THE SENATOR RESIGNS

WALTHALL OF MISSISSIPPI MUST RETIRE.

Both Republicans and Democrats Caucusing to Reach Agreement—Pfeffer Attacks the Proposed Bond Issue.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Senator Walthall of Mississippi has resigned. In his letter of resignation to the Governor of Mississippi he says: "The condition of my health compels me to seek a milder climate for the remainder of the winter season. The alternative is presented me of resigning my present position or of absenting myself from my post of duty at a time when it is important that our State should have two senators in their seats. It best accords with my sense of public obligation to pursue the former course and I trust that it may seem to my constituents, as it does to me."

The present term of Senator Walthall would expire March 8, 1895.

Republican Senators met in caucus this morning to consider matters connected with legislation now before the Senate and agree upon some concerted plan of action. No definite conclusion was reached and the caucus adjourned after having transferred the question to the usual committee, which will consider the matter further and report to a future caucus.

A note to the vice President from Senator Walthall stating that he had sent to the Governor of his State his resignation, to take effect on the 24th, was laid before the Senate and passed on file. A resolution offered by Pfeffer, to be voted tomorrow declaring the Secretary of the Treasury has no lawful authority for issuing and selling bonds, as proposed in his notice of yesterday.

In the House, after disposal of some routine business, that body, at 11:25 o'clock, went into committee of the whole to consider the Wilson bill.

A caucus of the House Democrats will probably be held after the income tax bill is reported, to consider what action shall be taken with reference to that measure. The Democratic majority in the House seems to be pretty evenly divided regarding the proposition. The purpose of the caucus will be to talk over the matter and decide whether it is best to consider it as a separate measure or incorporate it in the tariff bill.

AT WORK IN EARNEST.

Meeting of the Committee of Ten Yesterday.

The committee of 10 appointed by the property owners' meeting Tuesday evening, met at 4 o'clock in the council chamber of the city hall yesterday. There were present Chairman John H. McDowell, Secretary J. H. Tucker, Treasurer W. T. Penniman, A. Rankin, Capt. W. M. Cocke, W. A. Blair, Jesse R. Starves, C. H. Miller and A. A. Penland. The report of the committee appointed to consult an attorney with regard to the proposed suit for injunction restraining the city from the collection of the first installment of paving assessments for the present, was submitted and after some discussion it was decided to employ Jas. H. Merrimon and Tucker & Murphy. A committee composed of A. Rankin and Capt. W. M. Cocke was appointed to consult the attorneys further concerning the suit.

From figures submitted by Mr. Penniman it was decided that an amount equal to 1 1/2 per cent. of the assessments should be collected from property owners who desire to become parties to the suit, this fund to be used in defraying the expenses of the suit. F. N. Waddell and N. A. Penland were selected to begin as quickly as possible calling on property owners to ascertain who will take part in the suit and to make collections.

This business concluded the committee adjourned to meet on call of the chairman.

CHEAP PENSIONS.

Too Cheap, In Fact, To Be of Any Account.

A warrant was issued today for Archie Taylor, colored, who is charged with victimizing persons here with a pension swindle. Mary Floyd, a white woman, says Taylor proposed to her that he could get her a pension on account of her father and brother, who, he claimed were killed in the war. The woman had heard nothing from those relatives for years and could not even say whether they were in the war. She paid Taylor $1.50, which he said he must have before writing to Washington. Later he called on the woman and said he was sure she could get the pension and demanded an additional $3. The woman would not pay this, and placed the case with the Pinion Detective agency, and the warrant was procured. It is alleged that Taylor also procured money by his pension scheme from Pete Stroud, Lattie Anderson and Mary Gardner.

HELD UP THE TRAIN.

This Sort of Thing Becoming Monotonous.

St. JOSEPH, Mo., Jan. 18.—Train No. 3 on the Kansas City, St. Joe and Council Bluffs railroad was held up and robbed at 12:20 this morning by five masked men at Roys landing, just above this city. The train was stopped by a torpedo on the track and when the engineer slowed up he and the fireman were covered by revolvers and forced back to the express car to demand admittance. The express messenger was covered by revolvers and the robbers plundered the car. It is not known how much money they obtained.

Buzz Breaks Out Again.

Because of the persistence with which he has managed to keep himself in the background, the people of Asheville had supposed that perhaps Buzz (that's "Joe" Dickerson's dog) had bitten off more than he could chew of a hot "winney" and expired. But it was only the calm before the storm, for Tuesday Buzz took it into his head to make trouble for some chickens belonging to someone else. When Buzz finished his matinee the chickens were still whole, but minus three-fourths of their feathers. Suit for damages has not yet been brought by the owner of the chickens, until which time Buzz will laugh over his last escapade.

Only for a short while—Bon Marche.

THE KING WON THE TRICK.

But The Officers May Have An Inting Later On.

A ball and chain yearn for one Raussey King alias John Derrah, colored, who has been showing a great talent for swindling.

At Biltmore there are two washerwomen, Lizzie Burton and Maria Penland, who were unconsciously caused to help King in his work. Among those for whom they do washing is Dr. A. S. Whitaker of Biltmore. Last Friday King appeared at Dr. Whitaker's and said the wind had blown the top off the women's house and they wished $3.50 to repair it. After some persuasion the Doctor, who did not fully believe King's story, gave him $2.50. That is the last he has seen of him, although the Doctor noticed next day that there was nothing wrong with the house roof alluded to.

The Burton and Penland women also wash for J. V. Brown and family of Asheville, sending the bundles in by colored men. Last week King brought a note signed Maria Penland, asking Mr. Brown to send her $6, as her little girl had had her leg broken. Mr. Brown met King at his gate and after reading the note told King to come uptown and he would give him something. King came and was given $2. Then he wrote a note to Mrs. Brown asking for $2, on account of the girl's broken leg. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. C. W. Brown each gave King $1. The swindle was discovered when the man who brought the wash was asked how the girl was progressing.

Besides these, King forged Charles Ridley's name to an order and secured $4 worth of goods from Shade Patton. Lock Gaither's name was also forged to an order for $2 in goods on J. H. Reed, and King got $1.20 from C. R. Whitaker for wood cutting that did not measure up correctly.

Two warrants have been issued for King, but so far he has eluded capture. He came from Lincoln county.

DESERVES THE RANKS.

Another Asheville Young Man to Leave the Single 'N.

One by one the leaves are turned and the erasures on the unmarried men's side of the ledger are followed by entries on the opposite side of the page. At the Raysor & Smith banquet Tuesday night was a guest who will attend no more like gatherings as a single man, although the fact was suspected by only a few of those present. The young man in question is George Rosenbury Collins, otherwise and popularly known as "George," and a member of the firm of the Asheville Ice and Coal company and the Asheville Milling company. Mr. Collins is to be married on the 23d of January to Miss Annabelle Douglas of Milwaukee, Wis., and the wedding will occur at the residence of the bride's father in that city at 7 p. m. After a tour Mr. and Mrs. Collins will return to Asheville and will live at 303 French Broad avenue. Mr. Collins left this afternoon for the Cream City on his happy mission.

Mr. Collins has a growing reputation in Asheville as a man of fine business talent, while his popularity in social and musical circles is unbounded. Miss Douglas is known in Asheville, having spent several months here last year.

ON THE RAILROAD.

Two Trials of Employees of the R. & D.

On Monday Perry Bishop, a flagman on the "helper" stationed at Saluda mountain, was before Justice Tanner on a charge of stealing lard and bacon from a wreck on the heavy grade near Saluda in December. Bishop said the lard and bacon had been given him by Capt. Bronson and Roadmaster Currie who told him he could have the provisions claimed to have been stolen. On this statement Bishop was discharged. R. & D. Detective W. H. Deaver, however, says Messrs. Bronson and Currie afterward denied the truth of Bishop's statement, and that Bishop would be re-arrested.

Wallace Elder, an employe at the depot at Marshall, has been placed in jail there, charged with the theft of whiskey from the depot, in default of a $300 bond.

CANVASS GOES ON.

The Y. M. C. A. Must Have $1600 in Subscriptions.

The canvass for funds to carry on the Y. M. C. A. this year is now being made by the board of directors, assisted by State Secretary L. A. Coulter. Up to last evening some $900 had been subscribed. The board of directors have determined that unless $1,600 in subscriptions can be secured the association will be closed in Asheville. All subscriptions must be in hand either before or at the mass meeting in the First Baptist church on Sunday evening next, when Rev. R. G. Pearson will preach. A report of the canvass this week will be made to this meeting, a subscription called for, and the plan for the future announced. It is thought the necessary funds can be easily raised if all will contribute even a small amount.

PROMINENT MAN HERE.

He Heard Asheville's Praises First From Geo. W. Vanderbilt.

A distinguished guest of the Battery Park is H. Beaugrand of Montreal, Can. Mr. Beaugrand is an ex-mayor of Montreal and the proprietor of La Patrie. He not long ago made a trip around the world. On the trip as far as Japan, during which he delivered a lecture on shipboard, he was a fellow voyager with Geo. W. Vanderbilt. From Mr. Vanderbilt he heard the praises of Asheville and its attractions. He determined then to come to Asheville and is now here to see and know more of the country of which the world has heard.

Swannanoa Country Club.

In response to the request of members of the Swannanoa Country club, Messrs. Browning & Rhoads, of the Kenilworth Inn, are going to serve the first hunt luncheon of the season on Saturday, January 20, between 12 and 1 o'clock. This is done entirely in the interest of the Country club and with a view of extending its social features, as may be seen from the fact that a royal good hunt luncheon is to be served at the announced price of only 50 cents, and is not confined to members of the club and their friends alone, but any others who may wish to enjoy it. The hunt meet is placed at 2 o'clock. Exact New York Cost—Bon Marche.

CARLISLE BOND PROPOSAL.

THE EQUIVALENT OF 3 PER CENTS AT PAR.

The Amount is $50,000,000 in Denominations of $50 and Upwards—Interest Payable Quarterly in "Coin."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Secretary Carlisle's bond circular says: "By virtue of the authority contained in the act, entitled an 'Act to provide for the redemption of specie payments,' approved January 14, 1875, the secretary of the treasury hereby offers, for public subscription, an issue of bonds of the United States to the amount of $50,000,000 in either registered or coupon form, in denominations of $50 and upwards, redeemable in coin at the pleasure of the government after ten years from the date of their issue, and bearing interest, payable quarterly in coin, at the rate of five per cent. per annum. Proposals for the whole or any part of these bonds will be received at the treasury department, office of the secretary until 12 o'clock noon, on the first day of February, 1894.

As soon as practicable after the first day of February, 1894, the allotment of bonds will be made to the highest bidders therefor, but no proposition will be considered at a lower price than the equivalent of three per cent. bonds at par, and the right to reject any and all proposals is hereby expressly reserved. In case the bids entitled to allotment exceed the bonds to be issued, they will be allotted pro rata."

"SCRUGGINS VS. CORNUICE."

The Mock Trial At The Y. M. C. A. This Evening.

All things are now ready and the mock trial, given by the literary society of the Asheville Y. M. C. A., will occur this evening, beginning at 7:45 p. m.

The title of the case is "Scruggins vs. Cornuice," in the Triangle Court of Common Sense, the plaintiff being Amanda Scruggins (J. L. Rich) and the defendant Silas Cornuice (Geo. W. Rapson). The judge presiding will be Hiram E. Hornblower (Prof. J. D. Eggleston) and Clerk Scribner Tarheel (J. S. Moody). Deputy Jailor (Mark Erwin) will maintain order in the court, among other duties. Col. Fellows (E. W. Gauder) and Hon. Chancey M. Depew (W. C. Montgomery) as counsel for the plaintiff, will disport in seas of oratory, while streams of eloquence will proceed out of the mouths of counsel for the defense. Col. Uriah Heep Sellars (Nat. S. Rogers) and Sir Charles Russell (Geo. L. Hackney).

The trial will be one of great interest and will doubtless draw a full house. The public generally, ladies as well as men, are invited to witness the trial.

WHO OWNS IT?

Valuable Property Gone Adrift As to Its Title.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Jan. 18.—The decision of the Supreme court at Tallahassee in the Pindaro grant case has created a sensation here. It wipes out the claim of the Pindaro heirs and assigns a million dollars worth of Pensacola property, embracing the entire water front from Bayou Texas to Bayou Chico, Pindaro, to whom the grant was made in 1817, in recognition of services, was a trusted officer of the Spanish government during its occupancy of Pensacola and he in a large measure surveyed and laid out the town.

Much of this grant has been encroached upon by artificial extensions and seizure under color of riparian rights, and it was this clash with the claims of the Pindaro heirs and assigns that carried this case into the courts. The question agitating the minds of the people here today is, if the Pindaro grant carries to good title, to whom does this valuable property revert—to the owners of riparian rights, the city, the State, the government or the squatters who may now claim precedent right to purchase? It is thought that those claiming titles under the Pindaro grant will appeal the case to the United States Supreme court.

A GRITTY SHERIFF.

He Will Try to Stop the Corbett-Mitchell Fight.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 18.—The Corbett-Mitchell fight will not take place in Duval county unless the courts restrain the sheriff. Sheriff Broward said today: "I have been ordered by the Governor to stop this fight and I propose to obey orders. I am satisfied that if the plan for a fight is persisted in there will be trouble."

Bowden of the Athletic club offers to bet $20,000 that the fight will come off at the appointed time and place. Today the Duval Athletic club and Corbett have joined in a statement that the fight will be "pulled off." It will take place under a circus tent in the woods. Two pugilists are matched to fight for $1,000 in Tampa, the governor's town.

A Hopeless Contest.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—It is reported that the Republicans will reconsider their decision and will contest the recent election of Mayor John P. Hopkins. The law allows but thirty days to file the formal contest and the time will expire on Friday.

Dr. Haywood Dead.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 18.—Dr. E. Burk Haywood of this city, a physician of prominence and a surgeon during the late war, died here this morning.
