DIVIDENDS!

ANKS at times give dividends. We always divide our profits with our customers. When times like this come on us we buy cheap, and we are more liberal than ever. It's only necessary to examine our goods and give us a D trial to see this. We are not looking for any credit for doing this; we are simply doing our duty in helping those who help us. The Baltimore Clothing, Shoes and Dry Goods Company delieved in establishing a first-class housefor the sale of all kiads of goods. This establishment believed in dealing with the public generously, and so built up their great trade and custom. This business is now directed with the same end in view. We sell to all, rich and poor alike, at reasonable living rates, and upon terms that suit every purse. Will furnish you goods so good and so reasonable you will be surprised. If you want something choice-which you can't get any place else-come to us. If you want something for yourself, wife and children, something to stand hard usage and yet always neat and pretty, we have it-the price so low you will be astonished when we name it to you.
