THE TARIFF A LOCAL ISSUE
HANCOCK WAS NOT SO FAR WRONG AFTER ALL
The Ways and Means Committee
Having a Session With Southern Democrats Who Plead For a Duty On Coal And Iron Ore.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The Ways and Means Committee, which was held in session yesterday, was represented before the tariff committee yesterday, Messrs. Bush and Baxter were spokesmen for the delegation. They stated that they came as business men purely, although the entire delegation were Democrats in political affiliation. The interest they represented, the committee were informed, amounted to $125,000,000 and were the means of livelihood for 75,000 men in Alabama. The coal and iron interest of Alabama, it was stated, led and clothed more than one-fifth of the entire population of that State, and the comfort and happiness of this large number of people was involved in the question whether or not these articles should be put upon the free list.

The Virginia delegation was represented by John T. Griffin, Joseph T. Duke, Henry Kerr, T. Trotman, W. B. Carey and H. C. Murray. These gentlemen had an interview with Chairman Wilson in which they urged upon him the necessity, from their point of view, of retaining in the proposed new tariff measure, a duty of 20 cents per bushel upon potatoes. Mr. Murray acted as spokesman and presented facts and figures showing the extent of the interests involved. He said that this was the only protection that was afforded to that portion of the territory of the Norfolk market. They have to pay protected prices upon articles that they consume, but the tax upon potatoes did not, it was asserted, raise the price of this great product to the people. Norfolk, it was stated, handles about 1,000,000 barrels of potatoes annually. It was particularly desired, it was said, to protect the farmers there against the importation of Nova Scotia potatoes which come in bulk, paying but little or no duty, and their production and the value of the land which they are raised being less than in the United States, producer of potatoes here would be placed at a disadvantage if they were compelled to compete with Canadian competition. The members of the delegation made no objection to the free importation of Bermuda potatoes for so long as they did not come directly into competition with imports from Bermuda.

Southern manufacturers who are protesting against the admission of the duty on iron ore and coal have issued a public statement appealing to the Democratic party for protection to several limited million dollars' worth of manufactures and mineral lands in the South within the past 15 years. The statement appeals to Democrats generally and also to the manufacturers of the West and South by co-operation in raising the legislation having for its object the placing of iron ore and coal on the free list, and contains long arguments against such proposition.

The following extracts from the statement will serve to give its purport: "It is far more important to defend the money that has already been paid under the tariff on iron ore and coal than to attempt to build up the manufactures of iron in those parts of the country from which it is already being imported by operation of national laws. The State of Michigan produces more iron ore today than all the States put together, omitting Minnesota, and if free iron ore is to be the issue which will lead us to her supremacy, the Southern men have resolved to resist the attempt of the tariff to protect the momentary differences of political belief and the supposition and the reasonable one, that they would not be put in jeopardy in the house of their friends. It is the duty of the tariff to follow the erection of furnaces on the coast, as it is now anticipated, which to become of the investments already made. It is easy enough to say, after the furnaces have been blown out, and the rolling mills closed down, that a mistake has been made, but that will not repair the wrong."

THE PAINT ROCK OUTRAGE
Another Arrest Made—Ling Gun Not Found.
MARSHALL, N. C., Nov. 17.—[Special.]—Special Deputy Sheriff W. R. Gulger arrived on the noon train today having in custody W. A. Lawson, who is charged with being in the crowd that committed the assault on Ling Gun at Paint Rock a few days ago. All efforts to find the Chinaman have failed. It is generally believed that he has wandered off into the mountains and died from the effects of his wounds. The parties now confined in jail will have a hearing at this place next Monday. Great indignation prevails among our people and every effort will be made to find the Chinaman and to convict the parties who committed the outrages.

STOLEN WHISKEY
Bill Baskell Gets Into Trouble Over Keg
Some time ago a 10-gallon keg of whiskey, it is reported, to Knoxville, was stolen from the depot here. Chief Deaver of the Union detective agency investigated and located the stolen stuff, Wednesday night. Mr. Deaver, accompanied by Patrolman McLaughlin and Fenland, went to the home occupied by Bill Baskell, colored, near Padgett's Cove. Bill had been moving and had not returned to the house and into the cellar. The moment when the keg was being taken up to be moved with his other effects, two men of the whiskey remained.

HONOLULUANS MAY FIGHT
JUST A POSSIBILITY OF THAT HAPPENING.
Provisional Government Has a Force of 2,000 Well Drilled Men Who Are Armed for Business—Minister Willis' Program
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—From those who are in touch with the White House comes the intelligence concerning the Hawaiian matter that the administration is disappointed that the conscience of the country has not been awakened in sympathy with the act which is claimed by the administration to be one of justice and fairness. There has also crept into the Department of State a feeling of doubt as to whether the provisional government will yield so readily to the mere suggestion of the minister of the United States as was hoped when he was dispatched to Honolulu.

It is learned that the forces of the provisional government though small are well organized and disciplined and are most of them sharpshooters. It is said that there are 2,000 picked men provided with arms in Honolulu and enrolled in militia companies. They have been trained for two months just as a safeguard against any royalist uprising of the islands. This force would be superior to what the United States men of war at Honolulu could put on shore.

NEEZED A TOWN.
Mexican Revolutionists Capture Some Arms and Ammunition
PASO DEL NORTE, Mex., Nov. 17.—A courier from the scene of the recent insurgent uprising in this State brought news last night that the rebels had surprised and captured the town of Corriolito. The small garrison was put to flight and some 500 horses, ammunition, camp stores and arms seized. Two companies of federal troops got under way to continue from here last night and two companies of cavalry were en route to the same point when the courier was sent back.

Camphorline
CURES
CHAPPED HANDS! ROUGH SKIN!
After Saying "GOOD NIGHT!"
Use Camphorline.
Camphorline has become such a household remedy for all kinds of rough skin and chapped hands that we beg only to call your attention to it during this, the first cold spell of winter. It is no less useful after shaving, especially where the skin is tender or inclined to be sore. The city barbers have found this out and it can now be found at most of the shops. It has become so popular that others have tried to imitate it, not only in name, but appearance and properties. We have succeeded in getting the coined word "Camphorline," trademarked by the government at Washington, so that we can now protect our rights. The genuine may be known by an unbroken seal. It can be found at nearly all the drug stores in the city, and by the manufacturer, price 25 cents per bottle.
