GOT A QUORUM AT LAST

THE HOUSE NOW READY FOR THE TARIFF BILL.

Absent Members Arrested and Brought Into the House—Boutelle Is a Daily Nuisance—The Senate and Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 8.—In the Senate today after the routine morning business Chandler offered a resolution directing the judiciary committee to inquire and report its opinion as to the cases in which the President may constitutionally send agents or commissioners to foreign countries, without the advice and consent of Congress.

"Let that resolution lie over," said Mr. Gorman, and the resolution went over till tomorrow. Then Mr. Hoar's resolution, offered last week, calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for a statement as to the payments to Mr. Blount, commissioner to Hawaii, was laid before the Senate, and Gorman moved its reference to the committee on foreign relations. Finally the Hoar resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. Then Mr. Turpe offered resolutions which went over until tomorrow, declaring, among other things, that foreign intervention in the political affairs of the Hawaiian Islands will be regarded as an act unfriendly to the government of the United States. The Frye resolution as to Hawaii was laid before the Senate, and went over until Wednesday.

After four days of fruitless effort to secure the presence of a voting Democratic quorum, the House adopted just before adjournment Saturday night the extreme expedient of ordering the arrest of all members absent without leave. Of the forty members absent without leave twenty-one were Democrats and nineteen Republicans.

When the Speaker took his seat this morning there was an air of bustling activity in the House. The usual controversy between Mr. Boutelle and the Speaker came up immediately after the reading of the Journal, and gave rise to more excitement than on any previous day. Mr. Keed and Mr. Boutelle spoke in favor of considering the latter's Hawaiian resolution, and the latter again made the point that it was a question of privilege, while the special order from the committee on rules, relative to the tariff bill, was merely a privileged report, and that the former took precedence over the latter.

The Speaker repeated his ruling, made in the Fifty-second Congress, holding that the question of consideration could not be raised against a resolution emanating from the committee on rules, and that the latter took precedence over all other questions. He held that when the committee on rules brought on a special order changing a certain rule no member could attack the resolution and trench himself behind the rule to be changed.

When the Speaker finished he requested that Mr. Boutelle should take his seat. "Yes, yes," said Mr. Boutelle, sarcastically. "The gentleman," said the Speaker still more emphatically, "will take his seat." "Yes, I know," broke in Mr. Boutelle, taking a step to the rear. He had been standing in the area fronting the Speaker's table. "The gentleman," said the Speaker with some asperity in his tone, "will be seated now." "Oh, yes," responded Mr. Boutelle defiantly, "I will do it under duress." The speaker again repeated his request, emphasizing his words by pounding his desk vigorously with his gavel, whereupon Boutelle quietly dropped into the nearest seat, amid vigorous applause from the Democratic side of the chamber.

The yeas and nays were ordered on Mr. Catching's motion for the previous question on the resolution reported by him last Friday fixing the time for considering the tariff bill, and resulted as follows: Yeas 180, nays 0. More than a quorum—and the previous question was ordered.

SHOWED HIS REEL.

A Stabbing at Fairview Friday Afternoon.

FAIRVIEW, N. C., Jan. 6.—Alexander Ashworth was stabbed by Robt. McDeevis on the afternoon of the 5th and it is thought that the injuries will prove serious. The trouble had its origin in a debt of 50 cents. The difficulty occurred near the residence of J. E. Casey. A warrant was issued by J. Will Jones and served by S. P. Reed, township constable. During the reading of the warrant by the constable McDeevis took to his heels and so far has made good his escape. Too much whiskey is said to be the principal cause of all the trouble.

SUCH A COLD COUNTRY!

A Woman Frozen to Death in London.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The cold weather continues today. The thermometer registers 10 degrees of frost. The body of a woman frozen to death during the night was found this morning. There has been a heavy snow fall at Wimbledon and in some places the drifts are four feet deep.

A Famous Priest.

PARIS, Jan. 8.—Abbe Legrand, priest of the church of St. Germain and vicar general of Paris, is dead. During the commune Jules Ferry and Secretary P. Cambon, now ambassador from France at Constantinople, escaped from a mob which was clamoring for Ferry's life, by a secret passage into Legrand's house.

Dry Goods House Closed.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 8.—The Pol-lak company, one of the largest wholesale and retail dry goods houses in Alabama, failed this morning, shut up by two attachments, one for about $40,000, by Clinfa & Co., New York, and another of about $60,000 by the local banking house of Merris & Co.

E. A. Walton Dead.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 8.—Col. E. A. Walton, a well-known oil man, dropped dead here yesterday. Col. Walton was well known through the South. He was born in Charleston, S. C., and served in the Confederate army.

Hornblower Defeated.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The committee on judiciary has decided to recommend the rejection of the nomination of Hornblower for associate justice of the United States Supreme court.

IN BRIGGS' FOOTSTEPS

REV. E. MCGILVARY RESIGNS HIS MISSION WORK IN SIAAM

"Rev. Evander McGilvary, who for about three years past has been a Presbyterian missionary to Siam, has resigned as a missionary and resigned as a member of the Synod of New York, under whose auspices he was laboring," says the Statesville Landmark. "The reason for this action is that Mr. McGilvary holds the views of Rev. Dr. Charles F. Briggs. Before Mr. McGilvary went to the foreign field he imbibed the views of Dr. Briggs, and after the result of the latter's trial he concluded that he could not longer, consistently, remain in the church and therefore tendered his resignation, which was promptly accepted."

Mr. McGilvary is a son of Rev. Dr. D. McGilvary, a missionary to Siam for many years, who delivered an address on the Siam mission work in the First Presbyterian church here a few Sundays ago. The son is said to be an old "Bingham boy," having attended it before its removal to Asheville. The Landmark says the action of the son is a source of grief to the father, who had hoped the former would take up and carry on the work which the latter's advancing years will soon force him to lay down. The young man will return to America.

AFTER FIVE YEARS

The Story of a Peach Tree and a Knot Hole.

Five years ago a peach sprout sprang up and grew on the property of H. Batterham, just west of the city. The sprout stood very near a fence, and, like the peach immortalized in the song which tells of little Johnny Jones and his sister Sue, it grew and grew, although there was no one to listen to its tale of woe if it had one. By and by the twig got a size on itself its top leaned towards the fence and finding a knot hole in a rail took possession thereof and proceeded to monopolize the space.

Today Mr. Batterham sent to THE CITIZEN museum by R. Y. Hughes a section of the fence rail and the tree that had grown through the knot hole. The hole is completely filled and the tree seems a part of the rail, it is a curiosity, and without further ado the offering goes into the collection.

A LARGE SABBATH SCHOOL.

The Attendance at the First Presbyterian Yesterday Was 230

Rev. R. F. Campbell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, announced to his congregation some weeks ago that there would be a teaching service held in the church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It was his intention, he said, to have the Sabbath school at that hour that the grown people might more conveniently come with the children, and enter Bible classes.

TO RAYSOR & SMITH.

Complimentary Banquet at the Battery Park on the 10th.

The "bachelor banquets," which were once a feature of the anniversaries of Raysor & Smith, the druggists, are things of the past, both of these gentlemen having quitted Bachelorhood's ranks since the banquet last year. Their bachelor friends, however, will not let two weddings stop the banquets, and are preparing to give a banquet complimentary to Messrs. Raysor & Smith Tuesday evening, the 10th, at the Battery Park hotel. This affair will differ from the former banquets, in that ladies will grace the occasion with their presence. It will be a delightful affair, beyond a doubt.

Priest in a Revolution

ROME, Jan. 8.—The Rev. Father Ursi of the Church of St. Lucia, and the Sacristan of that church, who were arrested Saturday with the priests, sister and nephew on suspicion of being connected with the revolutionists, and who were subsequently released on the ground that a thousand or more letters found at their residence had been confided to them, they being ignorant of their contents, were rearrested this morning.

Cotton Factory Burned.

FLORENCE, Ala., Jan. 8.—The cotton mills of Emoryson and Young, North of this city, burned last night. Loss estimated at $20,000; insurance, $10,500. The factory was a 2,500 spindle yarn mill.

Fired the Firemen.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 8.—The Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad has chucked its "sub" list by firing about 100 men, including engineers, firemen and conductors.

Small Pox.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 8.—Four cases of small pox and one suspicious case were discovered in this city today. The sick are all negroes.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

John Moore and H. W. Tyler, employees of the Richmond, Va., postoffice, have been suspended, the one for 60 days, and the other for 30 days, for exacting more than a legal rate of interest from associates.

The observance of the eight-hour day in English government factories will begin on February 5, and will affect some 20,000 men.

The D. Lothrop company, publishers Boston, has been compelled to make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

Pittsburg iron men are pitching into Carnegie because he can sell his steel so low he doesn't need a tariff any more.

The Ohio State Trades and Labor Assembly has endorsed the proposed Federal tax on incomes.

France will begin this year the construction of 32 warships of all classes. Gov. Altgeld is learning to dance, and all Illinois is holding its breath.

The Cherokee Strip bonds were bought by the Astors.

TAX ON STATE BANKS

THE BILL REPEALING THAT BURDEN.

It Will Probably Be Reported To The House To Reconcile All Differences As The Committee Is Divided.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—It is probable that the important bill repealing the ten per cent. tax on State bank issues will be reported from the committee on banking and currency at an early day and perhaps during the coming week.

There is as wide a difference of opinion among the Democratic members of the committee as to the principle and details of such a measure, and as these differences can not be well reconciled the general desire in the committee is to report a bill simply repealing the tax and then let the House decide all differences.

The bill of Mr. Cox of Tennessee which is a brief repeal of State bank tax, without any effort in regulating future State bank issues, was under consideration at the last meeting of the committee. To some extent it is bidding for favor against the bill of Mr. Springer, chairman of the committee, which removes the tax on certain kinds of State bank issues, secured by Government, state or municipal bonds. Mr. Springer thinks the bills do not conflict and might both be reported. It is probable, however, that the simple repeal bill will first be reported, and that the Springer bill will be taken up by the committee later.

CORBETT MITCHELL.

They Will Have to Fight in the Swamp.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—The Inter-Ocean this morning prints this letter from Attorney General Lamar, of Florida:

"You request that I give you some reliable information upon the probability of the Corbett-Mitchell prize fight taking place in Florida.

"Gov. Mitchell has declared emphatically that he would use all the power at his command to prevent the Corbett-Mitchell fight. As you know him, and the 'old hickory' qualities of the governor, this declaration itself settles it that there will be no fight unless the prize fighters, at the last moment, evade the authorities. The law in this State is ample to prevent a fight and punish the fighters, should they succeed in having a 'smil.' The governor is charged by the constitution with seeing that the laws are faithfully executed, and in carrying out such command he can use the civil and military authorities of the State. If it becomes necessary he will use the latter, as well as the former. But at present I think he deems the civil authorities ample to cope with prize fighting. You may safely say that the Corbett-Mitchell prize fight cannot be 'pulled off' in Florida in the year 1894. Very truly yours, W. B. Lamar, Attorney General."

THE BEATHEN CHINEE.

Be Certainly Is Very Peculiar In California.

FORTSON, Cal., Jan. 8.—As a horse and cart were passing along Laid and 10th streets today one wheel passed out of sight. Investigation developed the fact that the Chinese have been stanning mining drifts beneath the streets and the railroad, hence causing that entire portion of the town, and possibly extending under some of the business streets. It has long been known that a large body of rich auriferous gravel lay beneath the property owned by the railroad company, but they would not permit it to be mined.

JUST IN NORTH CAROLINA.

At the session of the Grand Lodge of Masons in Wilmington the following were elected grand officers for the ensuing year: Most Worshipful Grand Master—John W. Cottow of Tarboro. Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master—Francis M. Mow of Moyoten. Right Worshipful Senior Grand Warden—Richard J. Noble of Smithfield. Right Worshipful Junior Grand Warden—Walter E. Moore of Webster. Right Worshipful Grand Treasurer—William Simpson of Raleigh. Right Worshipful Grand Secretary—William H. Bain of Raleigh.

—Monroe Empirer: Eighteen months ago Dora Aldridge, a 13 year-old girl, now at the county home, was very severely burned and since that time she has been confined to her bed and has to be on her back. Although suffering intense pain, she has pieced nine quilts and knit twenty yards of lace. The quilts are well made and the sewing is fine. One of the quilts contains 4,680 pieces. The little girl is very delicate but is bright and cheerful.

—Charlotte News: There was probably never a time when there was so many people in the city suffering with grip as at the present. The disease has been very severe in most cases and a larger per cent. of fatal cases has appeared than at any of its former ravages.

—Charlotte Observer: 'Tis said that in the last few days $2,000 has been paid to settle the last claim for damages resulting from the horrible Bostain bridge wreck. This amount was paid for injury to person; nothing paid for loss of gold spectacles.

—Lincolnton Courier: James Angel lives in Georgetown in a rented house. Some disguised parties, we learn, went to him a few days ago and whipped him. They told him if he did not pay his rents they would do him worse the next time.

—The Raleigh letter carriers are now members of the National Association of Carriers, and the number of this branch association is 459. Asheville and Durham carriers have also become members.

—Down in Raleigh and Charlotte they have just found out that Ling Gaa was probably not murdered where his body was found. This was news in THE CITIZEN about two weeks ago.

—Raleigh News and Observer: We are glad to learn that the directors of the Raleigh Cotton Mills have declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent., payable February 1.

—Miss Mattie Fuller, daughter of Hon. Thomas C. Fuller of the United States land court will soon be married to Mr. Walter E. Borden of Goldsboro.

—The Greensboro National bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent.

The excitement is over. The coveted duplicate key was brought to us this morning by Miss F. Lillian Allan of Toronto, Canada, and the lady received the coin of the realm therefor.
