TO BE A ROYAL WELCOME
THAT EXTENDED TO THE GRIDIRON CLUB

The Excursionists will be met at Black Mountain by the Committee. The Program of Entertainment.

An enthusiastic meeting of the committee who have in charge the entertainment of the Gridiron club was held at the Asheville club rooms yesterday afternoon, the Hon. Richmond Pearson presiding. The committee on finances reported that they had met with splendid success and that everybody who had the interest of Asheville at heart has indicated it in a substantial manner. The program for the entertainment of the club as outlined at the meeting is about as follows: As many members of the general committee as possible will go down to Black Mountain station to welcome the club and their ladies. On reaching Asheville the Gridironists will be escorted to the Battery Park hotel, where they will be made to feel at home. General introductions will follow as soon as the members of the club have made their toilets, and if there is time they will be taken on a drive around the city. The banquet will begin about 8:30 o'clock. Covers will be laid for about 150 people, and the indications are that it will be one of the finest in the way of viands and wines that has ever been given in North Carolina.

On Saturday the members of the committee will escort the club and the ladies to Biltmore and they will be shown over the entire Vanderbilt property. After dinner at the Battery Park hotel at 6 p. m. the reception to the ladies and gentlemen who are on the excursion will be given at the hotel, beginning about 9 o'clock. It will be a rather unique reception in various ways, and it will be one of the sweetest that has ever been held in Asheville. Invitations will be issued to all the prominent society people of Asheville, and it is expected by the committee that all of those who receive invitations will be there. There will be at least 25 ladies in the party from Washington, and of course they expect to receive, as they should, some attention from the people of Asheville. The chairman of the general committee, Mr. W. D. Hillard, R. R. Rayles and E. P. McKissick, to send out the invitations for the reception, and these gentlemen are now engaged in that work. An evening of the general committee will be held tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Asheville club rooms and it is necessary that every member of the committee be present. About noon today the Gridiron club will represent in their suits the great of the Gridiron club. The colors of the club are being outwined about the ball room artistically, the committee having the assistance of Mr. Fred H. Hall, who will represent in their suits the great of the Gridiron club. A MONARCHY FOR BRAZIL.

The Insurgents Decide To Raise The Imperial Flag.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The Times says it has learned from private sources that the leaders of the Brazilian rebellion conferred on Tuesday and decided to hoist the imperial flag.

Gone Duck Shooting?

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—President Cleveland, accompanied by Secretary Lamont, left this city by the 11:30 New York express on the Pennsylvania railroad last night, to be in Washington to escape of the President's intentions or of his destination. Private Secretary Thurber says the President will be back tomorrow.

BASEBALL THIS STATE!

Weaver's Run-Up With Hill In The Old Game.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 13.—They're beaten. I told them so, but they wouldn't listen to me. I told them that frozen calf hogs were real bad on the complexion. It was the Mars Hill baseball team that was beaten, and it was the Weaver's team, without any help, from Wake Forest or elsewhere that did the job up brown. The Weaver's boys left here Saturday morning with blood in their eyes and their short pants (the sort of pants) in their pockets to wipe up the earth with the footed dukes of Mars Hill. The Mars Hill boys were found in a deep hollow, surrounded by a chain of hills over which Dick Weaver even could not send a fly.

IT HURT THE EXPO

Angusia Crying Out Against The Railroads.

ANGUSIA, Ga., Nov. 10.—At noon yesterday the largest meeting of merchants ever held in this city was called to order at the cotton exchange to take action on the Richmond and Danville South Carolina roads' refusal to carry on the order of Commissioner Stillman, granting a one-cent a mile rate two days in the week during the exposition in this city, which was refused yesterday. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

ANGUSIA CRYING OUT AGAINST THE RAILROADS.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 12.—Congressman George A. J. Harter (Rep. Ind.) on his way home from the Virginia campaign was here today, and said:

"Seventy-five percent of the causes of the Democratic disaster was due to the Administration. Five thousand of my people have been in Washington, and receiving no satisfaction at all, went home angry at Cleveland. The President's rule that Republicans shall hold over four years from the date of confirmation, which means not only two years more but eight and nine months additionally, has been badly executed. Never before have Congressmen gone home expressing such bitterness toward the President. This is especially the case with members of the South. I can't see that the tariff had anything to do with the landslide. I regard Democratic condemnation of the administration the proudest cause of the Republican success, which, in proportion, even overflows our triumph of last fall. Democrats stayed at home."

WE DON'T COLONIZE

London Comment On The Hawaiian Affair.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The Daily News editorially says that the American government and people have turned upon themselves in the Hawaiian matter with astonishing self-control. Hawaii was theirs if they had cared to stretch their hands out for it. They wanted Hawaii and were also aware of other powers coveting it, yet President Cleveland refused to take it. Such, adds the News, is the strength of the national tradition against the policy of colonization. The place is so small and helpless, but at the same time so useful, that President Harrison thought he might annex it, and his best to pledge his successor to do so, but President Cleveland refused to do it. The deposed queen has not protested in vain.

AGAINST THE FREE LIST

ASSAULT MAKING AGAINST THE TARIFF BILL.

Consequently The Ways and Means Committee Will Make The Bill Public Earlier Than Was Expected At First.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The new tariff bill will probably be made public at a much earlier date than has generally been anticipated. The notes of apprehension which have been sounded since the introduction have warned the resolute tariff reformers of the party that the chances of party success and discipline depend upon boldness and promptitude in denouncing a policy, and all haste consistent with deliberation is being made by the Democratic members to compel it to be given to the country.

BIRTH OF DR. TUPPER.

A Noted Negro Educator of the South.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 13.—Rev. Dr. Henry Martin Tupper, president of Shaw University, died here yesterday of Bright's disease at the age of 62 years. He was one of the best known and most successful teachers of the negro in the country. He was born at Madison, Mass., and graduated at Amherst College, and in 1862 graduated at Newton Theological institute. That year he became a Baptist preacher and a private scholar, and served throughout the war. He came here October 10, 1875, on commission by the American Baptist Home Mission society, and began work among negroes. He and his pupils went to the woods and cut the timbers for the school building, which was a church as well. He began this humble beginning by developing into Shaw University, with time brick buildings, worth $200,000, and with 400 students, which has sent out 2,000 preachers and over 4,000 teachers all over the South, and among whose students are a number from various countries and particularly the Congo Free State.

A QUEER CASE

Much Property Depends Upon Which Died First.

PATHE CRICK, Mich., Nov. 15.—A curious question has arisen with regard to the death of Charles S. Sax and his wife, two New York victims of the Grand Trunk collision. They left two children, two boys and a girl, whose estates will go to the property, which is very large, but if Mrs. Sax died first, the husband's heirs will be in luck. The supposition is that both died instantly, although the husband's will is regarded as the weaker, being supposedly the weaker of the two, was test to succeed. A long drawn out contest in the New York courts is the prospect.

DROPPED DEAD.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—John W. Hogg, chief clerk of the navy department, and for 30 years employee of the government, dropped dead at his home in Rockville, Ind., this morning.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The Southwestern Traffic association has elected Mr. L. F. Day of Louisville chairman. Mr. Day was formerly the traffic manager of the Newport News and Mississippi Valley railway. The salary attached is $10,000 per year.

Col. Hogg, who was recalled by President Cleveland from his appointment, left Rockville for Washington on November 6th, and neither friends or relatives at the former place knew of his whereabouts.

Capt. Samuel Norris, one of the last of New London's (Conn.) once noted band of whaling captains, is dead. He circumnavigated the globe many times in both "New London" and "New Bedford" whale ships.

Deaths have been recorded in Washington conveying land from Connecticut, as intended for the use of the Protestant Episcopal Cathedral, which with its adjunct institution will cost $3,000,000.

The Hawaiian natives are decreasing rapidly, there being in 1890 but 35,020 on all the islands, while in 1778, when Captain Cook discovered the islands, there were at least 300,000.

The Mayor of Jacksonville, Fla., has directed that a special meeting of the city council be called to pass a law to prevent the Mitchell Corbett fight there, as no such law exists.

Officers of the United States navy are strongly in favor of the annexation of Hawaii and are mainly responsible for the sentiments in Washington in that direction.

A large cigar factory of Marces Marales, 514 Pine street, Philadelphia, was destroyed by fire today. Loss, estimated, $100,000.

The rumor of the control of the Lehigh Valley road by the Vanderbilts are denied by Vice-President at Garrett of the Lehigh.

The United States cruiser Olympia developed a speed of 21.26 knots on her contractor's trial trip.
