of every dollar coined or issued by the United States in the markets and in the payments of The recognized leaders of repeal in the House say there is nothing in the Voor-hees bill that differs from the Wilson bill except the declaration at the end, and it that is satisfactory to the Senate they are willing to adopt it.

SENATOR ALLEN.

The Record-Breaking Orator Addresses a Populist Meeting. Washington, Oct. 25 .- A Populist

niceting in Alexandria, Va., was addressed by Senator Allen of Nebraska, the long-distance orator, and Representative Lafe Pence of Colorado.

The Senator's speech was a denuncia-tion of both the old parties. He at-tributed the present business depression to a scarcity of money. "You can't tell the difference between a Democrat and a Republican in the Senate now unless you've got a mark on them," he said, "Senator Sherman and his gang are for gold, and Senator Voorhees and his followers are for the same." "There never was a stronger or hercer fight in the Senate than now. The friends of silver are being held up to as told THE CITIZEN by T. B. Little, who scorn as obstructionists and filibusters, came in from that neighborhood this out I never rejoiced in such a title more than tonight, for I am filibustering on behalf of the farmers and the laboring men, and never, so help me God, so long as strength is given me, will I surrender to this insolent money power, which tries to control the destinies of the na-

HE'S DISGUSTED.

Banker Prince of Boston Aban dons Democracy.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 25 .- Frederick II Price, a banker, son of ex-Mayor F. O Prince, and for years an ardent and ac ive Democrat, has declared for the Rehees bill which will be substituted in the oublican party.

"I cannot see how I can vote for any one but a Republican under existing cir-cumstances," he said to an interviewer. "I am disgusted, and so, I think, is every man whose business interests have been affected by the doings of the Democratic party. I cannot afford to be governed by a whim, and shall vote and work for the party that has the best interest of the cannot at heart. I think the Beauty the country at heart. I think the Republicans of Massachusetts will elect their candidate. It will teach the gentlemen at Washington a lesson, I think. JOHN R RIGHT KILLED NEAR FAIRVIEW.

Struggle Tuesday Afternoon Between Eight and Samuel Harper Results In the Former's

Another killing has occurred in Buncombe county, to be added to her list, and another case has been made for the of a TEN TO PIFTEEN PER CENT. RE-Criminal court. The killing occurred last evening about 7 o'clock on the road between Asheville and Fairview, about one mile beyond Mine Hole gap. The story of the affair as told THE CITIZEN by T. B. L. tle, who morning, is as follows:

Yesterday Samuel Harper and John R. Right, farmers who live in the southern portion of the county, were in Asheville. In the afternoon they started home-ward, riding in a buggy together. When at the point mentioned, which was also the forks of the road where the two men were to separate, they were seen to get out of the buggy and engage in a struggle. In a short time the men fell, Harper being on top. near the heart. In a few minutes Right

There were only two witnesses of the Ricksteker, Palmer's and Wadsworth's will ragedy, one being a young daughter of Harper and the other a Mrs. Pinkerton, who were riding in a wagon a short distance behind the buggy in which Harper and Right were riding.

Harper was watched during the night so that he should not make his escape, and notification of the occurrence was sent to Coroner L. B. McBrayer who went to the scene this morning to hold the inquest. Sheriff Brookshire also went out this morning to make the ar-It is said that both Harper and Right had been drinking before they left Ashe ville. Right leaves a large family. Harper Jatled. About noon today Sheriff Brookshire returned from the scene of the killing, bringing Harper with him, and Harper was at once placed in the county jail. The Sheriff tells THE CITIZEN that Right's body was fearfully cut. There was one wound in the breast, another under the left arm, two on the back of the head, two on the shoulder and one on the left hand. There was a bruise behind the left car that was apparently not made by a kmfe. Besides these injuries Right's leit arm was broken.

Concerning Harper's version of the trouble, Sheriff Brookshire says Harper maintains that the wounds were inflicted by Right himself; that Right became angry with him, they jumped out of the buggy and in the struggle that ensued Right was cut on his own knife. There are no wound on Harper's body. Coroner McBrayer summoned a jury and began the inquest, but at 12 o'clock

it was adjourned until tomorrow
