THE CHINAMAN IS DEAD

LITTLE HOPE THAT HE CAN

HAVE ESCAPED.

"The Citizen" traces the movements of Ling Gun till he disappears in the vicinity of Bushy Mountain in a pitiable condition.

PAINT ROCK, Nov. 25.—Two days spent in traversing the mountain paths and back country roads passed over by Ling Gun, the missing Chinaman, and a view of the forest into which he finally disappeared limping from wounds and burdened with age, make a man of the opinion, generally shared in by the people here, that, unless he is providentially careed for, the Chinaman is dead.

Ling Gun was four days and nights on the tramp, and only a few hours of the time we know to have been passed under

The Board of Aldermen Authorizes the Search for His Body—

Sunday Closing Amendment, and Other Board Work.

There was a bare quorum in the city hall yesterday afternoon when the time for the meeting of the Board of Aldermen arrived. The missing members were Messrs. Jones and J. M. Gudger. The latter, however, came in later. Mayor Patton presided, and the meeting was held in the Mayor's office as it was more comfortable than the council chamber.

The Mayor reported that arrangements had been made for the repair of the sidewalks on French Broad avenue,

Poplar and Mountain streets, and that Dr. J. A. Barron, elected last week to the position of city physician, had accepted.

The street committee, to whom was referred the question of damages to the property of John W. Starnes at the intersection of North Main and Water streets, reported that it would require about $75 to give the necessary relief, and recommended that that work be done. The report was adopted, and the carrying out left to the street committee.

Blasted Blasting.

Messrs. J. B. Steel and F. E. Robinson, who live near the city quarry, entered a protest against the manner in which blasts are set off at the quarry, the evident carelessness of the last few days endangering the lives of those living in the vicinity. Complaint against the blasting was made not long ago and the Board took such action as for the time put a stop to showers of rock. The street committee was instructed to meet the gentlemen who complained today and see what decision could be arrived at.

C. W. Murphy applied for a crossing to be put across North Beaufort street at Mountain. Referred to the street committee.

David Hughes, who conducts a beef market just east of the French Broad river, asked permission to move just inside the city limits, near the cotton factory. He said the dealers in the market house would not be able to do business if he were to move to the city. He would be a very great accommodation to the mill operatives, who have to go to work about 6 o'clock a. m. and work till near 7 p. m., and therefore have no time in which to come a mile or more to the

THE SOUTH VS. THE NORTH

TWO GREAT FOOTBALL CON-

TESTS TODAY.

Wale vs. Harvard; Lehigh vs. the U. of N. C., and May the Best

Club Win and Leave as Few

Dead on the Field as Possible.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 25.—The ideal football weather, a cold and clear day, prevailed for the big Harvard-Yale contest this afternoon. The air was sharp, with clear skies, but the bright sun tempered the crisp air and rendered the cold bearable to the 20,000 spectators of the big game. The grounds are in excellent condition, in fact, old football men who have looked them over, say that a better field for a contest could not be wished for.

New York, Nov. 25.—Manhattan field today will be the scene of one of the most exciting football contests of the season.

It will be the North against the South.

Lehigh will battle with the pride of the Southern football world, the University of North Carolina. This will be the first time in the history of American collegiate football that the men of Dixie land have fought for football honors on Northern fields. Lehigh, flushed with victory over Cornell, will do her best to maintain the reputation of her native state; while the Carolinians will struggle to show that Pennsylvania is not the only place in the country where good football is played.

The Carolinians are the champions of the South; at least, they have beaten everything they have played thus far this year, and they defeated every strong team in their country last year and year before. The championship for the year will be decided in Richmond, on Thursday evening when the University of North Carolina will play the University of Virginia.

GAME FIXED.

Asheville Footballists to Go to Knoxville Thanksgiving Day.

The Asheville Football team will play the boys from the University of Tennessee Thanksgiving day, at Knoxville.

Prof. E. B. Lewis received yesterday afternoon a telegram from Luttrell G. Rice, secretary of the Athletic association, that settled the matter. The Asheville players will leave here next Wednesday afternoon on the regular train, and will return Friday afternoon. A number of football sports will wish to go down with the Asheville boys to see the game and if a sufficient number of tickets can be sold a special car will be taken from
