Six Months	3.00
Three Months	1.50
One Month	.50
One Week	.15

SUBSCRIBERS who fail to receive their paper will confer a favor by reporting the fact to this office immediately.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1893.

SEVERAL months ago, it will be remembered, during a strike on an Ohio railway, a locomotive engineer left his train, contrary to an order of the court. For that he was subsequently fined for contempt. The case was taken to the United States Supreme court which has affirmed the judgment of the lower court. The law therefore says that an engineer, once on his locomotive, must take it to the end of his usual run, the contract to that effect being implied.

We feel satisfied it will be a great wrong and a prodigious blunder if the President of the Democratic party, the party of a free people in a powerful republic—undertakes to destroy the young republic just begun in Hawaii.

There is no "young republic" in Hawaii. That is a "provisional government"—that is to say, a temporary government—that exists pending a reference to the United States of the request for annexation.

The spectacle of an immense plant, at Oak City, Ind., devoted to its making, built and operated by a Welsh manufacturer, who had been at the very head and front of the movement in Wales, doing his native birth and bringing his money, his skill, his workmen and an abiding faith in the future of American life to Indiana, as he says, because of the effect of the McKinley bill, is an object lesson in favor of protection, which even the most obtuse can understand.—Cincinnati Tribune.

As usual, it is a kind of protection that does not protect the American laborer. This Welshman brings not only his capital over here to get the benefit of the duty, but also his own workmen, though there were hundreds and thousands of idle men here.

THE LATEST RALEIGH FAKE.

A few days ago THE CITIZEN printed from the Shelby Review an account of the discovery of a deposit of what was believed to be tin ore at King's Mountain. Very little tin ore worth the working has ever been discovered on this continent, and the probabilities are that this latest "discovery" will prove to be of little account. THE CITIZEN's attention is recalled to the subject, however, by a Raleigh telegram in the Atlanta Constitution, stating:

"Valuable discoveries of tin ore are announced today as having just been made at King's Mountain. The deposit of ore found is the richest ever discovered and is only ten feet beneath the ground level."

"The richest ever discovered." The correspondent of course has not the slightest foundation in any fact he can name for that statement. He would probably not know tin ore if he saw it, while his judgment on its value would be about as reliable as the news he sends out.

Such reports injure the State. Investors who see them may investigate one or two, and, finding them false or greatly exaggerated, conclude that all such coming from North Carolina are, and pay no attention to even reliable reports of discoveries of valuable metals. It is thus made very difficult, if not impossible, to get capitalists to look at North Carolina mining property, a prejudice being created by the spread of false reports.

We again call the attention of the Raleigh newspapers to the existence there of a fake mill that is constantly doing North Carolina more harm than good.

Paid a Coffin for 424 Services.

From the West in Central.
A Winston citizen employed a colored man to help him move his household effects last week. When the job was completed the employer told the employee that the only thing he had to spare for his services was a coffin. The colored fellow accepted the gift, took up the coffin and carried it to old man S. L. Long, the colored undertaker, with whom he made a trade to sell his piece of property on commission.

Trump's Money.

From the Morganton Herald.
Had he trained his artillery only against the walls of protection, and made tariff reform the only legend on his banner, his neglect of the financial question might have been overlooked. But when he devotes a half column to lecturing Congressmen about having votes with him to seed, it is hard to understand why he could spare so few words to money.

One B-licatory.

From the Detroit Tribune.
"All any one tell me," shouted the prohibition orator, "who, save those engaged in this accursed traffic, gets any benefit from it?"
And a voice from the audience replied: "Well, we're awfully 'vew $50 a night."

Crawford Has No Amendment.

Washington cor. Charlotte Observer.
Representative Crawford has prepared no amendment; but reserves the right to offer them. He says his people are seriously affected by the putting of men and women on the free list. His only timor interest affects is popular.

Correct.

From the Galveston News.
The way to make a citizen independent is to make him self-reliant. The best way to make him self-reliant is for the government to leave him to rely upon himself as far as possible.

Free.

A fine gold watch (value $35) to be given away to the patron of the Asheville hotel billiard parlor on Saturday night, December 9th, at 9 o'clock p.m. A ticket given to each purchaser spending 10 cents. We will give one of these fine gold watches every Saturday night. Asheville Hotel Billiard and Pool Parlor.

All accounts owing to F. P. Minnaugh not paid by December 10th will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection. No exception to this rule. Parties wishing to avoid costs will see us in the morning. We have a number of judgments against parties which we will sell cheap, a list of which will be published at an early date. F. P. Minnaugh.

NEWS IN OUR OWN STATE.

—The Farmers' alliance store at Richmond, Chatham county, was burned recently.

—R. W. Livermore, general merchant, of Pate's, Robeson county, has assigned. Liabilities, about $20,000; assets, estimated $15,000.

—A. J. McIntire, of Pender county, committed suicide recently in Pender county by drowning himself in his millpond. For 25 years he was a school teacher.

—Morganton Herald: A lot of toughs here into the W. & C. freight depot last Tuesday. Jones Erwin, the porter, who sleeps in the freight office, was assaulted and badly beaten.

—Concord Standard: "Aunt Sallie" Irvin, as she is fondly known by many is 72 years of age. She is a sister of Esq. E. C. Irvin. The remarkable part of it all is that this good old lady picked during the last season 800 pounds of cotton.

—The annual report of the State Education fund shows receipts were. Expenditures for land, $3,944; for corporation tax, $625; interest on bonds, $4,330; sales of swamp lands, $22,185; Total, $31,087. The expenditures were $20,433, of which $25,000 was for State bonds.

—The annual report of the insane asylum shows that at the beginning of the year there were 300 patients; that 79 were received and 91 discharged during the year; that 28 died, the death rate being 7.7 per cent. The board adopted a resolution that Confederate soldiers who were insane shall be given special admission to the asylum at all times.

—The annual report of the Baptist church, with its convention, which embraces the eastern counties shows that the contributions were $125,000, against $76,000 last year, these being entirely for benevolent purposes. There are 105 missionaries at work in the State and 21 abroad. There are 47 new churches received, and there are now 1,238 in the convention. There are 160,000 members, a gain of 6,000. There are one mission churches were completed; 50 other churches are in course of construction. There are 2,300 additions to mission church membership. In the Sunday school department there is more progress than ever before.

A FOUR YEARS RIOT.

Effect of Extravagance and the High Tariff.
From the N. W. York World.

Before McKinleyism, Harrisonism and Reedism got in their destructive work there was no starvation in the country. When Campbell was inaugurated Governor of Ohio in 1889 it was amid general rejoicing.

Four years of Democratic administration at Washington had placed the Treasury in an enviable condition. There was an available surplus of over $60,000,000. The annual revenues were nearly $100,000,000 in excess of the Government's needs. There had been accumulated $100,000,000 in gold above the reserve of $100,000,000. Business was prosperous. Labor was well employed.

But the party of McKinley came into power and ran riot for four years. A compulsory silver purchase law was passed in 1890. McKinley voting for and glorifying it. In the next year the country was flooded with gold. At the end of Mr. Harrison's term the treasury free gold had been reduced to $870,000.

The tariff of 1893, which was 25 per cent. higher than the Republican tariff commission had reported to be necessary, was taken in hand by Mr. McKinley.

The rate of duty was raised in every schedule except the tariff on iron. The tariff was permitted to write their own selfishness into the law. For the first time in the history of civilized governments the policy was adopted of reducing revenues by raising taxes.

The Reed McKinley Congress, by extravagant appropriations, converted a surplus into a deficiency.

No Blood on the Horse's Bridle.

From the Springfield Republican.
Colorado has her fair face turned toward the morning, if one may judge from the buoyant tone of the Denver Republican. Notwithstanding the repeal of the Sherman act and the expected reduction of the tariff, both Denver and Colorado "have been recovering from the late business depression with wonderful rapidity." The reason for this, they back to prosperity, says the Republican, is the rapid growth of gold mining.

Trying to Save a Democrat.

From the Statesville Landmark.
A gentleman who noted the item, recently published in this paper, setting forth that a Union county Populist had refused to contribute to his pastor's salary because the minister voted the Democratic ticket, informs us that it is a mistake. The Populist in question, he finds such a case. He says a church within five miles of Statesville has several members who refuse to pay their pastor anything because he is a Democrat.

LOOK AT THESE POINTS.

Showing how Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets effect the ordinary ailments of the bowels.
They're smaller; easier to take; easier in their ways. No griping; no disturbance; no reaction afterward.
Their influence lasts. By their tonic or strengthening effects on the bowels, they increase the natural action of the bowels, and permanently cure Constipation, Biliousness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, Sick or Bilious Headaches, and every like ailment.

Any child takes these tiny, sugar-coated Pellets readily. They're put up in little sealed vials, and thus kept always reliable, which can be easily carried in the vest-pocket. Nothing else at any price is as cheap, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.

No substitute that a tricky dealer is ready to urge, though it may be better for him to sell, can be "just as good" for you to buy.

The World's Columbian exposition has been closed, but the Houston Narcotic Cure Institute for the treatment of the liquor, opium and morphine habits is a permanent institution in Asheville, the company owning the State of North Carolina. They are meeting with success in all cases where the person desires a cure for the curse of drink. This cure is doing a great work in New England, far more successful than anything of its kind in existence. For information, testimonials, etc., address the company at 53 West College street, Asheville, N. C. D. D. Brevard, president; D. T. Millard, M. D., physician in charge.

Coke! Coke! Coke! Call on Carolina Coal Company for Nice, Clean Coke.

The production of "Jane" at the Grand opera house next Monday evening promises to be a noteworthy event. The piece is to be presented by one of Charles Frohman's companies, headed by Miss Kitty Cheatham. The New York Dramatic Mirror recently printed a picture of Miss Cheatham, and said of her: "Kitty Cheatham is making a great success this season as Jane, peculiarly, artistically and socially. The Detroit and Toronto papers pronounce her the best exponent of the character that has visited those cities. In Frankfort, Ky., the other night, the Governor of that State and his family had two boxes, and the party sent Miss Cheatham a beautiful floral tribute. In Lexington on the night of election the theatre was thronged by persons prominent in social and political life. Miss Cheatham's Southern tour opened auspiciously in Louisville on Nov. 2. Mrs. Henry Watterson entertained Miss Cheatham in that city, and the Courier-Journal, in a long article on Miss Cheatham's performance, said: 'Jane, the play, comes from the French and Jane, the part, is made by Miss Cheatham, the best of comparison with the waiting maids of Moliere.'"

Manager Spears has booked "The Little Tycoon" for the Grand on Wednesday evening, December 13.
