BEWARE OF New Wheat Flour We Guarantee Old Wheat Flour

WE carry more than a million bushels of old wheat over into the new crop. We can give our trade old wheat flour one and two months after other mills are taking their chances on new wheat. And every dealer knows of the yearly trouble with new wheat flour. No wheat of the new crop ever gets into Pillsbury's Best even after it is well cured and through the sweating process, unless it has been scientifically examined by our experts. We have several high priced men who do nothing else but test wheat. Every crop of wheat is different. There are always difficulties with new wheat a few days after it is new. And we keep in our elevators a stock of old wheat large enough to allow our chemists, and millers, and bakers time to carefully experiment with, and accurately analyze the new crop in all parts of Minnesota and the Dakotas. We never use any of this wheat until we know its chemical properties and milling qualities. No wheat of this year's crop will be ground into Pillsbury's Best which has not been through the most searching test from the samples sent to our own laboratory. This thoroughness in selecting our wheat is followed by the most skillful milling in the world. The practical work of making flour is simply perfect in our mills. All the world knows that we make the most flour of any milling company on the earth (seventeen thousand five hundred barrels a day). And it is just as true that we make the best. We have no wonderful milling secrets, but the downright ability of our millers and the superior quality of wheat used will account for the world wide reputation of our flour. And nobody disputes that Pillsbury's Best is the Best.

Zeb Whitte's Story. Zeb Whitte testified: I live in Madison county. Some time last winter I stayed all night at Richard Whitte's. Went to John Lewellyn's house. Lewellyn said: "Let me pick you a tune on the banjo." Before the tune was finished somebody in the room went to the door and something was said about an officer. John's wife talked with the officer while John crawled into the loft. She opened the door and Charley Brockus came into the room. Later Brockus and Sammy Cox got on their horses and rode away. I sat down to the table and further off, quartering across the field. I went in the big road and saw others there. Heard the officer shout: "Whoopie; I've got him." Went over where Charley Brockus had John Lewellyn arrested. Brockus took John's pistol away from him and gave it to George Whitte, the prisoner. The officer said they must go to Marshall and Lewellyn insisted on resting because he was tired from running. Frank Lewellyn had a pistol under his coat and told the officer that if he didn't turn John loose he would blow his damned brains out. Brockus kept John between himself and the old man who swore he would shoot him whether or no. George Whitte, who was standing a few feet away, pulled a pistol partly out of his pocket and muttered that "John didn't have to go unless he wanted to." Frank Lewellyn and Brockus stepped aside and talked a minute, and George Whitte and John Lewellyn talked together. A compromise of some sort was fixed up, and George Whitte was to go to the house and get John a clean shirt, a mule and a bond, and all would go to Marshall. They started off, and somebody said: "Look where John's horse has thrown him." When I got to the house George Whitte was there and the officer and John Lewellyn came up by another direction than that taken by me. John and the officer went in the house and John closed the door. John then called George Whitte inside and something was said about searching Whitte. Brockus said he thought he was too much of a man to give Whitte a pistol. Whitte went in and shortly after came out. John came to the door in his shirt sleeves and pulled a pistol saying: "Shoot me, shoot me." Brockus said: "No, put up your pistol and get your clothes on and let's go." John Lewellyn said Brockus might as well go back to Tennessee, as he was not going with him. Brockus replied that Lewellyn would go with him or somebody would die. Lewellyn then told the officer to send the men away and then they would "shoot it out, man to man." Brockus said he had nothing to do with the men. John then said "men go way." The officer looked in the direction of the men and John Lewellyn threw his pistol very low, fired, and went backward toward the house. Brockus fired two shots and then Lewellyn got inside the door and fired again. Brockus fired back. Just before the shooting began George Whitte told Lewellyn to say what he pleased, that he didn't have to go. While this shooting was going on I heard somebody shouting over by the corner of the house and I saw George Whitte with the pistol in his hand, partially presented. I saw smoke, like somebody had shot close by. Directly opposite Whitte a man was going toward Brockus, shooting at the latter, and the man was Joe Patillo. Patillo went close (Continued on fourth page.)

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE DID NOT REPORT ON HIS CASE TODAY AND PROBABLY WILL NOT DO SO DURING THE EXTRA SESSION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 31.—[Special.]—There was no meeting of the finance committee this morning and consequently no action was taken on the case of Kope Elias. If Congress adjourns without the Senate taking action, as Congress now seems sure to do, the nomination fails and a new appointment must be made. It would not be unprecedented, but it would be extremely unusual for the President to reappoint Elias, but it may be claimed by Elias' friends that the committee simply failed to act for want of time. Should Elias be reappointed it is believed that such action would bring about an adverse report and a vote rejecting him at the very opening of the regular session in December.

The failure of the committee to take action is an attempt on the part of some Senators to avoid creating bad feeling. By giving the President an opportunity to make another nomination, without a formal rejection of Elias, it is hoped that a new man, not objectionable to either side, may be appointed. A BAD BEAR. It Fights Two Boys, Who Have Lost Their Hands. CANTON, N. C., Oct. 31.—It will be remembered by those who were at the recent soldiers' reunion at Waynesville that two young men named Reece were exhibiting a young bear which they had captured near their home on the west fork of Pigeon river. These same young men had a thrilling experience with another bear, which they caught a day or two ago in a pen in the locality of their home. They tied him with a rope each, and started to lead him home. One of them let his line slack, which was taken advantage of by the bear, by jumping on one of its captors, and lacerating his hand and arm fearfully. This caused the other to drop his line to relieve the first young man, when the bear turned and gave him an equally bad stroke of his paws. One of the boys then shot the bear.

It is thought probable that the boys will have to have their hands amputated. SADDENED CHICAGO. Mayor Harrison's Remains Will Lie in State. CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The grand jury has rendered an indictment for murder against Prendergast who shot Mayor Harrison. All was shrouded in gloom and quiet in and about the Harrison homestead on Ashland boulevard yesterday. Only a few pedestrians stopped as they passed to gaze, awe-struck, at the closely drawn curtains and at the black badge of mourning on the door. But one policeman was on duty at the outer gate and he had only to tell the inquirers that the family desired uninterrupted quiet and that the body would be conveyed to the city hall, there to remain in state for 24 hours. One of the earliest callers was the family physician, and he was closely followed by Undertaker C. H. Jordan, who saw that the details of preparing the remains were properly attended to. RIVERS AND HARBORS. Estimates for Some Work for the Year. WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The Chief of Engineers in his annual report submits the following estimates for river and harbor improvements during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895: James river, from Richmond, Va., to sea, to complete, $3,336,070; for the year, $400,000; Kappahannock, to complete, $140,000; for the year, $25,000; York, to complete, $115,000; for the year, $100,000; Harbor of Norfolk and approaches, to complete, $307,744; for the year, $200,000; Approaches to Norfolk harbor and United States navy yard, between Lambert Point and Port Norfolk, to complete, $108,000; Nansemond river, to complete, $122,500; for the year, $50,000; Appomattox, to complete, $48,000; for the year, $10,000; Potomac water route from Norfolk to Albemarle Sound, to complete in a year, $49,667. McDOWELL MATTERS. Frost's Work—A Grand Revival—Sickness. OLD FORT, N. C., Oct. 28.—The early frost some mornings was so heavy that the trees are peculiarly colored. The best revival within many years is now in progress in the Marion Baptist church; all denominations are participating. Some twenty persons have professed Christ, and still others are inquiring the way of life. Miss Rosa, daughter of Mr. W. M. Washburn, was buried from the Old Fort Presbyterian church on last Wednesday. She was but about 18 years of age; promising, beautiful and strong in life. She died of typhoid fever. Others having this fever are now recovering. GLOOM IN THE WHITE CITY. The World's Fair Closes in Sadness. CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 31.—The World's Fair closed last night in mourning and with its flags at half mast. Instead of a festival of oratory and song which was to have filled in the afternoon, there were services of a memorial character for the dead Mayor. Instead of a scene of dazzling splendor that was to crown the day of brilliancy in speech and music, only the necessary lights burned last night and the White City was shrouded in darkness at an earlier hour than since its opening. With the death of Mayor Harrison the life and gaiety of the exposition went out forever. Socialists Beaten in Switzerland. BERNE, Oct. 31.—Sunday's election for 147 members of the national council resulted in a crushing defeat for the Socialists. Only one of the candidates of that party was elected.

THE REPEAL BILL PASSED THE HOUSE 43 YEAS TO 32 NAYS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—At 7:20 last evening the Vice-President put the question on the engrossment of the amendment and third reading of the Voorhees repeal bill, which was agreed to without division. The vote was then taken by yeas and nays on the passage of the bill as amended: Forty-three yeas, thirty-two nays, so the bill as amended was passed. The Senate voting as follows: Yeas—Aldrich, Brice, Caffery, Camden, Carey, Cullom, Davis, Dixon, Dolph, Faulkner, Frye, Gallinger, Gibson, Gorman, Gray, Hale, Hawley, Higgins, Hill, Hoar, Hutton, Lindsay, Lodge, McMillan, McPherson, Manderson, Mills, Mitchell, (Wis.), Morrill, Murphy, Platt, Proctor, Quay, Ransom, Sherman, Smith, Squire, Stockbridge, Turpie, Vilas, Voorhees, Washburn, White of La.—43. Nays—Allen, Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Butler, Call, Cameron, Cockrell, Coke, Daniel, Dubois, George, Harris, Irbey, Jones (Ark.) Jones, (Nev.), Kyle, Martin, Pasco, Peffer, Perkins, Pettigrew, Power, Pugh, Roach, Shoup, Stewart, Teller, Vance, Vest, Walthall, Wolcott—32.

The following pairs were announced, the first named would vote in the affirmative: Allison with Mitchell of Oregon; Chandler with White of California; Wilson with Colquitt; Gordon with Morgan; Palmer with Hansbrough. Voorhees moved that the Senate adjourn until today at 12 o'clock and at 7:30 p. m. for the first time since October 15th, the Senate adjourned. The President was a very interested man in the proceedings of the Senate yesterday. He was in constant communication with the Senate at the capital. As fast as there was a change in the speakers, he was notified. He was telegraphed of the passage of the repeal bill before the vote was taken, and simultaneously with the announcement of the result from the Vice-President's desk the wires ticked off the information to President Cleveland that the battle was over and the repeal bill passed. The silver repeal cannot come up in the House today. Speaker Crisp says that under the rules the bill will not be laid before the House until tomorrow. It could come up by unanimous consent, but Mr. Bland says no unanimous consent will be given. I p. m.—Speaker Crisp now expects the House to dispose of the silver bill at tomorrow's session, and that Congress will adjourn Thursday or Friday. Many Senators are leaving here, so certain are they of repeal immediately passing the House. BE ON THE LOOKOUT. Burglars Make Asheville Their Stamping Ground. Judging from the occurrences of the past week or two, Asheville is the seat of operations of an organized band of burglars. Within that time there have been eight or 10 burglaries in various parts of the city. At least, that number have been reported, and there may have been some cases where the stealing was not reported. One of the latest sufferers from a visit from the burglars is ex-Advisor John A. Nichols, who lives on Liberty street. The thieves entered the house through the kitchen door, which the cook had neglected to lock. Among the articles stolen were a silver syrup pitcher, a present to Mrs. Nichols; silver spoons, knives, forks and a napkin ring; a quantity of flour and bacon and a jar of molasses. Some of the silverware had Mr. Nichols' initials engraved thereon. Mr. Nichols says so far he has no clue whatever to the identity of the thieves. CLAY COUNTY MINERALS. N. Plamondon's Trip to the West—A Narrow Escape. N. Plamondon has returned from a trip to Clay county, where he went to examine the mineral deposits of that section. He brought back a large number of cabinet specimens, and has kindly added several very pretty specimens of corundum to THE CITIZEN'S museum. He was greatly impressed with the result of his trip. Mr. Plamondon had a narrow escape from what would doubtless have proved a very serious if not fatal accident while on this trip. He was driving along the country road which at one point is a narrow ledge on the mountain side, while the Hinwassee river flows 30 or 40 feet below. Mr. Plamondon's horses shied at this point and backed the buggy almost over the edge of the precipice. The gentleman traveling with Mr. Plamondon jumped out and caught the horses, otherwise the vehicle would undoubtedly have gone over the precipice. Why This Delay? WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The impression prevails that the judiciary committee of the Senate will take no action on the nomination of Hornblower, nominated to be Associate Justice of the Supreme court, and that it will therefore go over until the regular session in December. The Great Fair Paid. CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—[Special.]—The Fair managers this morning gave out the official attendance up to the close as 21,477,212 paid admissions; 307 total profit to the stockholders $1,000,000. Carnot Will Run Again. PARIS, Oct. 31.—The Figaro this morning announces that, in view of the events of the past week, President Carnot has resolved to be a candidate for election to the presidency. Founder of a Great Institution. SOUTH BEND, Oct. 31.—Father General Sorin, founder of Notre Oam University, died this morning. He had been ailing for some time. What Bad Manners! New York, Dec. 31.—[Special.]—Notwithstanding the passage of the repeal bill the market took a decided drop this morning. California grapes at Allen's, 36 Patton avenue. The place you get pure home manufactured French and taffy candies.

THE REPEAL BILL PASSED THE HOUSE 43 YEAS TO 32 NAYS. SWEEPING REDUCTIONS! WE ARE NOT CLOSING OUT. WE ARE NOT GOING TO CHANGE OUR BUSINESS. But we intend giving the public the benefit of a TEN TO FIFTEEN PER CENT. REDUCTION on our elegant and well selected line of druggette sundries. Our goods are all fresh and clean; were bought for CASH and marked low in the beginning, and this reduction from the market price means COST for most buyers. Five dollar Hair Brushes for $4.25; $3 Hair Brushes for $2.60; $2 Hair Brushes for $1.75; $1.50 Hair Brushes for $1.35; $1 Hair Brushes for 90 cents; 50 cent Hair Brushes for 45 cents. Tooth brushes will share the same fate. All our 35 cents Guaranteed English Bristle Brushes for 25 cents; our 25 cent brushes for 20 cents; and so on. Lubin's, Pinaud's and Atkinson's extract in bottle or bulk, will be reduced in any proportion. Our American makes, such as Ricksacker, Palmer's and Wadsworth's will be reduced also. The same reduction applies to our choice line of Ladies, and Gents' Pocket Books and Card Cases. This line is unusually full with nice goods. Sponges, Chamiso Skins and Bath Brushes will also be reduced; in fact, nearly all our sundries will come in on reduced prices. Don't buy Patent Medicines until you price them at our store. Possibly we may save you 5 cents or 10 cents on each bottle, and that much counts in these hard times. We have already reduced prices on Soaps and Toilet Waters. These prices on Sundries will last for 30 days from date, so call early if you would get the selection. We want to fill your prescriptions also, and promise if you bring them, only Graduates of Pharmacy will prepare them, the best chemicals used and you will not be OVERCHARGED. OPEN EVENINGS TILL 11.
