ABSTRACTS OF TITLE

Any Land in Buncombe County, North Carolina—Plats Furnished—Surveying Done—General Information As to Real Estate Transfers.

Every owner of a piece of land should know its history—the name of all its previous owners, the name of those who have held incumbrances against it; the nature of the instrument by which any and all of those persons conveyed his or her interest; or released his or her claim against it; boundaries of the land, and whether there are conflicting calls in deeds of adjoining property; apparent irregularities in any instrument conveying the land, etc., etc.

There are sometimes clouds, more or less serious, on titles believed by the owner of the land to be perfect.

CARTER'S CONFIRMATION

'T'WILL, PERHAPS COME TODAY.

There is, anyway, no doubt that the nomination will be confirmed—Simmons may pull through—Williams settle.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—[Special.]—The Senate committee on finance today authorized Senator Jones of Arkansas to report favorably the nomination of M. E. Carter to succeed Kope Elias.

There is no doubt about Carter's confirmation, and it may come today. But there will be a fight on Simmons, and it is likely to be a hot one, with chances rather in favor of his confirmation.

It was expected that the House election committee would dispose of the Williams-Settle, North Carolina contested election case this morning. The committee was late in gathering and further consideration was postponed until the next meeting. The committee will meet again at 7.30 o'clock.

In executive session yesterday the nomination of Mr. Horblower to be associate justice of the United States Supreme court, was rejected.

ASHEVILLE HISTORY

A Call For It From Trinity College.

DURHAM, N. C., Jan. 16.—Trinity college has opened after the holidays with bright prospects for a successful term. About 25 new boys have entered. The freshman class is one of the largest in the history of the college. The entire school is now at work with an earnestness becoming students.

The Historical society held its regular monthly meeting on the evening of the 10th. An interesting paper was read by T. C. Hoyle on the "Constitutional History of North Carolina." Dr. Crowell also gave a talk of a very interesting character on the old laws of our State, and the state of our society and character of the people as revealed in the study of those laws.

The society is doing much in the study of State history, and all information to the history of any place or section is gladly received and due credit given. Does not Asheville's pride prompt her to give us some of her history?

A "Magazine Boom" has recently been opened and it is hoped that all students will use it in preparing work for the literary societies, as its object is to place information on a variety of subjects within access of all. The idea is a good one.

The football rage has subsided and tennis has ceased, and nothing now occurs to interrupt the even tenor of our ways. May this quiet continue until baseball comes in.

AT LOVELY BEECH

One of Buncombe's Finest Localities.

BEECH, N. C., Jan. 16.—I never see anything in your highly appreciated columns about Beech, which is the most lovely spot in all the whole country. While we enjoy this lovely nature we are surrounded and associated with some of Buncombe's most industrious people.

Many steps of improvements are being made in our locality. A new Baptist church is fast being erected, chiefly from the pocket of the venerable Rev. T. K. Brown of Black Mountain, and is greatly encouraged by Rev. Joseph Cordell who has labored long and successfully in the Baptist vineyard of Reem's creek.

Beech has had the unwelcome and constant labor for many years of the Rev. A. M. Penland and wife as its educators for the children.

Nearly all around us, notwithstanding the holly days and a little grip, we see the Old Kelsey Ray farm resume its former aspect. This farm is a fine plantation. The bottoms and hillsides are being turned for corn, oats and tobacco. All of this is under the supervision of James Ray and E. K. Roberts, son and son-in-law of Kelsey Ray.

W. D. CARPENTER RESIGNS.

W. H. Fitzgerald Succeeds Him in a Responsible Place.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 16.—R. D. Carpenter has resigned as Commissioner of the Associated Railways of Virginia and the Carolinas, the resignation to take effect February 1st. William H. Fitzgerald will succeed to the position. The railroads comprised in the association are the Richmond and Danville, the Atlantic Coast line and the Seaboard Air line. The duties of the commissioner are to see that the schedule of rates fixed by the companies for any specified period is maintained, and to act as arbitrator in the settlement of disputes that may arise in competition for business. Mr. Fitzgerald has been identified with railroads during almost his whole business career.

AT BUENA VISTA.

BUENA VISTA, Jan. 13.—Have you ever visited Buena Vista? If not, you should avail yourself of that privilege at once. We have a flourishing village, situated at the conjunction of the Spartanburg railroad and the Hendersonville turnpike, five miles from Asheville. Mr. Jesse Stevens who recently moved down from Hendersonville, is now merchandising in the place, and carries a large stock of groceries.

Right recently there was a gathering of youngsters at Mr. Thos' Wilson's. It was an enjoyable occasion to those present.

Cut The President's Salary Too.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Jan. 16.—Yesterday Berkey & Gay, one of the largest furniture manufacturing firms in the world, employing nearly 1,000 men in all departments, cut salaries and wages, from president down to draymen, 25 per cent. Small orders and the financial depression are the alleged causes for the cut. The men held a meeting last night, but took no action.

Murdered His Family.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 16.—John E. Johnson, a negro, murdered his entire family at Somerville, Morgan county, Sunday night, and tried to cover up the crime by burning the house. The wife and two children, aged 5 and 3, were the victims. Jealousy and another woman figured in the case. Johnson is in jail and pretty sure to be lynched by negroes.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Accident To Mill. Blankenship At The Carshed.

Milt. Blankenship, an "extra" on the Asheville street railroad, had a narrow escape from death at the carsled early this morning. Blankenship and several workmen were engaged making repairs on a car that stood upon a track in the shed, Blankenship sitting under the car and astride the rail. Suddenly the current was turned on and the car started. Blankenship was thrown down and dragged a short distance, when the trolley became detached and the car stopped.

When Blankenship was taken from his dangerous position Drs. W. P. Whittington and J. A. Burroughs were called, and it was found that his shoulder and collar bone were dislocated, and he was otherwise bruised. He was taken to the Mission hospital. His injuries are not dangerous ones.

It is supposed that the trolley of the car had not been tied down as carefully as it should have been, and that becoming loosened it had come in contact with the wire.

OF CONSUMPTION

Gordon P. McGibbon of Montreal Dies in Asheville.

Gordon P. McGibbon of Montreal, Canada, a son of Maj. McGibbon, and a brother of the Hon. R. D. McGibbon, U. S. C., an eminent advocate and barrister of Montreal, died last night at Mrs. Davidson's, 101 College street, of consumption. Mr. McGibbon had been in Asheville for two years past, staying at Mrs. Reynolds' on North Main and afterwards at Mrs. Davidson's. Last summer he spent at Turnpike. He was 22 years of age, a young man of fine character and during his residence here won many friends.

The funeral services were held at Mrs. Davidson's at 3.30 this afternoon, conducted by Rev. H. F. Christberg, pastor of Central M. E. church, South. The interment was at Riverside cemetery.

A GREAT RABBIT HUNT.

Maj. W. W. Stringfield Tells of One in The Valley of Virginia.

Maj. W. W. Stringfield, of the revenue office force, tells THE CITIZEN of the biggest rabbit hunt he ever took part in. It was during the war and in the Valley of Virginia. The Confederates, about 10,000 of them, before they knew it had completely surrounded a colony of 50 or 100 rabbits. Then the hunt began, and 2,000 or 3,000 men went in for the fun. The rebel yell was given and in a few minutes the rabbits had met the enemy and were his'n. Maj. Stringfield got a "ham" for his share of the booty. The funniest part of it was that the Union forces were encamped only a few miles away and hearing the yells believed reinforcements had arrived and fell back a considerable distance.

WHAT IT PAYS.

The Clerkship of the U. S. District and Circuit Courts.

U. S. Court Clerk J. E. Reed, who is to be succeeded by K. O. Patterson, says he knew nothing more concerning the change than he had seen in THE CITIZEN yesterday, and did not know anything of it until he read the item. He says he has held the office a little more than 16 years. The pay consists of fees, and the government will not allow the pay to exceed $3,500 a year. The greatest sum he has made was $3,100, and his average income from it after paying deputies has been from $1,800 to $2,000 a year.

It is not known whether Mr. Patterson will retain Deputy Clerk C. H. Moore. Mr. Moore has been in the office for about seven years and has proven an efficient, polite official.

ADMITTED TO BAIL.

Deputy Sheriff Bailey's Bond Fixed at $3,000.

The habeas corpus proceedings in the case of Deputy Sheriff J. M. Bailey of Madison county, who last week shot Robert Wills while the latter was resisting arrest, and from the effects of which Wills died, were begun before Judge Thos. A. Jones, of the Criminal court, at 9 o'clock this morning and concluded before noon. Bailey was admitted to bail in the sum of $2,000.

In the case the State was represented by W. W. Zachary. Bailey's counsel are Gauder & Pritchard, Gauder & Martin, I. M. Moody and J. W. Bowman.

WEST END PHARMACY.

Dr. J. H. Woodcock Sells His Business to J. Taylor Amis.

Dr. J. H. Woodcock, who has for the past seven years been conducting the successful pharmacy at 272 Patton avenue, has sold his business to J. Taylor Amis, and the latter has assumed control of the business. Mr. Amis is a popular pharmacist of this city, having been here for the past 10 years. That he will continue the success of Dr. Woodcock is not doubted.

Dr. Woodcock retires from business partly on account of his health. It is probable that, after a few months, he will practice medicine here.

A Decision Worth Millions.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 15.—The court of appeals this morning decided that a foreign corporation could buy and sell real estate in this State. The decision affects $25,000,000 worth of property.

WHAT WAS IT?

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 16.—The Ivy race track case has been decided against the racing men.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

George M. Hogue, one of the most prominent business men of Chicago, has been accused of the misappropriation of about $85,000 of the funds of the Presbyterian hospital, of which institution he was president.

A Washington dispatch says: "Quite recently a diamond was found near King's Mountain, N. C., which weighed 3 1/2 karats; it is of a light canary color, and has a remarkably brilliant surface." The failure is announced of Moir & Co., Glasgow, calico printers. Liabilities $400,000.

Over 2,000 people were vaccinated in Nashville yesterday.

EVIL DAYS IN BRAZIL

THE INSURGENTS PREPARING TO LAND TROOPS.

The Government seems to be losing all along the line—Captives butchered by Mello's Forces—An Island Captured.

BUENOS AYRES, Jan. 16.—Despatches received here last night from Rio Janeiro state that the insurgent warship Aquidaban had taken up a position in front of the custom house, preparing to land troops. The insurgents have captured Eugenio Island, killed 40 government troops and captured 60. The government has sent reinforcements to Niteroy.

The insurgents are reported burning villages in the State of Rio Grande do Sul, and butchering the captives they make.

The government forces on Saturday tried to capture the insurgent cruiser Guanadara, which poured hot fire into the attacking force at close quarters, and drove them off after inflicting a heavy loss.

A CIGARETTE STARTED IT.

Three Hundred People Lose Their Lives in a Fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—The Pacific Mail steamship, City of Peking, brought details from Ningpo of one of the most terrible fires on record, which occurred in the big temple in that city, December 8th, and caused the death of nearly three hundred women and children.

The annual theatrical performance in honor of the gods was being given in the temple. A boy threw a lighted cigarette into a heap of straw which blazed up, and the burning staircase prevented the people getting out. There was a general rush to escape. Some were trampled to death, others jumped out of the windows and were either killed or so badly injured that they were unable to escape the flames and so perished, while others passively awaited their fate, and were roasted alive or suffocated by the smoke.

Another Road for Birmingham.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 14.—The Mobile and Ohio railroad has decided to build a branch of its line to Birmingham, and the officials have just made a visit here with a view of purchasing the terminals for the new road. Negotiations are now pending for the sale of the Belt railroad, which extends through and around Birmingham, connecting with all the other railroads here, and reaching the principal iron furnaces of the Mobile and Ohio to be used for terminal purposes.

Negroes Going To Africa.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 16.—The negroes in this section of the South, principally those in Arkansas, have contracted the emigration fever again, and there is an exodus of black men who say they are going to Africa. One car load passed through Brinkley en route for New York, whence they intend to sail for the Dark Continent.

Emmet's Widow Married.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 16.—Mrs. J. K. Emmet, the wealthy widow of the late Joseph K. Emmet, was married in this city last evening by the Rev. Father Walsh, at the parish house of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, to William B. Mix, the son of a wealthy Albany jeweler.

A Dismal Conflagration.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 14.—Another bad fire ravished the new syndicate block on Nicole avenue for the third time in its history this afternoon, entailing a loss of $113,000. The origin of the fire is unknown, as it had enveloped the entire portion of the building when discovered.

A Democratic Senate.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 16.—Governor Werts this morning sent the long-looked for opinion of Attorney General Stockton on the legislative muddle to both Houses of the legislature. The opinion is in favor of the Democrats as against the Republican members.

$50 to Gen. Hitchcock's Widow.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The House pension committee decided today to report favorably a bill to grant a pension of $50 a month to the widow of the late Gen. Hitchcock of Virginia.

JUST IN NORTH CAROLINA.

In Raleigh Superior court Judge Hoke ordered a verdict of not guilty in a case where a man is charged with obtaining a marriage license for a girl 15 years old, and he is charged that it is not a punishable offense to obtain license for a girl over 15, that being designated as the age at which they may marry. The courts have hitherto held that consent of parents must be obtained where the girl is under 18.

The Shelby Review says that Melly Hendricks, a citizen of Cleveland county, was shot at while returning in his wagon from Henrietta Mills and dangerously wounded. A negro made the attack, but after shooting Mr. Hendricks was driven off by Mrs. Hendricks. Bish Hamrick, colored, has been arrested.

Mount Airy News: Six hundred gallons of beer and twenty gallons of singlings destroyed and three stills hauled to pieces was the result of a raid by Deputy Collector Z. T. Smith and Deputy Collector W. J. York recently in the Round Peak neighborhood among the foot hills of the Blue Ridge mountains.

Raleigh Visitor: C. H. Price, recently escaped from the Michigan penitentiary, is supposed to be lurking in North Carolina. He is a clever forger, having stolen $100,000 from the U. S. Express office at St. Louis. There is a heavy reward for him.

News has reached Murphy of a difficulty that occurred on Friday at Andrews, between John Holland, white, and Mike Hyatt, colored, which resulted in Holland shooting Hyatt in the neck. The wound, although serious, is not considered dangerous.

A heavy emigration is leaving some of the western counties for the west, but many northerners and other good farmers are rapidly taking their places.
